THE POLITICAL CONVENTIONS MEET.

State Convention at Saratoga.
 Owing to the lateness of the hour, last week, when we heard of the nomination made for Governor of this state, at Saratoga, we stopped the press to simply announce that Hon. Frank S. Black of Rensselaer county was honored with that nomination. Hon. Timothy L. Woodruff of Kings county received the nomination for Lieutenant Governor, and Hon. Irving G. Vann of Syracuse for Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals.
 Frank S. Black was born in Maine in 1853, and graduated from Dartmouth College in 1875. He was admitted to the bar, and has since practiced law successfully in his native state and in Troy. He was elected to Congress in 1894 from the 19th district.
 Timothy L. Woodruff was born in New Haven, Conn., Aug. 4th, 1858. In 1879 he graduated from Yale College and went to Poughkeepsie, where he took a course in a business college. He went to Brooklyn in 1881 and entered politics the same year. He was sent as a delegate to the Republican National Convention in Chicago in 1888, and is Park Commissioner of Brooklyn, having been appointed by Mayor Wurster on Jan. 10th of this year.
 Irving G. Vann was born in Ulisses, Tompkins Co., N. Y., Jan. 3, 1842. His boyhood days were spent on the farm, but he enjoyed good educational advantages. His preparatory course for college was pursued at Ithaca Academy, and his college course at Yale, where he was graduated in 1863. He then began the study of law. In 1865 he was a clerk in the Treasury Department at Washington. In 1879 he was Mayor of Syracuse. In November, 1881, he was elected Justice of the Supreme Court for 14 years. Last winter he was appointed a Judge of the Court of Appeals by Gov. Morton to fill a vacancy caused by the retirement from the Court of Judge Rufus W. Peckham.

The Congressional Convention.
 The Republican Congressional Convention met at Olean on Friday, Aug. 28th, and was called to order by Geo. E. Tiffany, chairman of the congressional committee, and Louis McKinstry, of Chautauqua, was made chairman. Chas. H. Brown of Belmont was elected secretary, and J. C. Russell of Dunkirk, Geo. A. Green of Belmont, and W. E. Wheeler of Portville were made tellers.
 After the chairman appointed a new congressional committee, Hon. Arthur C. Wade of Jamestown, in an eloquent speech, presented the name of Hon. Warren B. Hooker to succeed himself as Congressman from the 34th district. The name of E. B. Vreeland of Salamanca was presented by Spencer Whipple as Cattaraugus' choice. Oscar A. Fuller of Wellsville was also a candidate before the convention. The roll of delegates was then called. Allegany led off, casting 42 votes for Hooker and 10 for Oscar A. Fuller, the latter's votes coming from Angelica, Alma, Canadea, Willing and Wellsville. Cattaraugus gave Vreeland 50 votes and Hooker 6, while Chautauqua cast her solid vote for Hooker. The result gave Hooker 114, Vreeland 50, and Fuller 10 votes. On motion of Mr. Vreeland, Mr. Hooker's nomination was made unanimous.

Democratic Sound Money Convention.
 The Democratic Party Reform Organization held their State Convention at Syracuse Monday of this week. Full delegations attended it. Not a county was unrepresented. The enthusiasm was tremendous. From the opening to the end cheers and applause punctuated the proceedings. The convention repudiated the Chicago ticket and platform. The Reform party bolted Bryan and Sewall. It declared unanimously and unequivocally for a gold standard. It refused to support McKinley. It elected delegates-at-large and a full delegation to the Indianapolis convention. It perfected a complete organization, stronger than ever before, throughout the state. Then it named two electors-at-large, thereby throwing down the gauge of battle to the regular Democratic State Organization.

Regan, W. C. Cannon, A. B. Burrows, F. W. Burrows, L. G. Probasco, Miss Terwilliger, of Albany; Richard Carter and Lu Langworthy, of Alfred, Willett Ward and Myra Leonard, of Wellsville, were also present.
 The Swain family picnic, which was noticed as being on when the News went to press last week, was attended by about forty persons. The Baker Band of this town enlivened the occasion with abundance of meritorious music. Although not so strong numerically nor yet such remarkable all-round vocal and instrumental musicians as the once famous McGibeny family, the ten sons of Newell Baker are not to be overlooked as brass bandists. They range in age from seven to thirty years, and every mother's son of them is a born musician. They were no insignificant feature of the pioneer picnic at Silver Lake this year. But for the accident (elsewhere recorded) occurring to John Swain and wife, the picnic was in everything a success. Those present from out of town were: S. A. Swain, wife and two daughters, of Fernandina, Fla.; S. E. Cook and family, of Castile, N. Y.; E. E. Swain, of Ulisses, Pa., and Ernest Orvis and family, of Hartsville.
 L. E. Wiles, Dentist,
