has expended $5,000,000 for a speed- | deal more of the world and its inhabitway for fast horses, and now it is habited that bare cabin. But why She couldn't talk about nothin' else all his prepared to spend $80,000 for a speedway for bicycles. Plans have been | ... drawn for such a speedway along the road connecting the Bronx and Pel- i. the entire population. Carriage riders | ... have their speedway.

about prosperity in Chicago. According to the Inter-Ocean, the number of people in the poorhouse is less by the It was a year ago. The number of of caraway seed.

Walking into the village church, the village church, the walks of that barn-like edifice this talk what it seemed on the surface, was to quick for me that time, but I was to quick f 300 than it was a year ago. The num- odor of caraway seed. for many years. The estimates of gun, as, of course, she was; if not, why looking Southerners were desperately which he had brought down only for by the A-sociated Charities. These did it save its possessor from rude pooty decent kind of a feller." What nothin," was the reply. Then, after facts go to show, as the Inter-Ocean tastes. Well, Jack was sure the whole could be be up to? Well, the most standing silent on the lank a moment, gays, that there has been a general re- | ..

scheme of the German Kaiser to sell guessed the bees could stand it, too. the Sultan of Turkey guns and build | him war ships to be paid for out of the porte to build up its independe startled by an apparition of the young their feelings." ence of European control on the basis and saw that it was no apparition at all, "I didn't 'llow that you." of late victories in war and diplomacy but the man in his real person, with a mean—no siree—not a bit of it," was a hunter in so much of a hurry that he —has been nipped in the bud by Rus. Very real gun. Jack had a gun of his the reply. "It sint you I'm afraid of could not stop to look at another hun-

company at Monte Carlo is a matter portance—the impoverishment of men didn't mind." devil is extremely fond of it."

BY JOHN HABBERTON.

boat at all? There was no way for her smokin'." to reach such luck unless she were some I day to marry a man in the honey busito throw herself away on that stupid, | | what was what. Wouldn't she make &] . village-even if she | further, an' that you don't go to makin'

m. odor of caraway seed.

Nothing of that sort could hapnen, though, if she siready was one could, Jack was sure, who saw her wondered as he dashed into his cabin to his cabin.

"Here!" shouted Jack, as the visitor was going ashore. "Won't you have something to keep the chills off?" Jack was really what no locally into his cabin to his cabin. gone on that infernal fellow with a loften. He had heard that some simpledid she rush out so wildly to stop him | crafty, and it was plain to Jack's pract | medicinal purposes, what any inhabitant as he went along and bring him into | ticed eye that this fellow, in spite of his of his native village would have thought the house? Beauty did not imply rude exterior, was no fool; had he not had they seen him offer apy one a drink brains—he had learned this long ago in | discovered, through his own unaided in- | that was stronger than water. his home studies of heredity; neither telligence, that Jack himself was "a "Much obliged, but I don't ever take affair was none of his business, and, if straightforward course was the best, the visitor remarked: he could not get it out of his head. Darticularly with a man who always where it seemed determined to stay, he carried a gun, and was astir so early in man." would have himself towed up the river | the morning. Money is the true king, exclaims | ahead of time, and get away from such | afford to rush the season a little.

> CHAPTER II. ried into the cabin, slipped a cartridge warm, natural, in haste to proceed to bloody work, for | like the rest of 'em; she thinks so, any

The man with the gun raised his head. ' saw Jack and shouted:

He seemed to approve of what he | her house again. When I find myselt 'illowed I'd take a look at it if you But as for that girl, I again give you my word that I won't see her again. Evidently, then, the man with the gun | The visitor dropped Jack's hand and equandering of millions not the prop- he had spent the night with them. The That'll be awful hard on her.

was so close a friend of the family that his face grew long as he sighed: ' treated as her equal! Jack wanted . much more work about it than in carry-hwoods. Bo Jack enlarged a little upon

"You 'pear to be a pooty decent kind pervice has ranged from $15,000 to measure poorty quick. There's all: sorts fore, to the man whole he beared she the proper time—try to make the original to 1000 000 a month. The best witnesses come along, some by land and some by her lover. Now that he learned she the proper time—try to make the girl here by a break in the levee, an' Sam 1. on a little rise of ground that the water 1.

"Sam could have done a good deal |. attempted to take a girl away from anbetter for himself, in the money way, said the visitor, "if he hadn't been so tion owner back of the river has offered "That don't make no difference," said him. If a felier has got that sort of | should be think of her being on a bee- last night while me an' the old man was stuff in him good and solid, he gits more "You must have got two men mixed, The old gal's just as sweet an' pooty in .

' to go over agin what she said, 'cause | after a buck that I saw in the

and emerged with a flask of brandy Satan for appearing in different guises,

"I'm not," said Jack. "I never touch . "My friend." said Jack, "I give you 'liquor except when I am sick." business. I like the people I've met found you was a drinkin' man." along the river, and the young woman "Sav." shouted Jack, as the man the you have been talking about is a very grain started away, "are you sure you morning, with a light and aching head, charming girl, but I've a mother and have plenty of cartridges? Is your,

"I didn't 'llow that you'd do anythin' | The visitor returned. Was there ever |

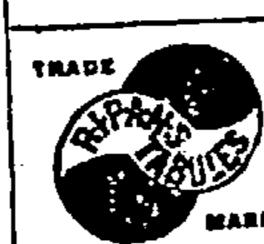

ONE GIVES RELL

Medicine until you have tried

ABUDDES.

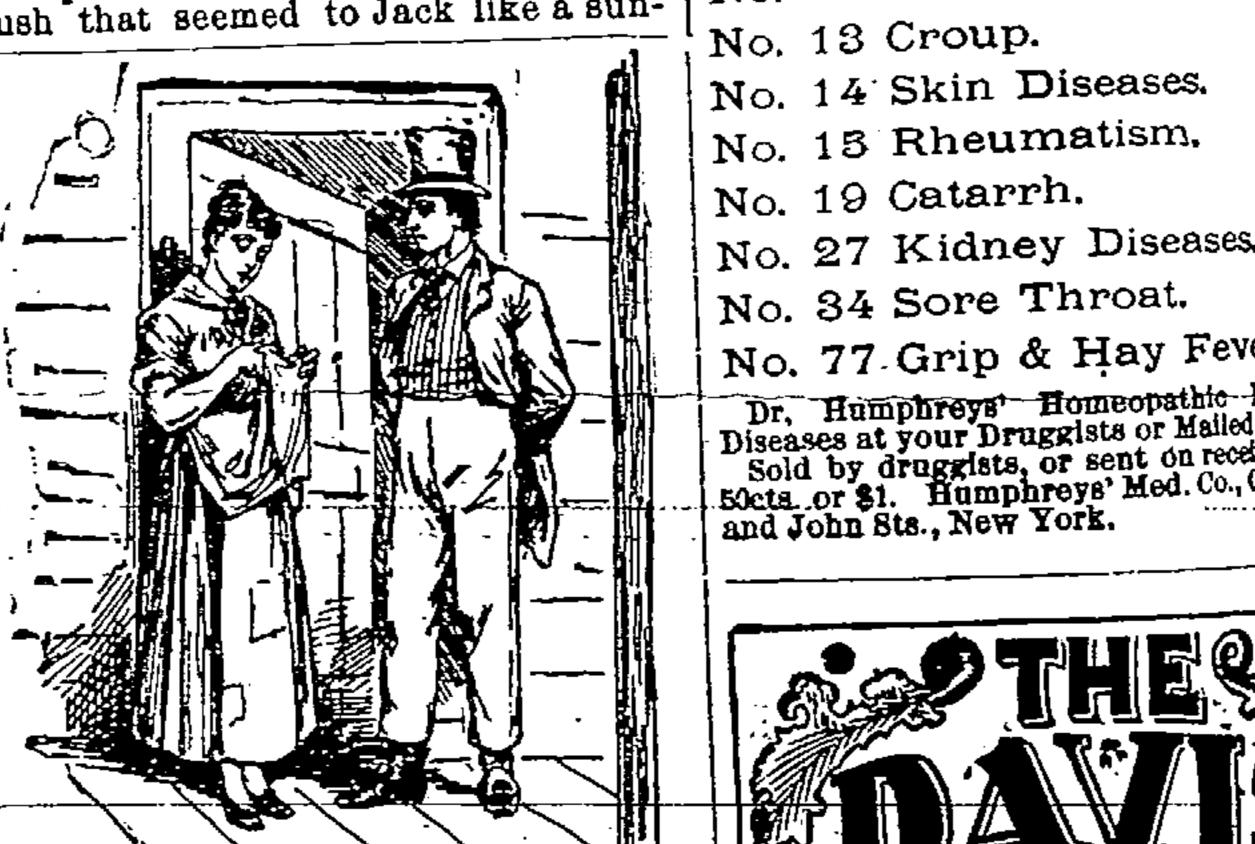

Ten Tabules for Five Cents.

If you don't find this sort of

| Spruce St., New York, and they will be sent to you by mail: 1 12 cartons will be mailed for 48 cents. The chances are tent

the afternoon, and the girl stood in the doorway. It was the same girl; a trifle | No. "Pop ain't home," said she with a blush that seemed to Jack like a sun-

blush became the glory of the celestial 'Popknows I'm perfectly able to take thin' to you somethin' strictly 'tween would question his informant farther, had seen for about half an hour-no were demanding fresh flowers, and there there is an information of the best is the best in the bes long that it has not yet ended.

General Merriam

and quickly built up a large and lu- |crative practice. In the campaign 1 1875 Mr. Griggs first entered the politman. He was such a favorite that his ome to Dawson from down the | campaign, was regarded as a distinct | -

he middle of June or first of July, majority. He was twice re-elected. As words which give ground for general and experience. a delegate to the National Republican | belief that it is near at hand, is a mat-to start up as soon as the river but all the food on board them last year. required at Minock, Fort Yu-Weare and Bella are in winter. 's at Circle City, and must go to hael for loads after the ice . They cannot return here be-The time in Auguts. The month Yukon cannot be entered from . und by other steamers en at of ice floes before about July .

Food Supply Insufficient.

vana Likely to Give a Diplomatic Ex-known desire of a large number to take the avoided. It is as certain that he neglecting any step which the national Interests or honor may demand. Above 'all, he does not wish this country to be , l put before the world as the aggressor. He wishes it to-become plain to all that

Mr. Hitt's statement is interpreted to some form, and in a form where he will |

ne Phelps for Vice-President of the Unit- have inquired have ascertained that foreign countries and to questions o. by Governor-Leon of the island represent a condition of eign relations the following questions but declined. He was elected affairs as to general desolation, suff will receive attention: Establishment of the State of New Jersey | ferings, cruelty, starvation and the of sample warehouses, restoration of of law. These things are rapidly turning Re- | The tariff problem, the proper adjust-

The President is fully alive to the and Industry by the Government, uni- publican party. hearing of the President recently that | ternal waterways. trouble was precipitated in Havana. message at any time. So far as sur-

I eral Lee has advised the Government, the appointments of a personal staff, to be in readiness for anything which the United States.

well-founded charge of aggression Congress should not embarrass him.

ed in the shaft of the Bonne Esperance | hat and kid gloves, knelt up. ed in the shaft of the Bonne Esperance grave of his wife in Forest Home Cemmine at Wasnes, in Hainaut, the cable
mine at Wasnes, in Hainaut, the cable senate does not want to do two
at once,

were dashed to pieces.

Italy After Hayth.

ons. He will state that the two great upply here is entirely inadequate e people until that time. Very e people until that time e people until that time. Very e people until that time e people until that time. Very e people until that time e people e people e people until that time e people e people until that time e people e pe e people until that time. Very Senator, and was elected by a large may be, which Mr. Hitt announced in ment of men lacking in qualifications to the end of ment of men Among the many topics to be dis- The resolution itself is a concurrent late James M. McCutcheon. She was

Senator Lodge did not leave Wash- ers of reputation will be present and

-Police Prove Powerless.

t | streets. A squadron of chasseurs was | ordered to the place and charged the voting. 1 Lee had been assas- reformed further on, cheering for the Thursday before adjournment as the

of the New York, Indiana, Mas- | ing us!" "Death to the Jews!" and sworn to avenge them.

... Senator Guay Explains.

olely, and not for political rea- bate on the subject, they wished postpone a vote in order to give the Western Benators time to fully understand the situation. It is stated b. a prominent Western Republican Senator that when the vote is taken a tion who voted for its consideration will vote against the final passage of

had been challenged by Secretary Gage. beforehead that the Senate would not Senators' Teller, Stewart and 1 them to support any administration bill. Although the vote has a political Congressional elections, the passage of | He seemed as full of spirits and buoy-cussed at this convention will be sub- one and does not have to be signed by the widow of Charles W. Collier, only people here have been calculated instead the Honorable William Walter the arrival of steamers by June the arrival of steamers by June the William Walter the Unit have inquired have accertained that the President. The Stanley Matthews son of Judge F. H. Collier. She is 40 ed States. He was offered a Supreme our consular reports from all portions home industry. To further our for- was also a concurrent resolution, and t opinion by Congress. It had no force complete failure of autonomy, even the American merchant marine and At the opening of the Senate's sesworse than the press reports indicate. restoration of treaties of reciprocity. sion yesterday Senator Quay said that The change in this respect is rapid and matter of obtaining new markets for asked him to do so. This, Mr. Quay gentleman's third wife, his second havmost decided. Nothing but implicit American products will be thoroughly said, was not true in any sense, as he had not conferred with the Missouri The subjects of home interest to be | Senator about it. He had voted as he |

ment of a Department of Commerce | would benefit the country and the Refication of railroad freight rates, the After some routine business Mr. has been the custom of the Senate this proper enforcement of the uniform Lodge (Mass.) moved that the Senate begin to-day, and will last for six days. bankruptcy law recently adopted by go into executive session. "Before that When Senator Lodge remarked in the Congress, and the improvement of in- motion is put," said Mr. Vest, "Mr.

President, I desire to make a brief | Marshall at Sutter's Mill. Governor he intended going to Massachusetts to A very important feature of this con-statement. I gave notice Thursday Budd has announced that to-day will. ne intended going to manual the Expend Saturday and Sunday, the Expend Saturday and Sunday, the Expendion will be the annual banquet, that the resolution reported by the be a legal holiday, and the celebration which will take place at the magnification. Finance Committee, would be further will be opened with a grand pageant. cent Waldorf-Astoria Hotel Thursday considered to-day, but Senators op- in which representatives from all or-

tunity to address the Senate on the resolution to-day or on Monday, and he promised that he would not make a Mr. Allsion (Iowa) had no objection to the arrangement suggested by the The | Senator from Missouri (Vest), but suggested that it was likely an amend

Turple: of Indiana, suggested,

REV. T. DE WITT TALMAGE.

The bride was arrayed in a gorgeous 1 L. I., where the courtship which culminated five months ago in a formal

CALIFORNIA GOLD JUBILEE.

A Week of Festivities in Which the Whole Country Will Participate. San Francisco, Jan. 24.—The cele-

" said Jack, with a whole gamut ! terly ridiculous, the discomfort he had " said the acuter. "we have suffered in abandoning that girl, whom season, so as not to waste time.

tary singling out of a single man-

"Are you joking?" asked the girl, with better acquainted with him, so that she and friends; all he could say was that schaffe, some Hebrew flour stores were pillaged Platt has been assailed on al sides. the Napa Valley. Most of

The MH was sent to committee dangerous journey.