

ROCKWELL BROTHERS.

April was a hustling Carpet month. The vacant spaces have been more than filled. New Ingrains, Taps and Velvets, prettier patterns—some special values among them.

Great activity also in Lace. Curtains and Curtain Materials. Embroidered and frilled edge Tamboours, Irish point, Tapestry, Dot-ted Net.

Window Shades, Curtain Poles, Wash Tubs—everything of this character, plenty of it; and what's better, you can depend on the price being the lowest.

Our buyer is in New York this week looking up new summer dress materials.

If a vote were to be taken now, the chances are that this town would go "wet." This refers to water, and not beer. The dust in streets that are not sprinkled is several kinds of a nuisance.

The question to be discussed by the Columbian Society next Monday evening has been slightly changed in its phraseology. The question as it will come up is, "Resolved, That intemperance, in regard to the liquor traffic, cannot be controlled by legal enactment."

An effort is being made to arrange a race between Moonstone, the pacing mare recently brought to Wellsville for training, and Sheriff, the pacer owned by C. F. Smith of that place. Such a race would draw a crowd. Moonstone has a record of 2:09, and Sheriff's mark is 2:15.

One of the trees set out on the Union School grounds on Arbor Day was a birch. It will be a great credit to the boys if that tree reaches maturity, for everybody knows what fun it is to gnaw birch bark.—Dansville Breeze. And branches from that tree may sometime be found useful by the teachers, for other purposes.

A. R. Miner, who purchased the business of the late J. A. Robinson, has arrived here and is ready for business. He will soon put in a stock of furniture. The Society is composed of about thirty-five members, and it will be gratifying to Mr. Young's friends in this vicinity to know that he holds the highest office in the organization.

It has been suggested that the village fathers put a sign "to rent" on the lock-up, as the Raines bill has somewhat decreased the number of occupants of that hitherto necessary structure. We suggest, however, that the cooler be kept under the control of the authorities for use when the man who puts pieces of broken glass on the bicycle path is hunted down.

The Local Chapter of the M. E. Church of Andover will observe the anniversary of the Epworth League next Sabbath evening. Erie Roadmaster Bowen and Track Superintendent Horner, of Hornellville, were in Andover last Friday, looking over the ground preparatory to making some needed improvements in the vicinity of the station. The Citizens' Hose Company will give a Fancy Drill and Reception at Prest's opera house in this village, Friday evening, May 22d. There is no doubt that the entertainment will be well attended, especially when it is remembered that the Company has recently perfected itself in new movements for the drill, and will present something entirely new in this place. The new figures are far ahead of anything heretofore given here, and will give a high degree of pleasure to all who witness them. Good music will be provided for dancing, and altogether the occasion will prove to be all that may be anticipated. It will merit a full house.

It seems to be a conceded fact that the Republican District Convention to be held this week Friday at Olean will send delegates to the St. Louis Convention instructed for McKinley for President. If any strife develops it will probably be regarding the personnel of the delegation rather than as to what the delegates will do when the ballots are taken. Dr. George H. Witter of Wellsville is likely to receive the solid vote of delegates from Allegany county towns, while Cattaraugus and Chautauqua county each has two or more delegates. If Dr. Witter shall be chosen a delegate to St. Louis he will represent the sentiment of the majority of the Republican voters of this county, and it would be pleasing to all to see him thus honored at Olean.
