THE ANDOVER NEWS.

The News office is located in the Prest block on Main street. Entrance through the hallway, first door north of Lever's harness store.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Bolivar, April 29, 1892, the following resolutions were adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892:

Rule 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of an entertainment from which revenue is to be derived.

Rule 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.

Rule 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

A Few of Andover's Advantages.

Five churches. A Union School and Academy that is not excelled by any school of its class as an institution of learning. A newspaper that prints the news and does what it can to advertise the town and its advantages, and also believes in doing whatever will increase those advantages. An incorporated village, whose affairs are conducted on business principles, giving the inhabitants the best administration of village affairs and a low rate of taxation. Handsome residences, pleasant, shaded streets, good sidewalks, all contributing to make this one of the most desirable places of residence that can be found. An abundant supply of natural gas for fuel and lights, the convenience of which cannot be overestimated. A perfect system of water works, insuring adequate protection from fire and an unlimited quantity of the purest of spring water for domestic use. Sibbald's Cure is sold on a guarantee. It cures incipient consumption. It is the best Cough Cure. Only one-cent bottles, 25c, 50c, and $1. Buy your Christmas presents at the fair, Dec. 12th.

Mrs. J. C. Ross was in Hornellsville Monday.

A. J. Howard of Friendship was in town Monday.

A. B. Richardson and wife visited in Wellsville Sunday.

A. W. Coon of Alfred was in town the latter part of last week.

Union thanksgiving services will be held tomorrow at the Presbyterian church.

The Political Equality Club will meet with Mrs. W. R. Orvis next Tuesday evening.

Don't forget to go to the M. E. church parlors tomorrow and get your Thanks giving dinner.

C. J. Greene of Hinsdale visited his brother, J. C. Greene, several days during the past week.

T. E. Bassett and family of Independence have gone to Oswego, where they will spend the winter.

The brick work on the new bank building is finished, and carpenters are busy on the inside work.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Hincer of Rochester have for the past two weeks visited friends in this place, Wellsville and Elm Valley.

Miss Julia Lynch closed a successful term of school in the Lanphear Valley district yesterday. She will begin a new term next Monday.

C. B. Blowers, who moved from this place to Troupsburg a few months ago, has removed to Andover, and will reside on his place near this village.

George Haines was released from jail last Saturday, by Judge Norton, who decided that the evidence against him in one important particular was lacking.

Ernest French and wife, lately of Madero, Cal., have removed to this place, and Mr. French has entered into partnership with E. O. Wescott, his father-in-law, in the livery business.

A new trotting track has been laid out in Scio, and the owners of fast horse flesh in that town will have a place to exercise their favorites and decide upon the merits of their respective animals.

It was reported yesterday that D. Daily had been liberated from jail, several persons claiming to have seen him. It was evidently a case of mistaken identity, as Mr. Daily is still in the custody of Sheriff Sherman.

The statement made in a Buffalo paper that Mark Houghtling was hiding under a bed when the officers went to arrest him is not true. Houghtling was at the house of a relative in Alfred, and made no resistance to the officers.

Ella Frances Wilcox, daughter of H. H. and Delia Wilcox, formerly of Tip Top, but now of Cohocton, has been very sick with the grip. Mrs. Mary A. Best was called to Cohocton on account of the sickness of her grand-daughter.

The Euterpe Club of this place and Sappho Quartette of Wellsville will give a concert at Alfred next Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the Crandall Hook and Ladder Company of that place. The people of Alfred have a rich treat in prospect.

We regret to announce that Mr. J. F. Brooks, who recently moved to this place from Hornellsville, will return to the latter place. He holds a responsible position with the Singer Sewing Machine Company, and an increase of territory and responsibility demands his constant presence in Hornellsville.

The Young Peoples Society of Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian Church will hold a public service in the church on Tuesday evening, Dec. 6. The meeting will be opened with an address of welcome by the President, Jesse S. Phillips, and then the speakers of the evening will be introduced. Rev. E. M. Deems of Hornellsville, and Rev. E. R. Evans of Canaseraga, who, with singing, etc., will occupy the remaining portion of the time. The public, and especially the members of the Young Peoples Societies of the other churches are not only cordially invited, but urged to be present.

Ralph Withey, a man 73 years of age, was struck by Erie train 83 about one and one-half miles west of Alfred, last Friday, and received injuries from which he died the same day. It is supposed he was walking on the track and did not notice the approaching train. The wheels did not run over his body, but the force with which he was struck produced internal injuries, and he did not fully regain consciousness before death. Deceased was a homeless man. He was buried on Sunday from the residence of his nephew, R. B. Withey, who lives about one mile south of the scene of the accident.

Andover has been full of law suits lately. The latest case is that of H. M. Luther, who was before Justice Kinney on a charge of non-support of his family. Crayton L. Earley and Van Fleet and Phillips are the attorneys. Much testimony has been taken and the case was summed up this morning by J. S. Phillips for the defense and C. L. Earley for the prosecution. The defendant was discharged.
