 Over is well represented at the Fall Fair this week.
 Drainer has something to say to the public on our fourth page.
 Slocum, Jr., is reported to be seriously sick with inflammation of the lungs.
 Abel Clark, an aged resident of Wellsville, is seriously, and it is feared, seriously ill.
 A large number of our citizens to Hornellsville, Saturday, to see Mr. Wm. J. Bryan.
 Riley and Rodolphus Howland whose injuries were mentioned in our paper are rapidly recovering.
 Small boy and the all-day-sucker, an effective combination, was a feature of Harvest Home.
 Sewing machine and the poll-trick are both at work, but the sewing machine does the best.

The Presbyterian Sunday school enjoyed a picnic at D. T. Betzner's Tuesday.

Rev. Daniel Redmond, of New York, preached an able sermon to a large audience in the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning.

The management of the Cuba Fair and Races will make the coming Fair, to be held Sept. 22-25, one of the best ever given by this popular association.

On account of the Wellsville Fair the Farmers' Club meeting which was to have been held at Scio on Tuesday of this week, has been postponed to Oct. 6.

The thought of the average school-boy, as vacation days draw near their end, may be expressed in the poetic line, "Backward, turn backward, O time, in your flight."

The East Aurora Citizen says of Hamilton Ward, Jr., an Allegany boy: Mr. Ward is one of Erie county's prominent young attorneys, and is doing important and effective campaign work in behalf of McKinley.

A very respectable number of very respectable people assembled at the depot on Saturday afternoon to see and hear Candidate Bryan, who, it is said, would briefly address the assemblage but the train did not stop.

Of course no one can name all those from out of town who were present at the Harvest Home, but among them were: Mrs. John M. Mosher, Miss Maggie Mosher, Miss Sarah McElroy, A. P. Saunders and wife, and Russell Crandall, of Alfred.

Wednesday evening there was promise of rain on the following day, but D. D. Remington declared there would be only a shower to lay the dust for Harvest Home day. He proved to be just right. After all, D. D. is no slouch as a weather prophet.

The following named persons from this town attended the annual reunion of the 1st N. Y. Dragoons at Portage last Thursday: D. D. Remington and wife, F. M. Bassett and wife, Roswin Hardy, E. H. Chase, John Howe, J. L. Williams and wife, Frank Sortore and Michael Lynch, Jr.

A successful operation was performed at Wellsville last week upon Mrs. W. H. Phillips, by Dr. F. E. Comstock, assisted by Drs. Mitchell of Hornellsville, and Remington of Whitesville. Although still quite weak, the patient is doing as well as can be expected under the circumstances.

At Andover is a band of ten members—brothers—by the name of Baker. The eldest is 30 years, the youngest 7. They played at the Pioneer Festival at the Lake recently; the youngest, who plays the bass drum, was absent. Remarkable amount of musical talent to make a brass band from one family.—Home Enterprise.

The lecture on "Heredity," by Miss Anne L. Langworthy, of New York, at the M. E. church, Monday evening, was a pleasing entertainment, and those who did not hear her missed a rare treat. Miss Langworthy has made a study of her subject, and speaks as if she knew what she is talking about. She is an easy and graceful speaker.

The annual reunion and camp fire of the veterans of the 85th Regiment, New York Volunteers, is to be held in Olean Oct. 1st. It so happens that this is the third day of the Free Street Fair, which will be G. A. R. day. The old soldiers will therefore own the town that day, and a big demonstration is expected, says the Olean Times. Bayard Post, G. A. R., is already arranging a program.

A pleasant party was held at Prest's Opera House last Thursday evening. Quite a number were present from Wellsville and Alfred. From the latter town were: Richard Carter, LeRue Bliss, Phil Greene, Raymond Cottrell, Max Greene, Misses Mollie Terwilliger, Bernice Cottrell, Bessie Stillman, Lu Langworthy, Sophie Reynolds, Belle Santee and Mary Cottrell. Miss Nell Jones, of Cleveland, Ohio, accompanied the party from Alfred.

While John Swain and wife were on their way from their home in Karr Valley, Almond, on Wednesday of last week, to attend the picnic of the Swain family which was held on the farm owned and lately occupied by John Swain, his horse took fright at a bicycle just at the top of Cole hill at Tip Top Summit, and overturned and utterly wrecked the carriage, the occupants of which were thrown with great violence down the hill and received severe and painful injuries. Mr. Swain had one rib broken and was otherwise injured, while Mrs. Swain received some severe bruises. The sufferers wholly exonerate the wheelman from blame, as he sought by all means in his power to prevent a collision and did everything possible to assist and relieve the unfortunate ones. The bicyclist sustained some injury, as also did his wheel.

Professor O. P. Fairfield, a graduate of Union Christian College of Indiana, has been secured as Professor in Latin in Alfred University, to take the place made vacant by the resignation of Professor George Scott.

Hires Rootbeer is strengthening, both to the nerve and brain worker, as well as to the physical athlete. Every household should have it. It is the most delicious, sparkling and effervescent drink in the world. A package makes five gallons. Campaign paraders will find it very refreshing.

Which is worse, imprisonment for life or a life-long disease, like scrofula, for example? The former, certainly, would be preferable were it not that Ayer's Sarsaparilla can always come to the rescue and give the poor sufferer health, strength, and happiness.

The latest thing in collars and cuffs just received at Snyder & Mason's. A hacking cough keeps the bronchial tubes in a state of constant irritation, which, if not speedily removed, may lead to chronic bronchitis. No prompter remedy can be found than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Its effect is immediate and the result permanent.
