WEDNESDAY MAY 27, 1896.

It is said that one-tenth of the population of England suffer from gout. Dr. Fehlauer, a Berlin physician, attributes this to the excessive consumption of meat, and recommends a more restricted or vegetarien diet.

Russia's death rate is believed to be greatly increased by the practice of the peasants in plunging into the rivers after the blessing of the water at the feast of the Epiphany, in the belief that it has then the power to wash away their sins. The practice chas long been forbidden at St. Petersburg.

Field-Marshal Lord Wolseley, commander-in-chief of the British army, at a dinner given by the Press club in London, made a speech in the course of which he said he did not believe in universal peace. The man who believed the time was coming when there would be no wars was a dangerous dreamer, especially dangerous if he happened to hold a public position. He hoped that no such man would ever be in the foremost place in public life in Great Britain.

The Presbyterian ministers of China have recently celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their work in that country. During the last five years the Presbyterian board of missions has distributed in China 201,581,749 pages of religious literature, in the native language, of which 123,098,900 were pages of the Scriptures, 43,897,books, 18,472,160 magazines, 1.615.740 tracts and 14,497,654 pages of medical works, dictionaries, vocabularies and other aids to study.

It is a poor law, as well as a poor rule, that does not work both ways. In a suit brought by a woman in Columbus, Ohio, to recover $800 lost by her husband in a gambling place, the proprietors of the resort offered in defence to prove that the husband of the plaintiff had on previous occasions won $1,100 in the gambling den. The court ruled that such evidence was admissible, and that if the fact of the winning could be established, the amount won would be a counter-claim against any amount that had been lost, and must be deducted in awarding damages.

It will doubtless be news to many readers, remarks the New York Tribune, that there are within the limits of the United States spots over which our government has no authority or jurisdiction, and which are to all intents and purposes foreign territory, and, theoretically, subject to alien rulers. They are situated right within the very precints of our National Capital, and belong to one or the other of the great powers of Europe, which have acquired them by purchase purchase for the purpose of erecting their embassies thereon. To such an extent is this diplomaticfiction of extra-territoriality carried that when the crown princess of Bramil, prior to the overthrow of Dom Pedro's empire, was on the eve of her confinement at Paris she had herself conveyed to the Brizilian embassy, in that the terms of the Imperial Brizialian constitution might be ful-filled, which required that every prince in the line of succession to the throne should be born on Brazilian

May 25.—The which was passed by the reichstag last Tuesday granting the government a credit of 2,000,000 marks for the purpose of adding 420 men to the military forces in German southwest Africa met with very slight opposition. The action of the house fitted admirably with popular feeling and has delighted the colonial jingoes, who continue diligently to advance their south African boom. The increase authorized by the resolution will give Major Leutwein, the administrator of affairs German southwest Africa, common of 1,000 effective troops, which are of affairs in garded as ample to suppress the ris of the natives in that territory. origin of the outbreak among the natives has not been officially explained, but the uniform belief of the colonial party that the rising was fomented by British intrigue was given expression during the debate on the credit reso-

It is not the prospect of crushing the negroes in southwest Africa. however, that elates the colonial party in Germany. The Neueste Nichrichten, many. The Neueste Menrichten, which is the foremost of the colonial organs, makes no concealment of the of the colonials and reveals perhaps more of the aims of the gov-ernment than is obvious on the surernment than is obvious on the sur-face. The paper, after remarking that there is a community of interest between the Transvaal and German southwest Africa, despite the fact that the two territories are separated by Bechuanaland, adds that by means of the force of 1,000 men which Maj. Lentwein will have at his command Leutwein will have at his command Leatwein will have at his command Germany will acquire a position in southwest Africa, the influence of which is already felt in Cape Town. The general situation, the Neueste Nachrichten continues, has undergone a change, and the Boers now indirect ly receive support, of which time will plainly display the effects.

For an Offensive and Defensive Alliance The annual meeting of the German colonial society will be held here on May 30, when a resolution will be submitted promising the support of the German government in promoting the neutrality of the Boer republic as most essential to the furtherance of German interests. This ion, however, will hardly have the effect of satisfying the more advanced of the colonials who endorse the demand of the Neueste Nichrichthe demand of the Acueste Aichr charen for the establishment of an offensive and defensive alliance between Germany and the Transvaal. The speech made by Joseph Chamberlain, British secretary of state for the colonies, upon the occasion of the South colonies, upon the occasion of the South African annual dinner at the hotel Metropole in London Thursday evening in which he sharply criticised the Transvaal government in their vindictive treatment of the Johannesburg reform committee prisoners, is vehemently denounced by the entire German press. man press.

American purchasers of German manufactures are devoting a great deal of attention to the Industrial exhibition, which is now running smoothly. Several orders have been lodged by Americans with one of the largest German firms engaged in the manufacture of machinery, aggregating 100.000 marks. Exhibitors of dry goods, however complain of an uter lack of American orders. A great deal of in-terest is being taken in the Hungarian millennial celebration at Budapest, to which place it is expected that a large number of people will go from Gernumber of people will go from Germany during the summer. Reports received here say that there were more than 200 Americans in Budapest last week, the majority of whom went from there to Moscow to witness the coronation ceremonles. Before going, however, they ordered rooms reserved for them pending their return.

HE PLEAD FOR PEACE

Moderater Withrow's Caused a Sensation.

NEW ERA IN PRESBYTERIAN QUARREL

Controversies of the Past Five Years Harmful and a Hindrance to the Preaching of the Gospel, He Declared.

Saratoga, N. Y., May 25.—Modera or Withrow's sermon yesterday tor Withrow's sermon yesterday created a positive sensation among the commissioners. Moderators' sermons in the past years, especially since the Briggs trouble, have been characterized to the earnest and eloquent appeal mmissioners to stand up in defense of the truth of the Scriptures and the of the truth of the Scriptures and standards at any cost. These sermons have come from staunch conservatives. Now it is the liberals who are smiling. Moderator Withrow's sermon was characterized as a veritable plea for peace and work, which, following upon the conciliatory sermon of Moderator Booth, seems to mark a new era in the Presbyterian quarrel. One ministeria commissioner said, in speaking of yesterday's aermon: "Dr. Withrow gave the committees to the conservatives and taffy to the liberals." Another minister said: "Such a presentation of the character and work of Jesus Christ the character and work of years character as made by the moderator yesterday is unworthy of a Presbyterian pulpit." Dr. Withrow preached upon the subject of love being stronger than violence in the advancement of Christ's kingdom. He made a strong plea for peace in the church.

Controversies Harmful.

In his introduction he compared the spirit of violence and the spirit of love as exemplified in the ministry of Christ. He said that Christ might, if he chose, have cast Caesar from his capital and have introduced a new histories and have introduced a new meaning that the chose and have introduced a new meaning that the chose and have introduced a new meaning that the chose and have introduced a new meaning that the chose and have introduced a new meaning that the chosen control of the chosen control of the chosen chos throne and have introduced a new re-gime of righteousness. But he did not. gime of righteousness. But he did not. No weakling was ever less disposed to strike a strong man than Jesus was to join a struggle with ruling powers and porevailing wrongs. Only one exhibi-tion of irretistible energy is recalled, as when he used only a little switch of small cords to cleanse the temple, when he might have swept it with a cyclone of indignation which wouldnot have left a single trader alive. He said that the bitter controversies dursaid that the bitter controverses dur-ing the first three centuries had done much to hinder the spread of Chris-tianity, and that the controversies of the last five years, during which the church has been string to defend the word of God from the attacks of the higher critics, had been harmful and hindered the preaching of the Reason for a Big Deficit.

He called to mind the fact that at the time of the reunion of the old the time of the reunion of the old school and the new school branches the assembly asked the church to raise a memorial fund of $5,000,000. The church responded by raising nearly $7,000,000. Last year the assembly asked for $1,000,000 to commemorate the twenty-fifth anniversary of this reunion. The subscriptions do not amount to one-half of the sum asked. The preacher said that the reason for He atthis deficit was known to all. He at-tributed it to the position which the tributed it to the position which the church had taken against those who had attacked its standards. He said that the spirit of the church should not be that of the "Lion of the tribe of Judah," but that of the "Lamb of God." He said that zoologists believed that in 100 years the lion tribe would be extinct. He thought that the world would get along well enough without lions, and that the church-would get along without them en who had the lion's spirit. "There may have been some reason for them once, but as Judah's lion was to Calvary's Lamb so is the world in want of those whose loving beat and as of the world in was to Calvary's Lamb so is the world in want of those whose loving heart and not their awful head and eye and determination to rule everybody will mostly characterize them, especially in the church of Christ."

Grizzled Old Fighter.

It were not wonderful if a grizzled ld fighter, hearing what has been old fighter, hearing what has been said of love being better for the world than blekering, backbitings and beating one another, should grind his teeth and grumble: "Oh, fudge! That is only dayllabub and calf meat. Give us the strong meat on which our fathers fought and died." But if we must have a diet for making violent means. a diet for making violent men, why not go back to the bestial age in which mothers fed their babes on tigers, will as tigers' milk as a means of making berible men. The speaker eleced by saying: "We cannot shake by saying: "We cannot shake men out of wrong ways whether they our membership or within both membership and ministry, can We?
