Dr. I. P. Truman of Hornellsville was in town Saturday.
Mrs. Mary Charles of Cuba is a guest of Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Wagoner.
H. P. Deaton visited his wife, who is at the Hornellsville sanitarium, on Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Scott Prest visited in Andover a few days during the past week.
Mrs. A. E. Kirkpatrick of Denver, Colo., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Brundage.
Mrs. H. F. Wilcox went to Buffalo Saturday evening, having been called there by the illness of a sister.
Benj. A. Barney has returned from a medical studies in New York, and will remain in Andover.
Floyd Richardson and family have moved back to Andover from Itchburg, and intend to reside here in the future.
Mrs. L. A. Marvin and Mrs. Addie May of Wellsville have been visiting in Andover for a couple of days.
Rev. G. J. Porter, son of J. M. Porter, of this place, has been appointed to the pastorate of the Sweden Valley, (Pa.) E. church.
Charles Krusen was taken to the Hornellsville sanitarium last Saturday. On Monday Dr. Roosevelt Park of Andover performed an operation upon him, and the patient is now recovering from his illness. It is now thought that the operation was successful.

M. H. Harman has returned from the Hornellsville sanitarium much improved in health.

The services in the M. E. church next Sunday morning will be full of special interest to every member and friend.

It is said the new Easter bonnet will "fill the bill." We don't doubt it. Doubtless the bill will more than fill the bonnet.

Miss Josie E. Parker left last Sunday night for New York, where she will purchase the latest novelties in millinery.

Tuesday morning the thermometer registered from 10 to 15 degrees below zero in different parts of this town. March is making a record.

Don't fail to attend the temperance lecture to be given by Mrs. Mila E. Carson, of Hornellsville, at the Baptist church next Sunday evening.

Messrs. Frank W. Burrows and W. C. Cannon will be home during their spring vacation, thus enabling them to take part in the Euterpe drama.

Miss Mary Smith closed her school in district No. 7, Elm Valley, last week. She entertained a merry crowd of her pupils at her home last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pardon are the parents of a girl baby, who was born Tuesday evening. Congratulations will come as thick and fast as autumn leaves.

The Harold Oil Company's well on Uriah Davis' farm was finished last week, and was at first thought to be dry. It was shot yesterday, and will turn out a good oil producer. Good enough.

The Ratnes bill was signed by Governor Morton on Monday, and certain of its provisions are now in force. Others will go into effect April 30th. So far as this town, and others where there are no existing licenses, are concerned, the new law is already in full force.

J. L. Williams has sold the house in which he now lives to A. J. Green. Mr. Williams has purchased the new house built by R. A. Pease on the corner of Greenwood street and East Avenue. Both of the above named gentlemen will change their residence within a short time.

Mrs. Belle Enos returned Tuesday of this week from Corning, Painted Post and other places, having delivered her new lecture entitled "To whom shall we go?" This was her maiden lecture, and we are pleased to state the success was fine. She hopes to continue her efforts in the near future.

Sheriff G. H. Swift returned last week Wednesday evening from a successful hunt in Ohio for Henry Gee, who was indicted by the last grand jury for grand larceny committed at Andover in this county. Mr. Swift captured his prisoner at Portage, O., after quite a lively chase. George seldom fails to get his man—Cuba Patriot.

The Andover Board of Health was organized for the coming year on Monday evening. The Board is composed of the Supervisor, Town Clerk, Justices of the Peace and one citizen member, appointed by the above named officers. L. C. VanFleet was the member so appointed. Dr. E. M. Stillman was reappointed health officer.

Everybody is invited to attend the parliamentary drill at the Baptist church next Monday evening. Mrs. Carson of Hornellsville, the instructor, is a thorough parliamentarian, and the people of this place should not fail to take advantage of the opportunity offered to obtain knowledge of great value. Admission 10 cents. Drill begins at 8 o'clock.

The News has received from Philip O'Connor of Chicago, a copy of The Irish Independent. The paper is dated "Dublin, Republic of Ireland, March 17, 1925," and purports to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the emancipation of Ireland from British rule. The paper is published by Teel Bros. & Co., 170 East Madison street, Chicago, at five cents a copy.

John Baker, who lives near Elm Valley, was at his work helping to take down some of the large oil tanks at Dyke yesterday, when he fell from a scaffold and sustained severe injuries, among them being a fracture of one of his jaws. He was removed to his home and a physician from Wellsville summoned, who made him as comfortable as possible under the circumstances.

The Epworth League has circulated bills announcing a "food sale" at the church parlors next Saturday afternoon and evening. The League will be prepared to furnish bread, biscuits, pies, cakes, baked beans, etc., to all who will buy. The object of this sale is to provide cooked food for Sunday consumption. Everybody is invited to go to church during the time mentioned and see the display of good things.

The village board of trustees met last Friday evening for organization. President Preat occupied the chair. H. C. Norris was reappointed clerk and Robt. L. O'Donnell was appointed street commissioner. The members then organized as a Board of Water Commissioners by electing the following officers: President, P. C. Lynch; Secretary, H. A. Benedict; Treasurer, E. J. Atwood.

J. C. Ross' auction sale closed last Saturday night. Mr. Ross has still quite a stock of goods on hand, which he is packing, and which he will remove to LeRoy, where he will hereafter reside. Mr. Ross intends to leave for that place with his family the first of next week. Andover people will be sorry to part with Mr. and Mrs. Ross. They have made many friends here who will wish them the best of success.

The lecture by Rev. Ward B. Pickard last Monday evening completed what has doubtless been the most profitable and enjoyable series of entertainments ever given in this place. The subject was "The House that Jack Built," and the lecture may be described as being replete with good sense expressed in a very humorous way, thus making it decidedly entertaining as well as profitable to the listeners. Andover people would be glad of an opportunity to hear Mr. Pickard again.

Town Clerk W. H. Phillips has furnished the News with a list of names of all the Supervisors and Town Clerks of Andover, from the time the first town meeting was held down to the present. It will be printed next week. The document tells in what year the first election of town officers occurred, where it was held, and also, in addition to giving the names of Supervisors and Town Clerks, gives the years in which they held the offices. It may be an interesting pastime for some of our citizens to try and recall the names of some of these officers, and the years in which they served, for comparison with the list to be printed next week. Suppose they begin by jotting down the name of the first Supervisor and the year of his election.
