RESOLUTIONS.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Allegany County Publishers' Association, Masonic Fraternity, the K. O. T. M., and the McKinley and Hobart Club, in relation to the death of Hamilton C. Norris:

ALLEGANY COUNTY PUBLISHERS' AS-SOCIATION.

The following resolutions were adopted at a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Andover, Friday afternoon, July 17th, 1896:

WHEREAS, it having pleased God, in His inscrutable wisdom, to remove from our membership, by death, our beloved fellow craftsman and editor, Hamilton C. Norris; therefore,

Resolved, That, in his death, the village of Andover has lost a valuable citizen, the church an efficient Christian worker, the family a devoted husband and father, and the Publishers' Association an active and wise counselor.

Resolved, That we extend to the family of our deceased brother our heartfelt sympathy, and commend them to the comfort and consolation of Him who has promised to be the friend of the widow and the fatherless.

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to engross these resolutions on the record book of the Association, and that he forward a copy to the bereaved family, and also cause the same to be published in the county papers.

Gallagher-Dean.

The church of the Blessed Sacrament was to-day the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Mary E. Dean, daughter of Mr. Michael Dean, a lifelong and influential citizen, of Andover, and Patrick H. Gallagher, formerly of Lima, Ohio, but now of Washington, D. C., were united in the holy bonds of marriage.

The sacred edifice was crowded to its utmost with relatives and friends of the happy young couple. Shortly after 10 o'clock the beautiful strains of Lohengrin's march pealed forth from the organ, which was presided over by Miss Agnes DeLaney. The bridal cortege marched slowly up the aisle to the altar, where they were met by the Rev. Father F. A. Murray, who celebrated a nuptial high mass. During the mass the choir rendered some excellent music, among which was a very difficult selection entitled "O Salutaris," sung sweetly by Miss Mary and John Cannon. The ushers were Messrs. J. E. Cannon and T. K. Regan, and the bridesmaids Miss Mame Z. Moore of Hornellsville, and Miss Anna McCormick of Hammonds-port. The maid of honor was Miss Hattie Dean, sister of the bride. The bride was attired in an elaborate costume of brilliant white silk, handsomely trimmed with chiffon and taffeta ribbon, carrying a magnificent bouquet of bridal roses, and was accompanied by Mr. Eugene Brosnan, of Elmira, the groomsmen.

After the impressive ceremony, the wedding party was driven to the home of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous breakfast was served. Following the repast an informal reception was held and congratulations and well wishes were profusely showered upon the bride and groom. The happy couple left, mid a shower of rice and old shoes, for an extended wedding journey to Buffalo, and a trip up the Great Lakes.
 They will make their home in Washington, D. C., where Mr. Gallagher holds an important position in the Government printing office. Many beautiful presents were received.

Among those present from out of town were Miss Anna McCormick of Hammondsport; Miss Mame Moore, Miss Kathryn McAndrew, both of Hornellsville; Mrs. P. H. Gallagher and daughter, Miss Anna, mother and sister of the groom, respectively, and Miss Blanche Collins, niece of Mr. Gallagher.

The News joins with the many friends of the newly-married couple in congratulating Mr. Gallagher upon securing such an amiable wife, and wishes them happiness as they journey through life.

Sunday Excursion to Lake Chautauqua.

Next Sunday, July 26th, the Erie will run a popular recreation excursion to Lake Chautauqua and Celeron, the most wonderful lake amusement resort in America. Take a day off and visit it.
 The fare is cheaper than staying at home. The tickets will take you entire circuit of this great lake. Train will leave Andover at 8:10 a. m. Fare round trip, $1.50.

$100 REWARD

is offered for a case of Blood, Nerve Liver, Skin and Kidney disease that can not be cured by the proper use of Dr. Custer's Extract of Sarsaparilla, Celery, Stillingia, Dandelion, Mandrake, etc. This great medicine cures and prevents disease by removing the cause, and by strengthening the blood which becomes foul and weak through failure of the Liver and Kidneys to do their duty. This medicine has greater merit than any other preparation and is endorsed by prominent physicians, and thousands of people who have testified to miraculous cures of the most troublesome and obstinate nature that owe their origin to impure blood. The above offer is made in good faith, and the excellence of the medicine justifies manufacturers in making it and the people in giving it a proper trial. 125 doses per bottle. Regular dollar size bottles for 65c, or 5 for $3 for a limited time only, to quickly introduce it. For sale by A. Burrows, Druggist.

Notice to Gas Consumers.

During the summer months is the time for all who are delinquent on their bills to pay up in full.

We shall positively not carry any or connect on any who are delinquent on October 1st.

All gas bills must be settled by the 10th of each month in advance.

MCKINLEY AND HOBART CLUB.

WHEREAS, it is with profound sorrow that we have learned of the death of Hamilton C. Norris, who was for about nine years a resident of this town, and who was highly respected by all who knew him for his high standard of integrity, his purity of character, his pleasing and social qualities; therefore,

Resolved, That in his death we lose one of the brightest members of this club, and a worker in the Republican cause, the principles of which he always believed to be for the greatest good to the greatest number of American citizens.

Resolved, That we extend to the bereaved family our sincere sympathy in this time of their deep sorrow.

 structed to furnish a copy of these resolutions to Mrs. Ella I. Norris, widow of the deceased, and secure the publication of the same in the ANDOVER NEWS.
