"all votes shall be by ballot."

and every Saturday is a holiday after impulses and great executive ability, her feelings to-night. The court 12 o'clock noon. The holidays are came directly to the point, yet he ap- letter had decided him. ber, as in other states.

An Arkansas lawyer, who was a she usually says it in a way to plaster | ing him their hands in marriage. of North Carolina, that they both of marriage she refuses. had stuck to the flobr. This gave him | be unworthy the esteem of any true man | trunk of a fallen tree and, turning

"You may be sure," he

of Pennsylvania thinks the shirking | manner coming back. "But you must of jury duty by the average citizen is excuse me in the light of these facts. A "take the banker from his desk, the | that city. It is possible I may be sent them in / the jury-box. Instead of | morrow night or early next morning uries, I would make jury duty as in takes on a house and lot."

eyes taking on their old expression sternly deny themselves & drink when | teckless vivacity. the dust of the country road, will be lonce going back to the subject mends during exercise as much drink her sailor suitor, she did not retain he

number being found among pheasants, | adoed.

pinm smoking are the various forms probably the first named.

man whom I did not know two weeks

"You are right, Miss Hedges, and letter, just received by a post from the

to fight a pirate, one Captain Kidd, who

' and I wanted to take with me one memory to sustain me amid the perils and dreariness of my cruise—a tie that

Lea, "will always find a hearty welcome

leave me hopeless." said the captain. h

Although Lea Hedges bore herself so

t calmly and bravely in the presence o herself on the bed, and, burying her tace in her hands, so remained till her ents of Capt. Fox's offer that night and she might have done it at the sub-

Fing him to take his ship to New York.

Lea, the expression on her beautiful

I face telling her auxiety in the answer.

And then Lieut. Dayton told her that

' am to blame," said the captain, his

Governor of New York, orders me

merce in the West Indies. I sail

I would draw me back here."

If Lea Hedges should accept him, the as a little girl, she had often gathered Hawk. the ground that such a captain had a hurrledly matured plan, | nuts, while Ralph, then a. sturdy boy.

He was fortunate in finding Lea | that she thought him the bravest said: from a horse-back ride, was looking world. He would give a great deal to Pennsylvania now has by a new more beautiful than ever, if that were know what she thought of him now. Captain Fox. like all men of strong | desperation that he resolved to learn

a way as not to shock her by the sud- in his mind, every time he thought very first hour when English civilization | did not know who he was, in regard to

Under such circumstances, since the day, Independence day, Labor day, required that the young lady's affectually and parentage—and though he conversing with the officers of the Sea ican supremacy there. This is | these of illegitimate birth, and that | went down to the cabin. No woman can look with other than | fulness: to-night, he was gloomy. wanted to inform a juror, also a native | gympathy on the eligible man whose offer in her futile efforts to rally him, Lev | herself became taciturn.

upon it, and pretended that his heel tain Fox, and I presume I should feel now a cloud of green and gold, in the der, commanding me to New York Bay into Welles harbor. At the north- post at Honolulu, which affords so the cost of the journey of the properties of the population, which affords so the cost of the journey of the population which affords so the cost of the journey of the population which affords so the cost of the journey of the population which affords so the cost of the journey of the population which affords so the cost of the journey of the population which affords so the cost of the journey of the population which affords so the cost of the journey of the population which affords so the cost of the journey of the population which affords so the cost of the journey of the population which affords so the cost of the journey of the population which affords so the cost of the journey of the population which affords so the cost of the journey of the population which affords so the cost of the journey of the population which affords so the cost of the journey of the population which affords so the cost of the journey of the population which affords so the population which affords the populatio if I trifled with his feelings. While her, Ralph asked: ou with the courtesy Mue an "I have known you Ralph," she rein the service of dur gracious 1 "But why—why do you refuse me?" he asked, the sanguine hue of his cheeks "If you cannot guess I cannot ex- with the ribbon of the hat which she

" she replied, with a dignity that | held in her lap. "I was wondering how long means that you love some one friends—good friends as you and I are— "Why should iff But that you may exactly what the one thought of be undeceived on that point, let me as other he said. sure you that you are the first man that "I have never doubted about that; ye ever spoke to me of love and marriage. have been to me a brave brother, in ion should remember that I have whom I felt all a sister's pride; and I you may have made among us so far is, woods." And now she began to knot pledging what I have not-love-to a then "Not a sister, Ralph?"

"No: the time—the time I have a n thought of, and always with a must be much more than a sister to | my appreciation of Fox's kindness. He turned to her and reached out | Cantain? his hands: and, as she did not l make a response, but sat there trem- to that effect; Frenauld is waiting for | Sand island, the largest and most im- placed at Winchester, and there is t ng, with a face as white as a statue, | my answer."

It seemed that my heart would | up by Lieutenant Dayton.

He looked up and saw the scowling) dark face and towering form of

"Here," said the chief, defiantly

ter, "the battle is more than half won.

"I do not blame Doctor Hedges for rewas much devoted to his friend and same." said the captain. "I ask your pardon, Raiph, but I don't was very fond of her adopted brother. | fathers,"

'And with him she is the best ship of force..... my way and taking soundings for years "gum-tickiers" of Gothan.

And Valentine Dayton was himself.

Hawk, where the Captain was to make j

Captain Fox, who desires me to take coast of Maine and New York. All five or six others, lived for two vears advantage of the reduced rate. Captain Denham was inclined to like recognize the Midways as American subsisted well, but did not like the Frenauld, and his dislike of Fox-he territory, and consequently give them isolated life. It is estimated that imagined—was caused by the feeling room in their promiscuous search for with proper facilities for cultivating that he was or might become a rival. that he was or might become a river. unclaimed domains. From 1867 until the soil and developing the resources of the railroads in the Trunk Line assohe felt, as is ever the cased with gener- | beaten threadbare by wind and rain of the group, a hundred people could ous natures, of going to the other ex- the Stars and Stripes floated triumph- live there and make money.

that Hawk, who were gathered under an awning on the quarter deck.

The Midway group was first made United States steamer Lackawanna sociation are entitled to these tickets, took formal possession and raised the Any merchant in good standing who known to the world by Capt. Brooks, took formal possession and raised the Any merchant in good standing who known to the world by Capt. Brooks, took formal possession and raised the latter and the merchants as the merchants as sociation are entitled to these tickets. tions were as essential as the consent | consoled himself with the belief that | Hawk, who were gathered under an Invariable habit of the fair one to con- that in this community, there was a seriore opening me letter, maiph Den. of the bark Gambia. He named the United States flag over Sand Island and Brooklyn may join without conference and to vow that the honor strong, even a bitter, prejudice against ham, followed by Valentine Dayton, of the bark Gambia. He named the United States flag over Sand Island and Brooklyn may join without conference and to vow that the honor strong, even a bitter, prejudice against ham, followed by Valentine Dayton, of the bark Gambia. After glancing over the note to make and Lower Brooks, in honor of him- suitable coaling station in the Pscific Resociation headquarters.

tents to his subordinate, without any lagoon in which the islands are lo- of Welles Harbor, and finding the for coming to New York. Upon reach-MY DEAR CAPTAIN DENHAM: I have shaped, with the stem to the east- territory of the United States. Follow been informed by some of our friends | ward. It describes an area of eighteen | some years the Racific Mail Steamshi ther refusal, was certainly brusque.

"I must believe what you say, Cap
"I must believe what you say while I expect in this weather to make it | rocks which break at high tide. From | Just now the islands are uninhabitate inside of twelve hours on the Wanderer- | there all around the wall is compact | ted by man. Their pecuniary

> Permit me to say there is a cabin at your | ses around east and south to Sand, or | war the post might be of importance service on board the Wanderer, and if you Lower Brooks island, where it dips -San Francisco Examiner. Your humble, obedient servant.

vincial Cruiser, Sea Hawki "What do you think of the Max Days abundant green grass and flower larger contains 382 pages, in ton?" asked the Captain. when he had i finished reading the letter aloud. "I must say Fahink it very handsome. Captain. Of course you will not say. "I was then a youth and you a little | tunate think to have a ship like the from the beach the land is very fertile | called "Domesday" is still in disput. The territory We have both changed. You are | Wanderer to bear one to New York, in- | and almost any semi-tropical plant | Some say that it is because the reserved stead of going through the woods and | will flourish. No black earth is to be | turns therein preserved were first designated to the N over the sands on horseback," replied | found anywhere. The beach sand is | posited in one of the crypts of the Lieutenant Dayton.

"Even if the offer were not tempting. I should feel inclined to accept, to show | "Then you will go on the Wanderer, "Yes; and I shall at once write Fox Yes Four miles southwest of Green is until a century after the books well rions to New York, because it has

"Forgive me, Lea. I could not help and quicking penning his reply, sent it seven feet at its loftiest point. Upon means of knowing, who says the mid not be responsible for tickets sold, And thus it came about that Captain | above, which at one time supported | resemblance to "the last judgment Denham sailed away in the Wanderer. | the American flag. | Below it is an old | their universality and completeness Had the powers of darkness deliber- | house, occupied at various times in | Originally intended as an instrume Chester. Pa., July 26.—J. B. Campbell, truth my sister, and one in my position | ately planned to aid Captain Fox and | the vears gone by, but now deserted of oppression by William the Commercial Captain Fox and later, was killed for your hand, I could not en- | Colonel Graham in their dark schemes, and dilapidated. This island is cov- | queror, whose death followed quick most peculiar accident. He was one

matters could not have worked better ered with considerable shrubbery, upon its completion, Domesday Bottle a party standing on the government ing to her-feet, and clanging with her. Colonel Graham was not a demonstra- grass and vines, butt-is not so fertile became afterward the great authorit are awaiting the Wilmington (Del., white arms to his neck. "Do not leave | tive man; on the contrary/he was cool, | as its smaller neighbor to the north- | tive document in all matters of disputations and the leave | tive man; on the contrary/he was cool, | as its smaller neighbor to the north- | tive document in all matters of disputations and the leave | tive man; on the contrary/he was cool, | as its smaller neighbor to the north- | tive document in all matters of disputations are leave | tive man; on the contrary/he was cool, | as its smaller neighbor to the north- | tive document in all matters of disputations are leave | tive man; on the contrary/he was cool, | as its smaller neighbor to the north- | tive document in all matters of disputations are leave | tive man; on the contrary/he was cool, | as its smaller neighbor to the north- | tive document in all matters of disputations are leave | tive man; on the contrary/he was cool, | as its smaller neighbor to the north- | tive document in all matters of disputations are leave | tive man; on the contrary/he was cool, | as its smaller neighbor to the north- | tive document in all matters of disputations | tive man; on the contrary/he was cool, | as its smaller neighbor to the north- | tive document in all matters of disputations | tive man; on the contrary/he was cool, | as its smaller neighbor to the north- | tive document in all matters of disputations | tive man; on the contrary/he was cool, | as its smaller neighbor to the north- | tive document in all matters of disputations | tive man; on the contrary/he was cool, | as its smaller neighbor to the north- | tive document in all matters of disputations | tive man; on the contrary/he was cool, | as its smaller neighbor to the north- | tive document in all matters of disputations | tive man; on the contrary/he was cool, | as its smaller neighbor to the north- | tive document in all matters of disputations | tive man; on the contrary/he was cool, | as its smaller neighbor to the north- | tive man; or the neighbor to the north- | tive man; ore tive man; on the contrary ne was cool, as its smaller neighbor to the more live document in all and privileg which was lying at the pier with a Yukon river to the mining fields. If agency has been here looking up Ma- about self-possessed, suspicious and cynical, east. In line with the swell from relating to boundaries and privileg was related to a post began to But when Fox read him Ralph Denham's the harbor channel, it is sub-connected with the real property letter accepting the offer, Graham lect to frequent alterations and the British realm, which then embrately be over the top of the post and seemed to surround with an aureole of sprang from his chair, and in his most transformations by the sea. Some- ced all the counties except Northur hirling through the air caught Camp- Sticks and other interior tribes not to former pal. Andy McCabe, who is servgolden light. Ralph Denham became | mentary exultation, seized his com-I panion's hand, and cried with an oath: 1

"Now, we have him, sir! we have l ' prise when the vessel sailed away with-

"I should give my reply if this lady. Hedges, who was called in to attend the case, bled him freely.

It was decidedly dangerous to "fool" with doctors in those days, when bleed-I am sure Uncle Nehemiah. Hedges will I note in the town that did not visit the sick man, but the people all thought the A few days after the Wanderer sailed erally forced her way into Col. Grasaid Valentine, - with much, the subject of the next chapter. was filled with gold the other It seems to me that the out a new field of enterprise for the backs and dragged away to a

said:

I am the bearer of a letter, sir, from Republic as are the islands off the family by the name of Walker, with thants' association who desire to take foreign powers dealing in the Pacific on Sand Island in the latter 80's. The Joint Traffic association, from a treme.

Frenauld remained back, smoking and still remains as a declaration of American title of the group Sept. 10 to 14, inclusive, also good for dates from 1867. In that year Captain 19 days.

two principal islands Upper Brooks Captain Reynolds was in search of anding his name for membership to the self as discoverer. Welles harbor, the Being impressed with the advantage. Members will pay the full rate of fare cated, was also named by him. The Midway group to be unclaimed by an ing the city they will go to the New reef encircling the group is pear power, he added the property to the fork Life building and obtain a cerwest point, however, there are detached perior business advantages. going up the sound and through Hurl and is about five feet high by eight or to the Government of United State ten feet wide. This rock barrier pas- is not considerable, but in event

> At the eastern extremity of Welles | The Domesday Book; often referred Persons living in the territory of the harbor, or stem of the pear, is Green to, and perhaps very little understood sestern Traffic and Bouthwestern Traf. | island (also pear-shaped), nearly one | consists of two volumes, preserved | associations. which are the points by two miles in extent, and of an ele- | the Chapter Honse at Westminster | test of Efficiena and St. Louis, and genvation varying from five to fifteen feet. Loncon. The volumes are writtent ally west It is covered with low shrubbery, vellum, and are of unequal size. The ing vines. The soil is a mixture of written in a small hand in double co. powdered coral and sand, except on lumns. The smaller book is a quart keets on sale at Chicago and St. the south side, where the moulds ex has 450 pages, and is written in the dates named for tends to a depth of two feet. Away harger hand. Why the volumes at maffic territory. remarkably white and is exceedingly Winchester Cathedral called Dom hurtful to the eye. Excellent water is Dei, the House of God, and the Liphia and Baltimore. found at a depth of only five feet. Domesday is a perversion of Domestant The Merchants' association has re-

There are at present two good wells on | Dei. But the Domus Dei, God eted the proposition of the Southeast-Captain Denham sat down to a desk. important in the group. It is fifty- ancient chronicler, who probably h. this eminence is the staff referred to were called Domesday because of the persons not members. times several hundred yards of terra berland, Cumberland, Westmoreland under the chin. The rope encirfirms are-built up on its south end by and Durham. The King, on Christied itself tightly about his neck, liftthe waves, only to be washed away mas, 1085, ordered a general surver the unfortunate man ten feet in the ago it was heautifully enrobed in a could be made in the values, coat of running vines, bright green the royal revenues might and budding shrubbery. On the increased. The returns showed a vessel, which had evidently, ventured the subjects of the crow. too close to the reef and gone aground, thorough and specific was Near the shore. on the same side, was | that no other country to be seen what is perhaps the most |. impressive cemetery in all the world. history as are furnished Each grave is marked by a coral slab by "Domesday Book."

they have a quiet resting place indeed. | Charles Topliffe, a farmer But if the Midway islands are noted N. Y. The bicyclist wants for any one thing, that specialty is damages for injuries t certainly the number and variety of its | his wheel, caused by a co birds, large and small, are always Churchville. Farmer hovering about the group—flying his hired man to bring overhead and running about on the It being dark, the man drove away, Dinah, the old black woman, lit- ground. Their nests are so thick at on the bicycle path. certain seasons that it is almost im- was riding without a light, may be The rather startling disclosures that possible to walk without stepping the cow. The latter was frighten the land the old women made and all the old women made and all the cold women women made and all the cold women wome tross, man-of-war hawk, tern, gannet, ovelist was hurt and his wheel tross, ployer and dicks, the latter of wrecked. McCormack says Toph over and dicks, the latter of wrecked. McCormack says Toph over and dicks, the latter of wrecked. McCormack says Toph over a kinds. The auti-albatross is is responsible for the violation of the latter of the same of t very large, frequently measuring eight law by his bired man feet from tip to tip. For table use it cow on the cycle path ited one egg weighing about a pound. List tark of seeking solnee in So thick are the eggs over the ground for his injuries.

Hawk.

With the official manner which sailors

Midway group of islands belong and ties have frequently found refuse with this city on equal terms hoped for.

Midway group of islands belong and ties have frequently found refuse with this city on equal terms hoped for. which in due season would take him away from his companions and permit im to be near his idol at all times.

Which in due season would take him the trees.

She did not hesitate to tell him then to be near his idol at all times.

With this city on equal terms hoped to the sale of the will promptly answer, "The Unibate they were usually picked to the sale of the will promptly answer, "The Unibate they were usually picked to the sale of the will promptly answer, "The Unibate they were usually picked to the sale of the s

William Reynolds, cruising in the Only members of the Merchants' as-

Port Townsend, Wash., July 26.—From Killed by a Peculiar Accident a miner who came down from Alaska on the Portland it is learned that 200

ove, and the hawser, becoming taut, over the divide has long been monopoof the land to be made for the purposite and then dropped him to the pier.

Man and Wife Killed by a Train. years, a clerk, and his wife, aged were instantly killed by a train on the West Shore railroad. They were seen a man about 25 years of age loange the death of his wife and himse one of the pockets was discovered a 1'all let addressed to Frederick G. Da-'e hir sa had been turnedout of his house two barns, worth $6,000, on the Colgate right in the old world, but in this land the old woman made, and the remarks. into them. The principal species of and tried to jump a fence, the ditch, the ditch, the ditch, the was writing in the dark, where burned and Saturday night into the dark, where burned and Saturday night into the dark, where two other barns in the suburbs of the latter was writing in the dark, where were burned and Saturday night into the dark, where two other barns in the suburbs of the latter was writing in the dark, where were burned and Saturday night into the dark, where two other barns in the suburbs of the latter was writing in the dark, where were burned and Saturday night into the dark was writing in the dark, where were burned and Saturday night into the dark was writing in the dark, where were burned and Saturday night into the dark was writing in the dark, where were burned and Saturday night.

> Beat the Record. assistant clerk in the recent pluned the work with seemingly sit, rine life of the island of Bermuda.

Danger of Indian War In Alaska.

dians of the Stick tribe were contemdon of the Madison Square Garden Springs Destroyed.

Escapes of the People.

son in the building, so far as known | means to bring success to the coal | ness, and the preliminary work of pr

Bryant, George W. Blake, New York: I rying West Virginia coal. There is for most of the property.

the outside without incident. But few will leave Richfield on acwill replace the burned structure brick buildings. The loss is estimate at $200,000; insurance $73,000. _____ After a Murder Suspect. lice who are working on the Nichols | tory." murder case at Bridgeport, attach great importance to the belief of the Dutchewser attached to a post began to the intention is carried out, Alaska will son's record. He procured a photograph strike in all the important mines. I come to the coast to engage in any in- I ing 10 years there. The police here have dustries. The work of packing freight been asked by New York headquarters,

> Fired Into a Crowd of Boys. Chicago. July 26.—James O'Donnell. ball near his home. Thomas Good, agec 'ably die. 'As soon as the shooting b came known an angry mob of neighbors | is to be smuggled into strike territory.

scriptions of Mason.

The Consular Fee System. the changes made in the consular regulations, so far as they affect the Washington, July 34. The compense tion of the inspector of hulls of steam vessels at Oswego, N. Y., has been inressed from $1,500 to $1,800 per annum. of hulls and bollers at Norfolk has been to Arrive at Wheeling

Conductors to Refuse to Haul West Virginia Coal-Engineers Will Not Join the Mevement.

midnight. An hour later the cry of fire on reception appointed by the Ohio Val- | Charles Hilbert and William Purcell was heard. The flames progressed slow- | ley Trades and Labor assembly. Ad- | the latter an expert in such work. out, except the employees, who oc- lof the national labor organizations will and it is thought it would not pay cupied quarters in the vicinity of the | come to Wheeling for tomorrow's con- | to attempt to escape.

Three Meetings at Fairmout.

Fairmont, W. Va., July 26.—Debs held three good meetings at the various ie men will be gotten out, although I stamps came in $10,000 lots, and in som will not be made at all. It is bard to Weakington Affec has the stamps. ceeded in keeping many of them from ormation, measuring 9 feet 8 inches in ton his wooden leg and clothing and went cupying neutral ground and are not in- tridges. ircumference and weighing from 800 down the elevator. Ex-Consul General terfering. When they mine coal to be M. Victor Capoul sailed from Paris to light his pipe, and it is believ to 1,000 pounds. This stone was taken | Collins saved nearly all his effects. Dr. | used in territory usually supplied by | for New York to resume the director- | the lighted match in the closed i from the waters of Castle harbor, the Bryant disclaims anything like a thrill- miners who are striking they become in ship of the Conservatory of Music most interesting and prolific portion of | ing experience. He dressed and gained | the eyes of organized labor what we call | that city.

Views of a Londing Labor Man. Pittsburg, Kan., July 26.—A leading dent of one of the greatest labor organi

"It makes no difference if the Burling- a boat containing 45 employees ton coal which was transferred in Kan- | Hamburg Engine works capsized in the sas City a few days ago was for the use river Elbe. Six persons were drowned of the Burlington or to be furnished to ther railroads. If it is used by the F Crocker of San Francisco all of the Burlington in territory that has been estate, valued at from $7,000,000 to

The report of the capture of a carn pigeon in the vicinity of Tromso islan I near the northern point of Norwal Delegates Sent to Pittsburg. bearing the words and figures "North e passed 15th." is not true M. Theebaut, French tonsul at Ch. French Benevolent society of Francisco, have been made chevaliers of the French Legion of Honor. boxes have been discovered in the tower of St. Peter's church at Seville. Spain.

Bridgeport and other places for full de- | the key to the situation westward; that warden. Orellana, and his wife, an if Kansas went out the railroads would they have been arrested. difference whether Kansas, with only

> The timely arrival of & Purchase of a Smelting Company's Plant. Omaha, July 26.—The Omaha Grant · I Pilot Roy Smelling company's plant a > > Fire Alarm Bill Vetoed. Harrisburg, July 24.—The Kunkel fire alarm bill. which required schoolhouses, mercantile establishment municipal system has been vetoed i Albany Man's Sudden Donth

Office Cleaned Out

The rest went to Paterson. Collecto

'Magowan's Stock Sold

.. Magowan's stock of wine

Trenton, July 24.—Ex-Mayor Fran

A dispatch from Hamburg says-that

New York Markets.

BUTTER-Dull; state dairy, 10@14c.;

EGGS-Dull: state and Pennsylv.

51%c.;

state creamery, 11@15c.

crushed,

wife will recover.

the convicts will work in chain gangs. Others Wash > shattered, killed instantive while being taken to home O'Connell, both legs shattened injuries, died at hospital; unkno Tound dead in hold. The injured: Michael Reard , burned about face and neck injuries, not expected to live: Glennan, 33, deckhand, though fatally burned: Michael Mag probably fatally burned about f chest: Edward Lynch, burned alarm of fire was sounded, bu beds and mattresses with naphi

The deck under the supper tak blown open at least 10 feet wide both sides of the boat forward fragments was scattered

The interior of the distant An examination showed the R miniured, however. cause of the explosion

The officials are retired as M iniured were all taken to the Hudson, N. Y., July 24.-A tempt to escape from the Co ounty jail has been made here l ners who, with the aid of tools utër wall nearly 2 feet square guns when the hole was discover afterward placed in steel cages. Acker, indicted for murdering a tress, and a Troy thief named were the ringleaders. Accident to Excursion Steam New York, July 24.—The ex steamer Sam Sloan of the Star which makes trips from this city Island in the sound, while on Portuguese Sallors Massadre Lisbon, July 24.-- A letter ment made in the chambers that the crew of ed all of the crew and selective native soldiers who were on box captured two canal n the Deswit Land Western retirona ran a const powdered, ~TURPENTINE ~Firmer at 2516@$fc...