The amendment to the Constitution of this state, relating to the releasing and rental of forest lands, was gloriously defeated at the polls last week Tuesday.

Almost immediately on the receipt of the news that McKinley had been elected to the Presidency of these United States, business began to boom in earnest. All over the country mills and factories and shops are starting up, giving employment to thousands who have been lying idle for months and years. To tell the room than we have at our disposal. Suffice it to say, in the North, East, __ West and South the manufacturing interests are already responding to the rising pulse of prosperity.
