Out They Go!

Very many have availed themselves of this rare opportunity to secure a stylish, up-to-date garment. We still have a fine assortment to select from, in both Capes and Jackets. There are yet three long months of cold weather before us, and it's unwise for you to think of making the old garment go through when it can be replaced at so low a figure.

Cloaks sent on approval to responsible parties.

The stores will close at 8 o'clock each evening except Saturday, from now until April 1st.

A New Year's sermon on the subject "Going Away" will be preached next Sunday morning by the pastor of the A. E. church.

The editors of the Fair Journal got at a lively paper and made a number of good hits. At last accounts they (the editors) were still alive.

We have received a handsome calendar from the Children's Home at Randolph, N. Y. The calendars are works of art and one dollar each is charged for them, which goes to the support of the home. Copies may be obtained by enclosing the price and addressing Chas. J. Merrill, Secretary.

M. H. Harman has returned from the Hornellsville sanitarium. He is much improved physically, but his hearing has not been benefited. He went to New York last week to consult specialists in regard to the latter trouble, and is now using an ear trumpet, which, it is hoped, will give him much assistance after he becomes accustomed to it. He is also taking treatment for his hearing, which has been defective for some time.

The week of prayer, which will begin on Sunday, will be observed by union meetings in the several churches as follows: In the Baptist church Sunday evening; Presbyterian Sunday evening; Methodist Wednesday evening; Seventh Day Baptist Friday evening. On Sunday evening next there will be a sermon for the occasion by Rev. W. Brewster, and the service will close at seven o'clock. On the other evenings the meetings will begin at the past seven.

Charles McGee of Salamanca was in town Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Green of Alfred spent Christmas with Andover friends.

Anthony Garvin of Lapel, Ind., is visiting relatives and friends in this place.

Dustan Adams of Cuba has been visiting his uncle, H. F. Wilcox, for several days past.

Mrs. Charles McGee of First View, Col., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Krusen.

Miss Mattie E. Langworthy, of the Erie County Hospital, Buffalo, came home on a vacation on Tuesday.

M. Patten of Cleveland, O., is in Andover on a visit to relatives and friends. He intends to remain several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Whitford and Mrs. Lucy Lewis, of Alfred, visited at the home of N. M. Lanphear on Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Williams attended Denman Thompson's play, "The Old Homestead," at Hornellsville Saturday evening.

The ladies of the Methodist church will have a chicken pie and an experience social at the church parlors January 15th.

Nearly or quite all of the Andover young ladies and gentlemen who attend schools and colleges elsewhere were at home for the holidays.

M. F. Livermore intends to equip his laundry with some of the best machinery used in the business. He has already purchased an engine.

Mr. Wirt Wetmore and Misses Emma and Daisy Wetmore, of Springwater, N. Y., have been visiting friends in town for several days past.

Daniel Cartwright was taken to Willard asylum last Thursday. For some time past he has shown unmistakable signs of insanity, and this course was considered a necessity.

Mrs. W. J. Deming is very low with consumption, and it is not expected she will live more than a few days. Mrs. Deming has been ill some time, and lately she has failed rapidly.

Mrs. Wm. R. Orvis slipped and fell on the walk near her home last Sunday evening, striking her back and head. She was seriously injured, and has since been in a precarious condition.

Wisner Cook a few days ago tapped 75 maple trees and made a quantity of sugar, some of which is on exhibition at Williams' store. December maple sugar is a rarity and we don't know whether to call it the first make of the season or the last.

Prof. A. D. Howe, wife and two sons and Dallas Howe, of Whiteville; Mrs. J. C. Hazlett, and her sons Cloyd and Jay and daughter Sylvia Jane, of Huntingdon, Pa.; Mrs. E. McCarn, Frank McCarn and wife, of Genesee, Pa., have been visiting H. Mourhess and family for a few days past.

The well drilled on the M. G. Lewis farm by Woods, Lester & Braihard was recently torpedoed and turns out to be a fairly good oil well. A great many new leases are being taken in this field at the present time, and there is a prospect that a number of wells will be drilled soon, some of them on territory not heretofore tested.

A young man in this town who has a "best girl," received a Christmas present from somebody who evidently does not bear that relation to him. In the package with the present was a card containing the inscription "There are others." There may be others, but we don't think the young man is as yet convinced of that fact.

Daniel Walker has returned from Waverly and has again entered the employ of Edward J. Atwood. This change was brought about through the resignation of Erwin D. Baker. Daniel will be right at home in this store, and will be on hand at all times to greet old and new patrons. Miss Carrie Hinchler is also employed in the same store as book keeper.

Sheriff Swift stopped a boxing contest at Bolivar one evening last week, because the sport appeared too much like prize fighting. Deputy Clarence O'Donnell and other deputies were on hand to assist the Sheriff, if necessary to preserve order. The Bolivar Breeze intimates that the affair wasn't in it with some of the football games that have recently been played in the county.

Erwin D. Baker, who has been head clerk and bookkeeper in E. J. Atwood's hardware store for several years, has resigned his position and will enter a large establishment at Ellenville, N. Y. Mr. Baker and family will leave many friends in this place who wish them abundant prosperity. There is no doubt that Mr. Baker's ability will manifest itself to the advantage of himself and his employer in his new home, as it has done here, where he has been a valuable assistant. He will take his departure about the first of February.

The Catholic Fair held in this place Dec. 27th, 28th and 30th, was successful beyond the most sanguine expectations. Large crowds of people were present each evening, to see or purchase the many handsome articles on exhibition and listen to the program. The opera house was gaily decorated and the scene inside the hall was indeed a pleasing one. The entertainments given upon the stage Friday and Monday evenings were worth much more than the price of admission, and consisted of orchestra music, singing, readings, etc. Among those who took part were Miss Reynolds of Alfred, Miss Nash and Miss Enwright of Hornellsville, Miss Cannon and Miss McGinty of Andover, and the Euterpe Club. Those who had the Fair in charge spared no effort to please the people, and the splendid success from first to last is conclusive evidence that the management was in the right hands.

In Memory of B. C. Brundage.

Resolutions adopted at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Andover State Bank, held Dec. 18th, 1895.

Your Committee to whom it was referred to prepare and submit resolutions on the death of Benjamin C. Brundage, late President of the Andover State Bank, respectfully recommend the adoption of the following:

Whereas, We have learned with deep sorrow of the death of Benjamin C. Brundage, who, for nearly fifty years, was a resident and practicing Attorney and Counselor at Law in our village, who was distinguished for his fidelity and strict integrity in the discharge of every trust, for his wise counsels, and for his honesty of purpose; therefore,
Resolved, That in his death we deplore the loss of one whose conduct through his long years of professional service was above reproach and whose integrity of character furnishes an example to all worthy of imitation.

Resolved, That the Stockholders and Officers of the Andover State Bank, the only corporation with which he ever identified himself, lose in his death one whose name as President we believe has contributed largely toward the success to which our bank has attained, although, on account of feeble health, he was unable to personally participate in its management.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Board of Directors be instructed to secure the publication of these resolutions in the Andover News, and that the foregoing be entered upon the minutes of the proceedings of this meeting.
