On THE WINE, Bullalo, M. Y., } Tuesday morning, Aug. 24, 1897. ]

This week is being held at Buffalo the Thirty first National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. Buffalo is one of the best convention cities in the United States, owing to hotel and boarding house accommodations. It is the best paved city in the world, having miles more asphalt pavement than any city in the United | States, and more than the combined Edmunds, of Bradford, Pa; S. E. capitals of Europe. All this, combined with beautiful weather, will make the assembling of a crowd of companied their husbands: Mesdames & Snyder & Mason. the size that is in attendance more of I. C. Greene, J. M. Mosher, W. B. 1 a pleasure than would be experienced Wagoner, H. Mourhess, C. F. Davis ATTATATA in many other places. Everything possible for comfort of guests has beendone. There are rooms for all, and erans here from Andover and near by towns are confident of an enjoyable time.

One of the notable features is Camp Jewett. It is pitched on the lake and left Sunday evening. consists of tents 'that will accommodate at least 10,000 men. The camp is a splendid sight. Laid out in regular order, each street named and bear ing all the resemblance of a regular army encampment. School buildings have also been pressed into service for sleeping purposes, and admirably angwer the purpose. Accommodations the excursion were sold today. at Camp Jewett and the school buildings are free.

There is no question but that Buffalo royally maintains its name of Electric City. There are three electric arches at the Camp and on Main Derby, Conn., where he enters the street, one situated facing Niagara dry goods establishment of J. H. etter A and on the sides appear a G and R. This is covered with colored in red, white and blue.
