the past four years. fornia, is the wildest stampede which the West has known since the days or Virginia City, in 1870 and 1871.

Italy $65,000,000.

hunters in Maryland, in their war on ducks, employ a gun about 12 feet in The game wardens, how-· effective work 1.

It was Hawthorne who alluded once to the finished finesse of the practiced, politicians as a craft of men "skilleo to adjust those preliminary measure. its own rulers If however, suggests the York Observer, the people willd not so generally and deliber. stely 2040 sleep while the politicians of the enter's craft might be great.

Upward of 35,000 signatures have already been obtained for the Scottish. National Memorial to the Queen, pray and "English." Among the signers | Ships? tions of Scotland.

Kingdom 2000 years ago, but as woever, survived, and now that bicycles would seem to be nothing in the way of the almond-eved damsels resuming their interrupted pastime.

lege, New York city, has in hand the osophy could tell, he is a most scholproject of boring into the earth as far the surface, operates the drilling en-make him go on living.

OR CALLY.

and the Captain said when they were "You must be weary with your jour. | still holds a commission in her majesty's ney, and will need rest before we at- service." "empt to transact any business." my dress." said the Colonel, glancing over his travel-stained attire. are arranged on swivels in the bow of | cumstances, feel that a short rest was | > ference," said Fox, with an interrogative inflection on the last word. "An hour, sir, may be of vital import. with some slight refreshment. siter have washed. I shall be grateful. "As you will, sir," said Capt. Fox eye, would have shown a strange L The Colonel was shown to the cabin moned to aid his master in making h When Col. Graham again came into the cabin, he found it darkened, and the swinging lamps blazed on a repast such as no other ship in the service Accustomed as Col. Graham was to the luxury and display which distinguished the English court at this time, he looked about him with surprise an "By the throne, sir, you must find a deprivation in living in such a ship. 'We take care of ourselves. Colonel.

We fly the flag, as you have seen; but which you did not know more than m Sutherland, many peers, many Mem- | the colors at the peak when we go into | self. bers of Parliament and more than action are a shade or two less sanguin- our merits. So far, I have kept my pa ary, and very many shades more of the contract, and you are now

his hands as he said this, and there was | striking the table until the very glasses so much horrible suggestiveness in his | rang again, as if manifesting his looked quickly and anxiously about him to make sure that no other person

i ately good, but as to the wine—here are i ' four kinds—I swear that better cannol. side of the table to serve his guest. rather than with any desire for foc

"You have seen Denham," said Co some minutes in silence. "I have seen him repeatedly." "And what do you think of him?"

"As a sailor I think he has. for ' made, handsome and, so well as I—who Professor Hallock of Columbia col- | never had a taste for literature or phil-

"Liked by the men and loved by nearly all the women. I regret to say. *Ah, have you already run counter t sach other in the lists of love?" asked ' that might have passed for merrimen "I cannot say that," laughed Captain Fox. "And yet, ogsd, Colonel, I have | idone?"

"Yet I do utter the solemn truth. the trident of the Sea God. I should n mind prolonging my stay for the rest regret to tell you that circumstances of greater importance to you "so many hours to pass | than to me will compel your departure | within the week. If you carry out my as long as you please." The Colonel shot a glance at Captain Fox, and went | leagues from land," replied the Captain.

It the Captain was startled by this cluded in his term of life. When a information, neither his face nor voice A REBUFF AND AN INTERRUPTED PROPOSAL hour, but when he sleeps he is ac- the conversation, rather than seeking official messengers were then called, "Why do you think I should leave,

Captain Ralph Denham, which he had pretending to be interested in the make This told of a curious feather fan, which he had me that Denham had arrived, about the

Of this letter, I heard a part. It was almost verbativ

'The fears that the Adven

idid he give for thinking it unfortunate evil of a brother officer, unless the evil sell them to families that need ice. of Agriculture. The boat was now close alongside the that the Adventure Galley was not dence is very strong, and in these days Wanderer, and Captain Fox stood ready awallowed up by the sea, or blown up of false rumor I am not inclined to credit

The Governor's letter went on to say for some service done the crown while with the light, source step of a much that he had evidence, nearly conclusive, he commanded a pirate fleet, the defection whom four children most of his obituaries is so illustration Gustav Neiderlin, scientific directions, and he met Captain Fox that he had evidence, nearly conclusive, he commanded a pirate fleet, the defection whom four children most of his obituaries is so illustration Gustav Neiderlin, scientific directions, and he met Captain Fox that he had evidence, nearly conclusive, he commanded a pirate fleet, the defection whom four children most of his obituaries is so illustration. He was evidently known to the other | the Adventure Galley had been changed officers of the ship, for they raised their materially, but not so as to destroy her hats to him, and he bowed in his state- identity; that she was now transformed panied Captain Fox to the cabin, foi- on all the seas; that she had recently denly appeared in the West Indies, and that a runaway sailor had arrived at Sti was commanded by Captain Kidd, who wine, drank it down at one gulp, and, oritically at Captain Fox. But whatever of surprise the words might have given, had their information.

ing his sailing orders, I must confess, ' said Captain Fox. covering his mouth "I must get word to him at once.

have him keep his eyes open. destroyed some greater pirate than himeyes again gleaming as if with laughter. and his cruel mouth fastening as . closed with a spring lock.

of his danger. And now as to your own

' point, and have done so. Where is the with all her officers and crew," replied Captain Fox, sinking his voice. "So I supposed. Now, it will be necessary to have this ship lost after she vou must arrange that, but a report of her loss must reach the admiralty in

't to yourself. You are much more able 'n such matters than I am.' were Governor. I felt that outside o But we will not play modest a

"Nominally, Colonel, I suppose it is. | thing, good, bad or indifferent, about

"Here, I assume the role of a man

' whom we know to be dead, and in En-The food here is, I think, moder- | gland I am Lord Palitan; but why speak a sareastic laugh. "I do not want to lay

> "That is the point. Your own safety demands immediate action. Yes.

imperative that this Ralph Denham should be at once missing, and---"And never to be found thereafter?" "You have it. Captain."

The Colonel compressed his thin lips "In the event of trouble befalling me.

I come prepared to do that."

rest, that your ship is well provided with writing material?

part at once. When will you be ready to act?" ask the Colone. derer will prove her claim to her name.

CHAPTER IX.

"for Captain Raiph Denham of the cruise"

be seen in an embowered summer house, | ance to the emotions.

| Squire when Decham had anished read ing the message. what is it?

for forty-eight hours

But has the Governor given a hint as why he wants you?

"And the captain?"

"Then you leave the ship here?" Mays before I return," said the Captain, five and thirty million birds are annu- ris was desirous of preventing Lagtion of reciprocity is the most diffirising and going to the edge of the plaze ally imported into England alone for money from falling into the handle in the world's economy, and our 'ton the substance of his order.

have heard what Ralph said. However, a total of some two hundred million co, and after remaining in that co he said nothing, but politely raised his birds sacrificed annually on the altar try for eighteen months carried to America as the part of the a monstrosity. He went at once to the principal inn and asked if a post had just come from The landlord replied that there had.

and that the messenger was then in his room, resting after dinner. him. Do not call him. Show me where have been drowned out by the deluge, Harris. After he had been in the to signify my sincere thanks for his room is and I will go to him. Capt. Fox had become a great man in ) the eyes of the villagers. The officers and crew of the Wanderer were good the principal officer could not L. journey here and back?" asked | reputation. It is quite time it set | Fox, when he was alone with the man, rubbing his eyes, for he had been

"I came to meet the Wanderer at this | "Did you bring a letter for Capt. For "No. sir; the only letter I brought was been translated into some 350 lan- of the total eclipse of the sun. "Do you know the contents of the le 'Only, sir, that the captain—sc ard him say—is ordered to. New York

"Can you keep a secret?" Capt. Fo. If any one made it worth my while adopted by the medical profession in do so and it wasn't against the law." | Germany. A couple of physicians the purse, which the Captain fellow might get some idea of ita "I wish you to give out—that is, to tell | tain of the Wanderer a letter from | place on the outskirts of Bonn. on the Governor. Do you understand?" Rhine, one of the combatants, Dr. as Captain Fox asked the question be | Fischer, receiving a bullet in the chest,

"I do, sir," replied the man, feeling the "but I'm 'feerd the story being ! "There is no danger of that. Do this. I will give you as much more gol nd a free passage to New York on my

'La, sir. I see him at the Governor's New York when I started. He overtook me at Hemostead."

"Why, sir, if so be it's only to help buns! to twenty years' imprisonment the whole heavens will be managed scope. We have seen on our tou along a bit of a joke, which all fine at hard labor for the murder of her down in the sheets every morning at the United States produces in gents do like sometimes to play on sister. While in court she constantly the month when the observations mery and many of the articles which each other, of course I'll do it. That his employer might get an idea . ' his eagerness to earn the money. prospective and in possession, the mes. officials, to which she replied that she and carefully graded. | senger forgot his weariness, and, spring | was in mourning for her sister. Show- | nent_observation stations will

Ing out of bed, began to dress. Warning him to act in all seriousness. row. Capt. Fox went away, confiden came he was so daringly playing. That a man carrying out such hazard quoted in The Washington Post: ve. which is generally supposed ful leisure, is not a little strange. But ness, and especially to look into the tub has been dumped, those Capt. Fox was not an ordinary man. may have been his all-sufficient confi. this country. I am a sunflower far- ness. without word from the drient. dence in himself or a spirit of sheer mer at my home in Russia. One of start off. While discharging recklessness that led him, with a fixed my family was the first person in Rus- coal from the Dreadnaught, rpose in view, directly from the inn sis to obtain oil from the seed of the day, seven tubs were hauled When he first met Lea Hedges he some, dashing girl, who would serve to dominions now, and the people can started when the

make pleasant the time spent in this clear more money from it than any constied but after being But after each meeting with the beau- conditions, are right in the United ful Les he became more and more in- | States, and I can find a suitable localatuated, until now he had to confess tion, I may enter on the cultivation of that he was deeply in love.

athived at Bag Harbor with a dispatch is not a little remarkable that he should men of the greatest reasoning powers ago only about a half of one per cent. 19 varieties of sweet corn, 18 kind of college graduates were women.

ITO DE CONTINUED. The United States' demand in Ruis case is $75,000:

only been translated into thirty lan-now, by the latest statistics, the num-existence in 1895 is 381, so that the ber of versions of the Scriptures in English, were dead languages.

of these, besides the Bible within about ninety years has already preparing to take observed Queen Victoria has thirty great-) grandchildren, all of whom are living, lions. and nineteen of the number are boys. Matronly honors are gathering also on oldest daughter, the Emwas Mr. J. R. Know, of Latch, Spo- G. Harris that has been ignoral day in which the hall- | said that farmer filled his cellar with the stones, cause they are "I dislike," replied Ralph, "to think covered them with sawdust, and will they want free from the The prondest man in the State of Says the New York Times: "In Er o

Strangely enough, Captain Fox was ply for Europe requires not less than ficials of the new State government aim to come nearer the solution of treasure to England. Many and Lid which not only historically and The recent Danubian floods have Confederate officer, State minic peraphically shall be considered as character were made by Alejandro apparently been as destructive as those and military, did much the same the but which also commercially and of the Mississippi, and left as many with public funds, but not onite and people homeless. Twenty thousand them, if rumore can be trusted in inhabitants of Galatz, in Moldavia, ted the subsequent course of Govern within the century. With its tale of in the United States that he a earthquake and flood and various safely return. So back he came forms of calamity and ruin around the with him he brought the $100 world, the current year has taken a still in gold, and turned every new place. but has several it into the Tennessee Treasure in which to redeem its | course, this was only simple h ranch has shown us. used the argument which others in guages. These translations comprise is to take place on May 28, 1900 those of all the great non-Christian the Atlanta Constitution. nations, so that nine-tenths of the tion stations will be established ' world now have the Scriptures in their Thanks to the encouragement which and to astronomy. It may seem ra early to begin to take observat so vehement a dispute with regard to I treatment that they concluded to fight | servations May 15, and continue which killed him instantly. This may departure in what is known to laymen. ' as "medical etiquette." The French parricide, who slew his through Georgia in the locality father and mother and was asked upon | con. Blank report sheets have indemnation what he had to say why sent to all the weather bureaus entence should not be pronounced vicinity of the path of the eclipse the greater intercourse with the who upon him, entreated the Court to have the instruction to the weather manded can foster and regulate. mercy upon a poor orphan. This tale secure the services of capable and have heard much of the Monroe is green with the moss of ages and telligent men to take the observate trine, but surely such ideas cannot may not be true, but something like it and register the results in the sh is true of a woman named Marie Cel- made for the purpose. The exact vet, recently sentenced by a Paris tri- dition of the sky, of the sun sun sumscribe our desires within a p wore a long crepe veil. "Why do being taken, and all of the sheets we import at present from other counyou wear this veil?" asked one of the filled out will be sent to Washington, and we have noticed that these 'ing an affectionate sensibility, the tablished at the points where t earlier exhibition of which, however, observations taken receive the would have been more becoming to percentage. W. Bokaseff, of Russia, is thus methods of farming and dairy busi- six tubfuls in the cart; when It cultivation of the sunflower plant in that for years have been in sunflower. It is one of the leading load, and at the beginning o agricultural industries in the Czar's the horses in nearly eve other crop. If the soil and climatic times they seemed distributed by the Department of Aga total cost of $130,000. Over a mil. weethy in every respect.

of Congress 40,000 packages of seed at seed at radder, and is made tives of the Differ-

Noarty. Arthur S. H. Hitchings of i ed, and there will be no increasing

e have seen how your factories

most advanced machinery, bu machines are exported, copie reign trade until there is a reduction

Some Changes Advised.

he general scale of prices.

ent Countries. Baild incl.—The meeting was trade. "The United States is right to ens the belief that victory ultimately by the buccaneers of the Spanish it. Yet, with the successful example of Mashington at the latest mail advices cident in the career of the late late delegates expressing decided views delegates expression delegates expression delegates delegates expression delegates expression delegates delegates expression delegates expression delegates delegates delegates expression delegates deleg but which he would make conclusive; he commanded a phrase need, and design and has been born. One of the Senator's character that it at the museum, presided. By way Louis A. Dillon of Ecuador told his the miners to acts of lawlessness or even and send on at once, going to show that without principles the temptation to and him the happy father has named serves recalling and remember without principles the temptation of work. Their presplunder in those rich seas must be very Rogers, after the Governor of the When the Confederacy fell there Lates congress is now passing the much more from the United States than ence in peaceable communities with a la tramp, was thrown from a freight which about two-thirds, $15,515.230, was have struck. nessee $100,000 in gold belonging ecial power is given to the president men of his country had found that they for alarm and ordinarily would have Overbrook, on the outskirts of the could do better with Europe and ordinarily would have overbrook. "Yes; but I will at once give orders to

A recent statement, based on good the State school fund. As an ard or each article which can be in they were enabled to secure very much miners in this instance, profiting by the sailant was Richard Wilson, who says the sailant was Richard get her ready for sea. It will be ten authority, affirms that between twenty. Southern sympathizer, Governor H. dead in treaties of reciprocity. The smaller rates of reciprocity rates are smaller rates of reciprocity. The rates of reciprocity rates are smaller rates of reciprocity. decorative purposes, and that the sup- "Parson" Brownlow and the other attitution has been established with been at the same time reducing its industries it had ble by the action of others. of been at the same time reducing its "Reports from some of the cities to passing at that very moment, and he one hundred and fifty million. Add- He took it with him, therefore and navel officer of Brazil the effect that the coal supply is not less. They were riding in the same car, and he one hundred and fifty million. Add- He took it with him, therefore and navel officer of Brazil. must, as subsequent events proved, ing fifty million for America it makes he avoided capture by flight to 31 The land of the street of this work, necessary to see engineer and naval officer of Brazil, short are only intended to discourage when they began quarreling, with the per cent. Another impression of the may affect the outward moven must, as subsequent events proved, ing fifty million for America it makes he avoided capture by flight to 31 The land of the street of this work, necessary to see engineer and naval officer of Brazil, short are only intended to discourage when they began quarreling, with the per cent. Another impression of the may affect the outward moven must, as subsequent events proved, ing fifty million for America it makes he avoided capture by flight to 31 The street of this work, necessary to see engineer and naval officer of Brazil, short are only intended to discourage when they began quarreling, with the per cent. Another impression of the may affect the outward moven must, as subsequent events proved the street of the str advantages add what free trade car slone secure - a permanent and engross ing international commerce which will insure the future of every workman !

anderstand by reciprocity, and may mos

an extensive exporter of wool and hide and an incentive to do likewise."

de Janeiro, had this to say: "I beg the severest recorded in that region land a year, affairs had so settled a exceeding kindness which I and the An Alleged Insane Man Escapes. From a will only continue at work? Ler delegates have met with in all the ttorney, James G. Moyer of Mattea- | way.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Lightning Cracks a Church Bell. Saratoga, July 19.—At Glens Falls during a heavy storm lightning struck and cracked the bell in the steeple Alphonsus' Catholic church. Henry Sherman's residence was also stru nd badly damaged.

Prince Won't Fight a Plebian. London, July 19.-The Daily Mail'.

Prince Won't Fight a Plebian.

'of President Ratchfor on the Outlook.

Will Remain Firm—The Movemen Is Still Growing and May Seriously Impede Business.

made another free trade argument, the miners. If the coal supply is not above result. Wilson was arrested. with the limited ourselves this characterizing the present tariff bill as short, why are prices avancing? Why condition does not indicate that he is ment that our trade with the islands in cluded, have been 3,115,443 Garland of Lima, Peru: Henry S. Price | ments? Why are the shops and factoate? Why are operators all over the | forced to defend himself by striking | yet hold so high a position in furnish Indiana Miners Meet. Brazil, Ind., July 19.—The block l and received reports from all polthe district. The reports were Decide to Return to Work. Huntington, W. Va., July 19.—The l also decided to strike, will, it is belleved, follow their example.

Threaten to Employ New Hands.

Killed by a Live Wire. Monson, Mass., July 19.-James Lynch Warren, a lineman employed by the Central Massachusetts Electric company was instantly killed while at work. I he had cut. Two thousand volts passe. through his body, and he fell over back-I and he was suspended in midair for en down. He leaves a widow and

Imprisoned In a Mine. A. T., July 19 .- James Ste-

Hubbard, a physician well known which he died soon after.

o, and was graduated at Yale, class During-the-war he was surgeon of the Seventeenth Connecticut volunteers and was actively engaged at the battles o

THROWN FROM A TRAIN.

A Tramp Killed During a Quarrel With

M. Everest of Rochester.

H. Trowbridge of New Haven and Mrs.

a Newly Made Acquaintance. Philadelphia, July 19.—Daniel Carron, Perez, special representative of the cause trouble themselves nor allow stress of circumstances has been forced hope of gaining work at his trade. He fell in with Carron and some oth-

SUPPOSED KIDNAPING

Boys Mysteriously Disappear From a Boat In Chicago. their mother last saw them. The mother left Milwaukee Thursday

Jersey Potters Want an Increase.

Death of General Velasque: Pacific war, died in this city of lung disease. General Velasquez had ser 40 years. During the last few years

Electric Car on Fire. Cambridge, Mass., July 19.—By broke out into flames from underneat As it was, five persons were severel burned. They are Mrs. Margaret King, John, Mrs. Sarah J. Nickerson and to frightened were they. The car was a

A Chef Takes Morphine. Pittsfield. Mass., July 19.—Eugen Coleman, aged 35, chef in the Pittafle. taws will go into such a scheme. House, took a heavy dose of morphine till be living happily together

Ex-Mayor of Newburg Dead. " | clety and a member of the board of edcancy caused by the death of Gilbert

Tacobs. Who siso died suddenix of heart. disease. He leaves a widow and two utacturing company of New York city has certified to the secretary of state

Much Talked of Islands

strike, - which

mand. In man

tivity than in any active. There is much line

sion of a failure of fuel

the week has been in boots and

time, there is me

Dr. Hubbard was a native of Cromwell. Conn., where he was born 71 years the First Reciprocity Treaty Until the Present Time, When 1 Has Increased Fivefold

I the current discussion of the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands to the United States and are as follows:

, said that as his | themselves to become involved in trou- | to steal a ride to some other city in the | the United States during the first five | zil and even Argentina,

taken together, and Canada.

The Tariff Bill.

It is not believed that there will be l any disposition on the part of the Demo-

Indian Union Wants to Sell Out.

own lands. They say that a white man shall not move among them. The full

Stabbed His Brother.

inflicting wounds which are likely to i

Bicyclists Rus Down.

U. C. Wagner, a trooper belonging to bloods are favorably impressed with th

Antlers, I. T., July 19.-The Choctaw-

first eight days of July were and 27 in Canada against 35 kg next. Next in order are our exports of breadstuffs, cotton goods, fertilizers.

New York, July 17.--Judges and larceny in the first degre ner. Charles Meyers, was given in Sing Sing. Meyers was sent a term of 15 years.

Frederick F. Gunther. for gr ' ing Mr. Zwissler.

Driven Off by Cannibals gulf of California, has been d the islands by the Seri India lot of land from Mexico and have their | the Island. Body of a Flood Vietim Fo Newburg, N. Y., July 17 .-- Th Julia Conroy, 5 years old, or victims of the Dutchess June aster, has been found in the 200 feet from the front of Ha instantly killed on Michigan avenue by were hurt.

Old Lady Milled by Light Erle, Pa., July 19.--Mrs. H. ole, a prominent lady of the instantly killed at Gille Farth. vy a flash of lightning.

of an increase in its capital stock from trampled by the horse and had his state.