Fowler & Remington will not ask you again in these columns to walk up and settle. They said September 1st, and they mean it!

Of the thousand deaths by heat, during the recent unprecedented term, the largest proportion is attributed to the free use of ardent spirits.

W. W. Miller was substituted as delegate to the Republican convention last Friday, in place of Rudolphus Howland, who was unable to attend.

H. F. Wilcox has been appointed an agent of the Merchants' Newspaper and Periodical Agency. His field embraces the territory between Hornellsville and Olean.

W. J. Glenn seems always to draw a prize. At Saratoga he was unanimously chosen to succeed himself as committee man for the 34th Congressional District.

Rev. L. A. Platts, D. D., of Milton, Wis., a former pastor of the Seventh-day Baptist church of this village, will preach for that people next Saturday morning.

Miss Anne L. Langworthy, of New York city, will lecture in the M. E. church, Monday evening, Aug. 31st. Subject, "Hereditary." Admission free. All invited.

The picnic of the Pardon family, which was held yesterday on the farm for so many years the property of John Pardon, was largely attended and as largely enjoyed by the participants.

An item is going the rounds of the press to the effect that a young lady had a needle enter her waist about a year ago, and that it recently worked its way out of the arm of a young man in another city.

Patrick Riley, a resident of South Hill, fell from a load of oats last Thursday and sustained injuries which it is feared will prove fatal. As we go to press news reaches us that his recovery seems impossible.

A picnic of the Greene, Crandall, Livermore and Everett families is in progress today on the William B. Greene farm in Independence. Our town is largely—and, of course, ably and handsomely—represented.

Mrs. Richard O'Boyle received yesterday from Record Keeper A. O'Donnell, of Mutual Tent No. 18, K. O. T. M., a check for $2,000, the amount for which her late husband was insured in that excellent organization.

The Andover delegation, with its appendix, addenda and supplement, returned from the Belmont convention quite late Friday night, bringing a large and complete assortment of hoarseness. What do you think caused it?

We earnestly desire news items, every week if possible, from Greenwood, West Union, Independence, and such near-by localities as Elm Valley, Fulmer Valley, East and Lanphear Valleys and Corwin Hill, where the News has many readers.

Dr. E. J. Laughlen, who has just completed a post graduate course in medicine at the University of Chicago, will arrive here with his family tomorrow. It is expected that he will establish himself in the practice of his profession here.

The Swain family picnic is in the full tide of successful experiment today. The Baker Band is very much in it. The once merry, musical, mirth-provoking John Swain, who has attained the gravity of demeanor befitting his years, is also in it by a large majority.

There is no politics in the statement that the Excelsior Band was up to the limit last Friday at Belmont. The Ex's will play at the Harvest Home tomorrow and at the Wellsville Fair next week. You will please understand that Excelsior Band is in steady demand.

J. C. Dyer, of Plainfield, N. J., is in town. He has purchased of Mrs. Alice Barnard a lot on Center street, and will erect a dwelling there. Mr. Dyer is well known here where he was for years engaged in merchandising, and Andover will gladly receive him again as a resident.

Don't forget that, Barnum & Bailey's circus posters to the contrary notwithstanding, the Wellsville Fair is the "greatest show on earth," and this year our own champion-belt Citizens' Hose will assist in making it so by giving an exhibition drill on Thursday of next week on the Fair grounds.

Preaching service, in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening. Subject of sermon—"The Dynamite of Power." Class meeting and Sabbath school at 10 a. m. Junior League at 3 o'clock p. m., and Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. If you do not attend elsewhere, you are invited to attend any or all of these ser-

The Andover News has been reduced from a five-column quarto to a five-column folio.—Whitesville News.

"Reduced to a five-column folio?" Not on your life! so to speak. It may be our Whitesville brother. Received but a half-sheet last week. That occurrence occurs sometimes. So high that our "insides" give out. And we send out to our exchanges the home-printed portion. No doubt that happened, hence these rhymes.

The members of the martial band say that for old fashioned, double-breasted hospitality there isn't a spot on earth to match Franklinville. The "boys" were grandly entertained. They were given the freedom of the town and, it is said, the town itself was offered them but was respectfully declined on the ground that Andover was growing so rapidly that there wasn't any place to put noble, free-hearted Franklinville.

Among the people of Andover who were in attendance some part of the time at the Seventh-day Baptist General Conference at Alfred, which closed Monday evening, were: D. D. Remington and wife, F. M. Bassett, J. C. Bassett and wife, Mrs. G. W. Probasco, L. Probasco, E. Everett and wife, Mrs. W. B. Clarke, E. D. Clarke and wife, Mrs. C. C. Livermore, Fred S. Withey, Miss Alice Clarke, N. L. Beebe and wife, O. E. Vars and family, Rev. W. B. Waggoner and wife, Geo. H. Baker, Mrs. Ellen Baker and daughters Sadie, Susie and Jennie, Mrs. Lewis Hall, Mrs. Clark Robbins, L. D. Bronier and wife, Miss Addie Evans. Doubtless there were others from this town present, but the reporter did not see them.
