The biggest cake of ice in the county will soon be in Snyder & Clark's cold storage, if the weather remains cold a few days longer. A short time ago this firm put 150 tons of ice into the build- ing, and for a few days past they have been flooding the packed ice with water, and the whole is freezing into a solid mass. It is thought the ice will keep some time if not in small cakes.

bananas, lemons, etc.

The grand jury was in session at Bel- mont last week. Very little business was done and considerable time was spent considering the case of the eight- een alleged liquor sellers in Wellsville who were indicted some months ago. The indictments afterward being quash- ed. Last week's jury failed to find in- dictments against them.
