ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

HAMILTON C. NORRIS, EDITOR

ANDOVER, N. Y., January 22, 1896.

Score one for Debs. He tells the people to buy more books and less beer.

Week before last the United States Senate did nothing. Last week it did the same thing and a little more of it.

The silver bells are ringing right merrily in the Senate, much to the discomfort of certain would-be candidates.

This is the time of year when few people envy the man who owns a corner lot. He has a double amount of snow shoveling to do.

Should ex-chief Byrnes and Teddy Roosevelt open their batteries on each other, the public may get some very interesting information.

The color line is gradually disappearing in Mississippi. In the latest lynching down there a white man and a negro were hanged side by side.

After all the sympathy that was wasted on account of the murder of the Queen of Korea last fall, it is now announced that she wasn't murdered at all.

Surely England ought to be ready to fight now. It has been officially notified of the loyal support of Australia, and the Canadians are still howling for blood.

It may be that Benjamin Harrison wants to ascertain how true the adage is that "All the world loves a lover." He is to be married to his late wife's niece, Mrs. Dimmick.

Some of the men who have been sent ahead to sand the tracks on the heavy grades for some of the Presidential trains are believed to carry a larger supply of lard than sand.

Some of the statesmen at Washington do not seem to care who makes their country's laws so long as they are permitted to make a noise by introducing warlike resolutions.

A shrewd Frenchman has written a convincing article to prove that international expositions are not beneficial to Paris. Not a few residents of Philadelphia and Chicago will endorse every word he wrote.

A Baltimore evangelist says the millennium is right on us. The press report of this good prophet's sermon did not state whether a collection was taken up or not. If not, it would add weight to the preacher's opinion.

There is one thing to be said in favor of these foreign war scares. They are aids to popular education to the extent of familiarizing people with the geography of countries of which they would otherwise be ignorant. They also serve to fatten the revenues of the cable companies.

The proceedings of the Legislature last Thursday were marked by the introduction of the Skinner narcotic instruction amendment bill, which provides for the repeal of the section requiring the use of text books, leaving teachers to choose their own methods of improving the youthful mind as to the baneful effect of narcotics, but which retains all the penalties.

"Saved My Life"

A VETERAN'S STORY.

"Several years ago, while in Fort Snelling, Minn., I caught a severe cold, attended with a terrible cough, that allowed me no rest day or night. The doctors after exhausting their remedies, pronounced my case hopeless, saying they could do no more for me. At this time a bottle of Cherry Pectoral was sent to me by a friend who urged me to take it, which I did, and soon after I was greatly relieved, and in a short time was completely cured. I have never had much of a cough since that time, and I firmly believe Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life." - W. H. WARD, 8 Quimby Av., Lowell, Mass.

AYER'S
