Rev. B. G. Van Cleave.
 Upon the reception of the news of the death of Rev. Mr. Van Cleave, after a long and distressing illness, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Presbyterian Church and Society of this village:

WHEREAS, we have just learned of the death, at Princeton, N. J., of a former beloved pastor, Rev. B. G. Van Cleave; and
 WHEREAS, we, the members of this Church and Society, desire to testify to our respect for his memory, and express our earnest and affectionate sympathy with his family in their bereavement; therefore be it
 Resolved, That in the death of Rev. Mr. Van Cleave we mourn the loss of one who was an able preacher, a faithful pastor, a wise counselor and a zealous and efficient worker for Christ.
 Resolved, That we tenderly sympathize with the wife and family of the deceased in their hour of affliction, and devoutly commend them to the keeping of Him who was his Saviour.
 Resolved, That these resolutions be recorded upon the minutes of the Session, and that a copy hereof be transmitted to the family of the deceased, and also published in the ANDOVER NEWS.
 Adopted at meeting of Session held Oct. 1, 1898.

G. M. JAMES, Moderator.
 W. H. PHILLIPS, Clerk.
 Adopted at the morning service at the church, Oct. 2, 1898, by unanimous rising vote.
 G. M. JAMES, Pastor.
 W. H. PHILLIPS, Clerk.

Mrs. Joseph Krusen.
 Mrs. Joseph Krusen was born in Meredith, N. H., Feb. 29th, 1820, and died at her home in Andover Oct. 1st, 1898, aged 78 years, 7 months and 2 days. She was united in marriage with Mr. Joseph Krusen July 12th, 1847, and commenced housekeeping in the house where she died.

She was a kind mother and good neighbor. Her last sickness, of many weeks, was endured with the sweetest spirit of patience, and a smile of Christian hope lit up her countenance as she expressed her willingness to remain but the assurance that "to die would be gain." Conscious of her approaching end she bade her friends farewell, with tender messages to meet her in Heaven, leaving a husband, four daughters and a son and also a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss, which is her infinite gain.
 Funeral services were held at the house on Monday at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. V. L. Eggleston, and assisted by Revs. G. M. James and P. M. MacLeod. Interment in Lever Cemetery.

The Genesee Conference.
 Genesee Conference will hold its eighty ninth session in the First Methodist Church, Rochester, beginning next Wednesday morning, Oct. 12th. Rev. Cyrus D. Foss, D. D., LL.D., will be the presiding Bishop. Bishop Foss is sixty-four years of age, and was elected to the office of Bishop in May, 1880. He is a man of eminent learning and fine pulpit ability. He will have the interest of nearly three hundred ministers and many churches to look after. He will be assisted by the six Presiding Elders, who, with him constitute the Cabinet. Their work is intricate and laborious. It is supposed now that a great many changes of ministers will be made. Every Methodist minister in Rochester City will, no doubt, be moved, with one exception, Rev. C. E. Hamilton, D. D., pastor of the First Church, and so throughout the Conference many changes are anticipated, some by expiration of terms, others because either the pastors are dissatisfied, or the people, or both. Then there are some ministers called "annuals," because they move every year or two, and some churches cannot retain a minister more than a year or two at a time. These forced changes cause a vast amount of difficult work on the part of the Bishop and his advisors, the cabinet.

Gard of Thanks.

The family of Joseph Krusen desire to express their thanks to all those who assisted during the illness of Mrs. Krusen and after her death, and especially do they feel grateful to those furnishing the beautiful flowers placed on the casket, to the choir for their music, and to the clergymen who spoke words of consolation at the funeral services.

Killed by the Cars.

The Olean Times has the following particulars in regard to the death of Chas. Palmer, who was killed by the cars in that city last Friday:

"A young man named Charles Palmer met a horrible death near the Erie depot shortly before 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Palmer, who was a young man but nineteen years of age, with a companion named C. L. Edwards, was stealing a ride on the second section of Erie train 77. The two boys were on the bumpers between two cars at the rear of the train, as it pulled out of the Erie station. For some reason, not explained, young Palmer lost his balance, and fell upon the tracks. Several cars passed over his body, and he was dead when picked up soon afterwards. His body was frightfully mangled. He was quite well dressed, and had been living for some time with his grandparents in Almond. His father resides in Andover. The latter was notified last night of the death of his son. The remains will be sent to Almond for burial."

You will find the stock of Millinery complete at Mrs. Mourhess'.

General A. W. Greely tells, in the October Ladies' Home Journal, the fearful experiences of himself and his imprisoned band of explorers as they faced death for two hundred and sixty-four sunless days at the North Pole. In the same issue appears "The Anecdotal Side of Mark Twain," in which the humorist's closest friend tells twenty funny new stories of him. "The Most Interesting Sunday-School in America" is the unequalled story of John Wanamaker's Bethany school in Philadelphia. Edward Boko writes to young men and to young women on his editorial page. It is, on the whole, a capital number of this magazine. By the Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia. One dollar per year; ten cents per copy.

Mrs. E. C. Martindale has purchased her Fall Millinery, and is now ready to supply her customers. A large assortment to select from. A full line of trimmed hats direct from the city.
