Episcopal clergyman is it. improve the vocal utterances of me ministers.

teeps growing. It is estimated now, 10,000,000, a sum that will come sear, to cleaning out the fortune so house of Leiter is thus bowed low in , aumiliation and financial distress by the son who was its pride, it is sud-I here, in this strange place?" denly flooded with glory by the asthrone of India. The Leiter family is | not get excited, the doctor says. one for which Dr. Schenk's idea would have no charms, says the New York Journal.

The details of the journey of the safely at Manila, will unquestionably -7 first awakening to consciousness. San Diego on June 11, the Monterey August 4, she thus took just about five weeks to cover the 5000 and more agutical miles from Hawaii.

As a result of the recent conviction | senger her father had sent for her had of a sailor for stealing the signalling- | imparted to her-that he alone. phatically worded note on the subject | of her young life, all hopes of establishhas been issued by the admiralty to | ing her identity, of finding her father. | in the olden days when it had been a the commander of every English man- with no claim upon her past life, and now blighted, of-war The stolen book was one of the mystery of her true identity was a under feet. a series which are never supposed to be even seen by any one but the com- | heat beat anxiously as she thought o. mander and the officer next in rank, him. How he would worry over her treachery and faithlessness. and as a consequence each command. | She must write to him, to her dear friend er is informed in the note just issued | Beatrice Mercer, at once. No. she re-1 sponsible for the perservation of the of her old friends until she saw her secrecy of such volumes. The stolen stather. It might mean peril-trouble book happened to be out of date, but her situation fretted her whose manufacturing industries are gratefully. "I can never forget you— | ness of a plighted lover, had crushed | ance, plunged forward. known to be declining. The manu- never cease to love you, but—I am go- all the joy and hope out of her fresh i factures, moreover, are very few and animportant, and the entire number | Blake. terger than that of a half-dozen of the | happy, happy home. Please do not | her sweet nature kept her from utter | principal manufacturing cities in New | question me, but I must go. Spain imports twice the the next morning. The farmer drove A barren path the future, but she cotton goods and four times the silk her over to the railroad station. In the must tread it alone. She must make ports are made chiefly to the Spanish | placed, no one recognized her as the | dregs the cup His hands had tendered. which the market has supposed victim of the bridge disaster, without sigh or moan. greatly fallen off. Spain is rich in | not heard of. Edna had a few dollars | her girlhood's love-dream as a shat- | "please help me. Mercy! it cannot iron, lead, zine copper and quicksil- in her pocket. She bought a ticket tak- tered stately palace, hoping that fate cial location might supply the Mediterranean countries with manufactures and have little competition.

Ever since the Russian admiralty de | ing of what she should do. Bomething ish quarter at the former port. Ache can show that he has been previ- strange student. landed property. Since then, owing to the rapid commercial and industrial enthority that on the impending re [tul of making a mistake, but I must see] That was Mrs. Blake's cheery wel- give him a terr ble scare. turn of the naval headquarters the Raymond. Who else can I appeal to come, and it warmed and comforted the taw previously referred to is to be put Dublously, undecidedly, Edna walked They asked no questions, but the eat. I like everything in all the round fiscation of property, but enormous was eminently proper, and for the best. other themes, as the days went by. beases will be made inevitable by comher less. If it was a servant, she would Edna had settled down into a life peace. what I can be cannot get.

tooking man, and the former was say

Mr. Marshall is waiting for us.

door of a darkened room drew her to its dog. Bruno, trotted placidly behind. suite occuried by Beatrice Mercer. The Blake, the farmer's wife, stroked Edna the senses, her old fever returned. 'No. for just then came the solemn.

"And you, Raymond Marshall, do take port, peering, horrified, pulsating, she of their finding her that weird snowy She saw Raymond Marshall start. innocent face-how, if she was homearrived at Honolulu June 24, and left less, friendless, they would gladly make look in the scene as the crowning tab- where is the road?" room for her in their home and their leau of a set of scenes in her young hearts, bereft only a short year since by life that had brought wreck, heart-They asked her no questions as she hopes.

grew stronger daily, and Edna did not l lall of a heap. Its leaves were green

She had been cast upon the world alone, trysting-place Her life seemed ebbing, her heart Her | was breaking, her vision shrank ap-"Oh, let me die." wailed the unhappy burying her face in her hands in an agony of heart-break, "for Raymond

IN PERIL By the old oak tree Edna Deane A week passed by. She was strong fallen over the scene. once more. All one day Edna reflected

Those silent, anguished hours, how- half stunned her. Dimly realizing that "Going away!" sighed the kindly Mrs. Reluctantly they bade her good-by still before her.

I to her attire and a heavy veil to conceal I nary. She would try to get word to from her lips how to bear her cruel burreside at a first-class naval port, unless | Beatrice. Finally, she addressed a den and suffer in silence. Miss Mercer had left the seminary two bass. The one glaring fact confronted Then Raymond—she must find him Hopedale to see her lover wed another. l now. She could tell him everything. No excuse of time, of absence could the Jews at Nicolaieff to buy and hold! While he endeavored to get some trace | condone such speedy transfer of affec- {

of her father, she would return to the tion. He was shallow-hearted, disloyal, travel. I generally take a little French. here supposed to coal and provision by falling to the ground Blakes and make her home with them insincere, and she, Beatrice, a schem- and a little German, and a little En- at Kingston. Jamaica, but they have Sulphur and fire were tried It was just dusk when she finally rango ing siren. development of the town, the Jews at the door-bell of the Marshall resi- Mercy, child! how white and fright-A servant informed her that Mr. Mar/ heaven! you have come back. John mistion in all kinds of immovable shall was not at home. He had gone to has been so lonesome for another sight | dialects and give him a dose. It is sure property. It is now stated on good the hotel with his father, the colonel of your bonnie face, that he hasn't cat, to strike somewhere. If you cannot british cruiser was lying in nort. "What shall I do? Oh! I am so fear- | slept or smiled since you went away."

into active operation. The result will towards the village hostelry. It was keen motherly eye of the farmer's wife of diet except animated cheese and be that at least one-third of the twelve | quite duck, and she was very tired seemed to intuitively take in a true con- odorous codfish; always have a good ap- New a man at once to see what that endless chains for: or thirteen thousand Jews now resi. Wechanically, almost, she ascended state of a lairs, and without actually in or thirteen thousand Jews now resi. Mechanically, almost, she ascended state of a lairs, and without actually in or thirteen thousand Jews now resi. Mechanically, almost, she ascended state of a lairs, and without actually in or thirteen thousand Jews now resi. Mechanically, almost, she ascended state of a lairs, and without actually in or thirteen thousand Jews now resi. We have a lair of the lair dent at Nicolaien will be expelled. In the stairs leading to the ladies' partor, bruding on Edna's grief, she spoke many was eminestly proper and for the heat.

The sound of voices through the open est direction of the lines; the carriage bunch of "floaters" that included his. threshold. It was the parlor of the She could think in these peaceful drives, brooding once in a while over the past. | mit of his squaring himself with h

> Blake farm attracted her attention, his rival in an alleyway shortly after - Mrs. Blake had a hobby of pressing | ant soldier was a bit m.

She kept wandering through the little "Dear!" she uttered with a little start.

with a slight thrill of dismay that dusk | hands of the angry civilians. t quite a distance from the spot she had , pearance of the faithful animal in respouse to such a call was lacking. ing sight of the towers of a pretentious covered barrier until she came t All was silent and forbidding about York Sun.

the old structure, but there was evidence of occupancy in the curtained | windows, and she fancied she caught some distance away. "I will find some one about the house land inquire my way to the road," relin- | ill-kept garden, once so nearly falling | into a trap with great extending jaws. | taneously, on both sides, the charge evidently set for tramps or thieves, that will ask her. Mercy!

Thrice the cry rang out, with all the

I have fallen here," cried Edna; at the face that looked down upon her For its fair, false owner was-Beat-

TO BE CONTINUED |

How Talmage Does It warning about the mystery that clouded the name. Home was where loving ingly annoyed at the r lack of skill in infantry of his advance guard, and auarters of the Black Sea squadron at her father's life impelled her to secreey hearts encompassed quiet, even duties, the use of the European languages, know to a slight extent what he is demight tell the kind hearted farmer's stand French they swear at him in Enold prescriptions into one bottle-the oil, and the calomel, and the rhubarb. and the assafætida-and when he found tle and give him a dose. And so I have with us without grossly violating the insects routed the workmen. compounded a language for European glish, with a few snatches of Chinese done so all the same. Here is a story the steeple had been set and Choctaw, and when I find a stubborn ened you look. But, never mind. Thank | case of waiter or landlord who will not understand. I simply shake up all the I never had the anxiety of some in a "I suppose it is coaling, sir." replied strange land about getting things to the first officer.

a sad reverle to find that the short after- | the running guard had an army pistol, I strapped around his waist. It was the The sight of a flaming bush of a va- luck of the soldier who had shown however, and she alighted from the he set out on his trailing. The recre variety. Here they seemed to grow in | my soldiers all over the Pacific slope.

She penetrated the brambly jungle in thus unnecessarily had to clear out to ress of Groninguen.—. two directions with no success, noting keep himself out of trouble, at the

Death on Swiss Soil

lers by railway, and produces J. Empress Elizabeth, has fallen mortal risk incurred by a sails senger, the walker in the street our pain and indignation are against a secret discussion of the progreater owing to the foul crime | tocol. to encounter twelve chances of The two cavalries approach each death.—Blackwood's Magazine been committed on Swiss terri-

The Safety of Fast Trains shock of the news crazed one sees its working (on an Engli) ' for the first time, the rule of \ people of Austria and Hungapeak emerges through a hatch heell staying at Darmstadt.

"mperor's fortitude is the topic |

Ssing Prince von Liechtenstein

al of the imperial housethe crime and to consider the

from military service.

the late Empress Elisabeth.

Crown Princess Stephanie.

A royal decree issued vesterday susoends the Hungarlan military maneu-

..... admiration. He is bearing Friends of Assassin Arrested. despite the terrible shock. wiew of his age, had inspired Swiss. His application papers, however, he withdrew last Monday.

AUNON'S DEFENSE.

Minister of Marine Explains Cervera's Futile Attempt to Escape. MADRID, Sept. 12.—In the chamber deputies Saturday Captain Aunon minister of marine, replying to the a tacks of Senor Canalejas, editor vera was already at Santiago de Cuba by Senor Canaleias. rals met in council and expressed unanimous opinion that the squadron should go to Cuba. "Admiral Cervera, not having coal food, was unable," said Captain A single position when the town was A prominent senator having objected i rapidly establishing order in every de partment, where comparative chao more intimately concerning military government of Manila, a only recently has he been able to stu satisfy himself regarding the equit the insurgents' claims, so as to solve problem practically unapproached "Aguinaldo has persistently demanded, in terms not too polite, various in

City of Rome Will Sail Today With

The men at Seavey's island, when

| will be about eight days.

An Ultimatum to Turkey. the powers seem to have decided

Colonel Frank Rhodes, brother of Cecil | ed raid into the Transvaal, led by L.

themselves in the wrong with the Amer-remarkable energy and decision a occupation of the governor general's palace and other palaces, a written a surance that the insurgents will be per-

With Schley's Commission.

Provinces-Aguinaldo's Impossible Largely by Correspondence-Many Demands-Wants's Share of the Official Calls—Havens Gives the -Proceeds of Mantin's Canters. Meselute a Warm Wolcome.

small armed steamers. The Spanish had on board Dr. Congosto, the secre held out valorously, but were fighting | tary general of the government; Gener al Solano, the chief of staff, representing At the expiration of the hour's con-

"Their motive has been twofold First | ference with the United States commis their hats and handkerchiefs. The American commissioners, accompanied by the Spanish officers representing Captain General Blanco, landed full uniform, received the commissioners in the reception room, where, after th i formal presentations had taken place cellar of a grocery store at 1440 Fourth . thev sat down and conferred street last night surely four and possi-I for about 20 minutes. The Spanish com-I sion the building where it occurred and I lier sat General Parrado, and next to Captain Hart, the official interpreter. The captain general addressed mmissioners in English. He asked the palace accompanied by General driven to the Machina wharf, opposite | lowed by the collapse of that structure | to their homes. the wreck of the Maine, where they took lunch before returning to the Resoompanied by a Spanish officer. to the captain of the port, after which Most of the commission's business Senor Manuel Giranta has been pinted secretary of the Spanish

The first session was held vesterds morning in compliance with the protocol's 30 day limit. The Americans arrived at the Camara Insular about halfpast 8 and-were received with characmissioners. The session was held in There was no excitement, and ouse was very small and entirely derly and respectful. There is a guard around the building and also on both Agreement Between Otis and Rios. day and night duty at the Machina wharf, where the commissioners lai overnor of the Visayas islands and ad from the Resolute.

played host with the stately, court hospitality for which they are famous rented by the provincial govern- turned to the Resolute.

they secure it by mandamus against Venuvius Again In Eruption. the secretary of state to compel that sure to serve-Dr. W. W. Keen ertain sense, as a call to arms

A FATAL EXPLOSION

Persons Killed.

lonse's shoe store. The west wall

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

cupled Fashoda, on the west bank of t teaders that the Chicago platform would Sick Soldiers Sent to New York.

CAMP-WIKOFF. Montank Point.

left for New York last night with

A French force is believed to have oc-about 10 years old.

Offy About Ton Thousand No In Line-Veluntees field. General Manderson and Colonel James A. Sexton, and perhaps Professor

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—This tity

Sent Rome After the P

rade Is. Over

se troops will be dispersed. The little doubt as to his sincerity of puspose of being mustered out, the regulars? ing sent to the posts to which they we Messis, Lamont and Gordon, Demo-In running over the list of Porto General Schofield has always been Rican troops available for the parade understood to be Republicans. Professor Gilman is a Democrat. Members of the | from 1,500 to 2,000 in all.

which he will recommend to congress desirable legislation for the reorganiza to the foot of the bridge, where they can disembark.

The men arriving from Porto Rico would be compelled to remain several days on the transports some distance

Three Buildings Wrecked and Four While it was intended primarily that the review should be principally of the such a march, the plan was necessarily or will not arrive in time for the pa-

Owing to the absence of these soldiers + General Miles said Saturday night that it was possible there might not even be this number. While General Miles would them to excuse any mistakes which he | ham; a 10-month-old child named Gold- | veterans present at a review and receive all the honors due them. he ts The fourth body was that of a girl | firm in the conviction that they should be sent to their homes as rapidly as | Solano and Dr. Congosto. They were | diately blown out, and this was fol- | ready landed have been sent at once furniture store, and 1446, Louis Sal- | tery, an Illionis battery and other men list of injured will be long. They were I in New York, and the latter said that Wikoff would be able to take part in the

After the recovery of the four bodies day, thus obviating the dangers and Montauk, but should go directly to their I homes. They would be transported to

A TOWN WIPED OUT.

stroyed by Fire. ANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 12.-New Westminster, the chief city on the not a public building standing in the Fanned by a fierce wind, almost: gale, the fire, which was started on the A gift representing $1.500.000 has been | mark the spot where scores of here Hundreds of people are homeless, and relief is being rushed from this city.

Two newspaper offices are gone, well as the Canadian Pacific. Failings! station, three river steamers, a railway bridge and a number of private houses. V., Sept. 12.-The steamer Shinnecock t is also feared that some lives have been lost. The telegraph office at New 200 'tween 200 and 300 sick for New York Westminster has been burned burned city is 12 miles from here. M. Ecks. Company E. Eighth Ohio:

Bepublican Convention at Const.

C. Math Massachusetta: David mously renominated for meaning

CHAPTER XIV.

Deane's brow as she spoke, and vive her well-nigh exausted vitality.

the death of their own darling child.

No claim, save one-Raymond!

and the train whirled her away.

Since then, in dose and delirium.

fication, and anxiety.

There, there, dear! don't be alarmed. You've just woke up from a nice, long Raymond! No. no! it was all true. Oh! where am I? Who are you? How came "You are among kind, true friends, pillows, moaning with weakness, mysti- | other, she fancied, bending tenderly to-'startled charge sank back among the 'est Farmer John had dragged her from the snowdrift at his cottage door, ran for the doctor, and, with his solicitous gyman: wife, had worked all night long to repoor child had lain, and this was the enlighten them. It seemed as if a pall. never to be lifted, hung over her young life. She remembered all that the mes-| placed her at the seminary years agone, membered all her guide had told her. Is false! false! ' seriously. That night, glancing lovingly only vaguely conscious of her surat the faces of her kind friends, she told | roundings. "You have been like an own father her heart had broken and the cruelty of a treacherous friend, the faithless-

ever. could not endure forever. Like the hole covered over with branches, I will return, then I may be glad of your | but it fainted not. The rare purity of I despair. She was crushed, but duty lay !

and bedraggled attire had been re- tender heart; she must drain to the an event strangely that Mr. Blake had ing her half way to Hopedale, kissed | would lead her to the father whose love to write or return within a few days, hours of darkness and gloom, she arose lat last, and with set, silent face, turned

At the terminus she sold her watch. her steps away from Hopedale, she be- | rice Mercer! This gave her ample means to continue lileved, for the last time and forever. her journey. All the way she was think- | She reached the railroad town across hand I in the memory of her guide's strange home. Home! Yes, her heart thrilled at reached Hopedale at noon she trusted Mrs. Blake would receive her as a Ladies Home Journal. After a vain atfriend, as a daughter, and some day she

She haunted the vicinity of the semi- wife her sad, pitter story, and learn | glish. But I have always remembered and appalled her—she had arrived at !

Footsteps on the stairs brought her to Thus if was that in less than a week ative of Louis XVI., and wh knowledged as such by King y hirry years ago, when the

a amonth he deserted.—New

______ A Modern Cavalry Charge. gallop is given, and closer and closer The old brigadier is in his sabre so as to keep them steady Suddenly and simul- t other like thunderbolts, each man pressed on by those in the rear; the into the first, and then—they meet. The bursting of the two waves renders one mighty crash to heaven. ' pall of death all knowledge of events is lost. The cloud sways backward and forwards for full five minutes reserves spies an opening; then in Thus it chanced once to - goes, and the enemy is literally hurled back. The victors stagger forward, which came out for target pr reeling like a drunken man. l was walking with the pa have recovered; our officers are liter- offense, on the sacred started formation, shouting, absolutely message from the Captain, shricking with excitement the while on deck, though not on the

The result, they have opened out a war would speedily become a

A Manifestation of English Friendship.

neutrality hiws. Our ships have not whom had narrow escapes work on a new church spire

Leveling the Alps. a fork, and "eine serviette" a napkin, or two himself, and then returns. after that I feel perfectly reckless as to presents himself to his captain

NAPLES, Sept. 12.—There is a distinct Secretary of State Leasur has refused which is the legal Populist party.