W. J. Glenn of Cuba, doorkeeper of the House of Representatives, has sent the News a copy of a new map of the United States, made from official surveys. It shows all that such maps usually show, and many things they do not, and it is a valuable acquisition to our works of reference for which Mr. Glenn has our thanks.

The martial band was out Monday evening to assist in organizing a McKinley and Hobart club. The veteran drummer, Geo. Crandall, was 80 years old that day; but he can handle the drumsticks like a man of 40. J. M. Goodwin, who is nearly as old, still retains much of his old-time enthusiasm. While little Earl Perry, the seven year-old drummer, knows a thing or two about time, and plays in the best martial band in the county.

Members of the Library Association will please call at Benedict & VanNoy's store for printed list of books and periodicals, which may be obtained any time after Friday.

On July 1st, the Andover postoffice was raised to the third class of post-offices, and is now a Presidential office, with a salary to the postmaster of $1,000 a year. This is a logical result of increased business activity in this town, and the people in general and the postmaster in particular, are open to congratulations.

Count o'er the joys thine hours have seen,
 Count o'er the days that were all bright,
 And know 'twas not half it might have been.

Had you but drank of "Heart's Delight."

For Sale.
