tual purpose, the capture of the Seal taking the next great step in socialism, that of the purchase of its railto one the Swiss national council voted to purchase the principal railroads of Switzerland at a cost of about | cover him in the disguise. lags behind the civilized nations of derer; but the world might not be sc the earth in the national or municipal control of monopolies, for the govern- is done. ment does not even have postal sav- | Promptly at two o'clock the young back to-night." ings banks or run the telegraphs; and the reason given for our backward- promising to obey is, that in this country the corruption of the public service makes it the visitors on board. upon the morality of the people.

the details public.

dently determined that the Yukon gold fields shall yield up to it all the been working with all their might begathered from them, and is now lay- bunting. ing a royalty of twenty-five cents a and the Wanderer's musicians played a ford on the cordwood with which the | welcome as the coat came alongside. miners thaw out the gold from its icy | Captain Fox and Frenauld were there In all the glory of their gorgeous pork and coffee. The logs for their | their delight as they helped Lea and cabins are similarly taxed, and a sub- Ellen on board. stantial fraction of the gold they dig | tention by their wandering glances, not | is also levied upon by minions of her to seem indifferent to the courtesies - amidships, and many a glance they cast are not complaining of them, and are sort in reprisal when the gold digging comes around within our own lines.

there would be no dancing—there was is a plentiful supply of beets for the | laughter that occasionally accom It, much delightful conversation. first factory in Rome, forty-seven carloads and several boatloads being at would leave his guests, and go forward beets show a profitable percentage of the same way to the sailors. sugar, some of the red ones running |. The crew no longer stood in listless as high as 15.4 and the white ones groups, but hurrled back and forth, 16.6 per cent. This season's supply moving the bunting that was in their comes from about 1000 acres, and contracts are being made for three times | most fortunate one for Captain Fox's that area next year. Spurred by the plans, came on, and he invited all into success of the factory in Rome, capiquarter-deck, she laid her hand on a a view of erecting a half-million dollar plant there, if five-year contracts intilling whisper: for 3000 acres of beets can be made with the farmers in the ficinity. The is she had sipped; as it was she stagdesire to make the best of a bad baryou have proved yourself our friend.

you have proved yourself our friend.

you have proved yourself our friend.

ing, and for eighty feet above it, it is cost of same in the U. S. and foreign on the Stey the Stey Rome, is well adapted to beet culture.

message to Hedges, tell him I have me to Montauk in the morning. ence of Mrs. Pardon Hezeltine of Mt. Has she gray hairs, as I have? What parlor. "Have you a mother?" was thing of their friends, the stately ship, was the burglar's reply, with a sob, which showed the appeal had congeply. "Your gray hairs have saved was the burglar's response, as For knew it, so he shouted out: made his exit through the window. Undoubtedly this appeal to his better wirgler's reformation than a leng term

They knew that the entertainment liar to the sex—to see Ralph Denhaul

In his disguise, or rather to try and dis-

Certainly the latter was not a good ladi. s. after hearing many sage injun :- tions from their mothers, and dutifully l down to the beah, where a long boat!

from the Wanderer was waiting to take

Although every man on the ship had . Awnings covered the quarter-deck.

l forms, and they made no effort to hide

But while careful not to attract at their entertainers, their hearts were with the blue jackets forward and n the hope of being able to distinguish the deck: and there were savors in the shape of gems and flowers for all the

Every now and then Fox or Frenaule to issue a whispered order to a man is busying themselves with ropes and "My God! Why are you here?"

under way. This is our chance."

"Aye, aye, sir." replied Frenauld.

the plunder of a score of gallant ships monda till they forgot where they were

Meanwhile the anchors were beli e dazzled them with strings of pearl flashed on them emeralds and dis

CHAPTER XXVI.

by giving you a little surprise.

i his luxurious cabin.

rushed anxiously on deck, and the forand formerly professor of chemistry Ralph Denham, and if she was the only mer, with every sign of great nervous-Fox would aim to render them powerness, addressed Fox: "I and my friends, It may surprise the reader to know it is all the same to you, we'd rather action, which it was at this time necesthat, in view of the incontrovertible go back. It is near dark, the tide is sary to know. into sugar. He has lodged his de- knowledge these young ladles had of setting out, and the wind is from the "Confound it! I never thought of showing that it had been designed or of sciences, so as to . But they had a double object; at least that. How foolish of Frenauld to get used by sailors as a sleeping place.

secure priority for his invention, al- they reasoned themselves into the belief under way without letting me know. The place was limited, very close, and filled with that odor of bilge water that they had; and then they could not this " Fox said this aloud, so that sil could | which is intolerable to anyone but a hear, and as he hurried forward to sailor. countermand the order to go back, as I front partition separating it from the was a part of Fox's scheme to keep the they thought, not one of them, not even people of Sag Harbor blind to the ac. Lea, but believed it was as he said. Capt. Fox did not come back for ordinate officers. time, the sun had kone down blazing Again, Lea Hedges and Ellen Condit were devoured by an intense curiosity red. promising a fine day for the mortill nine o'clock. -a curiosity which is said to be peouor four parties, arranged by Captain brought about, but the wind and tide | Denham, sat down to play where they the attempt to get back into the harbor | denly in. motive for going on board the Wan-| sion of perfect contentment with their "I fear," said Capt. Fox, coming back | surroundings, as well as to obstruct the pleasant a place to live in if sound reasons could be given for everything that) his | view, all the hammocks were strung. with an expression of sorrow on face, "we are in for it; we can't get "But what are we to do?" asked Dr. Hedges, now thoroughly alarmed. "I shall anchor under the toe of Gard- | familiar with her construction, exceptner's Island, and bright and early to- | ing. that the cabin had been very much morrow morning I shall see that you all contarged. deplore this very much, very much, in- and sitting in the middle of the oor, to whom an invitation deed. But there is an alundance of where no eavesdropper, if there were was extended, and not a few of the oldcabin room for all; and we shall have any, could overhear them, he said, in a er men, among them Doctor Hedges support, and then sleep till daylight. Whisper: who had been dazzled by Fox's mag. Now, go to the cabin, or, if you would prefer remain here till we come to The people one and all preferred to ously to indicate that they understood lore 2 o'clock, hey now appeared in holistay on deck. There was not the shadow | this very well, as well as Captain Aidd, lay attire, and the vessel was gay with suspicion against their gallant host: gratification in seeing with one's own | Two strong men can prevent our leaveyes that a desired thing is properly | ing here by the way we came." Sail was shortened at once: this was a cheerful sign, and a man amidships | that will lead to the deck, when by | shouted the soundings as he heaved the It was not yet quite dark when the | the Sea Hawk.'

Wanderer brought up under the southeastern point of Gardner's Teland. She men. "that we can cut through the bulkcame around with her head to the wind cheese, and I made a hole and saw some t were let go and the sailors clambered. All this was very satisfactory, under very unsatisfactory circumstances, to Dr. Hedges. He was something of philosopher, and he wished to be head drew out a wooden plug he had fitted to a hore, and told him to look in. thought a decided one; to assuming a the young ladies how they would feel if | hole of a room, with & candle burning. Captain nidd was to come along in the | and a boy, whom he recognized as Don. -- the cabin boy, on his knees beside a night and capture them all. Captain Fox, who overhead this re-"If Kidd succeeded, he would find a put his mouth to the aperture and whismore prèc ous cargo than ever fell to the lot of a pirate before. But if Miss and the whole crew of the Wanderer board fifty gallant men from liamh but first he secured his own door, to Denham's ship, the Sea Haw .. Surely prevent ony one's coming in on him they will trust to them if it comes to a unexpectedly. "We are not at all afraid. Captain." | lect. drew his dirk, and pushed it into As Lea was passing down from the said Doctor Hedges, who noticed the the hole and the light meaning glances which his daughter | blade. Don approached the place, and | sailor's shoulder, who was there for the | purpose, and she heard Ralph Denham's Excepting Lea and El on, who alone | pered: hence the great danger that menaced To those coming behind it looked as would hurry on deck to consult with 'Not the slightest trouble, Captain." Where are they?

duty would be required of them

'I know it," said the Captain, with an candidate for the United States Senate.

until you have tried

Ten Tabules for Five Cents. If you don't find this sort of

Ripans Tabules

The men from the Bea Hawk were in-

When ordered to go to the lower deck, less so soon, and then the position prevented any observation of the pirate's

The lower deck on which they found themselves had hooks for hammocks,

It was Captain Denham who asked for

The request was granted, and three

The better to carry out the impres-Captain Denham had been aboard the few years before, and hence he was Calling a few of the men about him.

"So we must make a way for ourselves

"I think, Captain," said one of the

"I've just been praying for you and ' "I can and will help you. Go back grain; sound, like that made by the

This was going on when a burly sailor, as wa raut officer, to give the and wait." re-lied Don.

gnawing of a rat.

Adventure Galley after Colonel Liv-ingston fitted her out in New York a

No. 7 Coughs & Colds. "My lads, it is Kidd's intention to keep Tue salors nodded their heads vigor. No. 10 Dyspepsia, Indigestion.

"It won't do to be caught napping. The sailors nodded with equal vigor .

morning we hear the signal gun from No. 34 Sore Throat.

"Where," asked Captain Denham, ris-Tetter, Salt-Rheum and Eczema. The intense itching and smarting, inci The sailor led him over to the bulk-Skin Ointment. Many very bad cases is equally efficient for itching piles and

r. Cady's Condition Powders, are just what a horse needs when in bac Waiting till the boy rose, the Captain "Don, don't be frightened; we are the | medicine and the best in use to put

Fire in an Aspen Mine. Aspen, Col., Nov. 15.—A fire that Capt. Denham, seeing the boy's ob- gives promise to close down every big putting his lips to the opening he whis- | the excavation of ore a large crib lives were despaired of.

World's Columbian HAS BEEN AWARDED TO THE For His High Grade Family Sewing Machine ADDRESS: DAVIS BEWING MACHIN

Indiana, and Fred Williams. Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained and TOUR OFFICE IS OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT.

COMPANY, THE PART BRASS COMPANY,

Me called at the office of the "Allegheny test was that neither side scored. Meantime the proprietor of a depart ome Eagerly Watched For.

eed for the animals.

lare now running a race to sup-near Sheep Camp have been $9,000 IN THREE WEEKS.

Stewart River Contirmed.

know of its existence, and that the lan easy victory. State Deputy Bank Examiners said i: was not chartered. Other certificates day the holders of three of them enpayment of bills he had contracted "bank's" stub book. They are all made coached by veterans, they had sv McTighe believes that they will soon try banks, where they were depos cases only $18 a thousand feet for lum ber that was worth $28. Boyd's brother in-law, a man named Turney, has also disappeared. He was introduced young Johnston by Boyd as one of the partners in the bank. So far as young Johnston knows th seem to worry about the absence ousiness. The bank was apparer only a department of the Pennsylvan

THE SMUGGLING OF CHINAMEN. The Government to Sue Canadian i snort.

Troy. Nov. 15.—The arrest of John McKerness. alleged to be an agent there to-morrow. brought before United States Commissioners and the costs of deportation.

fended Their Genls-38.000 There the covered goal line. It was a cured, and made their way to the jail. e left Inspector multiple of the Indians they man from Lancaster County, James W. case of two teams, each with a strong After the hanging of the Indians they The contracts were eventually signed leveral days bonned and rest Johnston, came to town. Reading an defense and weak ground-gaining pow- rode as hastily and quietly as they had and the keels of the new battle ships on with ne gets into a tight place selvertisement for a bookkeeper, he ers, and the logical outcome of the con- come. cashier. There was no cash to handle, conflict was dubiously received by the the earnest intent of the lynchers. The comparatively but occasionally Boyd save him it supporters of the Crimson. The fact Indians were all residents of the Stand. which are intended to replace the prolast Tuesday and went to the bank to son representatives to play desperate closed alk day on Monday. He game and played with superb judgment was expected all along. Harvard's failure to score was the subject a nothing-to-nothing score.

The game was played without delay so much so that inside of two hours the playing time had been consum and the crowd went on its way homeward. There was absolutely no bru no slugging, no roughing, and no injuries to amount to anything. The the regulars was rather rudely handled school purposes was all on deposit in tration, and if this policy is abandone he was taken out. cripples to speak of, and the best fact that no definite result had been in

Pacific and Other Railroads. Yale-Princeton Game. New Haven, Nov. 15.—Yale hears the The President Preparing Recomball players from Old Nassau are due here on next Saturday to close the sea- | Kinley has at last begun the prepararable ever played here. It is the first; the material together, but now he is won out for Princeton by his run, the dent Cleveland, in preparing his mes. Hicks. of New York City, to succeed anxious to wipe out the sting of last and struggled through it with pen and Mr. Sovereign declined re-election be- der could have been committeed on vear's defeat, but her team is made up ink, but McKinley has become so ac cause his time is taken up in political frequented thoroughtare like Fulton of new and untrained material, and the customed to using a rapid stenog work. He also means to do a great street, at a spot less than half a block chances are that the championship will rapher that he will make light work of deal of editorial work, and will work from a station of the Kings County ors. McKurness and Lum Hu were ar- again go back to Princeton. All the this task. raigned before United States Commis. hotels here are planning for the largest He will leave the questions of foreign His successor has been engaged in the alarm. There can be no doubt that sioner Landon, and McKerness was crowds they have handled in years. The affairs to the very last, that he may work of the order for twenty-five years there was a struggle. The ground Saturday taken to Auburn on a com- new grandstands are now ready for oc. incorporate the latest developments ir and is a practical builder. Mr. Hicks showed that beyond question. It was mitment to await the action of the cupancy. They seat 15,000 persons and the document. He is now dealing with was elected unanimously. Grand Jury, which sits at the session | there will not be nearly enough tickets | department matters, and is gleaning | Mr. Sovereign read his annual ad- around the spot where it is evident the of the United States Court to convene to satisfy the demand for seats. What his knowledge from the reports that are dress, which touched upon the labor changes the coachers will see fit to being submitted to him by the Cabinet troubles of the year and denounced the Commissioner Landon says this is make as a result of the Harvard game officers. While this is a little early for holders of idle capital, the gold stand-he first case of the kind to come with. It is impossible to predict. Of course a President to begin to write his mes. and corporations. It contained no o'clock yesterday morning until long in his jurisdiction, but violations of the Dudley will be back from Washingtor sage, McKinley recognizes that if he exclusion act have become so frequent by that time, and is likely to take his delays a week or two longer members laboring men to go into politics.

elsewhere that the Government is former position of halfback. Cutten is of Congress will be coming in and deabout to begin proceedings against recovering from his wrenched knee and the Canadian Pacific Railway Com- may make another try for centre. It

IN AN ANACONDA'S COIL.

"Kills a Man.

FOUR BANKS GO UNDER.

Indiana Institutions Owned Weathers and Willett Close. Indianapolis, Nov. 15.—There is l which will affect nearly every man township trustees, all of whom deposon a safe financial footing. As late as Friday afternoon each of the banks re

The Yale men played through the all of the public schools in the two this country. Treasurer Brown, of Crawford Coun- of some Cuban resolution. I have no letely prostrated by the failure. The people are in sympathy with the insurreached, prevailed everywhere. It was trustees deposits ranged from $1,600 to believe in college football as a manly | not been at the office for several days

WORKING ON HIS MESSAGE.

mendations to Submit to Congress. Washington, Nov. 15.-President Mc-EXPLOSION OF THE MAASDAM. Her Forward Engine Wrecken Mid-Ocean.-Returns to Plymout. (Cable Dispatch to The New York >

steamer Maasdam, Capt. Potjer, from reported returning with her ma-

Train Dynamited in Cubs.

Intion Paverable to Cuba.

were laid, but the Armstrongs refused even be able to pay for the small and all, could be saved and wisely invested,

American diplomats have learned of postal savings depositories would plies which Spain has hitherto suc- a personal interest in the affairs of the the banks, and it is now believed that | entirely it will mollify the feeling in New York Printer's Head Smashed. strong sentiment in Congress in favor New York. Nov. 15.-Thomas to with pride by those who engaged in caught in the four banks. President cause of liberty on that island. Talk- on Fulton street, near Saratogs aveit, those who saw it, and those who willett of the Leavenworth Bank, has ing to the neonle and mineling among at the Head of the K. of L.

It Was Extinguished

Wadsworth House is the most toric house in Harvard square, and 775 Washington made it his hear

Harvard University. It was b of the most celebrated buildings with a knowledge of this almost blood were found about forty feet from twas smashed in, and the bones of the I jaw and cheek on the other side were fractured in a half a dozen places. GENERAL MASTER WORKMAN. The condition of the ground showed New York Man Succeeds Sovereign that the murderer had dragged the body away from the spot where the stones were found. Across the breast essly. If but a small percentage of V money a young person expends paner-

"In my judgment, the establishment likely be contented and happy, and it ism. The citizen who feels that he has 'Government, beyond the payment.

his share of taxes and the discharge those other duties common to all. is a citizenship means merely the perform adoption of a system so promising ship to provide by law for the application and the spread of its beneficent of depositors would come the elevation.

of the standard of citizenship. the ce-menting of the ties that bind the peqple to the Government, the strengthening of the public credit, and the ulti-

BRUTAL MURDER.

in with Stones.

mate betterment of all concerned.

onsequences. With the multiplication

"The advantages to result from th ance of those duties.

essarily, in the many ways known for the Knights of Labor on a salary. Elevated Railroad, without causing an noteworthy recommendation, but urged after midnight this morning without whom he had met, but with whom he had no previous acquaintance. It is > ' stranger and that they went h he had money. The police farms theory of a drunken brawl because A

> > To Suspend the Dutles. Washington, Nov. 13#-The PM tory proof that no discrimina racticed against American ship known that Lyons was drunk during Reception to Sir Wilfred La ters during his stay in Cambridge. The Washington, Nov. 12.—A form seption, largely attended, was gr use of the visiting preachers to Har-

Sherman in honor of Sir William vard University, and another room is tier, the Prime Minister of Camera holsted and the sails let down. Half-past five came, the turn of lads, it is 9 o'clock; out lights, and The wind was in the west, and the A cheery "Aye, sye" from the Sea! Hawk men told that they had heard the horror of the crowd on shore, watch order, and the alacrity with which they swungunto their I aminocks, after putwill be shipped. West for deportation to 2.700 tons. They will be equipped him. Mr. Reber announces that he will Maasdam then returned to this port. "Yes; they wanted to play cards, and " ingly they obeyed it. with electric lights, side ports and other Batisfied with this, the man, who car-L could see no objection modern appliances. They are to be fif Steel Trade Condition in Harrisburg. his heavy loss. ried a lant rn. gave it a final flash over en-knot vessels, and will have accor-Harrisburg. Nov. 15.—The orders The efficiency and life of nodamons for 100 passengers TERY UNPLEASANT WAY. tion let them do so. By the way, with a heavy step. TO BE CONTINUED. vania Steel Works are very encourage the party to discover the ship was). ing for this time of year. The product I the past week was an average one, William Neilson McVickar, rector of Neuvitas and Puerto Principe. States Minister to Hayti reports from Church, Holy Trinity, The engieer, fireman and ten oth Gov. Atkinson's Ambition. early; and, let me see I will have use