WE SELL CHEAPER THAN ANY OTHER HOUSE. WE INVITE INSPEC -TION; WE URGE COMPARISON.-

LWAYS wear it in your mind that our prices are the lowest in the city. Since the Big Sale began new goods have been rolling in at a rapid rate. Agents from several houses have been sent here bearing instructions to give us the most liberal quantity prices, so that today we are buy ing goods as low as the leading retailers in the large cities. There are bargains here that were not here last week, and many will not last this

To the prices of last-week, which will continue a few days longer, we add a few quotations:

Lonsdale bleached muslin, Fruit of the Loom, bleachea, Calico house dresses, that were $1.00, today, Heavy woolen shawls, Apron ginghams, Hamilton cashmeres,

A big lot of underwear bought at about 50c on the dollar, comes to day, and will go at prices accordingly.

The flour deal we've been advertising of late will have to be withdrawn shortly, as wheat is higher; therefore we advise customers to buy liberally at these prices: Our "Leader," all winter wheat, warranted, $1.19 per sack; "Cannon Ball," Blended Patent, warranted, $1.29 per sack. All kinds of checks cashed cheerfully.

P. CANNON & SON. THE PRICE CUTTERS.

THE QUESTION is asked every day, "How long can the people obtain 32. goods at the prices quoted on your price list issued Nov. 16th?" We did not put any time limit on that astonishing low price list, and shall not during this week at least; how much longer we do not say. Having asked the readers of the NEWS to keep a lookout for this corner for the next issue of the paper, we now call your attention to the following low prices on goods not mentioned in our "Still Later" price list of Nov. 16th:

6c. worth Fruit of the Loom, bleach, yard wide, 53/4c worth 73/4c 51/4c worth 71/2 Atlantic A brown sheeting, 43/4c worth 51/2~ Black Rock " Ask to see our worth $2.00 One dollar silk umbrella, -$3.60 worth 5.50 New flat top trunks, at Hemp carpeting, at 45c worth All-wool Ingrain carpeting, at $5.00 worth $8.00 Ladies' Coats, at 8.00 worth 11.00 3.50 worth 5.50 6.50 worth 9.50 48c worth • 1.00 Bed blankets, at 75c worth 1.25 35.00 worth 8.00 _Men's heavy ulsters, ~ 8.00 worth 12.00

Many other equally good bargains await you.

When you see these prices in print, and know you can have the goods as advertised, is it any wonder that merchants in other towns say they are "giving away goods at Andover?" Well, no matter, the goods are paid for on the spot when bought by our house, and the people get them just as advertised, and we call the hundreds of customers who have bought these goods to testify as to the truth of this statement. Cut out this price list, mail it to your friends out of town and they will thank you for the same. Soliciting your further patronage, and extending a cordial invitation to call again and Yours for business,

T. M. BURROWS.
