The Sunday School Association of the town of Independence will hold their annual basket picnic in Bloss' Grove, August 12th, 1896, commencing at 10 a. m.

An excellent programme is arranged for the occasion as follows: At 10:30 a. m. an address by Rev. Leeper, D. D., of Wellsville, followed by an address by Rev. Geistweit, of Ulysses, Pa. Recess until 2 p. m. at which time a lecture will be delivered by Will C. Gates, a popular young minister of Hornellsville N. Y., on one of the following subjects: "Some big blunders."

Inasmuch as the main object sought by this gathering together of Sunday-schools and Sunday-school workers, is the glory of God and the best good of men, let all come, and all God-fearing men make it their special aim to accomplish that most desirable end.

 DR. E. M. STILLMAN.

If you have ever seen a little child in the agony of summer complaint, you can realize the danger of the trouble and appreciate the value of instantaneous relief always afforded by DeWitt's Colic and Cholera Cure. For dysentery and diarrhea it is a reliable remedy. We could not afford to recommend this as a cure unless it were a cure. Beneficial to all.

To Whom It May Concern.

To the Editor of the NEWS:
 For the benefit of those who may have been misled by the unauthorized statements made by few of my Democratic-Populistic friends, I desire to state, most emphatically, through the columns of your paper, that I am not an advocate of the free silver doctrine proposed by the Chicago platform, and I will not only vote for McKinley and sound money, but will do all in my power to secure his election, believing that to be for the best interests of the farmer and workingman, and for the country at large.

L. M. TROWBRIDGE.

OIL NEWS.

Operations of the Mutual Gas Co.

The New Fair.

What would our forefathers say of the modern fair, with its Japanese performers, crack marksmen, thousands of dollars for horse races, bicycle races, mechanical and industrial exhibits, dog rat coaching parades, trained animals, etc.? Such a collection is offered at the Hornellsville Fair.

The Metropolis of Allegany county, N. Y., hasn't had a blow out this summer. She is waiting to expend all her energy from Aug. 31st to Sept. 4th on the Wellsville Fair, of which there is a new and hustling management.

NEW PLAN.

We have adopted a new plan for doing business. After a certain date we will sell goods either for cash or good note, or on installment plan. You can buy goods on a contract and pay monthly, with an agreement upon amount paid down. The goods will be strictly lived up to; therefore all persons indebted to us are requested to call and settle what they owe on or before the first day of September, 1896, either by cash or good note. The books will remain with us for settlement until that date. Please call and settle with us. We do not make this call for fun, or because we like to; we make it because we must either have the money you owe us, or its equivalent, in order to do business.

FOWLER & REMINGTON.

Our Undertaking is Complete.

A full line of funeral goods always on hand. Charges reasonable. Embalming a specialty, for which no extra charge is made. Night calls promptly attended. For night calls, call at the side door of the Benton block and ring the bell.
