Edward Everett Hale's story, "The Man Without a Country," is interesting.

Mrs. Dora A. Green is suffering with headache of the right eye. Though not necessarily dangerous her condition is anything but pleasant.—Belmont Dispatch.

Every member of the Womans' Relief Corps is requested to be present at the next meeting, Saturday evening, August 1, at 8 o'clock.

Prof. Estes of our Academy generously offers a free scholarship at Alfred to the member of next year's graduating class who attains the highest class standing.

The Erie has made a rate of one fare for round trip to Cuba, August 5 and 6, on account of the Firemen's Convention to be held on those days. The trip from Andover and return will be $1.00.

The Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church will serve ice cream, cake and sherbet on Mrs. J. M. Brundage's lawn Saturday evening, July 25. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Effectual.—Charles J. Booth, Olive-wood, Cal., says: "I have used Ayer's Pills in my family for several years, and have always found them very effectual in the relief of ailments arising from a disordered stomach, torpid liver, and constipated bowels."

Miss Mary Forsyth, of Independence, who has been receiving treatment at the Hornellsville Sanitarium for a number of weeks past, died at that institution on July 21st, aged 30 years. Funeral and interment at Whitesville on Thursday, at 1 o'clock P. M.

"Have tried others, but like Ayer's best" is the statement made over and over again by those who testify to the benefit derived from the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Disease never had a greater enemy than this powerful blood-purifier. It makes the weak strong.

Wheelmen here say that Erie Superintendent Gilpin and City Clerk Dalrymple of Hornellsville, who were in Andover on their noiseless steeds last Sunday, can learn something yet about repairing bicycles. In fact, they are not a "patch" to some of our local bicycle repair men.

It is said that gold assaying about $92 to the ton has been found in a ledge of rock near Red House, Cattaraugus county. Great excitement prevails and land has advanced in price. There is no politics in saying that the owners of real estate adjacent to the find are gold standard men.

A man and wife are both liable for the payment of a newspaper which is taken and read in the family. Recently in the district court of Rock Rapids, Iowa, Judge Oliver gave a judgment to the Germania Publishing Company against a man and his wife for a subscription bill of $20, on the ground that a newspaper is a household necessity.

Mr. Corliss F. Randolph is in town in the interest of Alfred University. This well known institution has just completed its sixtieth year under the successful administration of its new President, Rev. Boothe Colwell Davis. We note that there has been a marked increase in the attendance during the past year, and we learn that the present outlook indicates a similar increase for the coming year.

The following members of the Allegany County Publishers' Association attended the funeral of the editor of this paper last Friday: J. P. Herrick, President, Bolivar Breeze; F. A. Crumb, Frank S. Whitford, John M. Mosher, Alfred Sun; E. W. Barnes, Reporter, A. E. Cowles, Democrat, Wellsville; Bert Davis, Whitesville News; R. Stillman, Dispatch, V. A. Willard Belmont; Geo. W. Fries, Friendship Register; Frank S. Miller, Canaseraga Times; and S. H. Jennings, Almond True Issue. Geo. L. Tucker, of Belmont, formerly in business with Mr. Norris, was also present.

Ann, wife of Michael Flynn, of Greenwood, died at her home in Quigg Hollow, just across the town line between this town and Greenwood, on Sunday, July 12th, 1892, aged 71 years. Neuralgia of the heart was the cause of death. She leaves of her immediate family besides her husband, the following named children: Mrs. James Quinn, of Belmont; Mrs. Margaret Duffy, of Bridgeport, Conn.; Thomas and Michael Flynn, of Greenwood; Andrew Flynn, of Buffalo; John, Kate and Julia Flynn. Mrs. Flynn was highly esteemed for her many excellent qualities of head and heart. She was a loving wife and mother, a kind friend and a valued neighbor.

The funeral was solemnized on Wednesday, July 15th, at the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, and the very large number in attendance evidenced the regard in which she was held in the community.

I can see my own vice without heat in the distant persons of Solomon, Alcibiades and Catiline, but I see no fault in Heart's Delight Coffee.

The exterior of W. W. Miller's residence on Pleasant street is being greatly improved and beautified.

Edward Kinney has purchased of H. F. Wilcox his stock in trade in the tobacco and news-room business, and has taken possession. He will have his justice's office in the building.

Kinley and Hobart Club are requested to assemble at Prest's opera house next Monday evening, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of electing a President.

J. DRISCOLL, 1st Vice Pres. Melvin S. Collins, who has recently resided in the cheese factory in East Valley, Alfred, was found insensible in his bed last Wednesday morning. He was apparently in a coma or carus, and all efforts to arouse him from his stupor were unavailing until about 6 P. M., when he recovered consciousness, and is now, as his many friends will be glad to learn, convalescent, although still quite weak.

Here is something I know is just right: I'm speaking now of "Heart's Delight," The purest coffee properly blended. Just try a cup, you'll find it splendid.
