

W. C. T. U.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Andover meets the first and third Thursday in each month.

Thanksgiving! Thanksgiving! November is here.

The beautiful crown of the wonderful year! Like doves to the windows from east and from west,

The children come back to the cozy old nest.

Thanksgiving! Thanksgiving! the old folks at home

Are so glad by the fireside to see them all come

Though the forties and fifties are silvering their hair,

They are boys yet and girls to the good people there.

Thanksgiving! Thanksgiving! sit down by the fire,

Talk over old times with the happy old sire; Tell the mother whose hair is like new-fallen snow,

That you love her no less than in days long ago.

See the wrinkles turn smiles as she holds on her breast

The blessed new babies that comes with the rest;

How she seems to grow young when a two-year-old chap

Climbs and cuddles to sleep in her motherly lap.

Oh, the home—the old home! The new may be sweet,

But not like the old to the world-weary feet:

Be it long ere the hearth-light shall fade from its walls

And the cheerful old love-light go out in its halls.

At 9:30 o'clock on the morning of November 16th, with seven raps of the gavel, "the golden number of gratitude, love and hope," the twenty-first annual Convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was called to order by the president.

Commenting on the procession of women wending their way to the Music Hall in Cleveland last Thursday morning, Miss Willard aptly remarked, it was a part of the funeral procession of the liquor traffic that will never cease to move.

The Rev. Joseph Cook, from the Convention platform, congratulated the W. C. T. U. on its twenty-first birthday "because it is indisputably triumphant over prejudice and passion, time and numbers and the powers of the pit," and gave it as a watchword for the twentieth century, "The liquor traffic must be ended because it cannot be mended."

The Golden Secret of Long Life. Keep the head cool, the feet warm and the bowels open. Beware of Frauds! I warn all of my customers and others from peddlers, who go around the country from house to house claiming to be opticians, and claiming to be relation of mine, or claiming to be fitting or selling glasses for me. They are frauds. I have no agents or peddlers or others claiming to be a cousin or brother-in-law of mine in the optician-business.

Most Resp. Yours, J. L. LIBERMAN, Regular visiting optician, Penn Yan, N. Y.

Catching Rain Water

is a familiar practice in sections where the regular water supply is too hard for use. Its softness and purity make it very desirable on wash day. The same results can be derived by using OAK-LEAF SOAP makes the hardest water soft, whitens the clothes white without injuring them, and reduces the labor of washing one-half. Ask the grocer for it.
