

WELLSVILLE.
The Wellsville Fair is worth
the trip to Presque Isle or a Bin
full of Grain.

In Cattaraugus County, a few miles from Salamanca, N.Y., there lives a good, honest, hard-working farmer named Mr. Spore. Like every sensible farmer, Mr. Spore subscribed for papers, and one evening he was looking over his Salamanca weekly, when his eye chanced to catch a reading notice which proved a bonanza for him and brightened up his flagging spirits over the low price of grain and farm produce, and the high price of commodities which are necessary for a farmer's existence. A farmer reasons in his own peculiar way and he calls a spade a spade, so Mr. Spore says quietly to himself: "I want just such a remedy as Doan's Kidney Pills; if it carries out faithfully half what it claims, it will cure my lame back." However much good may result from one box, little or no harm can ensue." The next time Mr. Spore visited Salamanca, he made some inquiries at a drug store about the preparation, and he was informed that scores of people in Salamanca and the surrounding country had thoroughly tested Doan's Kidney Pills and published their experience in Salamanca papers. This was enough for Mr. Spore. He purchased a supply at a drug store and what follows is his experience:

"For the last two years I suffered almost constantly with a weakness and aching across my loins and a numbness and stiffness in my joints; a distressing and annoying weakness of the action of the kidney secretions; restlessness at night and stiffness and soreness in the morning arising from loss of sleep and often a severe headache which would wear off towards night. I read some newspaper statements about Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at a drug store and took them. For a man of 66 I have felt well ever since. I can heartily endorse Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers, price 50 cents per box. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Company, Buffalo, N.Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name Doan's and take no other.
