Collecting Fads.

Foreign paper is responsible for the fact that the late Lord Randolph Churchill had a choice private collection of teeth of noted criminals, to be constantly adding up to the time before his death. The collection for the Deeming relics at the time of the ax and knife which this unmitigated villain used to murder his victim fetched $24, and the one with which he dug her grave fetched a guinea; his clothing was sold for a dozen pairs of patched socks. The collectors of "criminal" curiosities are extremely numerous all over the world, and these mementoes range from tobacco pipes which famous thieves have tossed in the past and future triumphs. A collection for a Nebraska collector to gather locks of hair shaved from the heads of noted criminals they enter the penitentiary, and labels and indexes with great care. The prices sometimes accounts for the high prices offered for such curiosities. Frenchmen obtain charms against ill luck. A hangman's rope is considered a spell against evil in some parts of France; as criminals are there so difficult to catch, they are mounted in gold and worn as Temple Bar.

Medical Result of Boiling Milk.
It tells us that the effect of boiling is to kill all the living organisms in the milk, and to coagulate all the albumin. After boiling, it is then before. The physiological effect is that all the constituents of the milk must be digested before it can be absorbed into the system; therefore, a distinct loss of utility in the milk because the living cells of fresh milk do not enter the circulation directly, and build up the system as they would do in unboiled milk. In practice, the medical profession generally that there is a highly appreciable lowered vitality in infants which are fed on milk. The explanation of this is the process of absorption is delayed, and the quantity of milk absorbed is distinctly larger for the amount of growth and nourishment of the child than is the case when fresh milk is used.—New York

Latest Vehicle Advertising.
A city ordinance forbids the use of the streets to vehicle advertisements. A man was fined for showing an advertisement on a pole was fined recently.

"I like the small package of Pearline," a lady says; "it lasts two weeks and does two washings." Then she admits that she has been using soap with her Pearline. Now this is all unnecessary. If you don't put in enough Pearline to do the work easily and alone, you bring means hard work and rubbing. If you use enough Pearline, the soap is a needless expense, and you'll have the most thoroughly economical washing.
Beware of cheap imitations. Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled; if your grocer sends you an imitation, be honest—send it back.

EVERY FARMER IN THE NORTH CAN MAKE MORE MONEY IN THE MIDDLE SOUTH.
We can make twice as much. We can sell 100 Northern farms and get twice as many acres for the same money down here. We will improve farms for $3 to $50 an acre. Plenty of railroads—four every week. Neither too hot nor too cold—climate just right. Northern farmers are coming every week. If you are interested, write for FREE pamphlet and ask all the questions you want to. It is a pleasure to us to answer them.
