Of the 6,808,000 tons of ore minea, during 1896, no less than 6,289,257 tons were exported.

show that in Italy 200,000 persons die | who was addressing him. preventable—maladies, most of them smooth brown face, long black hair, and health shone through her rou being young, "the hope of families," | dressed in the picturesque costume for

of the Belgian successes, civilization Territories cannibalism is prevalent and now the ruler of the Umnauts, the to an extent unimagined in civilized | Montauks, and their ancient masters,

The heroes of the books were the planters of his tribe," said the young of a better name, call "stoical." carned a place in police annals.

ments of the government for franking | given to your young men, when they re- | ern shore was the dwelling of herse. saved the government almost $100,000 [every year since its introduction.

A loyal Briton proposes in the Lon- | your adopted son, and I would quarrel don Daily Mail an unique method of | again—his heart is not good to me." honoring the Queen. He would have taken. Rainh Denham admires you, keer." period from June 18 to July 16.

Kansas City is planning to borrow from the fuel supply of Leavenworth. Kan., and operate a sort of an electric other ship. trunk line between the two cities to supply motive power to/ the Kansas | City manufactories and street rail- asked the surprised Squire. worth. Western capitalists are said | with a feast and games, and Dinah, the to be associated with Leavenworth's richest men in the project.

The twenty-four hour system of re- not meet again. is working well. The postoffice, telegraphs and railways have abolished the distinctions of a. m. and p. m., and the Wanderer, and to it were invited a recken straight away from midnight the nobles and pretty maidens for miles round the twenty-four hours, 1 o'clock around, in the afternoon becoming 13, and so | The decks were cleared for dancing, of the Kansas ladies, many of the pictures being rell in issuing an order the arrangement of those that were left. Hower islands of the Aztecs.

sleep. I company, Captain Denham, at the porrequest of Captain Fox, sent his own mule." Now, will the critics be good!

Important, If True. weight of 500 pennies, placed them

The Indian who accosted Squire Con-, escendant of the great Wyandauch,

"What! you. Uncas!" said the Squire chief, drawing himself proudly up.

powder horn, and inlaid bullet pouch.

I the Squire, watching the strong, express-llight that made him feel uneasy.

"Yes; he has invited me."

live face, and seeing in the dark eyes a

"You would not tell me what you d

"When did you meet Captain Fox?

'I hope she foretold good things.

I sore, and that it is better that we show manner, could say another word.

Uncas turned and strode away before

That evening Capt. Fox and his offiquarterdeck. The rigging was hidden

There was no need to bring musician.

h the addition on great occasion rival, nor leave till valor had given the

a flute or clarionet. Were the very t

Two companion figures at the enter-In presing through a wood, between tainment-figures that took no part i According to an eminent Italian his house and the farm, Squire Condit | the dancing—were Uncas and his sister heard his name called, and came to a Untilla, or "The Princess," as she was letop, but did not look around to see], Out of the shadows there came a tall with a lighter complexion than he

figure, straight as an arrow, with a brother, for the carmine of which the Montauk chiefs or kings, lamps, she looked more radiant than t as they were called, were distinguished white girls, who might be called The author of "The Fall of the from the days of the Ugal Wyandauch, | "daughters of the sun," while she was Congo-Arabs," declares that in spite to whose sway all "Pan-man-ack-e," as the daughter of night, the more brillian Long Island was then called, was trib- | for the darkness that surrounded her cers. Though she did not dance. she dit was the young chief Uncas, a lineal promenaded with many of them. talking Untilla's love for Captain Ralph Dea a topic on which the gossipers were with pretended surprise, and his eyes, ways sure to fall back when all others fixed on the long rifle which the young were exhausted. man held in his right hand like a spear. "Is not the season for hunting over, preference, and it was only when a began to seel that her love was not re- while an aware of the instrutable stillness of inanimate chitecture are almost round. In the mass of flames. "My white brother speaks truly, but that reserve which distinguishes her the Wanderer that impress me as irreg-

To-night, Ralph Denham gave more no game, neither have we war?" said with Untilla again and again. only cross belts that supported his silver, courtesy required. It was he who took who died in Washington recently was | "It has ever been the habit of our departure came all too soon, it was Ralp. the originator of the "return penalty" | chiefs to carry arms when paying visits | Denham who took the princess home in to other chiefs, and the white chiefs do his own cutter, and rowed her for six envelope, a device used by all depart- | the same. I was not asked to the feast | miles to the little cove on whose south

turned from sailing over the mighty and brother. hurried to the light that marked their "Do not deny that you did not want is me," said Uncas, waving his arm to re- | abode; and Captain Denham was about strain the Squire, who was about to 'to order the boat from the beach, when speak. "You feared Ralph Denham, | the well-known form of Dinah sprang I rom the shadows into the moonlight, an

"Ralph Denham, Ralph Denham, have | when off duty, always called the lieu-"Have care of what, Dinah?" asked | they were boys together. "But I hold | thirteenth to be called Victoria. The house to see if I do not tell the truth; other youths showed a disposition to and don't like him. or if you will go to his ship now, he will annoy her, he would become her cham- | __"Jealousy, Captain, jealousy," laughed | __ latter month would consist of twenty | give you as royal a welcome as if you | pion, and still his companions by | Valentine Dayton. Fox has been paythe were Governor of the province," said | shame, or, failing in that, by force.

"Of what wolf. Dinah?" "One, Cap'n Ralph? Ha. ha. ha! Wy 'ez you does w'en dar's danjah on de | Denham, with some sternness.

' great deep.. De wolves is wite en red. I ken 'ear 'em 'owlin' away fah off. But the squire, who was startled by his

"What are you thinking about ', the officers of the Sea Hawk | tain?" asked Valentine Dayton, as he i "Well, upon my word," said the Cap! smile. tain, ceasing to stroke his forehead.

smoking in the gallery outside, but who | We are steering away from the queswith a fine sense of effect, the great gun | was within sight and hearing through | tion."

ke that out yonder. Now. I've seen | chart of her heart, all its safe sailing nd I've come up with not a few pirates. I the window, "she and Ellen are down atisfied that it was good for a few pulls more, he was about to resume his smok-boats, all well manned, to an in carry. Hang me, Cap'n, if I can tell bed of lava, care is immediately taken hany a pleasant race was indulged Everything seems taut and shipshape, to open the cavity that is known to be don't feel satisfied, even near. Into this liquid plaster of Paris her officers seem to be straight from mould and the plaster soon hardens. and I'm two score and five next statue obtained usually proves to be Guy Fawker day, and, lo and behold, that of a woman or man in the agonizpike or cut- here comes Cap'n Fox a cruising into ing convuisions of death, the limbs hand, into the rigging of the these waters, and he don't look to be a contorted and the features drawn out day over five and thirty." Valentine Dayton, that in the regular bot lave somewhere about eighteen dozen officers named Fox in her "There is not a dozen men in any ser-—no matter what their names are vessel afloat, or any vessel that ever

"Yes, that's the woman: the crack | and got 'em into a sight of trouble. Oh, of Darien, and matched in ferocity heads; and this here Wanderer may be | grizzly bear of North America. I can't see through it and I won't, on- paused, with a massive foot lifted from An Exhibition ' less there's a little more light thrown !. down on her from aloft."

pipe, and taking up his hat strolled down | stood neglected in the wilderness to the shore, for the hour for his watch | since the days of the Chibchas, whom "Uncle George is usually right," said

English sailors are very rich, and can quiry, as though he had asked the afford this kind of thing; they do not | meaning of this strange thing which | men which is nothing short of m The state of the corn- race, and which the whites, for the want war, according to my ideas of the serv- It was splendid courage that this that the pine needles which are many that the pine needles ice. I am willing to concede, however, dumb brute did not turn tail and in its construction are placed at very that I am only a volunteer sailor, and bound away. I know of no other aniso cannot claim to know everything mal that would have stood his ground. t captain, rising and glancing about the

> "One thing we can say, Captain," said Valentine, "Captain Fox appears to "And he acts as frankly as any man that ever sailed into these waters. "You are right again."

"So why speculate about his wealth?" "I don't speculate about his wealth, Valentine," said Captain Denham, who, wealth. Les is dashing, but she is steady; she rippled over with fun, but

"I hope I have not offended you, Cap-"Not at all; but Lea Hedges is not a t'owl: dev'll be gettin' ready foh | subject for our light or serious conver-She and I are simply good

"Rather an indefinite warning." | "Ralph Denham!" said Valentine. risfrom each other. "Never, Valentine."

"When I first felt that I loved Eller "To me; and I only wish you could | and Ralph Denham sat in Dr. Hedges' | pluck up courage to tell Ellen the same. | comfortable front parlor the day after | I am sure she would give you no reason between us. I would rather attempt "I am not a bit surprised at that," | cut out a pirate-single-handed than to | viciously, and his spotted skin moved | four inches in length, three on said First Lieutenant Hedges, who was I tell Ellen how I feel toward her. Here I

but may I be swung from a yard arm. No, Captain, I am sure you love Lea 'f I ever came up with a craft and crew | Hedges, and, so far as I can see the | beast, or a tragedy for man. Tspring, his sinewy length all a-tremble; d that flies a flag from a masthead, said Valentine; leading the Captain to but just as his bunched muscles were being attacked.

> 1,800 Years After Death. the excavators at Pompeli gives forth she was overtaken by the flood of red.

don't think it excels in richness any lowing experience of his native guide: dren, and 20 great-great-grand. In a moment a great brown-and- dren. He has a grand floated, and I won't except the crack | yellow beast, spotted and ringed with | years old, who has grand in which Queen — Queen — | black. strode leisurely into view, or six years old. looking upward at the screaming Mr. Patrick has been birds. It was the fierce and cruel sixty years, and during galley in which Queen Cleopatrick took | jaguar, the South American tiger, had many interesting them Roming imp-roars off en frolics, king of all beasts south of the Isthmus | Winston (N. C.) Sentin.

the ground. He had seen the hunter. Trife was as one turned to stone, a ant Hedges replenished and relit his sort of bronze image that might have Quesada conquered to found the vice- | seers there will be none more regal state of New Granada.

The tiger's long tail swung slowly from left to right, and from right to left again, while over his yellow face "I think so too you see, some of these | crept a look of mild surprise and inders the ants are possessed of au a ous angles to give strength to dome, exactly as a human archit Even the grizzly bear, more terrible to meet than the lion of Africa or the monarch of the Bengal jungle, would have growled savagely and retired. Matchless in his calm courage, the bors never seeming to cease. The str great jaguar put down his uplifted neck, as a cat creeps upon its prey. males. Then he paused, swinging his long!

at the Indian's feet

Married Seventy Years.

stood like a stone, superior in cour- the interior chambers. Therefore that the pumps had been kept go- left, and many women fainted. A num- were two or three funerals a day, and whole matter be sent back to the sur age even to this remarkable ruler of all this densely populated city of a keep the vessel free. About 6 ber of people were struck by the flying those who were not affected were panic rogate for reappraisement. Slowly, cautiously, the tiger came side. The apterous, orwingless quee and the vessel found to be making acters were inflicted. A Miss King on again, hanging his head and neck remain in state in their commodicate rapidly. low between his shoulders, and never months, twelve of them to bear the bear he imagined you were intruding on, and the old woman, had always treated her conspicuous among us becomes an ob- yellow eyes from the strange thing in heavy duty with the workers is the leak still continuing, the of the months and the alarming Lea Hedges. Come to the with deference, and when, as a boy, ject of legitimate inquiry. I like Fox, the path. He was a beautiful creature drag the winged males for a promen

As the tiger drew near, a step at a The strength of these ants is en that Les and it has not escaped your notice. time, his tail swung more rapidly, with mous. The pine needles which Ah, my dear fellow, I fear she is a bit a vicious jerk at the end of each swing. furnished them for building are of a coquette; but, depend upon it, she | Apparently he was giving way to the | times longer than themselves, but idea that the strange thing in the path ants move them about with the great pump it out. They were encour- walking to Coscib. In avoiding a f was flesh and blood. Still, he was not est ease. An entopologist in attend to their labors by the captain, who he stepped in front of a passenger quite certain, and he meant to investi- dance at the show will pick upany theat hopes of reaching Barbados. His injuries are pronounced fatal. gate. The Indian had seemingly petri- of these ants as it runs about in the 18th two of the seaman in going fied where he stood. Not even the work and will cause it to hold by the forecastle discovered a cloud loose folds of his cotton shirt stirred mandibles a weight three thousand whe coming up out of the forehold. in the breeze. The birds circled and times heavier than itself, or equal wheeled for a few moments, and then proportion to a man holding two flew away, caring little for the impend- dred tons in his teeth. These a ing death-grapple, now that their own | secrete great quantities of yer wite skip. Have keer, have keer. I friends, and she is free to receive the domestic arrangements were no longer Chloroform was at one and repeating this, the old woman attentions of Captain Fox, or of any imperilled. Puzzled, undecided, watch-from the formic acid , the tiger walked slowly to the formica rufa. hunter, his green eye searching craft- The hill ants are of great service

y for some undetected sign of life. bent his head and sniffed suspiciously Like a steel spring the great beast piled. The strange, still thing was dred in the male of the formic spe-A step at a time—alert, wary, fierce The life of a male ant farely age instinct of the forest. The Indian their friends after long absences. Captain Curtis was part owner Then the tiger crouched in the path; John Lubbuck speaks of an ant wh his giant muscles quivered in tense recognized him with signs of please knots, his red tongue curled stiffly be- after an absence of two years.

tween his keen fangs, his tail thrashed The queen of the white ants 191 lonely tragedy far away in the South | the naked eye, and American wilderness—a tragedy for taken charge of by The tiger gathered himself for the Big Fire In Jackson, Miss.

$100.000 The fire pluzs were.

t., July 6.—A week ago

Lane shaved himself and

On Sunday he died

TCalie at a temperature of 180 de-

4 From Blood Poisoning.

surprise the beast threw up his head Adam. and shoulders, and pawed insanely at original pairs. Jacqu the cloth. In the catching of a breath divide the race into three Terife aimed the upraised spear at the stocks: Kant into four: rounded yellow throat, and drove it into five; Buffon into six;

the Belle of Bath.

Landing-Seamen Were

was learned from the crew

ansed of Starting the Fire.

Tat sea on June 18.

building sidewalks and bridges.

Every bridge in town was washed away tamong the crew and passengers of the arriving at the value of the property and which took fire and was and the streets completely torn up. The big Pacific liner, which caused a panic for purposes of taxation. nected to sail for home within a | the town looks desolate.

The Belle of Bath lef depend on their official salaries. But had the figure of flesh and blood and velous. Columns erected in their safter the alarm was given the ship bors came running from all directions.

Panic at a Celebration.

would have employed them. It is Rarbados, and the three boats description of the robbers. timated that fifty thousand ants control Carlisle bay within 48 hours. prise the community of this great named we could give no reason as to

I immense package of explosives, which stated that the vessel had fair ed and plunged and tore through the had weighed anchor and was proceed- praisal excessive. attendance on the larvae and purse ther until the afternoon of June 9 crowd, knocking people down right and ing on its voyage. Up the coast there 000 inhabitants but few are seen of this date the well was sound- | fireworks, and wounds of various char- | stricken at their danger.

Struck by a Train. but after a week's | Miller, aged 40, of Danbury, spending badly injured while walking on the City of Para, and reached San Fran- jury for Sabbath breaking. Pitcher Kid a strong gale was encountered.

Bicycle Firm to Close Out, Toronto, July 6.-McLean & Ockley. torward, quickly followed by the t moment's inspection showed them the breaking up of the pool on 'at ressel's peril. Orders were at once | grade United States wheels will pro-Unfacturing at a profit. It is said made ready to be lowered to the several other Canadian firms will fol-

The men. The captain was the last

. St. Jonquaire, Que., July 6.—The i. t Catholic church here has been struck Tuly, and a general alarm, was The church is badly wrecked.

Pleads Guilty to Embezzlement. mpany's money. He was sentenced Albuqerque to Los Angeles and affects to three years in Kingston penitentiary. I several thousand men.

Startling Tale.

Have Been Attacked by the Disof $73,000,000 by the Surrogate

In the Matter.

Affirmed—Judge Ingrabam

Alone Dissents.

construction of the law.

admission of George J. Gould on this was clearly a debt that coulc

In his dissenting opinion, Judge 1

graham said that the $500,000 was mor taxed. He also found fault with the Wa the payment of a debt and should not received by the appraisers, an many instances he considered the

No More Sunday Ball Playing.

Albany, July 3.—The American Electo contract with owners of electrical dynamos and plants to keep them in a pair for a stipulated sum per annu

Warren, George H. Cook, George Sta.

James R. Steers. Edwar

Cause of Volcanie Eruption.

Cincinnati, July 3.—A Chillicothe,

' special says that residents in the neigh-

ed the president of the United States and Queen Victoria. As the party lef.

The directors are Henry A. Root

Rochester, July 3.—Sunday basel enforced against the estate.

Hams stated that the expenses houses of J. Murphy. William Nevers on board and resulted in the death of The opinion, which was written and Fred Maguire were blown away the commander of the vessel, Captain Judge Williams, was concurred

_cate_Facts Were Hidden

jured, the former probably fatally. The Three-fourths of the passengers, it is | terson. Judge Ingraham dissented said, were attacked by the dread con- | gave his views for so doing. ness and death were attributed to trop- | eral practice and is permitted by a just | tion

But the passengers who came here say toms, which were plainly those of yel have any fear. There was no effort at | fumigation, and Mrs. Captain Mitchell. Para heavily veiled. There was no un- | property for the purpose of taxatio easiness. Three days out she died from and consequently permissible taken down was Captain Martensen the City of Para. Before he died the lever had spread all over the ship. In the first class cabin and steerage alike the yellow death dealer went, and bly never be known. The officers sup- | 275,000 already having been expended I pressed every scrap of news they could and Dr. Renz insisted on his origina ta Rica, took passage on the City attending the festivities. Horses rear- however, but by that time the vessel After much pleading, Mrs. Holt, whose this city. Mr. and Mrs. Zeyss and their liagnosis. At Punta Arenas the Eche-ashore at Corinto, and at San Jose de and order people. The owners of the tuatemala several members of the Rochester Eastern League team, to-longitude 105 east.

views of Europe.:

French President to Visit, Russia. Bory St. Ville Burnham, Stoepel & Co. culties which might arise from a meeting of the French and German fleets. "company ito the extent

New Electrical Company Incorporate

I San Salvador a band bound for the exposition at San Jose de Guatemala came aboard, and while the passengers were sick and dying around them the nd they also landed with the Echeve-Some of them returned to Pana-

To Reopen an Old Suit. Santa Fe, July 3.—E. A. Garza,

Johnes. William Duryea and Henry Wilson of New York city. ____ Ran Into an Iceberg. | ly clear, but the iceberg was under wa-

Not Murderer Fich escaped from the Trenton asylum. Aft. 'appears perfectly harmless. Constab. Reed, who is acquainted with the mu. Counterfeiter Sentenced.

Astoria burglar identified by sec. service men'as a counterfelter who 'ton, has been sentenced to nine year. and eight months at Sing Sing by Judge

The Brooklyn fired a salute of 21 guns. road, formerly the Atlantic and Pacific, the Mereer County (N. J.).

up some papers, which indicated that grand jury and said there were only two

Ciaims That the Legacy Was a Gift.

The comptroller did not dispute this. but insisted that the legacy of $5,000,000 sance In Office. was not given in payment of any lega. idebt, but was a gift or gratuity fro. the late Jay Gould and liable as suc

True bills were also returned against Hough's name was withdrawn be the Turf Exchange, the Newmarket and i the balloting began, and the name the Suburban poolrooms and against the | Sorg was withdrawn before the re

STRANGE PHENOMENON.

of the nature of a gratuity or gift than Near Barcelons. prise were carried away, and she had to! McLean countles for Chapman curred at the time of the Krakatoa In addition to the state ticket tw

Krakatoa was a volcañic island in the for John R. McLean for United St strait of Sunda, the passage between senator, with the state candidates has been killed for the balance of the The Island, which had an area of 13 man Paul J. Sorg will also be the season in Rochester. A crusade against at Matagulpa, Nicaraugua, were put | Sunday ball was begun recently by law | Parthonake and disappeared in 1883. It

Boston, July 3.—A verdict of $24,500 in | ed nothing in the platform but the favor of Lewis Olsen, who sued the laration for free silver as the E New York. New Haven and Hartford | mount issue, but they would not and a new trial granted by Judge Hop- | when once presented.

Large Miners' Strike Threatened. Louis, July 3.—Coal operators aroused over the announcemen the United Mine Workers have ordered and general managers of several of the a companies having headquarters ' here have gone to their mines in Illi-

____ Channey Depew's Niece to Marry. ter. The bow of the vessel was crush- men, niece and ward of Mr. Chauncey stated that his health, already im ed in, and the front plates were driven M. Depew, will be married in Parls on ed by age and overwork, was tu back. The crew had to shift | July 8 to Baron de Brisson. The baron | broken down by excessive work of is an officer of the French army and son the Furtor reach- retary of the French legation at Wash- powerhas been followed by deep me

Electrotype Men Strike.

Held on the Charge of Murder, Boston, July 2.—Thomas J. Haney, Distinguished Guests on the Brooklyn. Rear Admiral J. N. Miller and his staff. | held without ball for the grand jury.

> Acquisted of a Charge of Forgery. Girard, Kan., July 8.-A. L. Chaplin, harged with forgery in connection with out—it Is Ur

was also a convention of encirc the delegates took no recommend tinued in session for nearly attack was a free silver body me was presented was and orthodox in silver doctrines linal principle for his favorable Pration. While there were some ences of opinion about adopting titrust and the Cuban resolutions. was not a dissenting voice in the vention to the declaration for the and unlimited coinage of silver at ratio of 16 to 1 without the co-op ion of any other nation. While there was no place on the s ticket accorded to either the silver lowing being H. T. Hough, Horse Chapman and Paul J. Sorg.

There was an agreement among n of the delegates on Chapman, which of the first ballot was announced. Although the McLean men had conference before the convention had agreed to go to Chapman, scattered their vote on the first by and did not concentrate on Chapa on the second ballot any more than essary to nominate, so as to dissi as much as possible the reported Barcelona, Spain, July 3.—There was McLean was naming the act tick strange phenomenon here on Thurs- It is conceded that the McLean nated there is an implied arranger

The McLean men did not make first favorite for governor of him resolutions as they had previous in the interest of harmony. They w

When it became necessary for | McLean forces to rally to Chapma

The following is the ticket as leted: Governor, Horace L. Chapi ieutenant governor. Melville D. S.

Detroit, July 1.-- A dispatch from Arbor, Mich., to The News says served many years as justice of the preme court and who was later the of the interstate commerce commit

Cleveland, July 1 .-- The headqui of the national Republican comp man Hanna and Segretary Design to be at the Cleveland headquarts Serious Blot In India.

continues and further distance feared....

after three days' trial. At different to the times Chaplin held the position of contract