Lithat's the case, it clearly is a mistake to wage war on th te fellows; better treat them well basiness in collecting bad debts by she replied. stopping at the debtor's with a wagon, and cannot sleep. No: I shall-stand around the top of which are these and drink in your daring with my eyes If I cannot help with my hands. D. words: "This buggy only stops in front of the houses of people who will must find me ready." not pay their debts." Everybody, and this man's buggy so much that they life is précious—very precious to mepay promptly. the plumes and carry the spear of (Tenn.) News thus accounts for hard | seen the Montauks will follow; weeds and buy vegetables; we catch the suns of my life. | Mr. Hedges turned and left. we send our boys out with a forty- | sailing of the ship at once made prepar. | Captain Fox saw his opportunity. dollar gun and a ten-dollar dog to hunt | attons for the morrow's battle. All laid ten-cent birds."

ed, and the broadside guns were doubly of the pirate chief; his men heard his way in operation in the world, and, according to Robert P. Porter, the cen- shotted. tury will close with over 500,000. Of | half are in this country. The cost of Mr. Dayton. has been $36,685,000,000, and it is esti- | ship's surgeon and his assistants made | to the other. figures, but the railroads represent a vast interest in the world's wealth. Ordinarily people in Canada do not | ner's Island.

ties or politicians to want to kill any said Untilla.

"I see her; but we shall keep on till blade above her head. McGee was assassinated, about thirty | ship and come back; by that time it will | shouted the Montauks. cared enough about any Canadian waves hissing from her prow like the again it was redder than the waves, his blazing eyes, but still he could not statesman to expend any powder on straining like the muscles of a creature In the meantime Frenauld's men Ghost or man, he would try him. therefore, who has just been fired at, lore her. man," exclaimed old Dr. Arbuthnot to a patient dying with a pecular malady, you have revived a disease which has been dead six centuries."

clear from the headland; and as In the opinion of the Philadelphia eagle in wild speed stops and wheels Press expert testimony of all sorts back on the course he has come, so ful. - The law in many States has but the Sea Hawk faced the darkness | to the west. Gardner's Island was now now recognized the necessity of pay- dead ahead. ness fees to experts, so that there is a pecuniary recognition of its value. Ince. The three experts in the Barbieri trial in New York received from the county 37250. The fees given experts yearly in any one of our large cities would, probably pay twice over the annual. salary of permanent experts, but at present there is nothing permanent yards apart. about an expert but his fee.

workingman himself. He had been left fatherless, he said, at the age of hirteen, and had been obliged to earn out afford prised now. that came from the signal gun crashing

In 1900. He-Will you fly with me? pround at 8 o'clock and I'll be ready but to quarters. putting on my hat. Then we can start , Ma L. Beenerville Journal.

which was inevitable.

"But surely, Untilla, you will not ex-mighty Wyandauch. Where they are keeping. To-morrow's sun will see me waist and tightened their belts.

' placed at the wheel.

A gray streak of dawn in the east,

to her peak ran the ensign of the prov-

There at anchor, not a mile away lay

In alarm Captain Fox ran forward

startled crew of the Wanderer to arms.

THE END OF THE CONTEST.

through the hull of his own ship.

schemes be detected.

side in a death grip

men he had sent on board the Sea Hawk

t was Captain Fox's boast that

The Sea Hawk folded her wings.

. Fox saw his danger and the Wanderer, her boats alongside after Untilla to go below and occupy Captain strike a blow; but now, as he saw the Denham's cabin, but to his solicitations strike a blow; but now, as he saw the wonderful afacrity with which the pi-"Why lie down when I am not weary I of sight till his men had gained the no mistaking him tauks were to swarm on board shouting saw and recognized him before the Wanderer, Mr. Dayton remaining back · With the quick bound of tigers two raise dogs and buy hogs; we raise late to stand by your side through all back or killed the men who were fight-Alarmed at his own boldness, and Leave the deck to me. Frenauld! away their caps and bound kerchiefe High over the clash of swords, the old friend, but Lieutenant Hedges No. 1 Fever, Congestion.

The boarding pikes in the racks about flends. Frenauld ran to part the ships; an Telling one of the sailors to call Mr. No. 7 Coughs & Colds. the masts and the cutlasses which the the present number, just about one- | men girded on were all examined by other instant and the tide and wind Dayton to send the surgeon on board No. 9 Headache. would have separated them, so far that, the Wanderer at once, Captain Denham! No. 10 Dyspepsia, Indigestion The fire buckets were filled and placed | though they were anchored nearly head | enjoined his men to follow again, for it | railroads all over the world, thus far, within reach, and in the cockpit the to head, boarders could not go from one was all important that the pirates No. 11 Delayed Periods. mated that the street railways cost svery preparation for the reception and But before the axes could sever the demoralization which his coming had No. 13 Croup. last ropes a high, shrill cheer rose up almost 5,000,000 people. These are big be used on the morrow, and then the like the united cries of a hundred cried Denham, when he saw his men No. 13 Rheumatism. While these preparations were going | they see far beneath them the robbers | on their persons. "Give them the cold No. 19 Catarrh. on. Lieutenant Hedges, who with Un- | despotting their nests, and they sweep | steel, and drive them into the sea," tilla stood near the helm, saw the down to defend and destroy. lights on board the Wanderer off Gard. "I wear the plumes of Wyandauch! Men of Montauk. follow your queen!" "There is the ship we are looking tor," Untilla stood on the bulwark of the shouted, as, with Untilla by his side, Wanderer and waved the glittering and the sailors and warriors pressing

Premier Sir Wilfrid Laurier, hungering for the contest that lay be swung their axes with all their might: and when about one-half the Montauks "Montauk light on the starboard bow," reached the Wanderer's deck the gap that the others were forced to remain Baid Lieutenant Hedges to the two men

> Wondering why Captain Denham, who On sped the Sea Hawk with the eager must have heard the signal given. flight of the bird after whom she was a view to cheering his own men as well as to attract the attention of his com-"Ralph Denham! Ralph Denham!" Fox heard him, and pressing his men

"Ralph Denham is dead, curse you!" The next instant he was before Lieu-More light filling land and sea, and ' the Sea Hawk turned the point, and up | lant sailor, and with a leap that would have been surprising even in an athlete. he stood face to face with the pirate. There was no time for taunt or expression of rage. The red swords ciragain, and Hedges, the stronger of the lad seized the cars and were in the act men. pressed on, and bore back his as- | of cutting the rope when he crawled on |

A shot from the long gun of the Sea The ships were now only a hundred leaped at the first officer of the Sea but to his men: Hawk, struck him over the head, and rage that appalled those who came i signal gun, had made their way through | destined to be of great advantage. in the advance as to virtually black He could not credit his eyes and ears when he saw the Sea Hawk grappling ever they lifted one timber from their front another dropped in behind it. l answering back, but checked himself. Still the Captain and his men worked.

they threw off their jackets, tore the to turn back. for the nurnoss of their posts while yet the shrill whistle possible, when he heard Don in iront of the boatswain was piping all hande calling out: men of the Sea Hawki The Wanderer was always ready for loatience!" action; her guns were shotted at all By the dim light they could eatch the

As Ralph Denhan hurried to the deck , ' dressed exactly like his crew, there was i

"Men of the Sea Hawk! To the res-There was only need to follow his In the front Frenauld wheeled his röar of cannon, and the quick, harsh, grasped his hand, and in a voice still No. 2 Worms. The long gun was cleaned and load crashing of firelocks, rang out the voice strong, though he was bleeding to death, words and seemed transformed into | "Don't mind me! Don't stop till the No. 4 Diarrhea.

should not have time to recover from the No. 12 Leuchorrea. Rations were cooked for the men, to I from the deck of the Sea Hawk. It was | "Never mind your pistols, my lads!" No. 14 Skin Diseases.

Ridd alive!" This Captain Denham No. 77 Grip & Hay Fever. of the latter. Since Thomas D'Arcy | we see the Montauk beacon, then 'bout | "We come!" | where the pirates, rallied by their des. | 50cts, or $1. Humphreys' Med. Co., Cor, William perate leader, were to make their last Untilla leaped to the deck, and when stand. years ago, nobody appears to have The Sea Hawk bounded away, the she raised the spear of Wyandauch Fox saw Raigh Denham, looked into > of a better cause, to defend or check the | dent to these diseases, is instantly allayed the ripe grain drops before the sickle is equally efficient for itching piles as of the reaper, and the pirate chief was a favorite remedy for sore nipples "Surrender, Kidd! Surrender!" shout-

lect, he turned and flung himself into horse in prime It will be remembered that the boats In which the visitors were landed, were time to hoist them on deck before Captain Fox found a number of the

3 to command. Seizing the tiller he called and 1897. In 1650 "Better luck next time, my lads. We to go from Paris to Calais. One hunscore of ships like the Wanderer. Pull to men after the power to enforce it has

So busy were Captain Denham and | forty minutes. his men, that they did not see this act | If the pirate chief, an act that was not pearance of Fox, every pirate on ' Wanderer not dead was a prisoner and Mr. Dayton had by this time worked his ship alongside the Wanderer shattered hulls grating against each

Captain Denham was about to go forward to where the surgeon was dressing Lieutenant Hedges' wound, when Don 'If you please, sir, there's some ladies in the cabin that was locked up Who they were: his heart told him. so He bounded down the companion-way 270 hours. Finally for Havre, ninetyat vere and into the cabin, with its pictures and seven hours was considered quick saw in the middle of the floor, with traveling in 1650. It took fifteen their arms encircling each other as if hours in 1782 and seven hours in 1884. tor mutual protection, Les Hedges and.

Medicine until you have tried was Devastated.

ces visited by the hurricane

until Nov. 1. The steamer Gaeha

Santa Paula, in the Province of Ten Tabules for Five Cents.

If you don't find this sort of

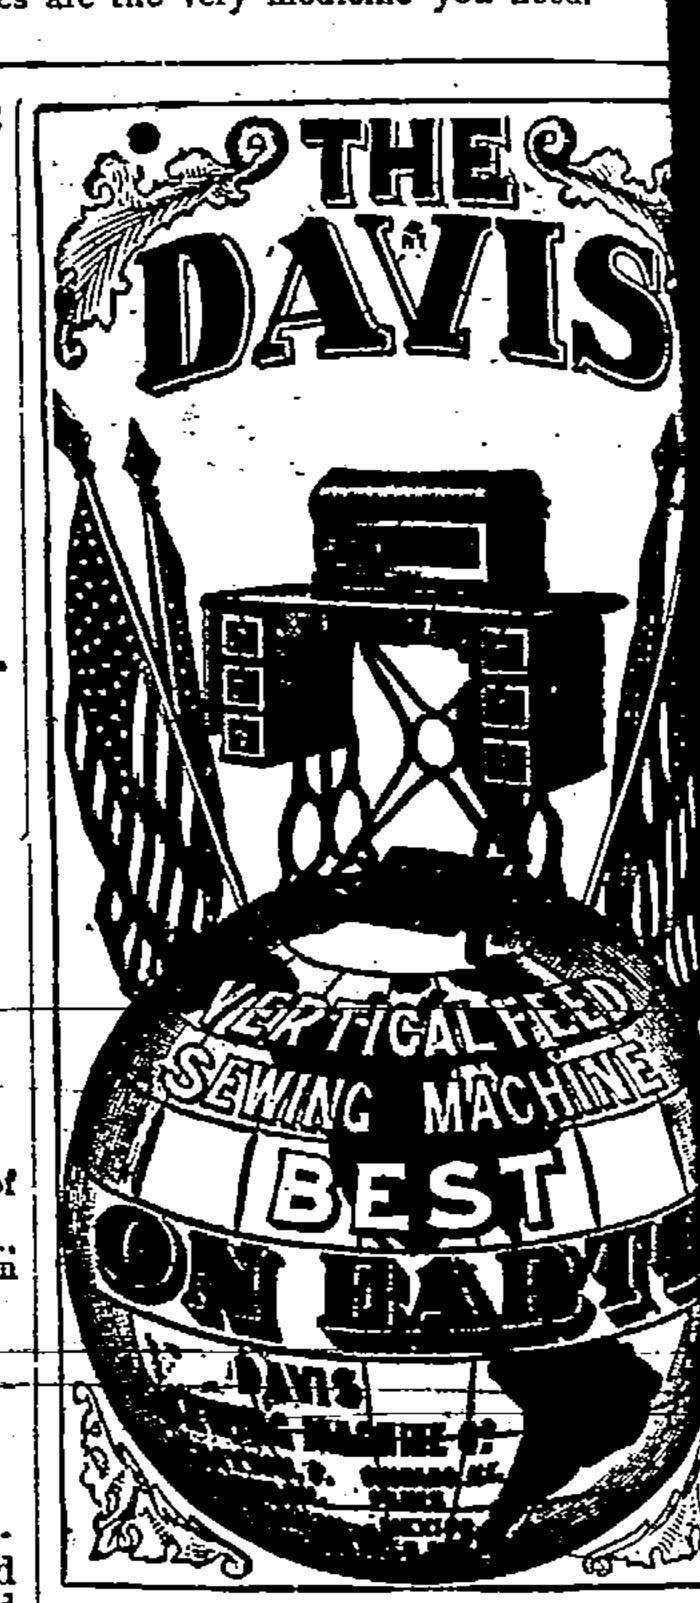

Ripans Tabules At the Druggist's

by applying Chamberlain's Eye and But his men had lost heart. They | Skin Ointment. Many-very bad cases and chronic sore eyes. 25 cts. per box.

For Sale By L. A. BURROWS. ment showing in what time certain | Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained and all Par hours; to-day it occupies eleven hours and eleven minutes. Brest can be ----GIVEN BY THE----

HAS BEEN AWARDED TO THE Davis Sewing Machine G For its High Grade Family Sewing Machine ADDRESS: DAVIS SEWING MACHINE

Send model, drawing or photo, with des

S OPP, PATENT OFFICE. WASHINGTON,

To-day it is a matter of three hours

Damaged by Rain.

Most Attention in the Way, of Rev ovation-Historical Pictures Badli after them. Reed drew a revolver and gress. concerning the calamity have hurricane struck the island at the 'know he has lived in Northern New 1 for two days. On the 12th the COUNT BADENI RESIGNS. Leichsrath Adjourned.

ag of ruins. The natives were l and 126 corpses of Europeans were Walsee, where he was visiting his of this august body vote for their own and 126 corpses of Europeans were described here here here here immediately fol. use a good supply of note paper of all Reports from the southern | the ending of the Parliamentary pande | to give them a good start on their Con-"e received which claimed that | monium and the solving of the govern | gressional labors. This year each Sening, by Dr. Lueger, the well-known | tor's outfit is estimated at $14. This, of | and Burgomaster of Vienna, who allotment of $150 for stationery supplies xtent, the Yukon mining regula- audience with the Emperor, who told sanctioned by the Minister during him of Count Badeni's resignation and ings. Some of the corridros have been ping times of the Klondike craze. of his acceptance of it. far as can be learned, the Domin. Dr. Baron De Gautsch von Franken tions have been retouched. ing in the way of constructing, or struction and Ecclesiastical Affairs rainstorms swept over Washington, make further experiments.

g in the construction, of a Yukon will succeed Count Badeni.

The news of the resignation of the windows above the frieze and in drip-Administration. Maj. Walsh has crowded until late last evening, the So. About a hundred feet of the fresco is About a hundred feet of the fresco is All Over the Territory in Carnotville, in Northern Dahomey, consented to it, or, at least, he did not also, is not to be the headquarters | Prime Minister kept the Ring-strass | ping down badly streaked the pictures. cialist workmen and German students | greatly marred, and the rain appears | not to be in too rejoicing, boasting and arguing, instead to have almost completely ruined this Perry, Oklahoma, Nov. 29.—The peoof a hurry, either, in making the of taking part in violently demonstral portion of the pictures. Many of the p. 'e to choose the locations for known in Gratz, the capital of Styria ments there is a general resting on the tory a State. In nearly every county in

been fairly well ascertained. The | illuminated. LOCKED IN THE ARCTIC ICE. Whalers Off Point Barrow." New Bedford, Mass., Nov. 29.—Locked | L down the Alaskan coast in the direction rime the Killing of a White Youth of the Mackenzie River, where those of the whalers whose positions are not i Thport, N. C., Nov. 29.—During the known are supposed to be, are elever New England men, most of whom are

Sherman master of the steam bark with an ox and cart, carrying a part of the country, and as he has win. tered in the Arctic twice before hit thing to say about the Spanish-Cuban friends here are not in the least wor. ried. His mother-in-law, Mrs. Ebenezet

| was lost while whaling in the Arctic i tion who sailed on the Bear last Saturday will fare worse than the sail, back to South Carolina. aged 15 years, with a number of other i.

a track survey of the overland from Edmonton to the Yukon.

-The Sheriff is Helpless.

boys, were proposed at all New York after the consolidation of Downington Saturday engaged in the two cities is effected. Gen. Alger ollow his example. A halter was pro- now about a reorganization of the artiltoured, and Harry, by means of a stool lery forces of the army, and Mr. Alger end of which he fastened the piece of port. Secretary Cornelius N. Bliss' re. | the Currency Eckels has completed h. harness, tying the other end around his port has already reached the public, throat. He smiled at the group below | .a. for having come into the United Harry's feet slipped, and he fell with therefore known. Secretary Wilson, o. about his neck and cut into the flesh sugar, and he has also some original in a dying condition, zirone Prairie Fire in Texas, Rew Issue of Notes. Antonio, Tex., Nov. 28;—Another Weshington, Nov. 20. greater parts of Crosby, H weeks ago, and the town constable got regular session of the Fifty-fifth Con. Imperial Navy, and with Prince Henry, made use of the expression:

"We must forestall England."

AIR-SHIP THAT SAILED. rered from the ruins when the natuthorities instituted a search for lowed by two steps which have in view sizes, and enough pencils, pens, etc., Topeka, Kan., Nov. 29.—Charles Haas, 1 100 British and French troops. of small trading vessels and ment deadlock. The first step was the ator will receive a large morocco of Topeka, on Saturday manipulated an he crews were drowned. The sea | Count Badeni, the Prime Minister, de | in silver, in which he can carry his pa- | a large crowd. The ship is twelve feet | b ! In 1870 France and Great Britain | ... The wind was very high, and Haas da Likely to Modify Her Ob- shouted to the crowd in front of the that goes to each member of the upper did not need the propellers, nor did he each nation has continued to grab all awa, Nov. 29.—Upon the return of resignation. The people's will is ful. Over on the House side preparations of rock in the ship's hull to test its caro Ottawa, he will at once prepare The people were jubilant when they the members. A new green carpet, and smoothly into the air for 500 feet, the Yukon country. His advice, Minister, and they gave vent to their year's covering for the floor of the it was attached. The ship was sent up sphere. This was during the Fall of I painted and a few of the old decora- tor for his propellers. Several Topeka men, after seeing the exhibition. volunt dues not intend-to do thurn, at present Minister of Public In During the past Summer many severe teered to put up money for Haas to

- and water forced its way through the

In the various government départ- gress will be asked to make the Terri- ; oars for the coming of Congress. All the Territory meetings are being held, gard, to Nikki, the capital of Borgu, t. the bureau chiefs have submitted to at which resolutions favoring immedi- for the purpose of negotiating a treaty their secretaries their reports of the ate Statehood are passed. Two weeks with the native ruler, and the English operations of their respective divisions ago the Territorial Press Association officer was fortunate enough to reach soon as we have the design. The statue resolutions on this line, and since then i, start, and Lugard secured the treaty

President. Two of the Cabinet officials, however, make their report direct to and her top assessment amounts to Congress, and as yet there is only spec- nearly $30,000,000. The advocates of ulation as to what will be the nature | Statehood argue that nearly one-half of the States were admitted with a less of their recommendations. The Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary 1. of State are the two executive officers 1. " | who report directly to Congress, but | Secretary Gage has already outlined a | tory attached to the new State as the he will submit to the Senate and House to white settlement. Both Terrifories Secretary Sherman will give his atten- | would make a State of more than 500,tion to the annexation treaty with Hat 000 inhabitants. "-| wali, and is also expected to have some.

trouble, with regard to its bearing on

Secretary Long has told of the need | ...

for more ships, and, above all, for bet- | _____

ready made known his pet hobby—the establishment of postal savings banks | ...

I gress to adopt his scheme. Mr. Gary will also have to arrange for an adjust-

has made some important recom-

that those officials believe they deserve.

the affairs of the United States.

Postmaster-General in New York. ad vate secretary, Mr. Dawson, left last Is fearful that those of the relief exter docking facilities than we now The visit of the Postmaster-General 1. offices of the big city. As stated some Greater New York which he believes

"eed, and dared his companions to defense. There is also much talk just sent from Washington for several days. treatment of the Indians, etc., are take effect Bec. 31. The next and throat by the band that tightened inthe cultivation of beet dency of which he was recently chosen. 'A man quickly responded and cut the liges in regard to the possibilities of the relative condition of the national larging our foreign trade in farm prod. the relative condition of the national larging our foreign trade in farm prod. boy down. Drs. Tyndell and Kerr, after cots. Congress will have enough to banks at the 160 periods of their exan examination, said that the boy's keep it busy from the day it meets un. Istence When reports were called for neck was broken. He was carried boom | the Fourth of July if it gives the at. | by the Comptroller. A historical retention to the various recommenda. view of national banking will also be in the report.

Had Been Pointd Out.

Nikki Reported Captured.

Story of the Trouble.

the Rome dispatch to the Frankfort ficiency. last Saturday wheat rose to $1.00% for November, with No. 2 red and other grades selling many cents higher. Corn continues to go abroad in quantities ait has slightly declined. l at the lowest quotations ever known. In such conditions weakness is natural, although extreme estimates of pield are The British forces in the Hinterland. . not by some entirely credited. It is further stated, are being rein-"The iron industry shows no de-The Colonial Office late last evening | crease in production or consumption of received a cable message from Lagos, pig, but with much reduced orders for stating that a rumor is current among | products excess of production is exthe natives there of a collision between pected. A better demand helps raise the price of anthracite coal here The report, it is believed, will prove to $4.15. "The woolen manufacture is still consuming heavily in execution of past orders, and many agents are sold so far ahead that they seek no further "Failures in three weeks of Novemagreements have been reached, but for the week have been 236 in the

The British Niger Company, which and 25 in Canada, against 38 last year.

Dahomey hinterland within the British | A Statue of the President That Will Washington, Nov. 27.-F. D. Highee. In the meanwhile the French were of Chicago, who is to make the milliontrying to establish a great African em. | dollar solid gold statue of President pire, to extend from Algeria to the ba. McKinley, saw the President yesterday sins of the Congo and the Upper Nile. by appointment. President McKinley was notified of ---But for this purpose it was necessary to secure the hinterland of Lagos and the project some time ago, and partly getting wind of the French plans, dis- any doubt," Mr. Higbee said. "The

and carried it away three weeks before | World's Fair. "This colossal figure will be the larg-The French, however, seemed to have est lump of gold the modern world has

Americans in Cuba Need Help. Washington, Nov. 29.—Consul-General Lee has made a report to the Secretary of State in which he says there France Has Russia's Backing., Jingoism in France, already excited are 1,607 American citizens in Cuba deoendent upon charltable assistance. 'ntensified recently by the arrival in They have been partly provided for our Parls of the band of the Czar's Pre of the $50.000 appropriated by Congress. obrajensky Regiment, sent to the Gen. Lee says that in making pro-

Pittsburg, Nov. 29.—By the explosion

boiler yesterday afternoon weeks ago for repairs, a big crack hav-

Murder with an Ar. Lexington, Nov. 29.—Ex-Secretary of the searching the city for Lawrence the Navy William C. Whitney and C. T. Boyle, who is said to have killed Barnes, of New York, and Sir Mawn, Hamblin on the Spencer farm, and Lady Colbert, of England, and England, and aced 10 per cent. The wages of these