McKINLEY AND BRYAN VOTING.

It may be interesting to our readby the special press dispatches.

Major McKinley entered the polling place at 8:55, and greeted the inspectors with the cordial "Good morning, gentlemen; I'm glad to see | all of you." The formalities of the performance were soon over, and as his ballot, No. 230, went into the box the candidate took off his bat and Successor to E. M.
