WEDNESDAY JUNE 17, 1896.

The mixture of languages in New York City is extraordinary and there are said to be miles of territory within the city limits where English is comparatively little spoken and then, for the most part, only brokenly. The Witness relates that a Russian emigrant who settled on the East Side tried to learn German for six years, before she discovered that it was not the language of the country. And she was not a stupid woman, either, but her tenement and her street were German, and her little world did not extend beyond their limits.

In adjusting the fire insurance loss caused by burning of its salesrooms and stock of wheels on hand of one of the largest and most popular bicycle manufacturing companies in the United States, the fact developed that the cost of the one hundred dollar machines was but nineteen dollars at the factory. The public is asked to pay one hundred dollars for a wheel which is manufactured at a cost of but nineteen dollars, a profit to the manufacturer of over 400 per cent. The purchaser is told that it costs a lot of money to sell the wheels, which might be and still leave several hundred per cent. profit for the poor manufacturer. The day is not far distant when bicycles will be sold in hardware and other stores, like lawn mowers, at a price nearer twenty-five dollars than one hundred. There may be other goods manufactured which cost but one-fifth of the price they are sold for, but the public certainly is not aware of the fact.

Captain-General Weyler says he will need two years at least in which to beat out the rebels, and that is likely to mean four or five. Even if he ultimately succeeds, how much of Cuba will be left? speculates the Chicago Times-Herald. And if this rebellion should be crushed, how long would it be before another broke out? The Americans in Cuba know these things, and they have made representations accordingly to members of the Administration and of the Foreign Affairs Committee in Congress. They realize that centuries of Spanish misrule have planted eternally the seeds of rebellion in Cuba, and that there will be crop after crop till independence is achieved. There can never be enduring peace and prosperity in Cuba until the Spanish are driven out of the island.

The Atlanta Constitution remarks: We have said so much of the business needs of the South, and we expect to keep everlastingly at it, to develop into actual cash profit, the unequalled resources of our section until every bale of our cotton, every ton of our ore, every foot of our timber, every pound of our wool and generally every item of our raw material will leave Dixie in manufactured form and merchandizable condition, ready for the ultimate consumer, that we extract with pleasure, and we trust with profit to our people, the following from the Columbia (S. C.) State: "So long as $150,000 initial capital can build and start a twenty-thousand spindle mill, employ 350 hands, make an increase in population of 700 or more, pay out $75,000 in annual wages and $15,000 in dividends, and thus convert a dead town into a live one, while piling up a big surplus to defray the remainder of the cost of the mill and ultimately enlarge it, so long will every town in South Carolina strive for its cotton mill, and strive wisely. We think we know our cotton mill text. It is: Multiply and diversify." The spirit of the above is all right, but the application to cotton mills alone is too limited. "Multiply and diversify," if it means anything, bears the broad interpretation as embracing everything we can grow and make.

WARNING TO TURKEY

In Danger of Losing the Good Will of the Powers.

MUST STOP THE ATROCITIES IN CRETE

The German Ambassador Presents a Note to the Sultan Pointing Out the Danger—Austria-Hungary a Balkan Power.

Berlin, June 15.—Under an arrangement with the other ambassadors to the Porte, Baron Saurma von Jeltsch, the German ambassador at Constantinople, has had an interview with the sultan and read to his majesty a note warning Turkey against the certainty of losing the good will of the powers by permitting the continuance of the atrocities in Crete. Subsequently the Austrian ambassador, Baron de Calise, obtained an interview with the sultan and emphasized the views which had been expressed by the German ambassador. The Berlin newspapers publish a report that the powers have sent a collective note to the Porte which probably has reference to the less formal communication read to the sultan by Baron Saurma von Jeltsch. The separate interview with the sultan by Baron de Calise was due to the fact that he was obliged to make special representations bearing upon the interests of Austria that are involved in the Macedonian question, which is becoming acute. The Macedonian committee, which is sitting in Sofia, Bulgaria, has decided to make a demand for the autonomy of Macedonia and is practically conspiring to bring about an insurrection. It is therefore believed here that Austria has asked the sultan to consent to the occupation of Macedonia by Austrian troops in the event of an uprising there.

Austria-Hungary a Balkan Power. In connection with this belief it may be noted that M. de Kallay, Austrian minister of finance, in speaking upon the Austrian budget in the reichsrath claimed that Austria-Hungary had become a Balkan power since the empire had acquired Roumania and therefore had a right to interfere in the Balkan peninsula. M. de Kallay in the course of his remarks hinted at, without openly mentioning them, plans which had been discussed at St. Petersburg for a confederation of the Balkan states under Russia's protectorate and said that in connection therewith the prince of Montenegro and the king of Serbia were expected to hold a conference with Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria at Sofia at the end of the present month. The physical ailments of the sultan are among the factors which are causing the present diplomatic ferment, and the representations of the German ambassador to Turkey are aimed at immediate practical action in Crete, assisting the kaiser's policy of keeping the peace of Europe. Simultaneously with this move on the part of Germany, Russia has urged the Bulgarian government to put a stop at any cost to the armed bands raised by the Macedonian committee crossing the frontier.

MASSACHUSETTS SENSATION.

The Threat of a Bolt Caused Much Surprise—Delegates To Meet To-day.

St. Louis, June 15.—The threat of a bolt in the Massachusetts delegation last evening caused a decided sensation, and resulted in the prompt adjournment of the meeting until this morning. Eben S. Draper was elected chairman of the delegation and E. C. Benton its secretary. Up to this point everything went smoothly, but when George H. Lyman of Boston was nominated for member of the national committee, an emphatic protest was at once forthcoming. Immediately following this nomination M. V. B. Jefferson, apparently excited, but with much emphasis, said that if the effort was made to place Lyman on the committee Reed could not have the solid vote of Massachusetts, as in that event McKinley would have three votes on first ballot. Without attempting to argue the matter the session was adjourned at once until to-day, at which time, it was said, Lyman would be elected, as he has twenty-seven out of the thirty votes of the delegation. Senator Lodge will also be elected to-day as a member of the committee on resolutions. This morning the most interesting discussion were the indications given by the Connecticut, Rhode Island and Massachusetts delegations of breaking away to McKinley.

CONNECTICUT FOR MCKINLEY.

Fessenden Said To Be the One Delegate For Reed.

St. Louis, June 15.—The Connecticut delegation organized last night, with ex-Gov. Morgan T. Bulkeley as chairman and C. M. Jarvis as secretary and treasurer. Samuel Fessenden was again chosen member of the national committee and appointed member of the committee on resolutions. The meeting was a protracted one, lasting over two hours. Most of this time is said to have been spent in an effort to agree on presenting a solid front on the first ballot for president. C. M. Jarvis afterward said that the member of the national committee, Mr. Fessenden, alone held out for Reed. The other members of the delegation are all pronounced for McKinley, and in his opinion they will vote for him on the first ballot.

Pushing Bulkeley for Second Place.

The Connecticut delegation is pushing with energy the candidacy of ex-Gov. Morgan G. Bulkeley for second place on the ticket. They are all for McKinley sound money and Bulkeley. They base their hopes on the attitude Morton Reed and other eastern men in regard to the vice-presidency, and point to ex-Gov. Bulkeley's record as mayor of Hartford four consecutive years and his business standing and army record, and claim that he is the most desirable man for the place.

FOUGHT 42 HOURS

Important Battle Between Spaniards and Rebels at Najasa.

ONLY GOVERNMENT ACCOUNT RECEIVED

Insurgents Finally Routed with Heavy Loss, It is Said—Silver Cut Off Havana's Water Supply with Dynamite.

Madrid, June 15.—A dispatch to the Imparcial from Havana says that two dynamite bombs were exploded Saturday by rebels under the Cristina bridge, close to Havana, the object being to wreck the city's gas and water conduits which are carried on the bridge. The explosion stopped completely the water supply, but did not affect the gas conduit. The breaking of the water main is a matter of serious concern to Havana residents. The dispatch adds that Gomez, the chief rebel leader, with a force of insurgents attacked Gen. Castellano, near Najasa. The insurgents charged the troops frequently with machetes. The fight lasted forty-two hours, when Gen. Gomez arrived with reinforcements for the Spanish troops. The rebels were then forced to retreat. The Spanish loss was several killed and thirty-four wounded.

Dawley Released.

Havana, June 15.—Thomas Dawley, the correspondent of Harper's Weekly, who was arrested some time ago on the charge of being in communication with the rebels, has been released from Morro castle, where he had been confined ever since he was taken into custody. Incomplete details have been received of an important battle at Najasa. Unofficial reports state that Gomez was in command of the rebels, who numbered 5,000 men. He made a manoeuvre with the intention of leading the Spanish commander to believe that he intended to surround the troops, who were encamped on the plains of Saratoga. The manoeuvre failed of the desired effect, which was to compel the Spanish force to retreat. The rebels then attacked the troops with machetes, but the latter repulsed the charges. The battle is said to have lasted forty-two hours. Gen. Godoy, with a strong Spanish force, arrived on the scene, and with his assistance the troops succeeded in forcing the rebels to retire. The rebel loss is said to have been 500, while the troops lost only four killed and two officers and thirty-two soldiers wounded. Later details may place the engagement in an entirely different aspect. The battle is said to have been similar to that which took place at Guasimas in the late war.

WORD GOLD ON

Clear for the "Existing Standard."

FREE SILVER IS TO BE

Platt Declares the Platform Must Stand Out for Gold—Silver They Cannot Be Tricked More Juggling with Words.

St. Louis, June 15.—Mr. Platt insists that the word "gold" appear in the financial plank of the platform. Nothing else he would satisfy the east. "Will the platform be satisfied with a declaration that the 'present standard and free coinage of silver at any strength enough,'" he responded. "There must be no mistaking the position on the money question. Platt has been in conference with representative men—Kinley men—however, he was to explain, with reference to financial plank. He found a general responsiveness to his insistence that the platform should declare single gold standard. They are from the Dakotas, Indiana, and other western states who are known to be saturated with the sentiment. These conferences aged him to believe that the convention will not only adopt a gold standard but will urge a resolution for it. The seventy-six delegates will hold a meeting headquarters this afternoon and the state members of the platform resolutions and credentials committee consider other matters of detail. Understood that Edward Law will be chosen to represent Nebraska on the committee on resolutions. Frederick S. Gibbs on the committee.

Hanna's Financial Plank.

Yesterday was not a day of Mr. Hanna and his associates effective work in the matter of constructing a platform was accorded than in any twenty-four hour date. Mr. Hanna, since coming to St. Louis, has received letters from groups from all parts of the country from representative business men frequently in detail as to what the financial plank should be and how it should be expressed. These have been collated and the various platforms adopted at public state conventions also been carefully analyzed and considered. The result of this is that early to-day Hanna prepared a rough draft of the platform, which he submitted to almost every prominent politician in St. Louis except the ver men and Mr. Platt connected with him in his fight against McKinley. This platform, so the financial plank is concerned, is a combination of the sentiment expressed in the New York and state conventions, but so far omit the words "gold standard" will declare for the "existing standard" and strongly condemn the coinage of silver. This plank will be proceeded if Mr. Hanna's programme goes through by a vigorous declaration for a protective tariff and reciprocity with a brief history of tariff and the disastrous effects of the country of the Wilson bill, tending depletion of government resources.
