An expert says that getting sho to get out of the way when bullets are under a heap of fragmentary things, flying around.

wagon has reached the maximum, owcoads, so that her agricultural output; four cents a ton a mile, but the cost his kness. of hauling on good roads is from six ere largely caused, he says, by the neglect of the government to lay out

United States has turned back and | The track of that hurricane is still t captured several and has brought the | be seen in the hummock woods of the | of $3,000,000 or $4,000,000. In the line of a railway clearing. The young captured just one bona fide filibuster. Perhaps it is jealousy of our success less than 200 feet wide. Lawrence found in this business that has caused Spain | himself on one edge of this path of deto complain. However, enough expeditions escape from this coast to were swept on and away, leaving the give Spain a fair show in competition. sky clear and bright, with the moon

The London Live Stock Journal est Trembling, nerveless, every bone in timates that the horses in use in the his body and limbs a center of pain, his city of London give direct employ- tried to push back the girl's tangled ment—as drivers, hostlers, harness hair. He stooped and kissed her white lain almost like one dead. He was and wagon makers, etc.—to not less brow; then, gathering force again, called bruised and cut from head to foot: but four to a family, this would make over two millions of people in that one city my pusson, an'er hol'n' me down. I directly dependent on the use of cayn't mobe," responded Tom, a negro horses. Of course, many of these would find other, and perhaps just as | though each effort racked him with in- | the time in her mind. profitable employment, if the horse describable torture, so bruised and torn dicted he soon will be. But the with its claws. in addition to those directly connected with horses in the care, management. harnessing, etc., there is also a vast army of farmers and others engaged they consume. immediate Christian action is sug- the wind a mocking bird ventured gested by the Consumers' league. The weirdly sweet nocturne. purpose of the league, both in this The moon shone down through the country and in England, is to give its members information as to the shop! in which they may spend their money without doing harm to their fellow! men. The names of the dealers who with infinite pathos in its quaver. conditions, and whose stores are fit to and screamed. The upturned face of taching to it, the value of truth. he the habitation of human beings, are in the moonlight. set down in a "white list." The requirements are reasonable; the whole | "Dat yo' ober dar? Is yo' hurt, honey?" transaction is above board; the dealers know what they must do if they desire the trade of enlightened Christian people. The result is not only to in- power of a giant the negro was wrenchcorrect abuses. There is such a in Chicago; one is being formed i Boston. They make it possible for over loge and boughs and drifted heaps those who are interested in social of debris toward the spot where L betterment and perplexed as to what | sat o do to be of immediate, practical and | Miss Lucie?" acceive service to their fellow men."

The Reason Why. buy some potatoes. the regular price for potatoes. Haven't Just then his e

THE PARTY OF THE P

CHAPTER II.-Continued. branches, sticks, leaves and what not . in the midst of fallen trees. He arose and advanced. with difficulty, still holding Lucie, now limp and motionless, in his arms. | clouds were as black as ink and rushing | low overhead. He could not see wel. i enough to know whether she was living i around, but there was nothing in view i save the vague outlines of splintered branches. In every direction-his Wa was blocked. With a groan he sank to the ground, pillowing the girl's head of "Lucie! Lucie!" he called, "speak me, dear, speak. Are you hurt? Her heart was beating, but she did

. not move or speak. Again the panther began to howl and rage; but another heavy throb of the | beast. gale seemed-to force it into silence. The lightning was threading the clouds. in the distance, and by the reflected sciousness he was resting on a low bed light Lawrence saw how pale Lucie was. The panther seemed to be whetting its teeth and lashing itself into ecstatic | Many days had passed since the hurri- | up. He thumped rage. It was so near that every move- | cane and meantime the young man had | ment of its feet and every stroke of its I jaws when it opened and shut its mouth The could be distinctly heard as the wind

Teche country. It is a narrow opening. as straight and otherwise not unlike the trees that have grown up in it are of different general form from those the wind destroyed, and the ancient forest walls on each side of it show that the irresistible current of the storm was With amazing rapidity the clouds swimming along white and brilliant flesh tern and bruised, the young man

"Help! help! halloo! help!" "But, Mars, I cayn't help nothin' ner nobody. Dey's er tree on de tip ten o'

Such a strain was not to be borne l long. Lawrence struggled with fine presently his eyes were blurred, his head reeled, and he fell over insensible his knees, or it may have been a mere herself to a sitting posture, and, wavering weakly to and fro, gazed around with a pained, confused stare. trill faintly a phrase or two of its awful rift in the forest upon the pallid er!" It was the call of child to parent, the old, old cry of helplessness, and it rang through the crushed wilderness She passed her hands across her face. spot in the surface of our story. It must does not show another example of widetried to rise; looked down; then started | be told, however, with but one value at-

"Dat yo' Miss Lucie?" called Tom."

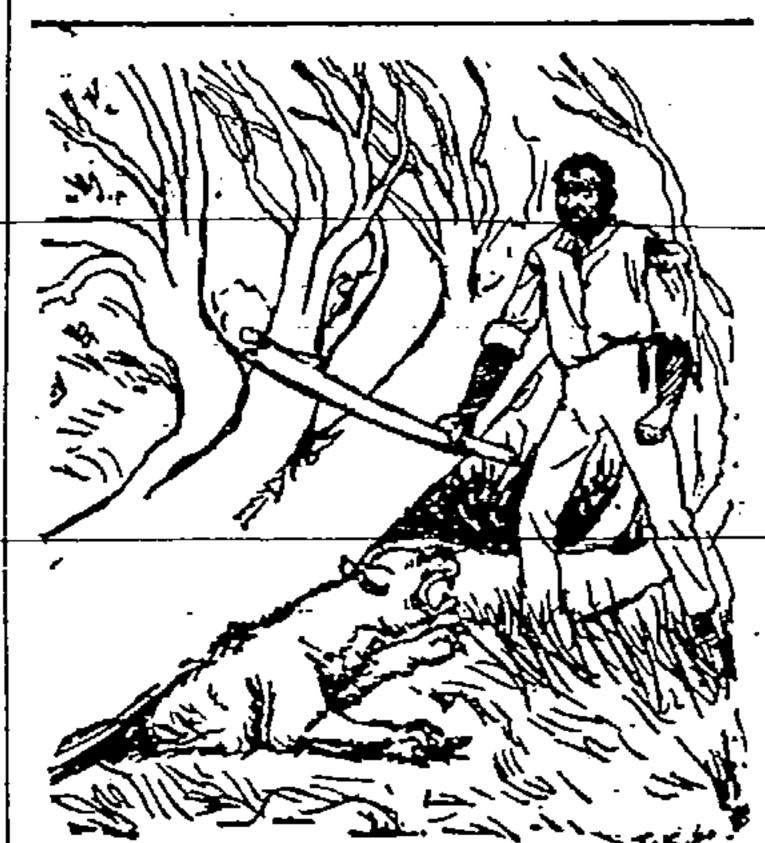

cles and tugging limbs. With the ing himself from under the weight thesi The panting snarls of the old/man-Tom came stumbling and fumbling

"Wha' is yo', honey? Wha' is \yo' |

"Look out fo' dat paynter! He close , As he spoke he flourished a heavy A man living in a suburban hamlet club (the fragment of a live oak limb recently went to the general store to thicker than a man's arm and four feet Just then his eyes fell upon the pan- way only was he on hand to aid in Lu- controlled by Murrell and his men. ther, which was struggling feebly new cie's and Lawrence's resource. So with The coming of Martin Lawrence to picton that they are pining to be woosd

He raised the club with both hands . A hoarse, gurgling howl of agony

The leaped from the foaming, gnashing "Bress de Lcr'!" he ejaculateo ever, for he saw that the panther could 'ollowed by many more. "Take dat, yo' ole villvan! Take dat | affecting his heart.

he had saved Lucie, whose courage and had seen her mother buried after being rescued in a dying condition from the wreck of the mansion, and had gone on Lawrence yelled again and again, lover, with the thought of her father all voice. Lawrence convalenced very fast, but Its cries and ripped the fallen branches | Lucie's strength gave way and she fell was he. Then the panther redoubled no sooner was he out of danger than Meantime one evening up rode Col. Vigny, with Star still in fair condition made the journey to New Orleans and back. He was indescribably grieve told, even if words could do it justice. scrip to pay the Philadelphia claim. Point of mounting into the vehicle ha He found Lawrence, pale and haggard. watching by Lucie's bedside, and busi ness was forgotten in the awful grief of | window something white gleamed. It was the overseer who thought skinning the panther and dressing its | Through leagues of shimmering water ] hide to be kept as proof positive that | the Teche Terror was no longer to be may be seen to-day in a certain princely home on Rampart street in New Orleans. Meantime, something had come to had set up a state of affairs altogether pass that must make a disagreeable anomalous. The history of mankind rence's heart that he had lost her again." He tried to chaff at himself for giving how it would not be puffed away. So of securing pardon. of the past few weeks, so out of the was innocent of any ulterior design be torted view of small matters when they 1 connect themselves with the subject : ing. Strange that a man's heart should.

Mlle. de Vigny in? No. she was not in. Where was she?

"Tell your mistress," he said, "that I silly story of our flight to Europe. Be issue is, of course, the waste of the coming events. A minute later a tall, serene-looking i me your loving him that Mile. de Vigny and her father | rive at the meaning of this. nor was he had sailed for France that very morn- | slow in setting Col. de Vigny's mind | dust the front room. I was in lignity darting from the narrow, placid | ment. Two or three stolen interviews eyes which were scanning him between with Lucie gave him the fullest of surprise mingled with polite con- | name-still live in New Orleans, where tempt. When she spoke the effect of without faltering in the care of her | finality was perfectly conveyed by her

I am quite sure, monsieur; good-The young man stood alone for a moment before going. Hat in hand, he looked down at the carpet and around the silent room, while his thoughts blur. A delicate waft of heliotrope day at the mountain hotel in Switzerale inhabitant of the earth. A sense of enchantment, so to speak, gave absolute strangeness to the experience. He turned and walked past the tidy. formal man servant out into the street. turned and cast his eves over the state-/ Tacade of the house. At an up was a vision of beauty that followed an apparition seen as if—

John A. Murrell and his influential coadjutors all through the Southwest spread and perfectly organized lawless-. ' It | ness to compare with it in boldness Martin Lawrence was gleaming strongly comes in as a touch of genuine old- design and accuracy of execution Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana a outlawry :

law in many places were its tools, and l combat alone an influence so secret. cover. Men of otherwise spotless char- it flaming in his mouth."—Philadel- just for men." acter were drawn into passive, if not | phia Press. l active, relations with the robbers, and

IN THE MUSEUM

-AS-THINGS GO.

THE CHEERFUL IDIOT.

"Well, the lawyers, the drumm

LACHRYMOSE JOY.

itors and the chronic bicycle cran longer," said the first one; "

"Oh, I enjoy it," said the sees

SCON SETTLED.

And she held the door inviting

A SOCIAL APPAIR.

of sight than the feeling stole into Law- and the dealer in goods and chattels l room to such an idle fancy, but some- | selves as state witnesses with the hope i In as utter ignorance of all this as he normal limit of life as it usually comes; youd securing his client's money and i dating itself to its strange surroundings. He glanced at the window again, only

Stranger still that his fancy should father is not guilty. He is an honorable his latest two lectures had add to Between them is an immense weave in spite of him a web of fantastic | man; but his brother has drawn him in- | it, "people sometimes ask me " which may eventually be disto this thing unawares. Father fancies the good of trying to find the ted between Great Britain, Gerservant opened the door. Was that you have a special desire to implicate and ruin him. Since the panther's death he seems to have shifted his monomania to the subject of being im-The servant did not know. She and | prisoned, and he imagines that you are probably. The servant looked indif- | which I cannot put upon paper: but thew |

It did not take Lawrence long to arright, as nearly as that could be done, just now, and I could write my Lawrence caught a ray of subtle ma- on the subject of arrest and marisonknowledge of the situation, and showed "Madame," said he, "are you quite him how to steer her father out of the

"A NOTE WAS PLACED IN HIS HANDS." up to about the beginning of the war of the rebellion Martin Lawrence was a | a widower, as the tears streamed comment distingusished lawyer and politician. his cheeks. 'I never heard anyway pe in Corea, and where in the city's famous cemetery | that reminded me so much of my posses a noble tomb marks the resting place of | dear wife." him and his always lovely and loving

[THE END.] ** (Copyright by the Anthors' Alliance; all

A Man Who Ate Fire From the following account, taken answer the question," suggested from Evyln's diary, where it appears ! it appears that fire-eating freaks are not altogether modern innovations. conspirator, together with such men as | who was going to Paris to my Lord. | the men who have received the mil Wilkinson on one hand and the La now Ambassador there. She made in several different forms. | Fittes on the other, had educated a | me stay to dinner at Leicester House, and afterward sent for Richardson ' the famous 'fire-eater.' Before us ha "Good morning, ma'am," began matter of history. One effect of his | chewing and swallowing them. He | value, stepping in through the organization was this: It became so then melted a beer glass and ate it door that had opened in response to death at 5 o'clock yes. formidable that even the officers of the quite up; then taking a live coal on his knock; "I have called"-his tongue, he put on it a raw oyster; the elections were controlled by it. Of the coal was (then) blown with a the house, "and I am not at home course, a combination so powerful in- hand-bellows until it flamed and bad. No person was strong enough to sparkled in his mouth, and so re open. mained until the oyster was done. yet so bold, so widespread, yet invis- Then he melted pitch with sulphur ible, so strong and yet so hard to dis- and drank it while it flowed. I saw affair this evening, my dear. I thouse Infirmary vesterday affer.

"Will it be a glove affair, my 10" - it soon came to pass that a large. When single women begin to call time color. It was discovered after the part of the commercial activities of the themselves "bachelor maids" and to br. her suspiciously. Then he compared were filled with inflammable had run away just before it, and in that with New Orleans, were more of less way only was he on hand to aid in Lu- controlled by Murrell and his men.

storm was over that the negro boy Tom interior, especially those connected ganize clubs wherein to rail at the sa. hended that she couldn't really known interior, especially those connected ganize clubs wherein to rail at the sa. hended that she couldn't really known interior, especially those connected ganize clubs wherein to rail at the sa. hended that she couldn't really known interior.

Let a supplement the same of the said in Lu- controlled by Murrell and his men. with its entire hinder parts crushed out consideration for the succor he ren- New Orleans happened to touch a sensite grows at once into an absolute cer. Started out and walked four under a heavy log dashed upon it by the dered, the overseer tied him up and tive point in the circle of illegal opera- tainty, and any wise bachelor man hurricane, All around it the earth was gave him a severe flogging. Of course tions, although the young man was who does not want to be dragged to the sheriff and two aguads of policy it the earth was ty claws, and the Tom begged and howled and said that the log were scarred be would never the way again, but the time Murrell's kingdom was toppling to conscientions overseer abated not one its fall. The attention of government had been attracted to his doings in such London had now over 8,000 members. Tom

"There is no danger of the passage of bert's, Commits Suicide.

Bodies of Parents.

_____

Buying Cattle for Cuba.

Superintendent of the Census.

United States in 1900. Mr. North ac-

Coal Miners' Wages Raised.

The Cologne Gazette and lican party. A special train carried a "The Canadians have taken posses. usually inspired papers. The rec- gold standard contingent to St. Louis sion of United States land and are dethis exceptional tagiturnity lies last summer. The object of those gen- manding high duties on all articles doint action of these three purpose Mr. Gage would not now be cabin on American soil, twenty miles the far East, equally potent Secretary of the Treasury. "The President has earnestly endeavored to comply with the mandates bly well. The Republican party undiplomat said: "Rus- lier a solemn pledge to promote inter- coast. ollide with those of France, To stop now would be suicidal. My his bank account and noted the confidence of action is in South would be almost criminal." FOLLOWS A TRAGIC EXAMPLE. Anna Wells, a Friend of Miss Hery and Japan. A movement is now ot between Japan and Germany rive at an understanding, as Japan

Toast two years. Therefore Ger- heart at her father's residence.

t do be to have an eddication! the erection of costly, large forti-A DANGEROUS BLUNDER. Jons in order to hold the bay and adjoining territory against at-No man can know everyth s. If Germany concludes to retain . e will have to spend large sums o. ____ Senator Sorghum, "that's a fact

Chemulpo, Cores.

ondon, Dec. 27.—A special dispatch seems to me that you man Shanghai says: rather a broad statement when the reported that seventeen British say half the people in this countries are off Chemulpo, Corea, live on wind. Who are some hwest of Seoul, to an ultimatum, against the lived the book agents, the insurance of practically yielding the govern-

The two men had passed a common, British adviser to the Corean Lauicide been committed with a shot lif he crosses the line. of the British representation, tated by the arrival of Russian and it is believed that | Manuel Pichardo came here from Cuba

According to advices from Tokio, by the Spanish Government to buy eccording to a dispatch to the Daily | ment, and they will buy three hundred from Shanghai, it is reported and fifty to four hundred head daily. worded. The question should rection reliable sources. that a He complains that he is hindered and caused the reinstate. railways.

- I nucleus of the force to be employed in . He started suddenly and looked to by making matchboxes, and her and Cabin Levied on-Sad Scenes on the Skague Trail.

Inside the limit of Uncle Sam's terriof publican voters will sustain him. The sales of American land and timber Henry may be characterized as | Wolcott Commission has done remark- They have sold licenses for the sale of

Vladivostock to Port Arthur, while the great Bank of England met he had not so much money, the officer cutting firewood, $8 for a permit to put Washington, Dec. 27.-Miss Anna up a log cabin, 10 cents apiece for the clearly that this course is the wis- Virginia Wells, daughter of Judge logs he cuts for his cabin, 50 cents per not to exceed $1,000, or by imprison-Lewis 'S. Wells, a prominent attorney ton if he cuts any grass for hay, $15 as it would upset all the of this city, committed suicide yester- to record a claim, if he gets one.

Thes she has been preparing for day by shooting herself through the "If a miner cannot make his claim pay and abandons it, the Canadian Miss Wells was an acquaintance of Government appropriates it, and the Herbert's tragic death which brought must buy it from Canada. m a misssionary the correspon- on the fit of melancholy which caused "Many persons were unable to get ed for by or on behalf of the United

kers are required to keep it open. social functions and receptions, and, and hence have little to pay duty on to include any and all property, real, the daughter of the former Secretary ple along the trail to pay their duties ship whereof is vested in the United slightest attempt to grind will be the the Canadian port of entry. Ignorant. has exclusive direction or control. valuable property. The Spanish troops people are paying from 25 to 100 per | Each and every day in which the law | are chiefly in garrisoned towns and are claimed that few of them have been be violated shall constitute a distinct Six estates in Havana province were ed to enlist capital in the building of . [ Son on a Christmas Call Finds Dead ] given receipts for the sums paid. and his wife were shot to death by an mining claims to one-fifth the usual herein contained shall affect any crim- town of several thousand inhabitants, certain income in sight to justify the

Jacksonville, nine miles southwest of crease the Government revenue theretion of the act of which this is amend. Dec. 21, and carried off all the supplies The renewal of constructive work on here, some time on Christmas Day. from fivefold. Canadian police are here atory, and pending at the time of the Their bodies were found at 9 p. m. by to either force the payment of duties | passage hereof." their son Harry, who was passing the or to confiscate miners' outfits. "Moose and caribou have been nearhouse and stopped to pay a Christmas call on his parents. Neal was one of ly killed off along the Yukon route. the most prominent and prosperous There are a few grouse, and the Amer- Physician Says She Can Never Be ish Consul's protest, really amount- farmers of the vicinity in which he ican ptarmigan is here in large numbeds. The ptarmigan, in early Winter, The woman was killed with birdshot, is pure white, save his back. Later his t of Corea into the hands of the the husband with buckshot. There tail and wings become black as a crow. were no marks of powder on his face In May he has become a beautiful of hours in the House of Committee to the Russian nomi- gun. There is nothing to indicate that "President McKinley should give im-The news has produced conster- the crime was committed for plunder, mediate attention to the settlement of any more than that, but they declare t of thirty warships awaiting the dresser. Friends say they have a clue, land bought from Russia by the United it will take they say they do not know, flag on our soil and firing military sa-'lutes to it every day." Fort Worth, Tex., Dec 27.-Senor

Reindeer for the Yukon. recently, stating that he was detailed, New York, Dec. 27.—The Rev. Dr. an has offered to assist the officers cattle for the Spanish army in Cuba. Sheldon Jackson sailed on the Cunard Epekin in drilling the Chinese army. He is now buying five hundred or six steemship Lucania Saturday morning. "It would be a waste of time by of the viceroys and Pekin offiver the question," suggested agents on the way to buy cattle for Cuba ship-· Lthroughout the valley of the Yukon | physician of ability. He said: his work by the discriminations of the I William A. Kjellmann, superintendtent of the Government reindeer herd i 'n Alaska since 1890, is now in Sweden . Washington, Dec. 27.—One of the on the same errand, and it is believed holiday stories of the day is that Presilected by the time Dr. Jackson reaches dent McKinley sent one day last week for S. J. North, of Massachusetts, who his destination. Dr. Jackson will go to Christiania dent Porter in the eleventh census, and if the animals are not picked officials are rushing forward supplies of children and control of children and children and control of children and chi the coast of Norway, probably as far (I. T.) Court House. They have the San Francisco, Dec. 27. The last desay ordered a thorough investigation to pending in Congress providing for the as Hammerfest, the most northern setlearn the cause of the fire. Dr. Jackson win also purchase comwill return with him, bringing their But Indian connection with the fire families with them. Highwaymen Slay a Conductor. the destruction of the Court House was evidence brought out at the trial, but Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 24.—The Vircar of the Schuylkill Valley Traction uted so effectively that the building ginia & Alabama Coal Company and -employing 2,000 miners in Walker Company was held up by four high and all the records were lost. 1 miners' wages would be advanced o'clock last night. Conductor Charles o'clock last night. Conductor Charles ward some citizens under indictment, has received from the Maine Women's o'hastelf the proof credit of the following the records.

The first of the first being the following the records. The first of the proof of the first of the fir up his money and was shot dead. Three to escape trial. shota were fired at Motorman Mat.

ter Shorter Hours.

only members of trades unions.

every workingman in the country

The old law, making eight hours

MRS. BOOTH IMPROVING.

Her Former Self.

They Fired Court House.

co and in Favor of Weyler and the Velunteers - Seditions Docuday's work on Government work, was

This new bill will be read with in- brate Christmas by dancing and sing , year. act relative to the limitation of the between groups from different provworks of the United States and of the with the lestivities until about District of Columbia, approved Aug. 1, 1 came frenzied from drinking aguardi-

"Death to Americans!" "Down with bled, that section 2 of an act entitled | "Viva Weyler!" "Viva los Voluntar and mechanics employed upon the pub- | mounted gendarmes, drawn up in front 'c works of the United States and of of the German Club, charged with he District of Columbia, approved drawn sabres. Aug. 1, 1892,' is hereby amended so as | A panic ensued, the mob, in which | were many women, flying in every di-

nearly a cent higher. Cotton has also rection, but the crowd was hemmed i. on all sides by the police; mounted and | been moving largely, and has risen afoot, who struck out savagely with sixteenth. Two hundred prisoners marched to England works forty-five have passed upon any of the public works of the Prefectura. Among them were many dividends, fourteen at Fall River, with United States or of the District of officers of the volunteers. On four of fifteen others paying 1 per cent. for the American miner must pay to Canada: | United States or of the District of Officers were found bundles of cir- last quarter. The fall in the price of Five dollars for a license to prospect, late any provision of this act, shall be culars declaring Spain's honor had cotton, when the mills were holding 25 cents per cord for the privilege of deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and been compromised by granting autono- heavy stocks of goods, placed this in-It for each and every such offense shall my, and calling on all loyal Spaniards dustry in a most embarrassing postupon conviction be punished by a fine to resist to the utmost. Copies of these tion. ment for not more than six months, or the streets this morning. by both such fine and imprisonment. No further details are at hand re- larger than last year, and fall very

h Japan must look for an alliance Miss Leila Herbert, and it was Miss next man who wants the property any article or property in process of News of the result is anxiously awaited weeks. Failures for three weeks have A SOFT ANSWER TURNETH AWAY WE here of the Associated Press her to end her own lite in a similar over the Skagua before Winter, and so States, and upon which any payment writes that Gen. Gomez is again in the against $5,877,387, and trading $5,001,as that the Bay of Kiao Chou is by manner. She was about 33 years of are camping along it until Spring. The or payments, by way of installments saddle and using all efforts to prevent 587, against $7,988,981 last year. Failneans so valuable as at first be- age, and a favorite among her large Canadian officers at the port of entry, or otherwise, is or are made by the the grinding of cane. Work on sugar ures for the week have been 292 in the realizing that all these people would United States, its officers or agents as estates is practically suspended. The United States, against 297 last year, three months of Winter and ice Miss Wells had met Miss Herbert at eat most of their grub before Spring, the work thereon progresses, as well as proprietors of the Caracas estate, the and 22 in Canada, against 44 last year. Hinterland is barren and treeless, while not intimately acquainted with then, came over here to force the people personal or mixed, the title or owner- world, have been notified that the

> of which this act is amendatory shall unable to afford adequate protection. and separate offense, and shall be pun- burned this week. enteen English Warships of unknown assassin at their homes near size in the new districts, so as to ininal proceedings brought for a violainal proceedings brought for a violainal went over to the rebels.

- -COLONEL RUIZ'S DEATH.

An Alleged Statement from Consul-General Lee. New York, Dec. 27.—There is a steady improvement in Mrs. Maud Ballington Booth's condition. The patient passed a quiet night and is favorably responding to treatment. It was said sul-General Lee, saying that Lieut. Inst the dismissal of McLeavy have been impossible to avoid had wealthy to pay duty on so many suits yesterday at the Presbyterian Hospi- Col. Ruiz was executed because he pro- ting money for the World's Fair was said yesterday at the Presbyterian Hospi- Col. Ruiz was executed because he pro- ting money for the World's Fair was said yesterday at the Presbyterian Hospi- Col. Ruiz was executed because he pro- ting money for the World's Fair was said yesterday at the Presbyterian Hospi- Col. Ruiz was executed because he pro- ting money for the World's Fair was said yesterday at the Presbyterian Hospi- Col. Ruiz was executed because he pro- ting money for the World's Fair was said yesterday at the Presbyterian Hospi- Col. Ruiz was executed because he pro- ting money for the World's Fair was said yesterday at the Presbyterian Hospi- Col. Ruiz was executed because he pro- ting money for the World's Fair was said yesterday at the Presbyterian Hospi- Col. Ruiz was executed because he pro- ting money for the World's Fair was said yesterday at the Presbyterian Hospi- Col. Ruiz was executed because he pro- ting money for the World's Fair was said yesterday at the Presbyterian Hospi- Col. Ruiz was executed because he pro- ting money for the World's Fair was said yesterday at the Presbyterian Hospi- Col. Ruiz was executed because he pro- ting money for the World's Fair was said yesterday at the Presbyterian Hospi- Col. Ruiz was executed because he pro- ting money for the World's Fair was said yes the presbyterian Hospi- Col. Ruiz was executed because he pro- ting money for the World's Fair was said yes the presbyterian Hospi- Col. Ruiz was executed because he pro- ting money for the World's Fair was said yes the presbyterian Hospi- Col. Ruiz was executed because he pro- ting money for the World's Fair was said yes to be a fair was said yes the presbyterian Hospi- Col. Ruiz was executed because he pro- ting money for the World's Fair was said yes to be a fair was said yes to be a fair was said yes to be a fair was said yes t tal that Mrs. Booth's recovery is now posed peace in contravention of a dethe Grant monument in New York. "I can't stand this the boundary question here. The Can- that they are now fully confident that authorities say that two commissioners the boundary question here. The Can- that they are now fully confident that authorities say that two commissioners the boundary question here. the knowledge that Japan has a and a $20 bill lay on the top of adians are taking possession of much she will eventually get well. How long who were sent to propose peace with idea of the cost of construction and a she will eventually get well. How long who were sent to propose peace with idea of the cost of construction and a she will eventually get well. How long who were sent to propose peace with idea of the cost of construction and a she will eventually get well. States. They are raising the English as her illness is still serious but not province have been hanged in conform. One of the physicians in talking about in forwarding supplies to the miners | she is his patient, but because he is a | It is reported that he and Senor Rafael Sancti Spiritus, were the bearers of an | Steamer Purchased by Company for "Mrs. Booth will now get well, but." trados is as pitable as it was during the Ross Iron Works, at the foot of Weyler, despite Gen. Blanco's relief de ; Government Officials Do Not Think A relief fund of $100,000 will hardly | ... Washington, Dec. 27.-Government give the sufferers 20 cents each. Another Effort to Save Durrant. affidavit says that Smythe has admit-

Women Accuse a Judge. Suspicion is said to be directed toreappointment of Judge Enoch Foster tearing his hand in, to the Supreme bench. They accuse of gross immorality with daughter of a barber in the Juds terest by workingmen, and is as fol- ing songs peculiar to various provinces | 809.600 less than last year, indicate | of Spain. Almost all were armed with excess of exports approaching $60,000,000 "An act to amend an act entitled 'An knives and clubs, fights being frequent for the month. Bank failures at Phil A large force of police was cause no disturbance, and commercial o'clock, when most of the crowd be- The outgoing flood of grain is not ente, and hostile cries were raised. though more corn than wheat has the week, against 3,568,805 the previous little, closing three cents, higher for ... the week, after deliveries of surprising

Cotton goods have further declined circulars were also found scattered in Railway earnings reported for two weeks of December are 10.5 per cent. in the discretion of the court having garding Gen. Pando's operations in the slightly below those of 1892, east-of the Navy, she greatly admired her. now instead of waiting till they reached States, or of which the United States signal for the total destruction of this A Western Engineer Has a New n. a well-known civil engineer, has start-the Nicaragua Canal as a business ishable as such; provided that nothing -The rebels raided Encrucijada, a proposition with what he believes is a one of the engineers of the Calons drainage canal and is a ship champion. He has been prominent connection with ship canal projects connect the lakes with the gulf and the Atlantic Ocean. He has interested Havana, Dec. 27.—La Lucha has pub. F. Cragin, and with several civil ca-

puts a new aspect on the mystery and nearly a year past resided in the Unit. which President Cleveland made the which will be heard with sincere re- ed States, has cabled to the Govern- ground for opposing government aid to gret by all the friends and well wishers | ment his acceptance of a post in the the canal will be found to be exag-Rumors which have been circulated The party will go unhampered by al-

Klondike Passengers.

New York, Dec. 27.-The steamer 'lyn on Jan. 5, one of the most fully equipped vessels which have yet been secured for the Alaska transportation trade. She has been acquired by the Norristown, Pa., Dec. 27.—A trolles brought about. Kerosene was distrib- upon information furnished him from her passengers will jobs at Scattles.

If the word of a "payminent Swatch. Houlton, Me., Dec. 27.—Gov. Powera Micial in true, Emperor William Christian Temperance Union's executive committee a protest against the rushed Greece, and now, by signed by all the State officers and