rights to be remembered.

United States census returns. Cloth- | disgrace by wedding her. of $9,000,000, Baroness Burdett-Coutts, the Duchess i of Sutherland and others, recently read papers denouncing the methods employed which ruin the health of the workers. The duchess, in fact, made ] a threat that she would secure some of the victims and drive them through; the streets of London so the public sould see what phosphorous poisoning did for a human being.

shock of the perfect recognition, L ever, had blinded, confused him. South African trade reports during had disappeared, and in his excitement I he ran the wrong way, got lost in inexthe last fiscal year indicate emphatically that the United States has large | tricable side passages of the hotel, an | reached its street exit two minutes | | story of the fleeting form, and indicated colonies of South Africa. A glance, however, at the relative trade done by | peared. this country and Great Britain under emotions nor the strange situation i. yet begun to scratch around the marback to life with a great, feverish joy

The of our concentration in the com
The plant of the dead come back in the control of the back to life with a great, feverish joy

The control of the dead come back in the control of the bottle into the pit. They mingo), and interred in the cathedral. gin of our opportunities in the commercial world. The day cannot he | cinity. Edna Deane had come like . distant when we shall realize fully the | phantom and had disappeared like Importance of these opportunities and | flash. adapt our commercial spirit energetisally along the lines of definite ac- ). pomplishment, says the New York Commercial Advertiser.

i fever-pitch of augury and suspense. how he hat allowed his despair and others all at the bottom of the sea. the surrender of her colonial posses- a plot. The newspaper item was a he had found her at last. falsehood! The siren had again deluded mions. She has no means of protect- him. and now-he was chained to her. It seemed. With a sinking heart he lis- i wicked heart, ing them, and few of communicating | Be her illness simulation or reality, she | tened to the concerned matron as she she could not keep them-in fighting or , ` | all this drove him frantic. sailing order. She will be much bet. hate and excitement, he regained the ter off when confined to the limits o. ber peninsula. If she introduces there | should, at least, tell him the truth about | I Edna, and the mystery of her absence. ple to read and write, suggests the of the suite. A glance into the next shall, wildly. "Have you no idea where liner the hair the gentier the birth, or ing below were in momentary fear that yard, and a plentiful supply of the hair the h New York Tribune, a modest but father the false nurse, the strange minfairly prosperous career may still lie ister had departed, but there yet lingerbefore her-much more satisfactory longer the incumbent, white-faced dythen the one she is now forced too ing bride, but in all her usual regal

Admiral Palumbo, the new Italian | doctor the off the list of the active fleet all | the latter was saying, "but I cannot | the think which during the next naval | We will not think of that, however, had down by the navy regula--In addition, every effort is be-The browny can be effected without For instance, instead | ves assented the crafty Beatrice. "However little Raymond Marshall may terial will be employed. The older to do that. He will see me gradually commissioned to build four torpedobust destroyers, one will have a speed of third the other never sanctify even a marriage of door now. Her face flashed plainly, un-"It is she—alive!" he gasped.

Madly he rushed for the corridor.

A lounger at the door told an excitable

Jaded, perplexed, an hour later Ray.

His brow was black with suspicion

Edna was alive—he was satisfied on thought that Edna knew and understood boldness of beauty, sat Beatrice, coaversing animatedly with her tool and i

"Marshall has probably gone home."

"Yes." cried Beatrice, triumphantly.

other arrangements at once. As I un-care for me, he will call daily to inquire

In wild, flerce denunciation he terust for me. His sympathy will cause hin

Still posing as the dving invalid, my fondest hopes have succeeded."

mond Marshall started back for the mistakably, across his vision.

' can it be true?"

doorway into the next-room.

When Edna Deane glanced into the the poor, persecuted child of destiny her to tell how she had come there, then described as ignorant incapacity, room at the Hopedale Hotel where the | would not bring a truthful response

They may at marriage ceremony between the man from her false lips. Lured on by the deft manipulation of | the precious prize. She lingered at the retiremen. Dr. Simms and Beatrice Mercer, Raythe dying moments of the girl wao had | had him inquire everywhere for

| will win Raymond Marshall to your side | silence supervened, and poor Edna, The others did not see, the others did, I not mark, the vivid start, the quick pal-| appointed Beatrice. And that night she | tery in her agitated thoughts. sories, and noted women, such as the that it was a delusion of the senses, a manufacture and week and weekery. The sense of the senses, a mith has a sense of the senses, a mith has a sense of the senses, a mith has a sense of the sense of "Ethna!" he panted; and then, feeling | started back for the home where luxury | Beatrice had gone to her room in the reproachful, haunting visitation from the woman the memory of whose love could 1 | shall's love a failure.

Hopedale, she would have seen Rayfour hours after her departure. His voice rang out less vaguely now. It was no wraith—no trick of the senses. | She was at the threshold of that hall | Back at the starting-point of his investigation, ere he went to his home, he visited the hotel. He questioned the | sinister face. She dared not let Edna, "Miss Leslie," and in- | go free: it meant ultimate disaster to

"A sachel!" ejaculated Marshalleag-

Not stopping to analyze his vivid pointedly Marshall glanced over the mured. "I must 'which his acquiescence to the pleadings sachel an address, however, he decided | get her out, imprison her, or-I must that it might have belonged to Edna, | take time to think. If the fumes kill that it might possibly be a clue.

The address was that of a farmer, ohn Blake. The next afternoon. Raynond Marshall knocked at the door of the in her hand. She reached the pit the humble cottage that had sheltered his lost darling the night of the snow-To her it had been a haven of safety and peace, to him it became the portais | as she fancied she detected a rustling of a paradise of hope and love, as with:n | movement there.

remosthy to lead him into a net, he He could patch out all the mystery of Found her, however, to lose her again. was his legally wedded wife. The told him that Edna had been missing That day she had gone out for a drive. An hour previous the horse and phaeton room at the hotel. He would have an | had come home. Bruno jogging after, understanding with Beatrice! She | but no driver. Had Edua again fled—had she met "Oh! it cannot be, so near to finding I He paused as he reached the parlor her, to lose her again!" murmured Mar- known and accepted principle that the was whirling so fast that those watch er was placed under the tree apartment rooted him to the spot. His she went. Mrs. Blake?"

"Come here, good fellow!

' colleague in plotting, her cousin. the "Find your mistress!" urged the solic-With a sharp back. Bruno darted terition of battleships wherever | derstand it, you are to be removed to | hung the fate of the woman he loved.

CHAPTER XVII AT HER MERCY Edna Deane shrank back to the ed of the pit as she recognized the face o the person who had come in response

Duilio, will be examined and refitted will accept the situation, and my love recognition; a realization of the perfect wherever necessary. Besides all this, | will win him to forget Edna, and he will of her former friend, drove Edna to the German firm of Schices has been against him. . She sank to the side of the pit and "He knows it now!" "Who is there, I say?" demand truth about Edna's peril and Edna's |-She knew that Edna would

Beatrice's teeth closed with a vicious

Then she was gone, and darkness and shrinking, trembling, awaited her fa'e,

She had a hard problem to study out. and it was perplexing her. Edna Deane, Mr. Ralston asserted that she was an . Darker and flercer glowed the basilisk

She proceeded, finally, to another room. In one corner of it was a large There was a strange woman here. She I doors, she revealed row after row 'sat in the ladies' parlor, but she disap- | phials and bottles, evidently the medi-However, we cine use by the invalid Ralston. A large bottle, bearing the label "chloroform." attracted her attention, and I she took it up, thoughtfully. "I have only a short time to act, for the servants will soon return." she mur-

quiet her, for I have her that is not my fault. continued t She went out into the garden, the bot

"What was that?" She started with the ejaculation, and I peered sharp!y at the near shrubbery.

It was not repeated, however, and she ' leaned over the edge of the pit once t desperate crucity of murder in

Judged by Their Hair mouth or other features:

A hotel man claims to be able to read a woman as accurately by her hair as anybody else can by her eyes, nose, I start out in my reading of a woman the better, higher grade the family stock he would fall. After the twist was disinfectant sprinkled in a trom which she came, and having thus I determined whether she is of gentle o together when unaffected by an 1 proc does the owner possess. When the lends, and particularly the body of the hair show a tendincy to curl it is a Infallible sign that the owner has in-I herent grace and poetic ease of inine hair that may appear of the finest stoker usually has four furnaces to at but the Wiggenhall conso. texture and be glossy almost to brill tend to, and while feeding one furnace to the modest sum of $2,000. -may be depended on to a certainty as he rushes to the air pipe and waits till acter, a woman with an excess of es-terrified at the cruel, repellant | 1898, and his rate of growth may be | to float her again. Fully as stran that there is not much left, one of our "When peace has been fully restored, when Cuba has become a part doats over the palace of the governor under the command of Capt. Jan form is the removal of the body Young, there was no finer or ball Thristopher Columbus from the c ' thedral in Havana to Washington, ar there under the shadow of the Capitol way. After cruising around a Columbus was a great traveller time she captured three British prizes she started to return to reording to the best authorities a 1 north central part of Spain, but As the Sartoga carried only eight body was soon after transferred the Carthusian Monastery of Las Cuevas. Seville, where the bones of. son. Diego, the second admiral, l also laid. In 1536 the bodies of both

A Painter's Daring Act.

words "Remember the Maine." Voigt ledge, sixty feet from the base of the Stokers' Work Healthy.

* safer to run away. The enemy t chase her far. but returned. tect and recapture the British pri father and son were exhumed and tak. The Saratoga sailed away in the the summer at sea in the gale or was she blooming up by her own magazines? exhumed and transferred with great state and solemnity to the cathedral There Was a Law to Fit His Case. · Havana, their present resting place.

tidal waves.

I fate of the Saratoga. When she sail

' was heard at Marlborough street. 🛌 as a "checker," having no fixed ab begging in Piccadilly. recently made in Utah and the evi-Sergeant Brown (the jailer) dence of it stands there to-day to make people wonder how it was done. Wil- | man is Mr. Hannay—There is an act o feet higher than the Washington mon- liament which deals with verman

Mr. Lyell (the chief clerk, rele readily consented and the trial was to the act)—Persons must apply made. The start was made from the | sonally under that act to be clear Mr. Hannay—I have gone Bourne, deceased, and is not out of the rope he was pulled up to a pround him. cial note book upon his knee, ' wrote down the evidence with " graphic pen.—London Chronicle.

> The Smallest Public Loan. The parish of History of a Sapphire.

. Her Disappearance.

mand is very large.

oushels against 14,697,106 last year

In Canada, against 40 last year.

OM THE KLONDIKE ...

Tonnet.

-The Salvation Army has just com ed large barracks at Dawson and has

United Ireland, a newspaper esta

City of Seattle Returns With $200.

000 In Gold.

Legiting for Miss Perkins in a car

Sunday two weeks ago. They will Among other cases of disaster while the whether or not they know anycratic in Middleboro. The Perkins PORT TOWNSEND: Wash., Sept. 1 -The steamer City of Seattle arrived yesterday from Skaguay with 150 Klo. as formidable as she was attract thing to marry Charley Bourne. l at from $50,000 to $200,000. Leonard Winboldt, the purser of the a native of London and was 25 years ( delphia. But off the Delaware carries, and thrown into Yellow | Mary's hospital at Dawson: A. Butan was seen with her at Tremont LJames Kevs, Santa Rosa, Cal. Gold Commissioner Fawcett has con ducted his office, and also making spe-

Marion Grace Perkins left Middlebo ersday, Aug. 15, having been granted-<sup>e</sup> Middleboro bakery, where she lalready commenced taking care of Mrs. Sarah Snow. Bourne has been ployed in the Bourne bakery at Onset govern are said to have heard from

A rearly every day since he has been lished by Parnell, has ceased publica-Monday after her departure from the public was permitted to view the Alls Perkins was seen with your ing the cook to poison the king's food. Thursday afternoon, Sept. ?

Ant, a station just north of Onse Alon. Several Middleboro people sav Wage. His father was one of Mid- had a very difficult task before them in cast. The steamship Gloucester had a collision with the Gloucester schooner Alice Jordan off Martha's Vineyard. Nine o Lthe schooner's crew were drowned and | Japanese. 10r Clark & Lovell, grocers, of Denver and Rio Grande railroad in the and car plunged into the Gunnison rest.

> The statement of the st Rough Riders at West Point. us and were accompanied by Colone! origin and unhealed. Some say they es-Brodie and several lieutenants of the caped only through bribing the Spanish i regular army. Hon. Hamilton Fish officials. was also with the party.

Perter Beturns to Washington. unmed with changeable light dison Porter, secretary to the president, and white shirt waist. | returned to the city last night from the carried a vellow hand. | rest ing a linen skirt, blue straw

Day and Moore Resign.

Americans to Withdraw.

the afternoon many Ameri- | mate results of labor. Being well fee naldo was kept busy receiving visitors, of including the American consul.

A newspaper correspondent had a private interview with Aguinaldo, who himself with the natives. He said that a majority of the Filipinos had been the British colonies, of protectorates | without any ceremonies. The commissaid he was unable to understand the erable staff of attaches and Edward idea and only understood "absolute in- Savoy, the faithful and trusted messen dependence." Personally he believed a | ger who has stood guard at the doors o was necessary, but he feared that the of state for many years and who wi' whether Australia was an American Continuing, the insurgent leader said and he had never seen these trou American army and protested his unc ing gratitude to the Americans. He said they had come to the Philippines to fight the Spaniards only, and now that they had finished the task. was to be expected that they would turn to America. He was unwilling believe that the Americans would mand a reward for an act of humanity and he declined to admit the nécessit of a quid pro quo. confident that the newly founded govl ernment would build a navy ultimate I nation instead of grabbing her territo-

Further conversation was prevented by his family, arrived yesterday at by the strains of a brass band, but Gen- | Genoa and is about starting for Spain.

Several Filipinos assure this corre- gayest of colors bedecked the streets Schurman has announced spondent that they have personally wit- and public buildings. In the forenoon trustees of Cornell university have ennessed horrible tortures at Iloilo, the Lieutenant Wainwright and his officers larged the teaching staff of the College feet of natives held to a candle flame | held a reception. Later they were giv- | of Civil Engineering by the creation the most sensitive parts of the body and lie where social courtesies were ex- ment of C. S. Williams, B. Sc., C. E., the various departments by Acting Su. scarcely credible, but there are numer- Long Beach for a shore dinner. In the the hydraulic laboratory. Mr. Willia perintendent Colonel Hein. They came ous alleged witnesses of such outrages and several who show sears of recent and the men attended the theater.

> It is natural that there should be a l vearning for revenge upon the Spanish | Governor Leedy the Twenty-first Kan-

Strike at Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 17 .-- One hun-1 ed and twenty-five weavers and print- ham. Conservative member of parila- by an Egyptian garrison. The Dally WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Secretary died and described by Stinson Bros., carpet mam, Conservation less than been ap State Day handed in his resignation manufacturers, struck yesterday on ac Book by Stinson Bros., carpet mam, Conservation less than been ap Telegraph's Cairo correspondent says this city personal manufacturers, struck yesterday on ac
Book by State Day handed in his resignation manufacturers, struck yesterday on ac
Book by State Day handed in his resignation manufacturers, struck yesterday on ac
Book by State Day handed in his resignation manufacturers, struck yesterday on ac
Book by State Day handed in his resignation manufacturers, struck yesterday on ac
Book by State Day handed in his resignation manufacturers, struck yesterday on ac
Book by State Day handed in his resignation manufacturers, struck yesterday on ac
Book by State Day handed in his resignation manufacturers, struck yesterday on ac
Book by State Day handed in his resignation manufacturers, struck yesterday on ac
Book by State Day handed in his resignation manufacturers, struck yesterday on ac
Book by State Day handed in his resignation manufacturers, struck yesterday on ac
Book by State Day handed in his resignation manufacturers, struck yesterday on ac
Book by State Day handed in his resignation manufacturers, struck yesterday on ac
Book by State Day handed in his resignation manufacturers, struck yesterday on ac
Book by State Day handed in his resignation manufacturers, struck yesterday on ac
Book by State Day handed in his resignation manufacturers, struck yesterday on ac
Book by State Day handed in his resignation manufacturers, struck yesterday on ac
Book by State Day handed in his resignation manufacturers, struck yesterday on ac
Book by State Day handed in his resignation manufacturers, struck yesterday on ac
Book by State Day handed in his resignation manufacturers, struck yesterday on ac
Book by State Day handed in his resignation manufacturers, struck yesterday on ac Book by Stat of State Day handed in his resignation manufacturers, struck yesterday on active cabinet meeting. Assistant Section of a threatened reduction of pointed undersecretary to the foreign that General Kitchener latends to the latends to count of a threatened reduction of

to Be Mustered Out.

This reorganization of the fleet

Il went to the depot in a carriage to surprised to find that his pulse had i welcome his men. He rode at the hea dividually as to the regiment.

PEACE COMMISSION Members Left Washington Yester-

day Afternoon. ', Sept. 17.—The peace lernoon over the Pennsylvania road . He | sloners were accompanied by a considthe secretaries and assistant secretaries in Paris still stand guard at the doors Before leaving the state departmen Secretary Day held a reception and said farewell to all of the employees indi-of equipment of the navy departm. United States navy is so well information as this officer as to the needs of the al stations. He will follow the con.

missioners on the next steamer. Spanish Peace Commission. MADRID, Sept. 17.--The Spanish reace commission has been apr

Senor Montero Rios, president given her approval. Duke Almodovar de Rio, the foreign minister, and Senor Moret, former sec- | rible shock to his family and friends.

The queen regent has signed the join. was resting at the time, but came down olli passed by the cortes authorizing the stairs. They had been engaged in conversation about five minutes when Gen-General Augustin, former captain feet, clasping his hands to his head, and I general of the Philippines, accompanied then fell to the floor. The only exclamation he made was. "Oh! oh!" Captain a dozen American journalists and one Gloucester Receives Her Namesake.

A Spaniard, supposed to be an officer formalities attending the reception to caused by apoplexy. Mrs. Haskell was White House last night that the present Two employees were killed and one ununiformed, traversed the town, sneer- the auxiliary cruiser Gloucester, her prostrated by her husband's death Wing Bourne has been employed as was injured seriously in a wreck on the ing at and denouncing the principal namesake, by this city of fishermen remonstrance he was placed under ar- thing previously recorded here. The evening the officers were banqueted > Governor Leedy's Request Granted. TOPEKA, Sept. 17.—At the request sas volunteers, who have been in camp -- Kitchener on Murchand's Trail. ceived yesterday from Adjutant Gene. LONDON, Sept. 17.-A dispatch al Corbin announced that the resi-The Morning Post from Cairo says that i ment had been ordered to Fort Leaven-General Kitchener has absolute authori- ) worth for that purpose. ty to claim Fashoda as Egyptian terri-

A Specessor to Curson. TONDON. Sept. 17 -- Mr. George Wyndoffice in succession to Right Hon. George sent an un

natives was particularly noticeable. 'indicating an intention to hold slock manned by Maryland naval militia uously oppose such a suicidal policy vana on detached duty, will still re- probably prove the controlling power in main in command of the squadron, determining the final action of the conwhile Commodore Philip will be in com- gress. mand of the second section of the fleet.

INSURGENT MOVEMENTS. probably the beginning of the execution of a programme for the reorganiza-Concentrating at Santana In Strong tion of all of the forces on the variou

MANILA. Sept. 16.—The insurgents

have changed their plans, and instead of evacuating all the suburbs of the city, as General Otis ordered, they moved from Ermita and Malate to Santana. where they appear to be concentrating Wounded Hero of El Caney Stricken t is reported, although it has not After Reviewing His Regiment. COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 17.—Brigadier home at the Columbus post at about | part of Pio Pilar to embarrass the dic-He was tator.

The former rebel chief. Isabelo Arthrough which he had passed during the . I and was reprieved and escaped. is lead infantry at the battle | ing 15,000 men against Aguinaldo. Ar-

I suading rebels to desert Aguinaldo'. At a meeting of rebel leaders in Mamy under American protection. iment returned home, and General Has-Coasting steamers are trading with he provinces under Spanish rule. Aguinaldo demands 50 per cent of freight of the regiment through the city to the receipts of steamers trading with the post, and the cheers of the immens. crowds of people that lined the streets All Spaniards in the northern provwere directed almost as much to him ininces are now prisoners. The rebels seized stocks and cash of the tobacco At the reviewing stand the crowd surestates belonging to the Compania Tab ounded the carriage and flowers were acelera, in Cagayan province, and also ever side. Although not as active as lince. The losses are enormous. Haskell appeared / rugged, and his sudden death was a ter- | sunk by a Spanish gunboat at Marbate.

At 4:30 yesterday afternoon Captain Clay called at General Haskell's resi- ably shipped by priests for Artacho. dence to pay his respects. The general, INVESTIGATING COMMISSION.

eral Haskell suddenly started to his The Name of Former Embassador Enstis Under Consideration. ceased to beat. Post Surgeon Pilcher the commission to investigate the com-GLOUCESTER, Mass., Sept. 17.-The was called and stated that death was duct of the war. -It was said at the ent expected to be able to announce the entire personnel of the commis-

New Professorship For Cornell. Lieutenant General Schoffeld reschie ITHACA, N. Y., Sept. 17.—Preside Vashington yesterday and after a Proconference with the presiden said he would withhold his decision was tonight. It is understood that Gon eral Schofield has practically could to serve, and he will be designated a Two other names are under countries James B. Eustis, formerly In of University of Michigan in city wabassador to France during the success Eustis now makes his home in Men York .- The other name resident

John R. McLean of Ohio. editor as proprietor of the Cincinnati Enquite tlemen have been requested by president to serve and have asked u tory and to expel the present occupants.

General Dane Bred.

forcibly if necessary. Fashoda, the cor-hair to have to do with across the hotel age are six-pointed, while the linited leweller. It weighs twenty-to-counter, and that's the place to find out. States flar carries five pointed stars. Pees and in wined at $6,000.