E ANDOVER NEWS.

VOL. IX

ANDOVER, ALLEGANY COUNTY, N. Y., JULY 8, 1896.

NO. 46.

S. PHILLIPS.

VANFLEET & PHILILPS Attorneys and Counselors at Law.

All kinds of legal work entrusted to u receive prompt and careful attention. Loans made upon good real estate secur-Lands bought and sold.

ANDOVER, N.Y.

CRAYTON L. EARLEY. ttorney and Counsellorat Law.

all matters receive prompt attention. Collections made.

ANDOVER, N. Y.

W. O'DONNELL, M.D.,

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON,

ofessional calls promptly attended day

ANDOVER, N. Y.

ADOLPH WIGGER.

Manufacturer of fine cigars. ANDOVER, N. Y.

J. D. CHEESMAN.

FIRE INSURANCE AGENT. Best Companies

Your Patronage Solicited. ice in D. K. Porter's Hardware Store. ANDOVER, N. Y.

MITCHELL, M. D.

Ex. Nose and Throat Specialist. Spectacle Fitting.

Hours: 10 to 4 and 7 to 8. 63 Main Street, HORNELLSVILLE, N. Y.

anied—An idea of some single thing to some some single thing to some single thing the some single thing to some single thing to some single thing the some single thing thing the some single thing of all kinds sold cheap for cash at A. R. Miner's.

FURNITURE

FINE OAK DINERS, 85.50.

Come and see us and bring your little folks to see our large Express Wagons at only $1.25.

I also have Funeral Goods of all kind and prices that will suit you.

For night calls ring the bell on store door.

A. R. MINER,

Embalmer and Funeral Director,

ANDOVER, N. Y.

When Company Comes

unexpectedly the housewife is often puzzled as to what to get for dinner. Then time is doubly precious. If when so caught she only has package of day long and far into the night good tailors make good ing clothing that fits, hangs well and never loses its e We're after the particular ones—the grumblers-make them grumble for us.

TITCH. STITCH, STITCH,

SNYDER & MASON.

THE LOW PRICES!

at on our furniture is what he goods. Here is a Solid hing (hair, nicely finished, Fe are selling for $5.00 A SET.

^{te not} making a special run chair, but the figures are as a sample of the low that prevail throughout We have almost anyon can mention in the line kin and seë our goods.

VLER & REMINGTON.

^{adertaking} is Complete.

be of funeral goods always on ages reasonable. Embalming for the no extra charge is the called the said good allowed the called the said control of the kand ring the bell.

MRS. S. J. FOWLER.

Sudden Death of Mrs. Nelson Clair.

Mrs. N. A. Clair was suddenly taken violently ill last Friday forenoon, and after a severe suffering of less than two days, found relief only in death, passing to her heavenly reward Saturday afternoon, July 4th, 1896, about three o'clock.

She was born in this county, in the ear 1837, and was married to Mr. Nelson Clair, Dec. 28th, 1855, with whom she lived a little over forty years. God gave her the joy and sa isfaction of seeing her dear children, a son and daughter, grow to the mature state of manhood and womanhood under her loving, maternal, cherishing care. And they, with exception of brief intervals of absence for study or travel, were content to abide at home with father and mother.

Hers was, in a large sense, a home life, and she died in the midst of her family, in the strong arms of her children, attended by her stricken husband and kindred and neighbors and friends, who sought to give relief and healing, but were not able.

She confessed her faith in Christ nd acceptance of Him as Ler Savior, in baptism, March 29th, 1868, uniting with the Baptist Church of Andover, of which Rev. F. Sherer was then pastor. For twenty-eight years her . Christian life has been an epistle known and read of men.

Services were held at the house on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by her pastor, assisted by Rev. W. B. Wagoner and Elder J. Kenyon, with service of song, attended by a large concourse of people.

Her mortal remains, beautiful even in death, were tenderly laid to rest in the bosom of mother Earth, amid flowers she loved so well, to await the sure summons of her Lord and Master, "Come up higher."

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank our friends and neighbors for their valued services rendered and sympathy extended us during our recent bereavement in the sickness and death of wife and mother

NELSON CLAIR, BYRON A. CLAIR, MINNIE A. CLAIR.

Miller-Patterson.

The marriage of Mr. Andrew R. Miller, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Miss LaNora Patterson, of the same city, took place on the evening of June 30th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Patter son, Delanson; N. Y.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Daniel Redmond, D. D., of New York City, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Booth.

The bridesmaids were Miss Nettie E. Patterson, of Brooklyn, sister of the bride, and Miss Abbie Eames, of Rome, N. Y. The groomsmen were Mr. Wm. E. Smith, of Brooklyn, and Mr. Arthur Patterson, of Minaville, N. Y. A wedding supper followed the congratulations. The bride was the recipient of many valuable presents. The bride and groom left the same evening for Niagara Falls, and are now stopping at Mr. Miller's former bome in West Greenwood.

Marvelous Sight—Kinzua Bridge

The public demand it, and here it is The Erie's cheap and popular excursion to Kinzua Vinduct, the most wonderful bridge on earth, and to the Bradford oil field, Sunday, July 12. An interesting trip, and for cheapness is un Train will leave Andover at 9:42 a. m. Fare, round trip, only $1.25.

Few medicines have held their ground so successfully as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. During the past fifty years, it has been the most popular of all cough cures and the demand for it today is greater than ever before. Prompt to act and sure to cure.

Shirt Waists at cost, at Williams. D. B. SILL, President.

PROGRAMME —OF THE—

CUBA TEMPERANCE ASSEMBLY, CUBA, N. Y. AUGUST 11th TO 17th, 1896.

The Assembly management herewith present what they consider to be one of the very best programmes in the history of the Association. It presents a wide range of able and popular talent.

The speakers are those who for eloquence, humor, wit, brilliant thought and ability to entertain an audience are well known among the finest on the platform. Make arrangements to attend and bring your family.

Railroad Rates.

The W. N. Y. & P. Railroad have made special rates of full fare coming and one third fare returning. The Eric Railroad will sell round trip tickets for a fare and a third.

Tents.

Those not having applied for tent location should do so at once, give size of tent desired, and those having secured location without naming size of tent desired, should address the Secretary at once, stating size wished.

Cuba Temperance Assembly.

The management of the Cuba Temperance Assembly.

The management of the Cuba Temperance Assembly extend greeting and herewith present the programme of the Fifteenth Annual Temperance Assembly, to be held at Cuba, N. Y., August 11 to 17, 1896. It has been most carefully prepared, and some of the best platform talent in the land has been secured. The musical portion of the programme is exceptionally good this year, including the celebrated Harvard Male Quartette. We ask a careful reading of the following programme, and extend to you a cordial invitation to attend the Assembly.

PROGRAMME

Tuesday, Aug. 11.

2:30 p. m.—Address by Francis Murphy, the noted temperance orator, who has been delighting audiences on many Assembly grounds. Francis Murphy's name is a household word, and everyone will want to see him.

7:30 p. m.—Address by Mrs. Louisa Rounds. Mrs. Rounds needs no introduction to Cuba Assembly goers. As a platform speaker she always pleases, and is always the recipient of a hearty welcome.

Wednesday, Aug. 12. W. C. T. U. Dav.

10:30 a. m.—Morning Session. This session will be in the interest of the children and Loyal Temperance Legion work. Address by Mrs. Nellie H. Hutchinson, of Owego, N. Y., State Organizer of L. T. L. work. Child-2:30 p. m.—Address by Mrs. Louisa Rounds, of Chicago, State President of 7:30 p. m.—Address by Francis W. Murphy.

7:30 p. m.—Address by Francis W. Murphy.
Besides the Harvard Quartette, we have secured for the day as soloist, the ervices of Miss Bertha Cook of Bolivar, N. Y. There will also be singing by Thursday, Aug. 13.

10:00 a. m.—Morning Congress.
2:30 p. m.—Lecture by John Temple Graves of Georgia, subject. "The Reign of the Demagogue." This is one of Mr. Grave's best lectures, and is sure to delight the audience. As a lecturer, Mr. Graves is known the land Assembly.

7:30 p. m.—This graves will be the formula of the Cuba

Assembly.

7.30 p. m.—This evening will be one of innusual interest. The session will be in the hands of Revs. Carroll, Comad and Clements, who will each occupy trio of as entertaining speakers as one could care to listen to, and the Thursday evening session will be as entertaining as any of the Assembly. The three C's will form a perfect cube. Those who attend on this evening will be "glad to be there."

Friday, Aug. 14.

Friday, Aug. 14.

10.00 a.m — Morning Congress in charge of Mrs. B. B. Lord of Chautauqua Mrs. Lord will speak at this time in the interest of the farmers, and the Congress promises to be of unusual interest.

2.30 p.m.—Lecture by Rev. Sam P. Jones, the celebrated evangelist orator. As everyone knows, Sam Jones hits hard, and possesses a style peculiarly his own. His appearance in Cuba, will beyond doubt, be the occasion of as large a turnout as ever gathered on the Assembly grounds. His most famous lectures are "Get There and Stay There," "Character and Characters," "Sawciety," "Manhood and Money," "The World as it is and the World as it Ought to be," and "The Battle of Life and How to Win it."

7.30 p.m.—Lecture by John Temple Graves, "The 20th Century Woman." The title of this lecture is in itself a guarantee of something of more than ordinary interest.

Saturday, Aug. 15.

Saturday, Aug. 15.

10:00 a. m.—Morning Congress.
2:30 p. m.—Lecture by Maj. Levin I. Handy. Major Ĥandy appeared before a.Cuba audience last year during the Library entertainments, and gave unbounded satisfaction. Everyone who heard him will want to hear him again and have their friends enjoy his wit and eloquence. He gave one of the best lectures ever given in Cuba.

7:30 p. m.—Stereopticon Lecture. The Wonderland of the Far East" (Japan.) by Dr. C. P. Luce of Owensboro, Ky. This lecture is highly commended, and the audience is given a remarkably clear insight into that interesting country—Japan. The natural scenery of the country is shown to be equal to the splendid progress of that remarkable people.

Sunday Aug. 16

Sunday, Aug. 16.

10:30 a. m.—Address by Dr. Lewis Albert Banks, pastor of the Hanson Place M. E. church of Brooklyn, the largest Methodist church on the continent, and from his standing we can expect one of the best Sundays of the Assembly. Mr. Banks is an eloquent speaker, and a gentleman of fine presence. He is among Brooklyn's most popular divines.

2:30 p. m.—Address by Dr. Lewis Banks.

7:30 p. m.—Stereopticon Bible Reading, "Scenes from the life and Ministry of Christ and His Apostles," by Dr. C. P. Luce. This Bible reading forms a most impressive religious service.

Monday, Aug. 17.

Monday, Aug. 17.

10:00 a. m.—Morning Congress.

2:30 p. m.—A pewerful war monologue, told in story and song, entitled, "A' Soldier's Story," by Alfred E. Pearsall, assisted by Miss Marie Phillips, musical accompanist. The press notices accorded Mr. Pearsall, are ample proof that he will present one of the best things of the Assembly week, and it will be of special interest to soldiers.

7:30 p. m.—Grand Closing Concert. by the Harvard Male Quartette. This Quartette sang in Cuba a few months ago, and completely captured the hearts of our music-loving people. They will give a concert worth going many miles to hear, and will be assisted by others. Dou't miss this closing Concert, one of the features of the week.

Music.

The music for the entire week will be furnished by the well-known Harvard Male Quartette. This musical organization has a reputation for excellency that is second to none. During the course of library entertainments in Cuba they gave a concert that was pronounced to be one of the finest musical entertainments ever enjoyed by the music-laving people of this place. The operations was crowded to the doors, and the audience was enthusiastic over the singing of the Quartette, and encored every number on the programme. They will be present at each session during the Assembly, and will conduct the grand concert on Monday evening, August 17.

Size and Price of Tents.

10x14 12x16 14x19 18x25

Admission.

Course Ticket 81.00 Single Ticket, 25 cents

GEORGE H. ELDRIDGE, Secretary