Losses to the farmers by the doing | . way with horses as motive power on retty from falling, because that gentle- turned to Miss Willowby, who had seen n. ing off in the demand for hay and Burble's ready arms that she plunged, over the published news of the O'Flartems have conferred upon owners farm lands. The trolleys have doubled . ' real estate in many i stances and reduced the cost of travel to a minimum, observes the Brooklyn

Atlanta, Ga., has been perverted teaching dogs to steal chickens. When this explanation of the disappearance. in his teeth followed the patrol-wagon to the police station. The boys confessed and explained their method of in the old way, by theft from the roost, and then teach a "likely" dog to catch at large and would be incited to at- | were-" without assistance or suggestion. Two was incomprehensible, however, and he continued: "Whether or no Miss Wil- O'Flarretty bowed in sincere gratitude. late appearance, waited on the comdeath as dangerous to the welfare or

The forest fires which have raged in Colorado and Wisconsin enforce the fraction of what is lost through indifway to substitute himself for O'Flarretty as the bridgeroom. No glimmer For the reason that, if the news | tem. Protection would not cost a was occupied by a struggle to devise a destruction of hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of timber, but in the injury to the soil, which can only be . repaired in years, and in the loss of . summer moisture to the lands depending on the slow melting of the snow on the tree-sheltered hills. The warnings to take precautions come periodically. The fire in Wisconsin is the fourth large one in the north. west in the last 30 years. By the three preceding ones at least 2500 lives were lost, and about $3,000,000 worth | . of property was destroyed. That greater loss was in the destruction, as scientists estimate it, of over 75 per cent. of the fertilizing nitrogen in the Philadelphia as in New York, ent conditions. In many of the class- here and read how Mr. Fergus Ferguson | cried. that a private stable was obtained tem- ing the diamonds. porarily and fitted up as a kindergarand in the basements of schoolhouses. Into her pocket, replaced the bag, shut the box, locked it, closed the door of the plosion like a thunderbolt. The door lynx (a golf beginner)—It's a great of the Sultan has presented to Employment of the safe, and remarked:

The Sultan has presented to Employment of the safe seems of being unable to find better accommodelicus for a helf hundred children, had ## a Fortune.

He opened the safe, and had locked entering. She was not saved by O'Flar- put it into his own pocket. Then he re- Edinburgh, in the full flow of an animan had his eye on the lawyer and his his sudden censorship of the press, and mind on the diamonds. It was into who now saw his suppressed agitation proaching them from the opposite diamonds. and they hugged her longer and harder 1. than was absolutely needful in restoring her lithe, light person from an angle | . of thirty degrees to the perpendicular. ing a riddle. What makes you stare so? But it was toward O'Flarretty, and for I his failing to grab her, that she showed and Judge Purry's love of one girl. 's shade of resentment. said; "and you, Shamus, ought to thank | ters. which the Judge declared he'd be him, too, for saving you the trouble of "Me thoughts wor on the diamonds, i darling," he said.

"It seems to me," she retorted. "that i they are quite as dear to you as I am." had been slowly formed in her l mind during the day in consequence of , I prised and alarmed by her own words, however, and with the appealing gesman into whose care she had placed press. Burble took it and ran a critical the conversation, with the air of a of the profits of the play "Little Lord nually by the government is $326,000 the profits of the profits of the play "Little Lord nually by the government is $326,000 the profits of the play "Little Lord nually by the government is $326,000 the profits of the play "Little Lord nually by the government is $326,000 the profits of the play "Little Lord nually by the government is $326,000 the profits of the play "Little Lord nually by the government is $326,000 the profits of the play "Little Lord nually by the government is $326,000 the profits of the play "Little Lord nually by the government is $326,000 the profits of the play "Little Lord nually by the government is $326,000 the profits of the play "Little Lord nually by the government is $326,000 the profits of the profits of the play "Little Lord nually by the government is $326,000 the profits of the play "Little Lord nually by the government is $326,000 the play the government is $326,000 the government is $326, herself, she smiled feebly on her im-"Have you come to a decision. | Purry?" that individual said to the lawyer, falling utterly to discover the evidences of a revulsion in Miss Willowby's feeling. "Is there, sor, any ardu us gayety.

past his clients, he saw Burble making |__ | lowby is liable to prosecution on a con- ) structive charge of larceny, and you, also, culpable as an aider and abettor of 1 her act. I can see very clearly that your case will be bettered by the lady's marriage to-day in accordance with the pro-Burble could not overhear the advice. that was being given. He busied his hands with opening a bunch of newspapers just from the mail; but his mind This loss is not alone in the of a feasible idea flashed from his active intellect on the black prospect. - another blank? He was holding of Miss Willowby's wedding, as it had how to open the Judge's box, becaus? I members of the Royal-Astronomical building, which has just been opened. The been arranged to occur in the Canadian | wished to test his honesty. He has this | Society not ling ago, that in paintgroom." Burble vivaciously cried, glad | escaping with my big."

and Miss Grace Willowby Were, ere I this, to have stool at the altar. inclosure and was followed by Purry: the safe. For an instant she sat ques-I tioning herself whe her she h act had not been seen. Quickly and noiselessly she emptied the diamonds paper will contain the flight of the directly over a blacksmith

Bo this sticle says.

BY FRANKLIN FILE.

"I have been amusing myself, 'Sha- | "| mus," she calmly whispered, "by guess- | was arrested, he lost the thread of | You heard Colonel Burble tell of his altogether. A whimsically troubled

Then he said that the Judge's private box in this sale was locked on four letthe four letters of the combination. Likely T-h-e-a, that being pretty and

"And the diamonds are there, dar- body "They are quite safe, Shamus." The editor and the lawyer were in " | whispered dialogue, too. But eye up and down its columns. "Did they spell my name correctly?" Miss Willowby de nurely inquired. "They're so apt to make it o-u-g-h-by,

"And mine?" O'Flarretty asked with raison for further delay of the marriage "Well." Colonel Burble replied, "your name isn't printed at ail. I made a Cathedral. He performed the jour-"I really can discover none," Judge | change in the types at the last moment. this kind the dog would be taken | Purry replied, as the couple took seats | This article says that Miss Grace Wil- foot, and on arriving at his destinawith him inside ms railing. "The lowby, Quebec's most beautiful and action it occurred to him that a fresh through premises where chickens were | terms of the bequest, you tell me, | complished belle, came to Liberty and was married to a gentleman whom the And there he stopped, for, looking editor did not deem it advisable to a sufficient degree. be depended upon to do the purveying gestures to him. The demonstration "Meaning me, sir, of course," and ed: "Here is the gintleman who has called upon a relative. kindly consinted to officiate. Let the "Colonel Burble and I," said Judge "That's not to be thought of, sor." "The fact is that the engagement.

off altogether," said Col. Burble, in an l authoritative tone. "Off altogether!" Miss Willowby ! rect, his wife and two children arrived

Miss Willowby; and I trust With that he backed out of the office. | phases. "Miss Willowby," he said, the aspects of your situation point lay-until my unfortunate affair with took me for the sake of my diamonds. He has had to relinquish me, but he lion.

doesn't mean to give up the fortune if he can prevent it by a desperate ex-' After a furtive glance across ploit. After a furtive giance across Brett, the English painter, told the postoffice there, a handsome two-story badly told, appears in The Bought these were of far greater value booke. "Miss Willowby is the same Thereupon a surprising thing hap- dear young lady whom I wooed at New after next_Tuesday's election shall I the smoke and smell of burnt gun-

And my dressint doggered is de-off." said the editor.

er who had r

Willowby slipped on a bit of snow in the paper out of the editor's hands and walking along one of the streets in and practice. spection of Havana and its environs, previous year. The output is divided "I mated conversation, when Kemp sud- | ...

Instantly the current of his thought | ness comes high, and that is probably "| why the Spaniards in Havana never | conversation, and then became silent i The censorship of the press leads to . expression crept over his face, and a nervous commotion developed itself amusing expedients for filling space in the newspapers of Madrid . and Barcelona. The most sensational ciated with a memory. I asked the his right hand and arm, which he of Spanish newspapers are now forced eggs "straight up or turned down," it is name of the girl. It was Porothea. kept dangling and jerking backward to print a good many cooking recipes, remedies for mosquito bites, etc., to My guess was that the name contained and forward in a helpless way, as 1 mixed desire to possess her and her of curiosity, you know. 'Thea' is the stiffen, and rose, with the arm, until they were at right angles with the

With a powerful effort he shot out i his hand, and grasped that llief, he briskly resumed his part c man who has performed an unpleas | Fauntleroy" was recently argued be- The Grand Opera receives $160,000

- occurred when he was called upon to amounted to no less than $300,000 in 600 is appropriated toward the main attend a committee meeting, in order this country alone. to discuss the restoration of Glasgow ney from Edinburgh to Glasgow on a 'u | shirt-front would freshen his toilet te i commissioners of the counties, and the other subventioned houses works He bought the article, put it on. "Why, George," cried that "plain may be transferred to the American in the house is large enough to sleet the serious damage had been done in the spoken" person, "what have you been | .

mentary consultation, and we advise in the glass and see what a fright seven churches and a membership of season. *for, fright and all as I am, I have and 26,000 Roman Catholics in the as alcoholic stimulants, for example thoying the great collection of law ref-" | been among the great folks." He had forgotten to remove his travel-stained collar, and there it ap. peared, rising majestically above the

of those being affected only in a mi- nan, one of the most enlightened vou may be able to get a satisfactory nor degree, yet the phenomenon cials in the Empire. sometimes assumes very remarkable Captain Abney recently stated that ! he had found two persons who posto say, all colors appeared to them to train at high speed from Binghamton much work as grown people, and the be different shades of gray. If the reader will look at a photo- on guard and the lives of 200 passen- learn.

infliction called monochromatic vis- acquired a reminiscence the horror of exercise is good, violent or prolon One can sometimes imitate the memory lasts.

effects of color-blindness through over-fatigue of the eye. Thus Mr. ing a scarlet geranium, after work- $8,000 by an American contractor and Chinaman was engaged to paint artist will not know that it is scar- | brick, lumber, roofing and all matelet at all, but will go on painting it rials are from the United States, and "Capecity," without a space better he explained, "is a very irritant color can company. American furniture is the "y" was nearest to the ship's second room, that some at least of the to the retina," and he added that gradually displacing "you can look at green until all is styles. Another brick building, St.

Unmistakable Value.

American school furniture

Elsie – I wonder what it was that patience. Here, for example, is how and Pascal, which has been rethat Ensign Worth gave her a and keep them in a white cage in a the authorities of Paris and se clubs at seventy-five each. I tell you, ter's visit, two fine paintings, and to the Klondike people will invariantly the Emmand of the paintings, and to the Klondike people will invariantly the Emmand of the interest of the Klondike people will invariantly the Emmand of the interest of it's mighty expensive! Putter—Yes; the Empress a costly spray of bril- somewhat deliberate in formit LI cen't see how a Scotchman ever lients. It is to be hoped that, when president of what can be came to invent brary Badly Injured - Explosion Caused by Leaking

Gas In the Basement.

Voort of the building were blown out at hinges quite 150 feet from the scene mense structure to its foundations and apitol. It occurred in a small room

'tightly inclosed by heavy stone walls.i.

ty below the main entrance to the old

The library of the supreme court.

was heard several squares from t.

Colonel Waring, after a personal in- or an increme of $6,000.000 over the 268: Nova Scotia, $6,000.000: Ontar west Territories and Yukon $3,000.000 The latest Englishman to write. the main floor of the capitol. book on this country objects to what demage is enormous. The entire cenhe calls American hotel customs. L disliked to be asked by "a raw, bon lie from the main floor to the subterfreckled damsel" if he would have him wouldn't cut and to have more than all that A Kentucky judge punished a reportin which "the doses are . This British cousin should I him to be sarcastically addressed as of hotels. clear what constitutes the humiliation 1.

A question involving the distribution has According to the School Journal thorough examination of the system been turned off at the meter. The meter of of state-aided theatres, Mr. Paritself was wrecked, and the gas pouring on school age, taught by about 16,000 reaches the conclusion that it is from the main caught fire. The flames teachers, and 32,000 books were added effective. The directors at the special up the shaft of the elevator, which had to the district libraries of the State last year through the efforts of the regarding the system of subvention the superintendent of public instruc- seldom prosper. It Is a Mistake. Angelican Church in Hawaii, which To conclude that the smallest rock.

To imagine that whatever re-1,500, of whom fifteen are Hawaiians. to the after affects. Imagine a man so opposed to for- To eat as if you had only a min Board in China! Yet just that has tasto

To believe that children can to Susquehanna with a lifeless engineer, the more they study the more been a passenger on this desperate at daybreak and imagine that ex rush under the guidance of a pulseless hour taken from sleep is an I which is not likely to fade so long as exercise is better.—Weekly Banque A Chinese Permutation. American enterprise is in evidence? in Belize, British Honduras, the new erint to the effect that while the records destroyed. Fortunatehaving been crected at an expense of bark Cape City was at Hong Ro by American labor. The He produced on one bow the le the fixtures furnished by an Ameri- |. Mary's School, which is nearly completed, will be entirely equipped with od-born (at Rouen on June 6, 1606), so to speak, by the exercise of exceedby a person dressed in white. The which marked it as the birthpi mental effects on a series of genera- Corneille was a bust of the poe tions of birds results in completely the enrance.

i tices practically was undamaged.

ing the pipe. Electrician Gliem, bray-WASHINGTON, Nov. 7. - An exploalon and fire at 5:13 yesterday afte. Throughout the lower central portion of the old capitol building doors, wintral eastern part of the great marble and other apartments are badly dam- ' aged. Just north of the crypt an arch-Talean basement practically is a mass Tof ruins. The force of the explosion was completely blown out, and great masses heavy that the coping stones on the witer walls just east of the point where hurled to the ceiling with such force as to burst the stone and plaster of th walls above. Ponderous flagstones were wrenched from their resting places, and doors were forced from their and walls were utterly ruined. No damage was done to the main foundations Fire followed the explosion so quickty as to seem practically simultaneous of the buildings, as these are of > , masonry deeply imbedded and 25 feet The explosion shook the im-The electric lighting apparatus, cluding dynamos, boilers and wirings, ' capitol building. In this room was a current from all wires except one cired. His indifference to dress is amus and it is a rather interesting fact that edie-Francaise $40,000, and the Odec 100 light gas meter, which was fed by a part of the building. Within 30 feet of the search of th it was proposed to lay the remains George Washington, burned brilliantly. Among the losses which will be most ritt to cast off and come within hail. Chief Justice Marshall and other distinguished members of the supremecourt, which were arranged on small pedestals about the supreme court irreparable loss. Many of them have tated immediately beneath the supreme preme court chamber for half a cen-

is good for the system without regardence books. The library contains is believed that last night's fire will in which to finish your meal, or to however proceed to congress and sions prior to this fires have been startlawyers practicing before the supreme | ed by explosions of gas. Seventeen years the Railway and Mining er it has been satisfied to gratify that the library was very valuable. done to the same part of the building Many of the works it contained would. by an explosion of this kind, and in 187t 1 and thought, be difficult to replace. Li- there was an explosion of gas that kill-Darian Clarke, after a cursory exami- ed one man and came near killing an-

> many of the books could be saved al- loss by the explosion and fire can yet probably $200,000 to the building. The most serious damage in the opin- loss on the library and records, as stated of the justices of the supreme court | above, can be scarcely estimated in dol I the documents in this room are either | Bright, sergeant-at-arms of the senate, that while the loss of | will convene for the present in the room | wreck time and later Justice Harlan selves.

Hanged to a Tree.

the two words. Then he noted the making an examination of the old chant and justice of the peace at doubt to have been due to escapconstred. Only a few persons, prin-Jown With the Stere and Stripes Flying at Her Masthead.

main was cut off. That this might be presented by that sinking ship, which accomplished the firemen turned two we were towing, and the gallant rescue streams upon the main, choking the during the afternoon of Tuesday. gale in which the Teresa was lost began with a flerce squall five minutes before the Teresa's bridge came the wigwag signal by lamp. 'Signal Merritt to steen t had been north. To us the fact that from the Teresa. We repeated them t "At noon the gale had increased heavily in the sea. The Teresa, plungboard engine only was being used. It was turning 38 revolutions when last . The forward wrecking pumy was sending out a large stream over the

"At ten minutes past noon the Leoni-This was the first intimation of the real "Almost simultaneously with the Merritt's next signal, 'Give your orders,' came this from the Teresa, 'Tell Mer-This was done, and her crew hauled in then signaled: 'We shall abandon ship. Do not east off our lines.' The Vulcan last and use oil.' to which the Teresa replied, 'Many thanks.' "The Vulcan's commander. Lieutenant George P. Blow, U. S. N., immediately planned the Vulcan's part in the the Teresa's starboard engine would be lalone and probably the last person giving the Teresa sufficient steering men that he lashed the wheel, came the heavy sea on her starboard bow and leave the ship. still be to leeward of the Vulcan, ena- "It was not until 11 minutes past 5, tures then chosen will give assurance travel on a steamer, being made a di- without an appetite, or to continue account of damage was bling the latter to use oil to advantage when Lieutenant Blow and his officers of majority rule in the upper branch when the rescuing in boats began. "From the first the heavy laboring of been taken off, that the order was given | > each other in obeying orders. "Assistant Paymaster Robert H. reneated. Oil was the first requisite. those on deck filled small bags with it. and Leonidas could be seen, while the beld a similar relation to the contract-

Smith. The effect was immediate in than ever. smoothing the heavy seas near the "Rubber life belts were brought on hours after us. She makes eight knots deck and filled with air, ready to throw | we 11." to men in the water. A bow line was made in every rope's end, by which men ship had foundered before her people were taken off it was the commanding top of the deckhouse, and by means o.

"At 2 in the afternoon the Merritt.

and volunteers from the naval vessels, presumably directed by Captain John L men in the water and pick them up. tor G. L. Holsinger, U. S. N., directed i trew and engineers' force equipped two oll bags. They were launched from the Celenci Bryan Geing Home.

"The force of the gale and height the sea may be best understood by the

of her crew by the tug I. J. Merriti fact that although only 230 fathoms of hawser separated the Teresa from the Vulcan the watchers on the latter ves-| sel. owing to the heavy seas, driving I rain and spray, were only able to see trough of the sea. The Merritt herself although a splendid sea boat, was burthe ends of her mastheads were visible. ""The first boat lowered made in all boats had to make the passage through

"For two hours men with axes, under the direction of the executive officer. resa should founder during the trans fer of her men. Every Vulcan mar das, then fully a mile ahead, was sig- watched the great ship with an anxious naled, 'Do not go far ahead.' Thirty eye as she plunged forecastle head un- (Rep. of Massachusetts), Mantle (silver | landmarks. The intersection of the der' the head seas clear to the turret, Rep. of Montana), Mills (Dem. of Tex- lines showed the position of the ship: coming out—again—with the water as), Mitchell (Dem. of Wisconsin), Muratural from cach successive position the their rescue could be effected before of Indiana). White (Dem. of California) the 100 fathoms of hawser while on the down a little at this time, but the wind way to assist the Teresa. The latter blew harder than ever. Struggling for but in quite a large number of them were certain that the last boatload had congress after March 4 next. during the first hour with ed States navy, gave three ringing or, demands the resignation of Mr. Mo-

This work was intrusted to Lieutenant | gale howled and the sea rose higher |

THE DETROIT DISASTER. Three More Bodies Recovered-The Death List So Far Eleven.

makes the death list so far 11. from some six pounder shells, and they fied as Peter Pelflo, carpenter; Frank

A Porto Rican Petitlon splendidly handled by her captain, Da. Henry has cabled to Washington that

A Section Control

Spain Will Sign Under Prof

Two and Expect Further Gains At Last Session There Was No Clear Majority.

proved a fruitful source of doubt in The terms of 30 of the present senators are about to expire, and in most of these cases the legislatures chosen tomorrow will elect successors. In seven cases, however, legislatures already of Virginia. McComas to succeed Gorman in Maryland, Hanna of Ohio, Mon- | guns close to the enemy? How is ey of Mississ!ppi, Proctor of Vermont and the legislature of Maine, which has shells weighing from one pound * been elected, but has not yet chosen a ] senator. In Oregon also Simon has been elected to fill a vacancy. These changes are: Allen (Pop. of Nebraska). Bate and | phy (Dem. of New York), Pascoe (Dem. ) and Wilson (Rep. of Washington). af the present incumbents is expected. prevent a Republican majority.

way to enable her helmsman to keep lown the bridge ladder and went aft to without a majority will end with the such a skillful way as to get the utcoming election and that the legisla- most out of them is a thing that can ST. JOHN'S. N. F., Nov. 7.-There is land. Sir Herbert Murray, the governpassed it up in buckets from the hold; nothing but the lights on the Merritt Morris, members of the late cabinet, worn outside the trousers. He us or and that Sir Herbert Murray acqui- his head when in the woods and foldexced in the arrangement in all three > amission to interfere before stamps his action now as personal and vindictive. | case of need as a helmet or a dish to It is feared that complications will hold water or food. The women wear arise, wrecking the cabinet and seriously prejudicing the negotiations regarding the French treaty shore al- sava, a piece of cloth wound around ociety of Spanish-American War. LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 7.—Saturday tions will be drafted. the escaping from a burner in that the train by a great many wid Wolcott, 'wore ship' just astern of the compliment is thoroughly deserved, the compliment is thoroughly deserved.

It is under orders to move as ment will instruct Major Marchand to return to France with his expedition be acquainted with his expedition. The wreckers soon as the Fifth regular cavalry are return to France with his expedition.

which one must distincting the second the ship whereon you are is artists sheet of paper and a lead-peuch be acquired only by long and jadlcious training. This does not mean merely drill, though that does much but it means, in addition, a self-training whereby, by force of will, a man can keep his brain clear and active.

The Indian of the Philippines. a short loose jacket or camisa and the t with a broad brim, so that serves as an umbrella in case of nece have seen two women sheiterin t also serves as a basket, and in the l side.—Scientific American.

Dewey's Lacquis I