Rudvard Kipling is probably the bill. His "Our Lady of the Snows" | the house, when a slender, well-clad, | ocean than Ralph Denham, if I do say | to stop. This man had a military bearfrom London to Ottawa at government expense. Even with this the Canucks ing, and was accompanied by a young stranger, in well-bred tones, his keen eyes fixed the while on Ralph's face. France was by the last census under now number from twelve to thirteen | nel, who, taking two steps in the direcmillions. Thus, the white population | tion of Squire Condit's house, stopped. under the British Queen at home and abroad is not less than fifty-two mil- | "Capt. Fox's ship?"

It is rather odd that so many bay. By the way, sir, if you are American newspapers will persist in | make any stay at this end of the island, referring to the reigning sultan of it will afford me pleasure to receive you gasped. Turkey as "Abdul." They would cruiser, which I have the honor to com with it, for "Abd" means "servant," would be honored and delighted to visit while "Abd-ul" signifies "servant of." the Captain, and then resumed The true designation of the Sultan is journey, followed by the sturdy black Abd-ul-Hamid, or the "Servant of the l Praiseworthy One." In like manner Abd-ul-Aziz meant the Servant of the Holy One. Both names are extremely from tampering with them.

The producing and exporting of making a journey on foot or horseback coffee is becoming a large business in l The coffee exported | to the place on horseback, and left their in 1896 amounted to 3,000,000 pounds. | horses and all the burden of a pack anerally have turned their attention to the place. coffee growing. While no American ships touch at any Liberian port, yet hat and advanced to meet him. more than one-fifteenth of the coffee to the United his hat, and letting his hand drop States via Liverpool. If ships from the direction of the cosy, rambling the United States touched at Monravia, Bassa and Cape Palmas, half of 1 the imports would be American and United States.

in turn the exports would go to the clares that New York is so far in the lead in the matter of foreign commerce that no other American city at- | tion which the Squire could not have tempts to dispute her position, but | seen, for he made no effort to meet the to maintain that Philadelphia is the but your eyes and voice have not greatest manufacturing centre in the | changed. Will you walk to the house | United States. There was a time leading the way, like a man who finds | with a smile, that had when this was true, but the New York | duty compelling him to a disagreeable | satanic. papers are now pointing out that the "I have official business with Captain answered me." census of 1800 exhibited the fact that Fox. of the cruiser Wanderer, now in tions there is as little prospect of rival American city surpassing New York as there is of some provincial British city overtaking London.

the other day a few minutes ahead of , but, as to expecting to see you again. the fact that he had beaten his rival voice and manner semething that to into port. There is a punishment for he was conscious of his own superiority, captains of occan liners who race their and could not permit himself to be an-- boats, but it is sectional inflicted. It is noved by an inferior. considered a smart thing for these men desire to compensate you further, to outstripetheir rivals and put thou- what I have given is not enough." sands of lives in peril for the sake of J reducing their ships' records by a few ball you have given, and the interest this and are as responsible for en- again," said the Squire, with much shouted: sangering human life as are the cap-

The Captain pointed out the house,

"Many thanks; I see you are both

"There she is," said Capt. Denham,

Squire Condit was out in his garde.

looking over his fine array of roses, now proaching, with his servant just behind him, as was the custom of gentlemen imal, the big saddle-bags excepted, a entering at the front gate, took off his

"Does Squire Goodwill Condit 1.

"He does, sir," replied the Squire.

the squire his voice tremulous. 1

"Would you please tell me if he is recognized in the stranger the man who.

twenty-one years before had brought a

"Ha! you recognize me then?"

the Colonel, extending his hand, a mol and be seated for a bit?" said the Squire,

| Would you do me the favor of a few |

' motioning to the black man to remain the chair on which his white right hand

Sitting down, with the air of a man to me for the care of the boy, whose

Stop, Colonel Graham; I will return

"We ćan, sir." was the answer.

"You have often heard from me, .

' to give you more time hereafter."

officers in her Majesty's service. Per-

"And you have learned?"

"I heard that he was now captain They had gone but a few yards from not a more able or gallant officer on the Laperolexed Colonel, who was now bitin it. But do you propose to tell him all touched his hat and motioned to them | about the past?'

If there is anything that you can , The British population was by the one Squire Condit resides?" asked the tell him to increase his happiness, do so him miserable all his life, and if you a answer me one question?" asked Squire bleedged to see mer. Now go to see will grow out again. There are several

"Are you Ralph Denham's father?" *and a finer ship never entered this the superior of the more natural man

"Are the parents of Ralph Denham i. Graham and his servant had come

"I am not at liberty to tell."

"Are you of his blood?"

coming between his visitor and the tongue," said Frenauld, evidently

"I am not," with another start.

"Is he legitimate?" asked the Squ. down his arm, as if to imply

I into his care, suddenly took his depart-"Be good enough to explain." "Ralph Denham loves a beautiful girl. she is of good family, and I feel that . the cloud were lifted from his antece-"I do; your hair has become white, "Is the young lady your daughter, Squire Condit?" asked Col. Graham, "I cannot answer that till you have a Teannot make you a very long visit. knowing who Ralph Denham's ladylove tering form of speech. the direction of the door, and came to a sudden stop. Without looking at the "You are a man of sense, and resided as magistrate when the differ- of keeping our conversation to yourself. at heart, you will not tell him why a "Can we speak here without fear of called. We shall meet again, and very | being overheard?" asked Colonel Gra- | soon. With a frigid bow, Colonel Graham left the room, and, addressing the negro as "Othello," bade him follow him. When Colonel Graham reached the town of Sag Harbor, an hour or two l ' fore his appearance at Squire Condit's, he dispatched a messenger to Captain This boat, under the command of

' Lieutenant Frenauld, was now waiting and on their way to the ship, but an innted his progress for some time."

Old Dinah, who had been talking, i. her disjointed way, to Ellen Condit and tention of going to her home, some She caught sight of Colonel Graham approaching, and she came to a sudden halt, raised her lean, black hands, and Where her you come from, wanderin' back en foth "said Colonel Graham.

know me yet awhile, and you shall have ho's dis? Who am de black-boy?

a perplexed way: "Is you my granny ez ran away from Bermuda nigh onter twenty yeah agone. and all said was drownded?"

' mydder of yer mudder. But tell me, you de sarvint of dat man?" she asked

'unerd." replied Othello, his face showing that the unexpected discovery L

"Mong the Montauks. Hs, ha, ha! | developed, they breathe the air like frogs onel, motioning for his servant to follow general name of newts or tritons. l en see yer granny, honey. Colonel: Graham and Othello hastened | especially in .tropical countries.

was in charge, saluted the former with on banks and limbs, and dart in and "The Captain is anxiously awaiting " said Frenauld, as the parsmet "You have been here eight days," said the Colonel, as if he were quite indifferbelieve that in order to see really wonder-'stammered Frenauld. the line between his eyes deepening, as | whole book about the wonderful things | ing, she looked squarely into the entering his eyes deepening, as | whole book about the wonderful things | ing, she looked squarely into the entering his make no secret of their inif Frenauld's apology had increased that happen in his back yard. He calls the mother dog, and in a coarse, to oppose the adoption of the "It is hard, sir, for one accustomed was eighteen feet long by fifty feet wide, found many other things. He says: but little pleased by the Colonel's "I fully appreciate what you ray," re. | comprises English sparrows, slimy slugs | would stand under the tree with a still with that manner of ostentatious | ever the wind brings them in from the once. Unfortunately, this beaution I superiority which marked everything | fens of Long Island and the meadows of | developed such a liabit of b. he said or-did. "But Graham is my | New Jersey; and we are liable to have bling at every thing within sight, esp. and I hold the commis- flies. There are beetles, guats, fireflies, wood, that Mr. Herrmann con of colonel in her Majesty's ser- | centipedes and a rarely visible mouse. her on his last trip, fearing that vice. You know the rest, and, as I pay | In flower time we enjoy the company of she might eat up the car. you to use this knowledge for my bene- | bees, both honey and bumble, vagrom | placed her in central park and, it, it holds, sir, that I should not be an- | wasps and hornets and butterflies and enough, she dropped dead from h

noyed at any breach of the contract on moths in great numbers. Then, let's on the very day that her beloved a your part, or on that of your supperior | see. We have a cricket or two, and a so suddenly expired This was said in a low tone, but the noise of the oars in the clumsy row

TO BE CONTINUED.

Her Daughters. I New England to hear a mother refer . to her boys and girls as "a mas o' chil- the McGonigle boy, the caterpillars that little tail in its sharp beak, causing the in this me in the intermediate that the little tail in its sharp beak, causing the intermediate that the little tail in its sharp beak, causing the intermediate that the little tail in its sharp beak, causing the intermediate that the little tail in its sharp beak, causing the intermediate that the little tail in its sharp beak, causing the intermediate that the little tail in its sharp beak, causing the intermediate that the little tail in its sharp beak, causing the intermediate that the little tail in its sharp beak, causing the intermediate that the little tail in its sharp beak, causing the intermediate that the little tail in its sharp beak, causing the intermediate that the little tail in its sharp beak, causing the intermediate that the little tail in its sharp beak, causing the intermediate that the little tail in its sharp beak, causing the intermediate that the little tail in its sharp beak, causing the intermediate that the little tail in its sharp beak, causing the intermediate that the little tail in its sharp beak, causing the little tail in its sharp beak. ' It appears that at least one strip the zinnias, the blue beeties on the run about the stage squealing in shall I suffer anxiety for the lack of | Southern woman has a still less gather our bay crop with a lawn mower. | much a nused as \ sixty varieties of plants in bloom at once tving under the c

"I want a purtect against William In the justice's office; "that is what I kitchen windows, and in a shady corner, night so attired want—a purtect against William Da- in pots, flourished in spite of the fore- paralyzed than the gand two new islands have appeared during to approach one that did not instantly he did the best he This makes a net gain to the earth.

ease" there may be something in the germ theory that microbes are trans-No one can lay claim to being a thor. oughbred who objects to cheese be-

She races through her breakfast to be i allowed to go to his room and that fills the restibule.

she starts too late.

hurries through her sewing, friendly word, . .. Like an engine at high pressure, as . leisure were a crime: he's always in a accamble, no matter where she's going, And yet—would you believe it?—she never is in time. about it by this time. Thirteen of were born at one litter a quite no do, when I state at this time was a brilliant macaw it had brought from Central periodical delegation of grasshoppers.

the hard-shelled, many-legged wire worms | soft a heart to let this go on

'ouseworts; coiling like ammonites when discovering this device.

that burrow through and kill the roots of cleverly fitted a p lin warm weather, and that the orchide the ears of the liv

A WIZARD'S PETS.

and only perrmany more truly the wizara

Lian in his absolute power over every kind of animal. He was never known maximed to on good terms with Fidget.

Perhaps in no way was the late great ' And in telling of the surprising and in- trick animals were a to devoted was he to 'pets," that he a black spaniel that a not a whit hehind the great magician in feathers. The rer fondness for and power over unimals. the featherless

Manuale, a mocking bird, that the manner at ey goods store.

Sirils, monkers, etc. Mrs. Herrman was while playing with it fore on nw) it was only upon condition that they brand-new duster in his money tud if there was room in their private car vere whipping with it.

never traveled without a retinue of dogs, | er duster teresting life which all of these things live and seemed to greatly en of

This little dog tried to-man walked up to his mistress and her deposited the new brush at he

By the mark on it she saw that had stolen it from a neighboring for his sins.

cadet blue with golden wings but little creatures, The female lavs her eggs on the | selves with their legs, and scull with their |

The lizards belong to an entirely differ-Di- | ent family. In tropical America there ! The true lizards abound in the Old World her homage in their own clumsy on board the boat, where Frenauld, who | run on walls and trees, sun themselv > dignified manner over to Mrs. St. Be spend a great deal of money in railroad began to wink at her in a very is almost everywhere if we only have the on the alert to see that she didn't pieces may have succeeded in maineves to see it. A New York author her rival's eyes. However, after w it "Nature in a City Yard." The ward | voice e aculated, "Hullo!"

to calling another the name by which and you would simply be astonished to self the mistress of the dog kenuel, granting cotton bagging, cotground produced. Besides dogs and when occasion required, tuneful cats and tomato cans. Mr. Skinner | to be fiercely jealous of her. Some sente will insist a Lola would fly into a tree and . "The zoology of the district likewise entreaties to come down until son and earthworms. Mosquitoes call when in his arms, when she would t

> We have stocked the place with three mann's "Noah's ark" trick. toads and a turtle. The ability of these shows the audience an empty but the anges of phraseology, and on a Chicago and visitors, their name is legion, and Then he begins to take out anim l nickety lot. They are the aphides, the pig. then a pet gander, and so on. common plant lice that prey by muriads! for some reason or other, the gande on the poppies and chrysanthemums, the denly developed a strange jealousy the techange of wood lice or sow bugs, the rose bugs, | pig, and every night would seize it disposition of the senate and a. asters, the mealy bugs that spread over to-the great amusement of the and the to-the cases the the cacti, the scale that dot the palms, Mrs. Herrmann, however, had mu

' ^{seems}' to be in the direction anandments has not yet ' view of the heavy an- spondent ortations, and there of revenue also furargument for the restonuse rates on imported

Yessels Quarantined at Madrid.

r said last night that all estimates were the Great Strike.

Work In the West Virginia Fields. Strong Efforts to Be Made to Have Them Join.

and the Hawaiian annexation land her husband pushed his way into I make the suspension complete before Much of this was disposed ville-Hits. 13: errors, 6.

necessarily pure guesswork.

Probably Be Passed.

muitice little can be predicted i cers of transcendent importance in the bill were so interdependent that an ul-time afte. the rest of the matters

When the report is completed, it will at once go to the house, where it is no likely that more than one day will be allowed for debate. The anxiety to gel

Refused to Live With Him.

Ington—Hits, 13: errors, 4. Standing of the Clubs.

of Willard's hotel in Washington and dozen business blocks here. He was the | national

The revenue afforded Jopan Won't Adopt Offensive Messures. London, July 12.-The Berlin corre-Lapanese minister here assures me that its scope so as not only | the idea of the adoption by Japan of y on actual transfers, offensive measures against the American annexation of Hawaii is absurd."

Madrid, July 12 .- The government has although various dates are arriving from Costa Rican ports owing storm farmers brought buckets full of tum side of the Nile. length of time the bill to the prevalence of reliew tower there. Latt to town for exhibition.

the Other's Housekeeper.

cleaning up will have taken place. ness on a new basis and probably at operator. "The operators are operators will be able to get

.455 declared a failure, they balanced their of goldpieces, and naturally the best

The miners' officials say that the suc-But the miners have said nay. They will insist that a majority of the operathe Central hotel and half a or none. This is the ultimatum of the > who desire to have all the surplus of taken from the market.

Severe Hallstorm In Ohin. Massillon, O., July 12.—A severe storm visited this section Saturday evening. ातिक as large as walnuts fell, and li some places the ground-was covered to a depth of eight inches. Corn and veg- Chazal and other places. A portion etables were almost ruined. After the the forces will advance along the Khar-by the Roadside.

They Were Said to Have Quarreled About the Wife of the Suspected Man. Who She Had Formerly Been made by Manchester after his arrest

An autopsy held by Medical Examiner Dolan and other physicians revea

Won't Be Minister to Bolivia

Lithographers Meet.

.Run Over by an Electric Car.

the same of the sa

To Subdue Egypt.

London, July 12.-It is announced that

A CONTRACT OF THE PARTY OF THE

the Anglo-Egyptian expedition is to be

His condition is eriticat.

the fact that death was cause eral fractures and many cuts city, where he was locked up. Story of the Suspected Man. his story of the affair, as follows:

National Hay Association.

Prominent Railroad Man Dead, Pittsburg, July 12.-John E. Davidson

New York, Sulv 12.-United States Customs Inspector Charles Diamon 136 Third avenue, while at breakfa Stewart's restaurant on Third aven cause of death. The dead man's b

Large Mills Burned.

originated from a hot box completely rived here, and the United History

· 4.5 * * * Steamer Crushed by Ice. C., July 12.—A. R. C. reports the wreck of the Alaska company's steamer/

Insulted During Their Progress. Washington, July 12.—The army ficer in charge of the Pueblo and J carilla Indian agency in New Mexico to giving the teachers on the reserva spection of the_day schools about t

ACCIDENTAL DEATHS

dians in the future.

Consideration

The Profident By Line With Rec Inaugural Message Plans Approved b Washington, July 1.

proved by the cabinet officers? The message was framed tdy for these arrangements which. e temptations to speculation," and says M, the power rested in the president, it is his purt izens, who will command public o the congress will enact legisla this session to authorize this c dent may be prepared to report to gress when it reassembles in the term of the next regular session. president, while believing that come will respond to his message, is not fident, and there is some distant opinion among members of the net as to the fate the recommende The majority, however, believed pportunity is at least a favorable

Received a Medal For Bravery. Baltimore, July 8.—Captain George Rines of the schooner Hilda has Freight Trains Collide. West Falmouth, Me., July 8.-7 reight trains were wrecked on Maine Central railroad half r west of this station. Traffic was a hands escaped injury by jumping. train which left Portland was dela out. A dense fog prevailed, an reight train following crashed into stalled train. The -locomotive of Section Hand Killed by a Train. Lyme, Conn., July 8 .- Henry Mon 23, of this place, a section h the New York, New Haven Hartford railread, was struck and tantly killed by the express out of i Pittsburg's Trolley Accident Pittsburg, July 8.-W. A. Manley the Consolidated Traction lines

The San Francisco and Revelet 1 and the same of the same with the same of American Cynisers at Tangler. Tangier, Marocco, July 9.—The Un States cruiser Ban Francisco has with the same of the same of the same