A meeting of the Andover County Publishers Association, held at Bellows Falls, April 23, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892:
 Rule 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.
 Rule 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.
 Rule 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 4 cents per line.

Five churches.
 A Union School and Academy that is not excelled by any school of its class as an institution of learning.
 A newspaper that prints the news and does what it can to advertise the town and its advantages; and also believes in doing whatever will increase those advantages.
 An incorporated village, whose affairs are conducted on business principles, giving the inhabitants the best administration of village affairs and a low rate of taxation.
 Handsome residences, pleasant, shaded streets, good sidewalks, all contributing to make this one of the most desirable places of residence that can be found.
 An abundant supply of natural gas for fuel and lights, the convenience of which cannot be overestimated.
 A perfect system of water works, insuring adequate protection from fire and an unlimited quantity of the purest of spring water for domestic use.

J. C. Cunningham of Hornellsville is in town for a few days.

Dan'l Walker spent Saturday and Sunday in Friendship.

Clark Richardson was in Belmont from Friday until Monday.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held this year at the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. L. F. Rogers will leave tomorrow morning for an extended visit with relatives and friends in Deposit.

There's a hen on, so to speak, in connection with manufacturing interests in this place. If the egg is laid we'll cackle.

An account of the death of Wm. Austin of Independence, father of Mrs. Jesse Snyder of this place, will be found in the Independence letter.

Russell W. Burdick, a half-brother of Mrs. Sarah A. Lee of this village, died of consumption at his home in the village of Almond last Monday, aged 73 years.

Don't forget the Thanksgiving Dinner at the M. E. Church Thanksgiving Day. Be sure to go, and save yourselves the trouble of making preparations at home, and at the same time have a most enjoyable social time.

Potato shipping has been lively in this place for the past couple of weeks. The scene around the depot yard has been a busy one nearly every day, and the farmers have received what benefit there is in sharp competition among the buyers.

The Columbian Society of the Union School is in a very flourishing condition. The average attendance is about twenty-five. There was an impromptu discussion at the session last Monday evening and a law-suit the week preceding. A mock U. S. Senate will be held at the next session, the Senators having been already elected.

W. B. Clark has sold his two vacant lots on the corner of Greenwood street and East Avenue to R. A. Pease and H. C. Norris. Mr. Pease has already begun the work of digging a cellar on his lot, and will draw stone to the place this fall, so as to be all ready for building a house as soon as the weather will permit in the spring.

S. T. Jennings and Leon Tinker, of Wayland, who passed through Andover, on foot, a number of weeks ago, bound for Georgia, where they were to eat a Christmas dinner or lose a bet, have written a letter to an Andover citizen, in which they state that they are still in it, and are walking about 25 miles a day. They play musical instruments and take up collections to pay expenses, and state that they have many amusing and some serious adventures.

Last Sunday night, the store occupied by Melvin Green at Alfred Station was burglariously entered and a quantity of tobacco and cigars taken. The post office is also in the building, and a registered letter for Stillman & Shannon, containing about $39 was taken, also three hams from the meat market in the rear of the building. H. W. Green's store was also entered and two pairs of pants and a quantity of cigars stolen. The Erie depot was also broken open, but little of value was stolen there.

Some of the accounts concerning Andover's dynamite experience, which have appeared in outside papers, are enough to make one's blood run cold. The New York Press of Monday contained an article under "scare" headlines, which described this place as being under martial law, and the people terrorized. It describes Mr. Cochrane's store house as a total wreck, says that citizens volunteered to patrol the streets at night, and contains much more information of an interesting character.

The case of J. W. Wood, of Arkport, against the city of Hornellsville, was tried last week in Corning, and resulted in a verdict of $4,000 for the plaintiff. Mr. Wood fell on a defective sidewalk in Hornellsville and sustained injuries which render him practically helpless, he being unable to walk. He is the son of N. P. Wood of this place, and has many friends here who are glad to know he will be indemnified for the injuries he received. We understand the case will be appealed, but it is doubtful if the result will be changed.

Geo. E. B. Haines was arrested on Monday night on a charge of attempting to burglarize the house of Mrs. Ellen Lynch in this village, on the morning of Sept. 10th. The examination was commenced before M. H. Harman, Esq., on Tuesday afternoon and concluded today. Haines was held to appear before the Grand Jury.

H. P. Benton has built a new walk in front of his premises on Main street occupied by Fowler & Remington and G. B. Proper. The new walk is laid at a lower grade than the old one, and moves the "step off" a little farther up the street. The other walks on that side of the street are being lowered to practically the same grade as Mr. Benton's new walk.

Now, while the leaves are off the trees, is a good time to have your surveying done. For a careful and correct survey call on S. M. Proper, Andover, N. Y.
