Married, at the home of Harvey M. Ackley, in Penn Yan, N. Y., July 4th, 1896, by Rev. A. J. Walrath, John Lusk, of Alfred, and Mrs. Sarah J. Ackley, of Penn Yan.

Mud, mirth, music, merit, millinery and much mastication madly mingled at Lanphear Valley yesterday. Primary cause, last day of school; secondary cause, picnic. Immediate effect, good feeling; final effect, indigestion. Parties, Pedagogue Miles Davenport and the pupils and patrons of School District No. 5, Alfred and Andover.

Our readers will be interested in the fact that on Sunday, June 28, the corner stone of a new Catholic church was laid at Albion, N. Y. Rev. J. D. Bidden, who a few years ago was rector of the Blessed Sacrament church in this village, is now rector of the Albion church, and the building of the new edifice is one of the results of his activity and enterprise.

The people of Andover are not without patriotic ardor, and this was shown on Saturday evening by about a hundred of our citizens who congregated near the residence of Loren Pingrey, where a highly creditable display of fireworks, the outcome of voluntary contribution by the people of that locality, was made. After the fireworks, Mr. T. N. Boyd was called upon for a speech and responded with an address, which was so eloquent and appropriate as to elicit hearty commendations from the hearers.

We publish this week, by request, a portion of the new law providing for the attendance at a union school of pupils living in adjoining school districts. The system contemplated by the law is sure to be extensively adopted in the near future, and all persons interested should give the law a careful reading. The sections of the law are followed by suggestions and remarks by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, which make procedure under the provisions of the law easy to be understood.

The State Bank Examiner visited the Andover State Bank recently, and we understand he bestowed upon Cashier J. M. Brundage a considerable degree of commendation for the admirable manner in which that official handles the affairs of the bank. The books and all things pertaining to the institution were examined with close scrutiny, and not only did the Examiner fail to find occasion for criticism or even suggestion, but we should not be surprised to learn that he received a few "pointers" himself as to what constitutes a well

Miss Elsie Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Green, celebrated her thirteenth birthday on Monday by giving a party to her friends. Forty young people were present and they spent the afternoon in having just the best possible time. They visited the grove, where they had plenty of room for exercise, returning to Mr. Green's residence in time for the bountiful supper which had been prepared for them. Miss Elsie was the recipient of many handsome presents. The young folks made the most of the occasion, and a "splendid time" is the verdict of all. Several of the guests were from out of town.

The Citizen's Hose Company went to Canaseraga last Friday evening. When they arrived there they found there would be no band present at Canaseraga's Fourth of July celebration, and the Excelsior Band of this place was sent for. The band boys started at four o'clock Saturday morning, driving to Hornellsville, where they took a train for Canaseraga. The rain interfered seriously with the celebration and the crowd was small. In the afternoon the drill corps of the Hose Company gave an exhibition drill in the rain and mud, but these did not prevent the boys from giving a first-class exhibition, which received rounds of hearty and deserved applause. The Euterpe Club accompanied the Hose Company, and rendered several songs in their most pleasing manner. The Joyce brothers, Sammie and Eddie, were also present, and their singing was a taking feature.
