THE ANDOVER NEWS.

The News office is located in the Prest block on Main street. Entrance through the hallway, first door north of Lever's harness store.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishing Association, held at Bolivar, April 23, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892:

ARTICLE 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.

ARTICLE 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.

ARTICLE 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

A Few of Andover's Advantages.

Five churches.

A Union School and Academy that is not excelled by any school of its class as an institution of learning.

A newspaper that prints the news and does what it can to advertise the town and its advantages, and also believes in doing whatever will increase those advantages.

An incorporated village, whose affairs are conducted on business principles, giving the inhabitants the best administration of village affairs and a low rate of taxation.

Handsome residences, pleasant, shaded streets, good sidewalks, all contributing to make this one of the most desirable places of residence that can be found.

An abundant supply of natural gas for heat and lights, the convenience of which cannot be overestimated.

A perfect system of water works, insuring adequate protection from fire and an unlimited quantity of the purest of spring water for domestic use.

Shob's Cure is sold on a guarantee. It cures incontinent consumption. It is the best Cough Cure. Only one cent a dose. 25c, 50c, and $1.

Band entertainment Saturday evening.

J. W. C. Cannon was in Wellsville Friday.

W. Lanphear and wife were in Wellsville Friday.

J. M. Brundage and Miss Belle Brundage were in Castile Friday.

Miss Roxie Bundy spent Thanksgiving at her home in this place.

Eli D. Baker has reopened his barber shop, over Trainer's restaurant on Main street.

Miss Jennie Fosbury began a new term of school in Hartsville Monday morning.

The water bills for the coming six months have been sent out and all water bills are now due.

Mrs. M. H. Hann has built a new house on Chestnut street in this village, and the same is nearly completed.

Miss Ellen Young visited Misses Clara and Carrie Nobles of Wellsville last week, returning home Sunday.

Skating has been good on the pond for several days past, and many of the young folks have taken advantage of it.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Herrick and son Miles spent Thanksgiving with friends in Addison. Mrs. Herrick has not yet returned.

"The Death Letter" at Prest's opera house Saturday evening of this week, for the benefit of the Excelsior Cornet Band of this place.

Last Saturday evening the drama "Dynamite Bombs" was produced at Bolivar. That play would doubtless draw a big crowd in Andover.

Mr. Frank Brundage of Canisteo has removed to this place, and will assist in caring for B. C. Brundage, who has been gradually failing for some time, and who is now confined to his bed all of the time.

Don't fail to attend the public meeting of the Society of Christian Endeavor at the Presbyterian church tomorrow (Thursday) evening. Rev. E. M. Deems of Hornellsville and Rev. E. R. Evans of Canaseraga will deliver addresses.

Mrs. Levi Barrett of Olean, Mrs. Alvin Richardson of Friendship, Alex. Olzendam and wife of Manchester, N. H., W. J. Richardson, wife and son Fred of Belmont spent Thanksgiving with the family of J. W. Richardson.

Mrs. S. K. Hale left on Monday for California, where she expects to spend the winter. She was accompanied by Miss Petite Dolson of Hornellsville. They will probably spend the greater portion of the winter in Los Angeles.

Frank Burrows spent several days in New York city during the past week, the guest of Doctors Barney and Probasco. He witnessed the Yale-Harvard foot ball game Thanksgiving Day, and reports a most enjoyable trip.

Dr. Brainard is erecting a large building west of the railroad station in this place, on the railroad company's land, which will be used for the manufacture of vinegar. The doctor expects to conduct this business on a large scale.

The ladies of the M. E. church will serve a Japanese Tea at Mrs. Metzger's, Tuesday evening, Dec. 11, at six o'clock. Mrs. E. H. Lattimer of Olean will be present and deliver a short address. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Several persons from this place witnessed the game last Thursday between the Wellsville and Corning foot ball teams, at the latter place. Wellsville was beaten in the game, and from all accounts its team was beaten out of its share of the receipts.

There will be an old fashioned watch meeting at the M. E. church on New Year's eve. The pastor will be assisted by other brethren of the District, and it is expected that the Presiding Elder will be present. Revival services will follow this meeting, for which efficient help will be secured. Full announcements will appear later.

The store of Jas. Farwell & Son at Phillips Creek was burglarized recently and about one hundred dollars worth of goods were taken. Leroy Crandall of Alfred was arrested charged with the crime, and after Deputy Sheriff Hodnett had him under arrest, Green Cornelius also of Alfred was arrested on the confession of the boy.

Will Browning of Wellsville had a narrow escape from death last Saturday. He was hunting and in some unaccountable way his gun was discharged, and he received the charge in the left side of his head. The wadding of the gun was afterward taken out of his eye, which, strange to say, did not seem to be seriously injured. Thirty stitches were taken in his scalp.

"The audience were delighted from beginning to end, and were sorry when the last piece was announced."—Morning Sun, Norwich, N. J.

The Euterpe Club of this place and the Sappho Quartette of Wellsville gave a most enjoyable entertainment at Alfred last evening, under the auspices of the Crandall Hook and Ladder Company. The attendance was fair, and the concert was pleasing to all present. After its close, a reception was given at the home of Hon. A. B. Cottrell, at which about eighty guests were present. The affair was an exceedingly enjoyable one, if we may judge from reports given by the Euterpe Club.

Hear the choir sing to the phonograph and then hear the phonograph sing the same to you, at the Baptist church next Monday evening.

Bring in your photographs for engraving. New process. Will send a lot next week. Almost life size for $3.00.
