Andover is all right, and their Citizens' Hose drill company under Dr. D. D. Walker, is an honor to that town. —Cuba Post.

Miss Minnie Hall was able to ride so far from home as Lanphear Valley last Thursday, where she visited Mrs. D. L. Langworthy.

W. B. Bundy and J. E. Cannon attended the annual convention of the Association at Wayland last week.

Prof. F. C. White, of Whitesville, has secured a position as principal of the union school at Patterson, N. Y., at a salary of $800 per year.

The General Conference commences today at Alfred, closing next Monday night. Delegates are expected from nearly every state in the union.

John McEwen, of Wellsville, has presented an elegant new banner to the hose company bearing his name and the boys are more than pleased.

On one of the recent very hot days it was discovered at Almond that a carload of hogs passing through on the Erie, at least half of the animals were dead.

Wm. E. Greene moved his household goods to Hornellsville last Thursday. He is to take care of the inner man of Dr. J. D. Mitchell's patients, and he can do it, too.

The town of Almond was originally known as Township number 4 of the 7th range of towns belonging to the Putney estate. It was formerly embraced in the town of Alfred.

Have you heard the new song, "In the Shadow of the Pines?" It is immense! Legg Bros., of Kansas City, Mo., have it, and they are making a cut price of 25c. a copy. Take our advice and send for one.

The Sun says: "There is hardly an apple tree around Alfred, that makes any pretensions at all, which is not braced up, the limbs are so overloaded with apples." And the same comes from every part of the country.

The Wellsville Reporter, among the Fair notes, says: All Andover will attend the Fair, the Citizens' Hose will give a fancy drill, the Euterpe Club will sing, and the Andover band will probably be here to play at least one day.

Phillips Bros. No. 3 well on the Stout farm, lot 93, Wellsville, was shot Wednesday and made a fine showing. Oil men state that it is the best of any of the wells yet drilled in that section. It will settle to about five barrels.—Reporter.

The new officers of the Allegany County Board of Insurance Underwriters are: President, Mr. Willis of Belfast; Vice President, Mr. Weaver of Angelica; Secretary, Eugene Farnum of Wellsville; Treasurer, Mr. Cross of Friendship.

Belmont village trustees have imposed a $5 fine for riding a bicycle on any of the sidewalks in the corporation. This includes the walks to the utmost limits of the village. A $5 fine is also provided for riding on the streets faster than five miles an hour.

A. W. Litchard, of Rushford, was to give the address before the Schoharie county farmers' meeting yesterday. He has also been invited to address a meeting in Schuyler county, Aug. 27th, and in Erie county, at the Farmers' Institute, the first part of September.

D. K. Porter and J. W. Richardson took a drive last Sunday in which there was, for about a minute, quite as much excitement as pleasure. The boys say they don't mind riding fast, but they prefer that the horses they are driving shall each have all their feet on one side of the carriage tongue.

The Citizens' Hose of Andover, the very best drill corps in Western New York, has been secured as a special attraction for the Wellsville Fair. Since the Andover boys' appearance in Wellsville, the company has perfected a large number of fancy evolutions and is now able to give a great exhibition.—Reporter.

D. D. Walker left here last Friday night for White Plains, N. Y., where he has a position with Charles P. Sherwood, hardware merchant. Dan's experience in that line, acquired in E. J. Atwood's employ, will doubtless render him a valuable salesman to his new employer, and we will warrant him to make a good citizen of White Plains.

Mrs. Nellie Sarsfield Brooks died of ulceration of the stomach and bowels, last Thursday, at her mother's home in Hornellsville, aged 23 years. Mrs. Brooks was the wife of F. G. Brooks, who will be remembered as having kept a restaurant in the old post-office building. During her residence here she made many friends. Misses Flora Bandy and Nellie Potter of this village attended her funeral.

George W. Smalley, the famous American editor-author, has been granted a two months' holiday by his paper, the London Times, and has gone abroad on a special mission for the Ladies' Home Journal. He engaged to prepare a short series of articles for that magazine, and is gathering the material for them in Europe. The work will necessitate his spending some time in England, and the remainder in Germany.

Frank L. Smith, station agent at Van Buren, Ohio, who was born and grew to manhood in this town, arrived at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Smith, last week, accompanied by a lady who up to Wednesday, Aug. 12th, 1896, had been Miss Mary McMurray, of Van Buren, but who on that day became Mrs. F. L. Smith. Everybody knows how the bridegroom is respected in Andover, and everybody gives warm welcome and sincere congratulations to him and his bride. The Excelsior Band, on Saturday evening, gave the newly wedded pair a "horning" in the most approved style of the art. The News extends best wishes.

John Fowler, gauger for the National Transit Company in the Clarksville district, narrowly escaped being roasted alive last Friday. When he left home in the morning he turned off the gas in the kitchen stove, as he supposed, but failed to close the throttle tight. He returned to the house in the afternoon and attempted to light the fire. The room was full of gas and an explosion occurred. Fowler was badly burned about the face and arms and was blown through the side of the house, and the house took fire and was destroyed with all its contents, entailing a loss of several hundred dollars. It was with great difficulty that Fowler escaped alive. All he saved from the wreck was a lantern. His family was away on a visit when the accident occurred.
