The Berlin Reichsbote has published a series of articles by Dr. Johannes Lepsius, son of the famous Egyptologist, who figures out from the best sources of information that at least 100,000 persons have been massacred in Armenia. He has a list of 559 villages, the inhabitants of which were converted to Islamism with fire and sword, and 282 churches which were destroyed.

An Englishman, now in Washington, says: "The poor man in this country seems to be more self-respectmade the name of Whitechapel notorious all over the world. The latter is in such abject poverty that he has lost all hope of ever bettering his condition. How the miserable wretches live is a mystery. And when it comes to the women this Nation has an immense advantage. Your women do not frequent public drinking-houses. It is the greatest disgrace of London, that the women of the poorer class are as good customers of the liquor shops as the men, and worse still, the poison is handed them across the bar by one of their own sex. In East London children of tender years accompany their mothers into such

Many Women Will Recognize It

H, I am so nervous! No one ever suffered as I do! There isn't a well inch in my whole body! I honestly think my lungs are diséased, my chest pains me so; but I've no cough. I'm so weak at my stomach, and have indigestion horribly. Then I have palpitation, and my heart hurts me. How I am losing flesh! and this headache nearly kills me; and the back-

"There is that weight and bearing down feeling all the time; and there are pains in my groin and thighs. I can't sleep, walk or sit. I'm diseased all over. The doctor? Oh! he tells me to keep quiet. Such mockery!"

An unhealthy condition of the female organs can produce all the above symptoms in the same person. In fact, there is hardly a part of the body can escape those sympathetic pains and

- No woman should allow herself to reach such a perfection of misery when there is positively no need of it.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound acts promptly and thoroughly in such cases, strengthens the muscles, heals all inflammation, and restores the organ to its normal condition. Druggists are selling carloads of it. Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., will gladly and freely answer all letters asking for advice.

Mrs. E. Bishop, 78 Halsey Street, Brooklyn, N. Y., suffered all the above described miseries. Now she is well. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured her. Write her about it.

A prominent actress writes: ". . You cannot imagine the fearful condition I was in when I first wrote to you. I was simply of no use to myself or anyone else. I had worked hard, and my nervous system was shattered from female complaint and travelling constantly I ran the gauntlet of doctors' theories, till my health and money were rapidly vanishing. . . . I'm all right now, and am gaining flesh daily. I follow your advice faithfully in everything. Thank you ten thousand times for what your knowledge and Lydia E.
