We wish also to thank our merchants for their aid in using our col umns to advertise their wares. They have learned that if they sell their goods they must tell the people what they have in store, and they realize too that such telling must not be spasmodic, but must be kept constantly before them. A newspaper is the best as well as the most economical medium of advertising, and the News is recognized as the best paying paper for such work in this section.

It is up-hill work to attempt to run mewspaper without money. Our bills have to be paid within a limited time after receiving the goods.
