WEDNESDAY MARCH. 8, 1897.

In the opinion of Crispi, former prime-minister of Italy, Americans Toil sleeps, care lulls, now cease are working to prepare a future for 1 the peoples of the Old World which is .. not an agreeable one.

The New York Herald is authority for the statement that living within the limits of Greater New York, there ere no less than fifteen thousand husbands who are under bond to support their wives.

thirty-six free libraries have been es- knowledge of the world. tablished by towns in the state.

according to the calculations of a Cen- the wrinkles out of her apron with her was a park policeman." tral Branch (Kan.) farmer, who fig- pudgy hand. ures that whereas the ground produces in a year twenty bushels of wiping them with his handkerchief. corn, worth $2, the hen which costs less to take care of, lays ten dozen night here," pursued she. eggs, worth $1.50.

passed entirely out of control of the severely. Republican party, announces the San Francisco Chronicle. Within the Union, Nebrask has had but five ago-shall I describe him?" state officers who were not elected on the Republican ticket, and of these, two occupied non-political positions as regents of the state university.

In a paper presented lately by A. J. Michelin to the French Society of compressing his lips. suggestive account of his experiments his doings." with the pneumatic tire and the ordinary wheels. The first experiment was made when the ground was covered with two inches of snow, also when the snow was melting, and then when landlady, "and he always carried a McCandless was very taciturn at his Mrs. Allen put on her spectacles and the ground was muddy. Other tests | rough oak stick. Well, as I was say- | meals and went to and fro in a brown | read aloud as follows: consisted of pulls of varying speeds ing, about a month ago he rang the study. over macadam, paved and ordinary roads. In all of these the pneumatic | and-" tire showed a saving in pulling power of from thirty to nearly fifty per

One of the signs of the times in Germany, is the large number of publications (many of them anonymous) and need of help of the lower classes. | to let. The side room on the top floor Pamphlets and books of this kind are | was the only one vacant, and I told him | fidential tone. appearing nearly every day and find so with misgivings, for I didn't think ready readers. One of the most sentrent, and I said $2 a week. Looking For answer McCandless drew from cast down her eyes. sational is that signed "Ein Arzt." up and down the street in a queer way, In it a veteran physician gives, from he said he'd take it." his diary and practice, a large number of illustrative cases in which death and disease were directly due to ex- had been trying to take down Mrs. lodger huskily. treme poverty and to the heartless demands of industrialism, unrelieved by any state or private aid.

to be introduced in the Indiana legis. He stammered out that he had no When last seen wore a brown slouch front door. A click, and it opened or we'll be ruined." lature by the state L. A. W. division, trunk, but would it matter so long as hat, dark coat mixed trousers, and McCandless looking through the parlor "I won't do that," said provides that no wagon weighing, with he paid in advance? I said I didn't gaiters. One thousand dollars reward portieres recognized Peterson. At the grimly. "I'll do better. I'll put shall have tires less than three inches asked him for references, Mrs. Allen?" Thomas Binns, Chief of Police." in width; no wagon weighing with load between two and three tons shall have tires less than four inches in width; and that weights of over three and his landlady went on: tons require tires five inches wide, all these regulations applying to four coming, he said he would be here the wheeled vehicles, the tires must be same night, upon which I gave him a not less than four inches wide for ment of a quarter. Just as he was weights from one to two tons, and six | going down the steps I inquired his inches wide for weights over two tons. I name and he turned red and mumble The penalty for violation of the law something." is to be a fine of $25 for each day of the violation, one-half of the fine to go to the prosecuting attorney and the remainder to the county treasury as a part of the road tax fund for the he said I might call him Peterson." maintenance of the public highways. The bill, if passed, will not go into him again?" effect until January 1, 1898, to allow the owners of vehicles ample time to said Mrs. Allen, who was now all of a effect a proper change of tires.

liloquizes: We smile at one's dring out so much as a 'How d' ye do?' That curiosity to her fingertins. single rejected affection is seldom tatal and opened my bed room door to look shut the door behind her. quickly, die of not being loved at all. I son going down. Then I heard the mortality if the facts were truly

AT EVENING. od finshed the sunset through the cup the landledy continued her story: Of misted hills and sold, "He came the next night and de-"Now the day is dead, Earth dark, let thine eyes look up.

The tumultuous wheels of day, And the sum's last ray Spreads the purple of night's peace.

The curtained mists above The darkened valley spread. Hush! God has said His sunset word of love.

-Herbert Bates.

him noiselessly."

"Have you ever seen Peterson carry

"Did you ever find anything in Peter- )

"What am I going to do about it?"

of a man's face at the top.

whom that picture resembles?"

The landlady studied it hard.

blance to Peterson, Mrs. Allen?"

"Does it not bear a strong resem-

"State what it was."

less decidedly.

McCandless was perplexed.

the suggestion of Librarian Van Name who had lodged and boarded with that you."

"Well, I never find the bed disturbed, friends are connected with the Central and the light went out." although the counterpane is sometimes Office, and they tell me that I ought to soiled by his muddy boots in the morn- be one of them. I come by my detec- of breath. One hen is equal to an acre of land, ing," replied the landlady, smoothing tive talents naturally, for my father

"Aliem, that is curious," mused Mc- anything upstairs?" Candless, removing his glasses and "And he never spends the whole,

"You don't mean to say he leaves | | his left arm." Defore daylight?" "That's just what I do mean to say, I

For the first time in the history of and I can't make up my mind that he's Nebraska, its state government has a respectable man," said the landlady "Just tell me when he comes and pause for reflection. "Nothing; absolutely nothing."

when he goes, and all you know about 30 years since its admission into the "Well, let me see. About a month cases I ever heard of," said McCand- wife, and they had an infant two They won't believe me,"

> "Yes, yes, go on; omit nothing." "He's a slim young man with a very the landlady. thin face—a hatchet face, I should call it very small, piercing, black eyes, watching. He may be a counterfeiter, and just a bit of a dark mustache." "Then he is rather a mysterious a forger, a fugitive from justice." looking man?" put in McCandless, Mrs. Allen was distressed and fright-

"He is, indeed," returned the land-Civil Engineers, the author gives a lady, "but not half as mysterious as she asked.

"And how was he dressed?" McCandless had taken out an en-

"His clothes were shabby," said the door bell one afternoon, and I went to for you in a day or two." "That is just what I thought," cried said her lodger darkly; "but go on, for my account in the course of a few side."

he was good pay. He asked me the What have you found out about him?" The buxom landlady blushed

"Did he appear to think he might be printed in very black ink with a cut | That night McCandless let Burke crook," said the detective. "Mo followed?" asked McCandless, wiping the perspiration from his brow, for he Allen's statement in long-hand. care, if he paid me regularly."

"I never expect references for hall bed rooms, Mr. McCandless, especially when they're on the top floor."

McCandless coughed uncomfortably

"When I asked him how soon he was latchkey on the usual condition—pay-

"By George! Mrs. Allen, it looks peculiar. I have a theory. But you in-. sisted upon knowing his name,

"Yes, I put the question again, and "Plainly a nom de guerre. I mean • fictitious name. When did you see

"That's the surprising part of it, fluster with excitement. "I didn't see as she could and made her way uphim for three days, and then he came stairs with all the speed her embonmorning. I heard a foot on the stairs Candless burst out as soon as she had their backs with a sword cane.

"Oh, you may be sure I thought of away from the table.

"How do you know? What have you touzled that. No, he had nothing in his hand found out?" said the landlady, her "Twhat to the morning of this Allen?" he whispered as he slipped

The landlady excused herself as soon

"I have made a great discovery," Mc-but the oak stick which he always generous bosom heaving in her excite- side demanded. "Days McCandless spoke rapidly, evidently No, only to lock you carried away by his discovery. parted just as mysteriously, but the at 2 o'clock and I followed him, wearqueer thing about it was that he al- ing gums. He walked as a quick pace shricked McCandless; "was ways banged the door when he went toward Washington Square so fast, not Peterson, and you know it in fact, that I had difficulty in keeping The young man looked contract "Hem! I don't know that that was him in sight. Crossing the square, he was silent. "Hem! I don't know that that was entered a house near Sixth Avenue Burke made a rush at his Allen. He may have wanted to give with a latchkey. There was one turning the table and sending. some body—the police, for instance— lighted window on the second floor of of ink spilling in all directions. "We must go round and tab the idea that he had a right to come the house. In a moment I saw his twinkle he had a pair of harden and go unmolested. Now, I think that shadow on the curtain. I could iden- Peterson's wrists. was a more suspicious circumstance tify him by his slouch hat and by his was a more suspicious circumstance figure. A woman came and stood be- woman for a witness," said flock side him. Suddenly there was the cry They pushed and half carried p him noiselessly.

The landlady looked at McCandless of an infant, loud and shrill. The son down the stairs to the street and landlady looked at McCandless of an infant, loud and shrill. The son down the stairs to the street and landlady looked at McCandless of an infant, loud and shrill. The son down the stairs to the street and landlady looked at McCandless of an infant, loud and shrill. with admiration written on every feat- woman disappeared. Her shadow fell son was hurried along agree to on the curtain again, and she had in ington Square, protesting that w "You say he never sleeps here, Mrs. "Well, you have a head full of ideas, her arms a child. She held it out to a mistake and that he could enter the never sleeps here, Mrs. "Well, you have a head full of ideas, her arms a child. She held it out to a mistake and that he could enter the never sleeps here, Mrs. "This is the thought the never sleeps here, Mrs." Connecticut passed a law in 1893, at Allen?" said young Mr. McCandless, Mr. McCandless. Nobody could fool ond took the child. For an hour he ascending the child. and took the child. For an hour he ascending the steps of a house on You flatter, Mrs. Allen," said her carried it to and fro in the room. At corner of Sixth Avenue. Re town libraries, and since that time was much esteemed by her for his lodger, flushing with pleasure, "but I length its cries ceased, the woman flercely at the bell, and when the may say to you that some of my best took it. Peterson began to undress, was opened, McCandless led the up to the second floor, Burke and R

McCandless stopped from sheer want hustling Peterson up before then "Knock at the lady's door," sur "But what has all this got to do ed Burke, politely. with the reward?" asked Mrs. Allen, ! with a woman's doubts.

McCandless knocked.

"I was arrested on suspicion

"This is surely a mistake," she husband found he could not write

"I was reading from my play,

Peterson's wrists.

"Any one can see that this lad

Sorrow From a Queen's Gn

" The reply ran as

A young woman in a dressing "Give me time. One minute," said appeared on the threshold. When "I have," returned Mrs. Alien im- McCandless. "There is plenty of evi- caught sight of Peterson in the dence. I marked the house with a of the two officers of the law, with piece of chalk. This morning I was hands bound together in front of "I cannot, except to say that it was round there early and pumped the col- she uttered a cry of fright. a bundle which he held tightly under ored servant, who was sweeping the "Oh, Henry, what have you sidewalk. She told me that the occu- What is the meaning of this?" pant of the second floor front was "It is an outrage, a police outr named Andrews. From her descrip- shrieked Peterson. son's room-on any morning following tion there could be no doubt he was _-"Ha! ha! that's an old story." his occupancy of it?" he said, after a identical with Peterson. I asked her Burke and Roche simultaneously about his habits, and she said that he was often absent until the small hours something round in the other man "This is one of the most singular of the morning. The woman was his said Peterson. "Tell them about "What do you think of it?" ventured house about five weeks, which would correspond with the time Peterson has sweetly. "I am Mrs. Andrews "Think of it? I think Peterson is a occupied your hall bed room on the that is my husband Henry, who

---- Writer of plays. We have a ball suspicious character who will bear top floor." McCandless looked at Mrs. Allen you see. There he is in the crib. triumphantly. "What do you think of that for de- home, the baby cried so much.

tective work?" he said. "You were right," returned the land- | there he went several nights | printion bill was immediatley lady admiringly. "Peterson is a sus- week to write in peace, coming "Leave everything to me," said Mc-| picious character, probably a criminal, when he was tired." Candless reassuringly. "I will make as you supposed."

"He is the very man the police are those scoundrels arrested me," it my business to clear up this mysvelope and was busily making notes on tery. Peterson shall be kept under looking for. Of that I am convinced," Peterson indignantly. "What was that you were s said McCandless. "Just read that Several days passed during which from the Morning Post." before we broke in?" demanded

"The police have reason to believe When interrogated by Mrs. Allen he | that Thomas Gallagher, alias David | Atonement of Blood," answere the door. He was pale and worried merely said: "I may have something | Moffett, alias Morton, alias Geoghe- young man. gan, who is wanted for highway rob- "Oh, look here, this won't do," Sure enough, on Saturday morning bery, and for whose apprehension a re- in McCandless. McCandless asked with a non-commit- ward of $1,000 has been offered, is in Mrs. Allen your name was Peter tal air to see Mrs. Allen in-the parlor. hiding in this city. They hope to trace 'My name is Henry Peterson "By the way," he began in a thick him through his young wife and child drews," said the young dram "There may be something in this," voice, "I will see that you have a check who are living somewhere on the West and I gave her my middle new in a low, broken voice if I had a room | I think I have run Peterson to earth." | with my friends at the Central Office | rented it." McCandless said this in a grave, con- at once. The reward is as good as secured, and when we get it, Mrs. Allen, "You don't say so, Mr. McCandless. I'm going to put a question to you." Burke unlocked the handcuffs > his pocket a thick paper, which he "You're a gay deceiver, Mr. McCandslowly unfolded, showing a poster less," she said.

and Roache of the Central Office into less, I think you're an ass. "Read it, Mrs. Allen," urged her the house at 10 o'clock and concealed Roche, let's be going. Madam, them in the basement. Peterson had side partner and myself I want This is what the landlady read: not come, although it was one of the that we've been victimized and "Look for Thomas Gallagher, alias nights when he was accustomed to you'll overlook our zeal. We'll he seemed to be nervous and uneasy: Ravid Moffett, alias Morton, alias Geo- visit the house. McCandless was on fully ashamed of ourselves, Manager and the seemed to be nervous and uneasy: Ravid Moffett, alias Morton, alias Geo- visit the house. McCandless was on fully ashamed of ourselves, Manager and the seemed to be nervous and uneasy: Ravid Moffett, alias Morton, alias Geo- visit the house. McCandless was on fully ashamed of ourselves, Manager and the seemed to be nervous and uneasy: Ravid Moffett, alias Morton, alias Geo- visit the house. Well, I took the $2, which he offered hegan. Wanted for highway robbery, tender hooks, fearing his prey had es- drews. If you'll forgive and me, and asked him when he wanted Height 5 feet 8; weight, 147 pounds. caped them. About 11 o'clock the rat- we'll be your everlasting A wide tire bill, the first of a series to move in, and where his trunk was. Spare face, dark eyes, small mustache. the of a latch key was heard in the Don't report us at the Central will be paid to any one giving evidence end of half an hour McCandless and a play." "Don't you think you ought to have which shall lead to his conviction. the officers mounted noiselessly to the top floor. There was the sound of a bowed themselves out. "Now, I want to ask you, Mrs. Allen, voice in Peterson's room, sad and stumbled after them, sheep-isc labored, as of some one in deep afflic-shrunken.—New York Sun.

tion. They listened intently. "Remorse burdens my spirit," they heard the voice say. "Hardened as J "That's what I was thinking myself, am in crime. I have some conscience Mr. McCandess. I can't swear to it, left. Perhaps it is the still small voice but it looks a good deal like Mr. Peter- which tells me I am not a lost soul. her majesty asked a little girl Oh, could I but atone for this last her a pair of silk mittens for her "When I think of the way he hides damning crime by giving myself up to day, giving her the money for himself in your house, Mrs. Allen, the officers of justice! I would gladly terial. A pair of beautifully comes in the night and goes in the do so if the act would not involve mittens arrived on the Queen's night, I could almost swear Peterson others. Oh, my God, how shall I at day. The little girl received to is Thomas Gallagher. But I won't rest tain to that peace which passeth all another pair; one mitten out lires, the other bon bons. Que until I prove it, and I'm going on his understanding?" Then the voice fell and silence fol- guerite inclosed a little note, "Tell me, my dear child, which The following morning McCandless lowed, so profound that McCandless ' came down to the breakfast table red- could hear his heart thumping. eyed from the want of sleep, but in whispered hoarsely to Burke have made me shed many team Roche: "It is your man; break in the took the mitten with the mov "Could I see you in the parlor, Mrs. door." brother had the bon bons."

I guess we're safe." said Roche to

'It's a go, if you say so." said Burke. Roche, a heavily built man, without The New York Mail and Express so after dark, passing me in the hall with- point would permit. She tingled with against the door, the lock gave way the inventor of the sainst the door, the lock gave way the inventor of the sainst the door, the lock gave way the inventor of the sainst the door, the lock gave way the inventor of the sainst the door, the lock gave way the inventor of the sainst the door, the lock gave way the inventor of the sainst the door, the lock gave way the inventor of the sainst the door, the lock gave way the inventor of the sainst the sainst the door, the lock gave way the inventor of the sainst the door, the lock gave way the inventor of the sainst the door, the lock gave way the inventor of the sainst the sainst the door, the lock gave way the inventor of the sainst the sainst the door, the lock gave way the inventor of the sainst th and the Central Office men rushed in that godsend to the same. first idea of the device free with levelled pistols. McCandless small boy pushing an ordina mouth downward into a hos

The game's up," cried McCandless, paratus supplied by the rising of the tide or sol gard for the Sabbath. Caused a Great Rush to the Galleries The Sundry Civil Bill Opposed to Sunday Sessions. was strictly a business session. hired a room somewhere else, and consideration of the sundry civil med. An item relating to electric ting in the District of Columbia, to Heraklien have sent a joint telegram withstanding this circumstance, the lutely false. An attempt was made to D. D. Woodmansee of Cincinnati, president of the league of republicar "That is what I was doing the Mr. Hill, dem., N. Y., was op- confirming the reports of a threatened gave that senator an oppor- famine there, and begging the powers trof expressing his views in rela- to hasten a settlement of the Cretan to a Sunday session of the senate. | question. They say that every day's had doubted the propriety of the delay may cost hundreds of lives. te meeting on Sunday to enact lation for the people of the United GREECE'S POSITION HOPELESS. s llis attention had been called | various petitions presented by mable senators asking for "a rest! for the District of Columbia, and are in conference. BRYAN IN WASHINGTON

It the late candidate was in the field the combined forces of Ser-2 social but it is understood that via. Bulgaria and Montenegro. Even until the next session. The Alaskan the plans of the silver republi- then, if none of the great powers in. boundary treaty with Great Britain has tre discussed, Mr. Bryan giving tervene, the military opinion here not even been considered in committee The policy of the silver | quototed believes that the Turks would | The Nicraguan canal bill, which was maintain a separate hold their own. The defenseless conation as a political body. dition of Greece, and the awful conse-

Death of Edward Edite Elie N. Y., March 1.—Ed. Turkey were undoubtedly the weighti-... President of the Schenecworks, one of the tablishments of the kind in. A States, is dead of an acute

. da Vanderbile Ill with Grip.

STRICKEN CRETE

LIMIUM Continues and Palaine May Add -to the Horrer of the Situation Cance, March 1.—The presence of Review of the Work Accomplished Veticual Scions Have No Reforeign warships off this port has not had the effect of preventing fighting between the insurgents and Turks save PRESENT LAST MICHI in the town itself, where a comparatively small force of marines was recently landed for the purpose of remarkable and Unusual Occur preserving order. A skirkmish oc Over 10,000 Bills and 3,000 Resolutions curred yesterday afternoon at Malaxa, a short distance from Canea, in which the Turks were worsted, although they outnumbered the Christians. A Turk.

the women and children in the bereal Reitish and the railway trains and persons riding remain in Hayana. Immediately upon the senator-elect, and judge Lysander ings began showing that there leauguered town. Several British and thereon, and substituting salaries for her release she sent for her two little Hill of Chicago. trearly seventy senators in the some of them being paired. Nor camp of Korkaas, where they were district-attorneys. Aside from the Principa and on her arrival at Havana there any noticeable distinction as treated with much courtesy. They foregoing measures, the remaing bills were astonished by the excellent distance of the foregoing the immigration was a solution of the reservoir of the remaing bills with the secure her reservoir out of the remaing bills to secure her reservoir out of the remaing bills. states and the men representing cipline maintained among the insur- the joint resolution for an international to secure her passport out of the coun- Washington lost evening. He consoft the country where Sabbath gents and the perfection of their ormance is not so general or strict. ganization, all of which is due to second session) were of no general consultee for the prompt interest in companie by Mrs. McKinley and Mise

Famine Threatens Grete.

The Turks Immeasurably Better Presision were either defeated or were left pared for War by Land. Berlin, March 1.—The kaiser has indebtedness of the bond-aided rail brother of Senator Sherman, has just he been disposed to acquiesce been in consultation with German of ways to the government, which was a returned from a trip east. He visited the sentiment expressed in those ficers who have served in the reorgani- legacy from the last session, suffered a his brother, who, he says, is of the tered at the Shoreham. A reception ions. He also remembered that zation of the Turkish army and has reception defeat in January last opinion that a war vessel should be in honor of the governor will be given stator from Michigan, Mr. Mc- obtained during the present crisis re- In the preceding session upwards of to give assurance that protection will be executed by executed to morrow by ex-congressman Abner un, who had suggested this ports from the German staff still conhan incompand upon the Cu to give assurance that protection will Taylor of Chicago, and the same evendiment, had introduced a bill "to nected with sultan's forces. Their ban insurrection were introduced, al be afforded the American citizens in ing he will hold a public reception, are for my account in the course of a few days, but I wanted to talk to you days, but I wanted to talk to you days, but I wanted to talk to you days, as a day of rest limit of the position of Greece if assailed by land is limit of the position of the position of Greece if assailed by land is limit of the position of the position of Greece if assailed by land is limit of the position of the position of Greece if assailed by land is limit of the position of the present session the Cuban reso pose of causing war, he says, but limit of the position of the present session the Cuban reso pose of causing war, he says, but limit of the position of the present session the Cuban reso pose of causing war, he says, but limit of the position of the present session the Cuban reso pose of causing war, he says, but limit of the position of the present session the Cuban reso pose of causing war, he says, but limit of the position of the present session the Cuban reso pose of causing war, he says, but limit of the present session the Cuban reso pose of causing war, he says, but limit of the present session the Cuban reso pose of causing war, he says, but limit of the present session the Cuban reso pose of causing war, he says, but limit of the present session the Cuban reso pose of causing war, he says, but limit of the present session the cuban reso pose of causing war, he says, but limit of the present session the cuban reso pose of causing war, he says, but limit of the present session the cuban reso pose of causing war, he says, but limit of the present session the cuban reso pose of causing war, he says, but limit of the present session the cuban reso pose of causing war, he says, but limit of the present session the cuban reso position and the "Where was I? Oh, yes, he asked about a much more important matter. Allen? I am going to communicate in her room or explain to her worship in the District of Colum- absolutely hopeless. The Turks are lutions introduced have been few in would serve to remind the Spanish That bill, if it had passed, was immeasurably better prepared for an cumber. The ways and means com government that they should be more "Henry wouldn't be a drama denough to prevent any legisla- immediate campaign on the Thessalian mittee gave a series of hearings during careful in their treatment of American he wasn't a little mysterious," sa this day. For these reasons he frontier. The porte seems to have an. the early weeks of the session and the citizens. Major Sherman says his young woman, with a charming the to engage in a general de- ticipated a possible outbreak of war remainder of the time was occupied by brother does not agree with the policy March, 80 1/4 c.; May, 79 1/4 c.; July, But now to be serious," he with Greece, and got ready for it. the republican members in formulating of the present administration, and 78% c. faced. "llave not you been serious During last month they had 20,000 a new tariff bill. This will follow the thinks it should have acted long ago. troops around the base of Olympus and general lines of the McKinley law of He does not believe such a stand would May, 29%c.; July, 30%c. a crook's wife or this gentler. That is a reflection on the re- were prepared to direct that force 1890, and will be reported to the house mean war, but thinks it would have a Oats-Spot trade quiet but steady. which I have made," Mr. Hill in two columns from the Olympus and | at the beginning of the extra session | good effect on Spain, as showing that ed and then he went on with his | Elassona districts upon Larissa. This | of the next congress. All of the con | this country must be respected. ment. After numerous amendments army has been reinforced to 45,000, tested election cases, thirty-three in andry civil bill was passed and at Against them the Greeks have but a number, have been disposed of. The the senate adjourned until to-day. | feeble force between Larissa and work of the senate during the past | Society in London contemplates mak-If finds the senate with the Pharsalia, and only began when the session has not been heavier than usu- ing Mr. Bayard some kind of presenta- Prime, western, $4.25. up some works around Larissa, which | generally runs up above 3.000. had long been projected but persist and this session the total has ently neglected. These Turkish frontier reached 3,732. Much of the time of ter will be taken up by the council of fresh, 17c.; limed, 121/2013c.; southtroops are well supplied with artil- the senate has been consumed in the the society when its chairman, Henry The Indian bill and the post lery, the infantry are armed with the discussion of questions relating to our Wellcome, returns from New York. Peabody-Martini rifle and they are well foreign relations, and while no positive Another honor to the departing ambasled and altogether in good trim. Ac- action of any kind has been take many sador will probably be a dinner or socording to the opinion of the German | columns of the Congressional Record | cial function at the St. James' club, at | officers best able to calculate the course have been filled with speeches on these which Mr. Bayard will be the guest of officers best able to calculate the course lopics. Cuban resolutions have been some of the most important foreign large, half-firkin tubs, fail thington. March 1.—William J. Greek mainland. Of course a pro. the score, but beyond precipitating democratic candidate for longed war, in which the powers would lebate nothing has been accomplished. was at the capitol this stand aloof and let Turkey once more A treaty with Japan has been ratified, Spent a short time in the | conquer Greece, is not to be thought | putting into immediate operation the vice-president. He was of. The total war strength of Greece clause of the treaty of commerce and the silver men of the senate. I would count for something only if Tur- | navigation negotiated two years ago delitarly by silver republicans, key had simultaneously to suppress in. The general treaty of arbitration with Agiven out that the visit of these surrections in Macedonia, and to meet

quences of unchaining the tremendous | ble majority in front of it when the est conditions with the kaiser. Wool Combine in Boston.

Boston, March 1.—A syndicate was A Bright's decease. He had recently formed in this city to but all Alan. lealth for some time, but | the wool offered in European markets The line of the death was a great in anticipation of the daty expected to large amount of money, and only few days ago eabled $3,000,000 to London | the possible result of the intervention. agents. It is calculated that 1,000,000 of the French government. bales of Australian and South American wool will be brought into this

During Both Sessions.

Introduced in the House Alone, Appropriations Exceeded a Billion Dollars.

description and sc she had done much firing her come the number of bills and resolutions in marched through the streets with a buildings, business houses, hotels and the reviewing stands the at variance with the religious mander received word from the representation of the formula troduced—was a record-breaker. In number of criminals, some of whom residence and the reviewing stands, the the foreign powers that the house alone over 10,400 bills and were in chains, surrounded by an city presents a holiday appearance. At the Ebbitt house, where Major Merestracted to the stracted to the stracted to the second time referred to the various committees, on a train bound to Nuevitas and from Kinley will stop for the two days price Atternoon; the time to which the that the insurgents near Suda bay have Only a fraction of these passed the there to Havana by steamer. On the to his moving into the executive Ate at half-past 2 in the morning' been fired on by a Turkish warship. house and still fewer became laws. train they were confined in a car filled mansion, and at the Arlington, where the at hair-past and the Greek leader, Korakas, who, at The principal business of the congress, with men, and not allowed any con- Mr. Hanna has taken quarters, the the head of 5,000 insurgents, has in- aside from the passage of the appror veniences, but on the steamer they centres of popular interest are located. were on hand early enough to vaded the town of Heraklion, has priation bills, was limited to the first were allowed to pay for a few com- Mr. Hanna has received many callers, in seats in that section of the gal- given permission to the Turks to leave session, the net results of which were forts. They arrived in Havana Febru- but he managed to find time this the place in order that they may culti- the enactment into law of the bills ary 4 last. Mrs. Rodriguez's case was morning to pay a visit to the inaugural others who were the holders of vate the lands adjacent to the town. creating the commission to determine called to the attention of Consul Genheadquarters. J. Addison Porter, who others who were sections presented His action, however, is looked upon the true divisional line between Vene eral Lee, who immediately communi- will be secretary to the new president, and were admitted, so long as with suspicion by many Moslems, they zuela and British Guiana; prohibiting cated with the acting Capt.-Gen. also visited the inaugural committee. thace was left. Those who could believing that it is his intention to bene- prize fighting in the territories: per- Marquis Ahûmada, and demanded her Gov. Bushnell of Ohio, with Mrs. Bushnot inside stationed themselves fit from the labors of the Turks by mitting the appointment in the army release. the gallery doors, waiting their seizing the crops when they are ripe. and navy of former United States offithe gamery and states on the other hand, those who are accers who served in the confederacy; esty up and down the marble stairdeclare he is inst and humane and that tory necessary for a divorce; incorpotaken to the house of refuge, a place have also taken quarters at the Arsand the spacious halls. As to the his only object in parmitting the sating the National Society of the set aside for fallen women. She was lington. Among others who are tors, themselves, the day seemed his only object in permitting the cating the National Society of the detained in this den of horrors for Turks to till the fields is to Daughters of the Revolution; defining thirty-two hours, when she was rethe women and children in the her railway trains and parsons riding leased on condition that she would not be Foraker, jr., of Cincinnati, a son of mance is not so general or strict. ganization, all of which is due to business went on just as it does on Korakas, who appears to be a born interest. Included in these were 700 pride in the prompt interest in her behalf. Her husband, General Rodriguez, formerly commanded the to apartments in the suite of thirty rooms reserved at the Ebbitt for the support of the cause of the Cretans, In another respect the Fifty-fourth insurgent forces around Cienfuegos, rooms reserved at the Ebbitt for the and his force will prove no unimport- congress was remarkable. This was I ant factor should Turkey attempt to its failure to pass a single bill provid. , quell the insurrection by force of arms. | ing for public buildings. The house | calendar contained 100 bills of this class including the senate bill for a Athens, March 1.—The consuls at sustom house in New York city. Not can history in which the appropriations grind on the Calvo estate last week, dent of the league of republican have exceeded a billion dollars. A number of important measures which were reported to the house last session!

> consideration during the present seson the calendar. The bill to settle the Des Moines says: Major Hoyt Sherman, protest of the minister representing forces of war and rapine in European the Greater Central American Republics was received. France Mas Trouble with the Boers. Paris, March 1.—The Gaulois says which are being practiced by the Boer | Exchange block, American hotel and C. Agnew, wife of Hon. John T. Agnew I government against French citizens Hirst block. Loss, about $30,000, Later of New York city, died at Plue Platus; It was a great in anticipation of site day and French industries are engaging in the day Turn hall was damaged by the attention of a number of the mem- fire to the extent of several hundred 74 years old, bers of the chamber of deputies, with dollars.

point of final passage with a comforta-

Passalo Boat Club House Burned will be 500,000,000 pounds. If the duty | destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. SPANISH BARBARITY Filthy Cuben Princes.

Key West, Fla., Marchi.—Saturday's Prominent Visitors Already Arrive steamer brought to this city shother victim of Spanish brutality, Mrs. Eva ing at the National Capital. Adan Rodriguez, who together with Concepcion Agramonte de Sanchez Gabriela de Varona, Maria Aguilar and Augua M. Silva, all of the finest famifies on the island of Cuba, were a rested on January 10 last, and thrown , into a dirty," damp Spanish prison, ' Abner McKinley of New York smong a lot of low, abandoned women Among the Latest Arrivals. And the United States senate on gan the bombardment of a position fourth congress, which will expire at were kept for twenty days in a state of gural crowds are beginning to arrive, Anday afternoon is such a remarka- occupied by the insurgents, but before noon on Wedneseay, in one respect—in incommunicado, when they were and with the decorations on public without the slightest charge having

. but the insurgents burned them out.

SHERMAN AND CUBA. and were expected to receive favorable | The Senator's Brother Says He, the Senator, Favors Sending a Warship to Havana. Chicago, March 1.—A special from

Honoring Mr. Bayard, London, March 1.—The American $9.50@10.00. tion on the occasion of his departure

Tall Englishmen to See Menetek. London, March 1.—The British offieial mission to Emperor Menelek of Cream, large size, fall made, colored, Abyssinia is intended to impress him 121/4c.; large, common to choice, part with the size of Englishmen. The mis- skims, 6@9%c. sion will consist of nine members, each of whom is over six feet tall. The Long Island, in bulk, per barrel, $1.25 leader, Rennell Rodd, and the military | @1.50; New Jersey, round, choice, per secretary, Lord Edward Cecil, Lord barrel, 1.00@81.12. Sweet potatoes, Salisbury's fourth son, are both six $1.00@81.50. feet three inches in height. The mission will leave Cairo about the mid-

--- Big Blaze at Rockville, Conn. Rockville, Conn., March 1.—A fire vesterday destroyed all the buildings on the west side of Market street, from Main to Brooklyn streets, except the

Mary Lyon Centennial Celebration. Buchland, Mass., March 1 .- The 100th I ... Ale

Senator-elect Platt and Wife, Governoes Bushnell and Tanner and Staffs and nell, the members of his staff and a large party of friends, are registered at

Abner McKinley of New York, a but is now in command of Havana presidential party. Hon. James Wil. province in place of Gen. Aguirre, the son of Iowa, the new secretary of agridepartment general, deceased. The culture, arrived Saturday night, and insurgents, she says, are about to con- went to the Ebbitt. Other arrivals at centrate their forces in and around Ha- the Ebbitt are Gen. O. O. Howard, U. clubs, and wife; John K. Gowdy of Rushville, Ind., national committeeman from his state, who has been promised the lucrative position of consulgeneral at Paris; senator-elect Chas. . Fairbanks of Indianapolis and family. Gov. Tanner of Illinois, with the members of his staff and a number of Illinois republicans. reached Wash-

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Pork-Market firm; moderate trade. Extra prime, nominal, short clear, $3.50@10.00; mess, $8.25@8.75; family.

Lard-Market firm and nominal. Eggs-Steady; old prices prevail. from the embassy. What it will be is State and Pennsylvania, fresh, 171/c.;

Butter-Moderate demand; steady. Creamery, western extras, 19c.; state and Pennsylvania, extras, 17@19c.; creamery, western seconds, 15c.; state made, extras, 101/2012c.; western, imitation creamery, seconds to firsts, 11@ 16c.; western factory, firsts to ex-

Cheese-Market firm: fair demand. Potatoes-Weak: moderate demand.

Holbrook, Mass., Town Hall Burned. Holbrook, Mass., March 1.-A fire in the town hall yesterday destroyed a valuable collection of books in the public library. The estimated total loss is $12,000.

Mrs. Mary C. Agnew Dead.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., March 1.--Mary Duchess county, yesterday. She was a native of this town, was observed Buffalo, March 1.— Therman S. Jewwill be 500,000,000 pounds. At one day description, by a special servett, a well-known allienties banker weeks, is ill with the syndicate is bound to clear $50,000,000. The club in Newark.

Greek Catholic Church Burken Hazleton, Pa., March 1.—Fire of undestroyed the Greek Catholic church