THE ANDOVER NEWS.

The News office is located in the Prest block on Main street. Entrance through the hallway, first door north of Lever's harness store.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Holivar, April 29, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 2, 1892:
RULE 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.
RULE 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.
RULE 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

A Few of Andover's Advantages.

Five churches.
A Union School and Academy that is not excelled by any school of its class as an institution of learning.

A newspaper that prints the news and does what it can to advertise the town and its advantages, and also believes in doing whatever will increase those advantages.

An incorporated village, whose affairs are conducted on business principles, giving the inhabitants the best administration of village affairs and a low rate of taxation.

Handsome residences, pleasant, shaded streets, good sidewalks, all contributing to make this one of the most desirable places of residence that can be found.

An abundant supply of natural gas for fuel and lights, the convenience of which cannot be overestimated.

A perfect system of water works, insuring adequate protection from fire and an unlimited quantity of the purest of spring water for domestic use.

Shiloh's Cure is sold on a guarantee. It cures incipient consumption. It is the best Cough Cure. Only one cent a dose. 25c, 50c, and $1.

Miles Herrick was in Wellsville Monday.

Mrs. S. J. Fowler and Mrs. E. Smith were in Wellsville Thursday.

R. M. Barrett came home from Elmer, Pa., on Monday, for a brief stay.

Miss Alice Barnard returned Thursday from a visit with relatives in Elmira.

Mrs. J. L. Cunningham visited in Whitesville Thursday, returning home Friday.

Capt. J. A. Travis came home from Washington to help swell the Morton majority.

The new gas line was finished Monday and gas was turned into it the same day.

Mrs. S. Burdick and Olin Fulmer of Alfred visited the family of O. E. Vars Monday.

Albert Jenks and wife of Hornellsville spent Sunday with the family of F. R. Hinecher.

W. W. Van Noy and family visited friends in Black Creek and Rushford during the past week.

E. L. Lewis of Belmont will open a dancing school at Prest's opera house next Tuesday evening.

W. A. Barney left yesterday for New Mexico, where he has secured a position with a railroad company.

The ladies of the M. E. church will serve a Thanksgiving dinner at the church this year. Make arrangements to be there.

F. C. White, County Chief Templar of the I. O. G. T., and S. A. Wallace, State Deputy of the same organization, delivered temperance addresses in the M. E. church last Wednesday evening. The audience was not large, but the addresses were pronounced excellent.

Erastus Baker was taken with a fainting fit in the postoffice Monday morning. The fit came on suddenly and Mr. Baker fell to the floor. Medical aid was summoned and he was able in a short time to go home. He continued to improve and it is thought no serious results will follow.

Tuesday night as soon as it became evident that Morton had won, enthusiastic Republicans began to celebrate. They made two bonfires, bought all the firecrackers in town, fired cannon, and did everything else appropriate to the occasion. The enthusiasm was great, and Democrats couldn't sleep worth a cent.

The members of the M. E. church choir met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Robinson for a surprise last Friday evening. After spending the evening very pleasantly refreshments were served, and all returned to their homes feeling that Mr. and Mrs. Robinson are royal entertainers, even on short notice.

Election returns were received Tuesday evening at Prests' opera house over the Western Union and Postal wires. L. R. Geisenheiner and M. F. Livermore had charge of the Western Union, and Floyd Hammond and W. A. Barney took the bulletins from the Postal wires. The service was excellent, and everybody had a chance to know how election went.

J. H. Belmont of New York, who has been in this vicinity some weeks, tuning pianos and repairing musical instruments, etc., is an expert musician. He can make the finest kind of music on the banjo, accordion, or almost any other instrument. Mr. Belmont was at the opera house Tuesday evening and entertained the audience in great style. His equal would be hard to find.

The C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. M. C. Williamson Nov. 12. The program is as follows: roll call, with quotations from Milton; two facts from each article in the week's reading in the Chautauquan; usual questions and answers in Chautauquan, also questions on Woman's World. Reading from Oliver Wendell Holmes by Miss Spaulding. Table talk—Politics and the American Protective Association.

Mr. E. D. Clark opened "The Belmont" last evening for a reception to the teachers who are attending the Institute and many of the town people were invited. The dining room was cleared for dancing and the program which consisted of a recitation by Miss Gussie Black and a solo by Mr. Cannon of Andover. There was a large crowd and all seemed to thoroughly enjoy themselves.—Belmont Dispatch.
