THE ANDOVER NEWS.

The News office is located in the Prest block on Main-street. Entrance through the hallway, first door north of Lever's harness store.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishing Association held at Bolivar, April 23, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892: Rule 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of an ornamental character, which require to be printed.
Rule 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.
Rule 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 1 cent per line.

A Few of Andover's Advantages.

Five churches.
A Union School and Academy that is not excelled by any school of its class as an institution of learning.
A newspaper that prints the news and does what it can to advertise the town and its advantages, and also believes in doing whatever will increase those advantages.
An incorporated village, whose affairs are conducted on business principles, giving the inhabitants the best administration of village affairs and a low rate of taxation.
Handsome residences, pleasant, shaded streets, good sidewalks, all contributing to make this one of the most desirable places of residence that can be found.
An abundant supply of natural gas for light and heat, the convenience of which cannot be overestimated.
A perfect system of water works, insuring adequate protection from fire and an unlimited quantity of the purest of spring water for domestic use.

Shiloh's Cure is sold on a guarantee.
It cures incipient consumption. It is the best Cough Cure. Only one cent a dose. 25c, 50c, and $1.

Get ready for the Euterpe Club's concert.
W. J. Lanphear of Hornellsville was in town on business last week.
Mrs. E. Smith Miss Inez Lever spent last Saturday with friends in Hornell-sville.

Mr. D. M. Davis and wife of Bennett, Pa., are visiting his sister, Mrs. Walter Lanphear.

Mrs. J. W. Richardson and daughters Mary and Celia are visiting friends in Belmont this week.

Supervisor Boyd is in Belmont this week, attending the session of the Board of Supervisors.

Snyder & Clark moved into their new office in Prest's Main street brick block, the first of this week.

The Mutual Gas Company is preparing to drill a well on the farm of Wm.
Hunt, near this village.

Reserved seat tickets for the Euterpe Club's entertainment are on sale at L.
A. Burrows' drug store.

Miss Nora O'Brien of Limestone is visiting John Trainer's family and other friends in this place.

A. C. Frisbey and B. A. Clair have formed a partnership and will buy and ship all kinds of farm produce.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence O'Donnell are the parents of a girl baby, who put in an appearance yesterday morning.

There will be a C. E. social held at the house of Mrs. P. Phillips, next Tuesday evening, Nov. 20th, 1894. Come, everybody.

Mrs. Russell Langworthy of Lanphear Valley returned on Saturday from a visit to Mrs. W. W. Crandall at Wellsville.

It is expected that the suit of J. W.
Wood against the city of Hornellsville, for injuries sustained by falling on a defective side walk, will be tried this week at Corning.

The inspector of the Womens' Relief Corps will be here next Monday afternoon. A full attendance is requested at the meeting this week Saturday evening.

Hi Biddy Martin is now on the road giving entertainments consisting of ventriloquism, legerdemain, banjo solos, songs, etc. He will appear at Swan's hall in Greenwood tomorrow (Thursday) evening.

Augustus Simons, for the past three years agent for the Prudential Insurance Company at Dunkirk, is missing.
It is said that there is a shortage in his accounts, but to what extent is not known. Simons has been spending money freely for some time. His home is in Hornellsville.

The Sappho Club of Wellsville, the Hornellsville orchestra, Miss Cottrell, elocutionist, of Alfred, and Miss Barney, elocutionist, of West Union, will assist the Euterpe Club at the entertainment to be given at Prest's opera house, next Wednesday evening, Nov.
21. Don't fail to be there.

There is war again on the liquor dealers of Andover. Several actions have been commenced before Justice H. P. Bundy, and one case was tried last week, resulting in a conviction and fine of $50. This case was against F.
Daily. Yesterday Stillman Burdick plead guilty and was fined the same amount.

The C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs.
M. C. Williamson Nov. 19. The program is as follows: roll call, with quotations from Dryden; two facts from each article in Chautauquan; usual questions and answers in Chautauquan, also questions on Art. Sketch of Maximilian by Miss Barney. Table talk—what Unitarians believe.

As Michael Clark, of Burns, was returning home from this village Tuesday evening, his vehicle was struck at the Deiter crossing by an Erie fast freight, and Mr. Clark and his horse were instantly killed. He was accompanied by Jud Smith, who fortunately had fallen from the buggy before reaching the track. It is said both men were intoxicated. Mr. Clark was 54 years of age and leaves a wife and eleven children.
—Catsara Times.

Jesse Kemp, whose eyes were seriously injured by the premature explosion of dynamite, with which he was blasting out stumps at his home in Eleven Mile, Pa., an account of which was published in the News at the time, has been in Andover ever since the accident, under treatment by Dr. Comstock. One eye was totally destroyed, but the other will be saved. Mr. Kemp left this morning for his home, and he and all his friends are loud in their praise of the skill of Dr. Comstock, who has achieved remarkable results in this case, as it was feared at first that the patient would lose both eyes. The News is glad indeed to be able to state that there is now every prospect that Mr. Kemp will have one good eye.

Another swindler has sprung up in the shape of a plow agent, who claims to be traveling for a Michigan company. He is selling plows to farmers at double prices and taking notes for the same, one-half the amount to be boarded out at the rate of $1 per day.
If the farmer pays within 10 days he is to have 8 per cent. discount. The agent also offers to credit on the note $1.50 for each customer the farmer may introduce. When he gets the note the "agent" disappears and the note turns up in the hands of third parties who demand settlement.
