THE ANDOVER NEWS.

Miss Flora Culver of Howard visited the family of H. F. Benton last week. The Political Equality Club will meet with Mrs. Wm. Orvis next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Marcia Osborn of Wellsville visited Mrs. C. M. Wood Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shaw visited J. L. Williams' home on Monday.

W. E. Green has moved into John Prest's new house on Elm street, lately vacated by J. P. Broeze.

Miss Charity L. Burdick of Alfred Station visited relatives in this village and Lanphear Valley last week.

John Trainer yesterday plead guilty to violating the excise law, before Justice H. P. Bundy, who fined him fifty dollars for the offense.

The public telephone office is now located in L. A. Burrows' drug store. You can step in there and talk with almost any point in the United States.

At the M. E. church next Sunday morning the pastor will preach on "Some things that we know." A revival service will be held in the evening. Let all bring the Finest of the Wheat.

The Belmont Post will be removed to Cuba and will hereafter be under the management of J. F. Coad, for several years connected with the Cuba Patriot. Mr. Coad deserves success and we hope he will have it.

At this time of year the people are more interested in Holiday matters than in anything else, and the News this week is well filled with "pointers" concerning the purchase of holiday presents. Look the advertisements over carefully, and you will find where to purchase goods to the best advantage.

This week the News will move into new quarters. We will be located in Prest's new block on Main street, up stairs, a few doors north of the present location. We will have very pleasant rooms in the new location, and expect, in a few days, to be ready to receive our friends, all of whom we invite to call.

The phonograph entertainment at the Baptist church Monday evening, under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E., was very enjoyable, and the audience was permitted to listen to music by some of the best organizations in the country. The instrument gives accurate reproductions of all that is spoken or sung before it.

The Excelsior Band Dramatic Club will give their play, "The Death Letter," at the public hall in Whitesville, Saturday evening, Dec. 15. The play will be followed by the farce "Two Heads are Better Than One." The people of Whitesville will witness a good performance, and it is hoped the hall will be crowded.

The Illustrated Buffalo Express announces three Holiday Numbers for December 16, 23 and 30, respectively. The people have learned that The Illustrated Express never does a thing by halves, and it is unnecessary to assure our readers that when The Express undertakes in this line is sure to be the finest of its kind.

Presbyterian Fair tonight. Supper from 5 to 7:30 o'clock, price 20 cents. At 8 o'clock a program will be rendered consisting of selections by the elocutionist, Mr. G. S. Wetmore, the Euterpe Club, and other local talent. A good variety of articles will be offered for sale, and it is hoped the attendance will be large.

Our readers will not need to be told that the News this week is composed principally of advertisements. We think, however, this matter will be of more interest at this time than anything else we could print. The printing office is partly torn up, preparatory to moving, and when we get settled in our new quarters we will do our best to make up for the shortcomings of the present.

Mrs. J. B. McDannell of Jamestown was in Andover yesterday, for the purpose of organizing a Hive of Ladies of the Maccabees. A meeting was held in Masonic hall to take preliminary steps toward organization. Mrs. McDannell will be here again on Wednesday, Dec. 15th, to perfect the organization. It is hoped that every lady who will join the Hive will be present at this meeting.

Rev. E. H. Lattimer, Presiding Elder of Olean, has positively promised to be present at the watch meeting at the M. E. church and will stay most of the week following to assist in revival work. Rev. T. E. Bell of Buffalo is also expected to assist the pastor in revival meetings at the M. E. Church. Mr. Bell is the evangelist who assisted the pastor last winter during the great revival at Park Church, Hornellsville, also at Wellsville.

J. L. Williams has purchased the interests of N. L. Beebe and George H. Beebe in the business heretofore conducted by Beebe, Williams & Co., and after January 1st Mr. Williams will be sole proprietor. The people of this place have always found this store a satisfactory place to deal, and under Mr. Williams' sole management they will continue so to find it. We predict for the new proprietor the same degree of success that has been won by the old firm, and wish him abundant prosperity.

One of the most delightful gatherings held in Andover in a long time was held last evening at the home of D. M. Metzger, in this village. The occasion was a Japanese Tea, given by the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church. Nearly sixty persons were present. Mr. and Mrs. Metzger entertained royally. Mrs. Enos greatly pleased the company with instrumental and vocal music, and Miss E. H. Lattimer of Olean gave a most inspiring talk on the work of the Society in foreign lands. Those who failed to be present missed a rare treat.

The drama "The Death Letter," which was produced last Saturday evening at Prest's opera house, by home talent, was a very enjoyable entertainment. The play is lively and is so full of exciting scenes that the interest is constantly kept at the highest pitch. The members of the company have reason to congratulate themselves in bringing out the play in so admirable a manner. The after-piece "Two Heads are Better Than One," is much better than the average of this class of pieces, and kept the audience in a roar from beginning to end. The music by Cannon's orchestra was, as usual, a very enjoyable feature, and as a whole the entertainment could not be otherwise than satisfactory to the audience.

Large stock of confectionery, cranberries, oranges, bananas, nuts and oysters for the holiday trade. Also fresh dates and figs in pound packages. Terms cash and one price. Please call early and often, and oblige.
