County Publishers' Meet.

The Allegany County Publishers' Association met, in pursuance to a call of the President, W. F. Benjamin, in the Reporter building at Wellsville on Friday, Aug. 18th.

At the close of the morning session, the members of the fraternity were called from "labor to refreshment," and those sitting down to the tables, overloaded with viands calculated to supply the inner man.

After dinner, the business of the meeting was resumed, and on motion Mrs. G. W. Fries, Mrs. V. A. Willard and Mrs. Judson Howden were appointed a committee to draft resolutions in acknowledgment of the hospitality of our entertainers.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Editorial Association, held at the rooms of the Wellsville Daily Reporter, Aug. 18th, 1898, the following resolution was presented through a committee, and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we extend our hearty thanks to Mrs. E. W. Barnes and sons for the very courteous and hospitable entertainment furnished to the company present upon this occasion.

Mrs. G. W. FRIES, Mrs. J. L. HOWDEN, Mrs. V. A. WILLARD, Com.

The Krusen-Mead Reunion

The Krusen-Mead reunion occurred in Andover on Thursday, Aug. 18th, 1898, and notwithstanding the day was a rainy one, about ninety persons were present.

After dinner, an interesting program was presented, consisting of music, recitations, etc. The address of welcome made by Joseph Krusen, and responded to by Hon. Norman Arnold of Ridgeway, Pa., are particularly worthy of mention.

Mrs. Helen Hover, of Bolivar, conducted a memorial service in honor of the five members who have died during the past year.

Mrs. Isaac Krusen, of Stanards, read the following poem written for the occasion:

We who are traveling down the lane of life, with wisdom learned in toil and strife, Again beneath the Mead and Krusen tree, Salute the reunited family.

And as we look upon their garnered grain, We feel that life is good, but death is gain.

To younger hands and stronger hearts and free, Must leave the keeping of the Krusen tree.

And to the spreading branches of our tree, Shall bless through time and in eternity.

All pronounced the reunion a very enjoyable time.

BISHOP QUIGLEY SPOKE

Meeting of Father Walsh's Parishioners to arrange for the Lawn Fete.

The meeting of Father Walsh's parishioners, held at the corner of Herkimer and Albany streets recently was unusual in point of numbers and enthusiasm manifest. The new pastor has taken a firm hold on the hearts of his people already and it is evident that the new parish will, before long, be thoroughly established.

The bishop spoke at length, explaining the necessity of the division, his regret at severing long connections, congratulated the members on the good will they had shown, told how hard it had been to get Father Walsh to take hold of the work and how much harder it would be to make him let go of it.

The various committees handed in their reports, and all show a most encouraging prospect for the coming lawn fete. The music will be furnished by a string orchestra and also Scinta's Band of 25 pieces. Some of the best vocal and instrumental music in the city will be present, with dancing, games and other features. It is expected that the fete will be one of the most successful and enjoyable ever held this season.--Buffalo Express.

ROCKWELL'S NEW STORE

Truly Metropolitan in Design. Furnishings and more to Wellsville.

The handsome big double store, built by Mr. L. W. Rockwell for the use of the Rockwell Bros.' well known Wellsville establishment, was opened to the public at noon Friday.

Located just about in the center of town, 35 feet wide by 100 long, and two stories high, it is truly an ideal business establishment. The handsome and modern furnishings and fixtures, ample lighting on three sides and commodious accommodations for all departments of the immense business, will be a blessing alike to the trading public, the obliging force of clerks and the justly proud proprietors.

The ground floor is given up wholly to dry goods, while the second floor is devoted to the carpet, cloak and millinery departments. In the basement is ample storage for surplus stock.

Wellsville is truly proud of this big, modern, business-like establishment and its enterprising proprietors, Messrs. L. W. and H. H. Rockwell.--Wellsville Reporter.

Teachers' Training Classes

Another year has the Wellsville Training Class surpassed all the other Training Classes of this Commissioner's District, both in the number of certificates earned in the June (1898) examination, and in the percentage of accepted papers. Fall begins Aug. 29th. None can be admitted to the Training Class after Sept. 12th.

L. W. CRAIG, A. M., Principal.

Why wouldn't it be a good idea for the Board of Water Commissioners to consider the matter of extending the water line to and on Bundy street, as there are a number of residents on said street who have to pay water tax and have no fire protection.

Old newspapers in any quantity may be had at this office.
