Scott's Emulsion

Is the standard emulsion the world over. There is not a man, woman or child who is run down or emaciated or has weak lungs that Scott's Emulsion will not benefit. When you ask for it you will likely be told by the druggist that he has an emulsion "just as good." It is not true. No emulsion is as good. Scott's Emulsion has benefited millions of people. Ask your druggist if he can refer you to a single case that has been helped by the unknown emulsion he sells, and if so, we will send you a book giving thousands of cases. You want the standard; not something that nobody knows anything about.

A Few Outside Happenings in Which Our Readers Will Be Interested.

An Odd Fellows' temple in Hornellsville is talked of.

Olean will build sixty two thousand dollars worth of school buildings this year.

Rev. A. B. Conrad, lately of Attica, has received a call to the pastorate of the Cuba Baptist church.

The Buffalo Nobles of the Mystic Shrine will meet in Wellsville some time in May to confer the degrees upon a class of twenty or thirty.

A statue of the late Frederick Douglass is soon to be erected in Rochester by the colored men of the country.

The pedestal, which is being cut at Westerly, R. I., is of granite, nine feet high.

In the town of Atlanta, Steuben county, Wednesday night a bold attempt was made to wreck the D. L. & W. "flier." A large piece of quarry stone was put between the rail and plank at the Mill-street crossing.

The train passed entirely over the obstruction, which was fortunately broken up. No one yet has been apprehended. The railroad have detectives now at work in that locality in an effort to discover the guilty party.

The crushed stone road system adopted in and about the village of Canandaigua has for a year past been attracting the attention of various parts of the United States.

J. Y. McClintock, city surveyor of Rochester, W. E. McClintock, state highway commissioner of Massachusetts, and Charles Mills, chief engineer of the Massachusetts highway commissioner, recently made an examination of the expense and durability of the system.

David Caver and family live at Courtney Hollow, five miles north east of Bolivar. His daughter, Hazel, eight years old, is blind.

Shortly after noon on Sunday the little girl was playing about the house. Her mother suddenly missed her, and called loudly for her but no answer came. The premises were searched but the little girl was not discovered.

The neighbors were alarmed and before nightfall eighty men were searching for the missing child. When night came, lanterns were secured and the search continued.

At 9:30 o'clock the missing child was found in a fence corner a mile away from home, fast asleep. She was barefooted, having removed her shoes and stockings during her tramp in the hot sun during the afternoon. There was great rejoicing at Courtney Hollow when the news spread that Hazel Caver had been found. -Bolivar Beezer.

A New York financial writer predicts great things for the Erie. Among them that on the lower division four tracks will be laid, so as to be able to take care of increasing suburban passenger traffic.

The Erie, it is said, is likely to vestibule all their passenger cars and they have, it is said, ordered 2,500 new freight and coal cars in addition to the 1,000 new box cars just received by them.

A half million dollars have been set aside by the Erie management for the Greenwood Lake branch recently purchased, and when completed this road will take the better part of the suburban commuters of the Orange district away from the D. L. & W. line.

There is every reason to believe that the Erie has for its objective point, by double tracking the Greenwood Lake road, the building of the stretch, over the mountains from Greenwood Lake to Port Jervis, which is a saving of twenty-two miles in distance besides avoiding much of the heavy grade of the "summit" on the main line this side of Port Jervis, another through line to the Delaware.

The purchase of the New Jersey and New York road is said to be very likely the starting point for the line to Albany and the eastern state. The New Jersey and New York road has the charter already.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Andover meets the first and third Thursday in each month.

A New Name for Drink. A little girl in Manchester attended a Band of Hope meeting, and on the speaker remarking that the drink stripped homes of furniture and women and children of their clothes, she excitedly exclaimed: "That's just what it does at our house."

On reaching home her father insisted upon sending her to the public house for drink. Arrived there, she dashed the money upon the counter and passionately asked for three pennies worth of "strip-me-naked." -Temperance Advocate.

From Whiskey to Food. One result of the strict enforcement of the excise law on Sundays in New York has been the increase in the custom of the people's five cent restaurants.

So great has been the Sunday demand at one branch since the cold-weather set in that the management of the restaurant is completing alterations which will enable twelve persons to get a comfortable five cent meal at the same time. The restaurants were started some time ago under the auspices of the Industrial Christian Alliance. There are now three of them.

The American University, just founded at Washington, D. C., has three well-known women upon its board of trustees made up of representative educators, divines, business men, etc. They are Mrs. Matthew Simpson, Mrs. John A. Logan and Mrs. Elizabeth J. Soimars.

In the presence of the American saloon, the American home is like a shorn lamb, to which the wind is tempered. -Miss Willard.

We are going to protect our families; we are not going to lay them on the shrine of our country's revenue any longer. -Mrs. Youmans.

Twenty-five women in Chicago are practising lawyers, and fifteen more will soon be admitted to the bar.

The Turks in Armenia have done awful murders, but it may be just as well for us to remember that the saloon-keepers in our country last year killed more people and caused more crime and misery than did the un-speakable Turks in Armenia. America has Armenia right here.

What ought not to be used as a beverage ought not to be sold as such. What the good of the community requires us to expel; no man has a moral right to supply. -Wm. Ellery Channing.

But there is one thing that the law can do, which the safety of republican institutions demands, and that is to shut the doors of the drinking saloon. -Wendell Phillips.

And, O Lord! grant that we may not despise our rulers; and grant that they may not act so that we can't help it. -Dr. Lyman Beecher in a public prayer.
