He will present some very interesting facts and figures relative to the cost of the state printing, its increase during the past year, and the still greater increase which will result in the event of the passage of Mr. Glen's bill.

Mr. Robbins said to a member of the Buffalo Express Bureau yester-

"There is no room for doubt that the state is very extravagant in the matter of printing. I have been told by several people that it would not be wise for me to oppose the Glen bill, or to make any protest against the spending of money in the lavish way which has been going on for some time and for which more extensive preparations are being made. These people have said that I am hitting my own friends in doing so. All I have to say about that is that Successor to E. M. STILLMAN. any man who upholds the willful waste of public money is not my

It is not, of course, a reasonable conjecture that our Member will be able to stay the tide of extravagant and unnecessary expenditure by his voice and vote, but he will faithfully represent those who sent him to Albany to guard their interests. He will not be among those who "know sue;" and whatever the outcome o Mr. Robbins' legislative course may be, he will not fail to receive the support of a constituency which has expressed by his election their confidence in his honesty and fearlessness.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: "January has been a month of disappointment, but of real gain. The record during the past week shows that ten iron works have started and only two have stopped. Thirteen woolen works have started and nine more are about ready to The Up-to-date Jeweler. start, while three have stopped. Similar things are seen in other indus tries.
