An unusual amount of business—and the News office has had no lack of business for a month past—has necessitated the employment of another compositor, and Miss Maggie Mosher, of Alfred, is "holding cases" here at present.

Hon. E. D. Loveridge, President of

gany county owes much, for the service

At the fire last week M. V. Barber cried out that he was on fire. Joe Coulston stood near by, and in the dark and without looking, carelessly grabbed up a pair of swill and dashed it over Mr.
Barber. It put out the fire.—Wells-ville Reporter of Tuesday.

A prominent apple buyer is quoted as saying that the price of winter apples will be higher than last year. The crop in this section is a large one, but in other sections it is said to be light, and good prices will therefore rule.
This will be good news to our farmers.

The fellow who is always figuring things, estimates the number of bicycle riders in this country at something between eight and ten millions. This is a rough estimate, but some of the roads on which the wheelmen and wheel-women ride, are a good deal rougher than the estimate.

The village board of Alfred are discussing the advisability of placing three hydrants on the water line that A. B.
Cottrell is laying on Park street. It has been suggested that Mr. Cottrell build a 500 barrel tank near the well and that the village put one hydrant at the corner of Park and Terrace streets, a second on Park street about midway between Terrace and University streets.
So says the Sun.

A special from Rochester, under date of Sept. 12th, has this item about one of the highly esteemed pastors of the M. E. Church of Andover for several years: Rev. E. C. Grames, pastor of Hedding church, is a brave man. He was out bicycle riding Wednesday forenoon, and when near the canal bridge on Exchange street, saw a boy swept into the water by the tow line of a canal boat. Without hesitation Mr.
Grames jumped in and rescued the boy, and then took his departure for home.

T. P. Larden is in Ovid this week, learning the true condition of ex-Postmaster John Crandall, who is receiving treatment at the hospital. All kinds of stories have been set afloat by all kinds of people, and the Grand Army comrades of Mr. Crandall decided to learn the truth and sent Mr. Larden to Ovid to investigate the matter. Miss Belya Crandall, aged 16, is hopelessly ill at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Crandall on South street. She is a victim of consumption and death cannot be far away. This is sad news to the many friends of the young lady.—Bolivar Breeze.
Miss Alice Toop, M. R. A., has arrived at Alfred University to take up her residence as director of music and organist in the church. She has been strongly recommended for the position.
Miss Toop had a large and lucrative connection in New York city, which she has given up simply on the score of health. She has been for some months organist of the church of the Holy Sepulchre in New York, and Tuesday evening last a reception was tendered her, at which sincere regrets were expressed at the loss of her services. Miss Toop has been an active worker in the parish and has taken an active interest in the working girls of the district.—

From the Frewsburg correspondence of the Jamestown Journal, we clip the following item in which an Andover boy receives favorable mention: "The union school of this place opened this week under promising circumstances.
Prof. Pingrey, our new principal, and Mr. Crofoot, the first assistant, came to us highly recommended, and they have already made a favorable impression upon all. They are both highly educated, energetic Christian gentlemen, and their influence upon the students and young people of the place will be such as all parents will be pleased to have their children receive.

The germandizer likes it because it is fine. The workman likes it because it quenches his thirst, enriches his blood, and strengthens his muscles. It is cheap. The mother likes it—it keeps her boys at home. The women of America like it, because it takes the place of intoxicants. This Hires Root-beer. Campaign paraders will use it.
