TRUTH.

Our reason for truth telling are not altogether matters of conscience; the commercial considerations are very great. It pays us to do so. Ozone and optimism each exerts an influence over our business; the atmosphere of our store is surcharged with an invigorating, energizing quality of ozone, that inspires buoyancy and activity. The spirit of optimism pervades. Salespeople and customers alike feel its force and effect.

We think we have been on the right side of everything this year, advocating electric lights, town hall, the Wellsville fair, Firemen's parade, and prominent public improvements, generally; for whatever speaks well for Wellsville pleases us. We have no use for people who needlessly smirch the name of their home city. We aim to do just what is right, and back our judgment with the article that makes the wheel go round.

Neckwear.

Just the shapes and stuffs and colors you'd see in the toniest Paris and London shops, and with one tempting side you wouldn't see there—$1 and 75c kinds at 75c and 50c. Flowing-end tecks at 25c, made from 50c stuff.

Boys' Reefers Suits.

Are entirely different from anything shown the past season. The fabric is a fine soft blue Twill Cheviot, with wide sailor collar, collar having four rows of braid braided flatly, brass buttons with belt to button across the waist; in short pants for the little ones between the age of 4 and 12 years. It's quite a swell Fall costume for the little fellow. You'll like it.

Men's Clothing To Order.

Whatever artistic cutting, careful making and a choice of high grade stuffs at low grade prices can do for the man who would be well dressed we are doing now.

Suits from choice American and English stuffs at $22.50, $25, and $30. Trousers from fine worsteds $6.50, $8 and $10. Coat and Vest from imported Coatings, $15, $18.50, $22.50, $24 and $26.

"THE UTICA."

The only one price Clothing store in Wellsville.

NEAR-BY NEWS.

A Few Outside Happenings in Which Our Readers Will Be Interested.

Fredonia's village trustees have decided to buy a $1,000 stone crusher.

A Binghamton contractor will erect the new armory at Hornellsville for $28,000.

"If Biddy" Martin, whose trial took place at Corning last week, was not convicted and is again a free man.

Last Wednesday afternoon Edward Wagner, a well-to-do farmer living in Clydesse, was instantly killed by the cars at that place.

Teachers' Institute for the second commissioner district of Allegany county will be held at Belmont the week beginning October 29.

Enough grape wagons to make a procession a mile long filled Fredonia's thoroughfares one day recently, awaiting a chance to unload at the depot.

Chautauqua county Supervisors have just voted to expend $15,000 in repairing the jail at Mayville. This will end the contest for a removal of the jail.

It is reported that the Chautauqua Assembly management will build five miles of cement sidewalk before another summer. A new Hall of Philosophy is also promised for next year.

The new Lutheran church in process of erection in Jamestown is the largest church edifice in Western New York. It is built of Medina stone and will have a seating capacity of 2,200.

The Right Rev. A. C. Cox, Bishop of Western New York, confirmed a class of about forty persons at St. Paul's Episcopal church at Angelica last Sunday. Nearly one-half the members of the class were from Belfast.

The trustees of Angelica have granted a franchise to a company for constructing a system of water-works in that place, and Angelica will doubtless soon be in line with fire protection and the other advantages to be gained by such a system.

The annual conference of the M. E. church, which was held in Hornellsville during the past week, will go down in the history of that society as one of much sickness and death. Two members of the conference died while in attendance, and two others were so ill that their lives were for a time despaired of.

John Clark, an old resident of Clarksville, was found a few days ago lying in the creek a short distance from his house, dead. He went after his cows but being gone longer than usual his wife became alarmed about him and sent one of her neighbors to look for him. He was discovered with his head partially covered with water. It is thought to be a case of suicide.

Judge Norton is one of the incorporators of the Northern Allegany Telephone Company with a capital of $3,000. The line will be run through the villages of Hume, Fillmore, Caneadea, Rushford, Houghton, Belfast and Angelica, where it will connect with the main line of the Western New York and Pennsylvania Telegraph and Telephone Company. The new line is expected to be in running order the first of November.—Friendship Register.

On Saturday of this week the old land office of the Holland Purchase, situated at Batavia, will be dedicated as a memorial to Robert Morris, the great patriot and financier of the Revolution, and who was the first owner of lands in Western New York. Arrangements have been made for an appropriate celebration of the event, and many dignitaries of national note will be present and participate in the celebration. The address will be delivered by the Hon. John G. Carlisle, Secretary of the Treasury.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Arver of Dunkirk are mourning the loss of between $700 and $800 worth of diamonds and jewelry, which were stolen from their home while they were away on a visit. During their absence they left their home in charge of their servant, Miss Josephine Hudson, and she was arrested charged with being the thief. The jewelry was kept up-stairs in a garret, and no one except the family and the servant-girl was supposed to know where they were secreted. The case containing the jewels had been placed by Mrs. Ar-ver in the sleeve of a coat in the garret on the third floor. Before Judge Edwards the girl gave bail in the sum of $2,000.

The village of Findley's Lake, Chautauqua county, has a genuine sensation. D. Clark Hager, son of the Rev. Levi L. Hager, disappeared as strangely as if the face of the earth opened and swallowed him. This was on Sunday, Sept. 23d, and since that day, when Hager finished his dinner and started for an afternoon walk, no one has seen him or even got an inkling of his existence. His sudden disappearance has greatly alarmed his friends. The lake there has been thoroughly dragged, but owing to the great quantity of weeds in the bottom it is very difficult to make a thorough search. In fact, no place where he could have been imagined to have gone has been omitted in the search.

Terrible Death of an Aeronaut.

Miss Beatrice von Dressen, aged 18, who made a balloon ascension at the fair grounds in Franklinville Saturday, fell from the trapeze bar when about 1,000 feet in the air and in plain sight of the large crowd. She shot down like a dart, striking on her head and shoulders, and was dashed to pieces.

When she struck she made a hole in the earth about a foot deep and about half the length of her body.

When the balloon rose the aeronaut was hanging by one hand and apparently trying to gain a hold with the other. Before the ascension her parents tried to persuade her not to go, but she said she would not disappoint the crowd and prayed that this trip might be successful, as she intended it to be her last. The body was taken to the home of relatives at Cadiz.
